OPENING MEETING

October 20

ABBA HILLEL SILVER, D.D.—An Untired Liberal

"The Faith of an Untired Liberal"

CONCERT—THE UNIVERSITY DOUBLE QUARTETTE

Douglas H. MacKinnon, Director

Ralph Kirkpatrick, Accompanist

OUR SPEAKER for this evening has been Rabbi of The Temple, Cleveland, the largest liberal Synagogue in America, since 1917. Born in Lithuania in 1893, he received his A.B. degree at the University of Cincinnati in 1915, his D.D. at the Hebrew Union College, 1925, and Litt.D. at the Western Reserve University in 1928. Dr. Silver, each year, receives many more invitations to speak away from Cleveland than he can possibly accept but his interest in the Ford Hall Forum makes him willing to take the time to come to us. "The Meaning of an Education" as Dr. Silver interprets it will give us the best possible preparation for the varied program that has been arranged for this season.

October 27

DAVID SEABURY—Consulting Psychologist

"The Enigma of Marriage"

CONCERT—Blanche Haskell, Soprano

Walter Arno, Accompanist

DAVID SEABURY, who talked to us last year on "What Makes Us All So Queer", will lead us upon another exploration into the human mind. As the author of "Unmasking Our Minds" and "Growing Into Life", he has proved his ability to bring some light to those seeking answers to present-day difficulties. He himself has chosen "The Enigma of Marriage" for this evening's discussion because, as he writes us: "When one marriage in seven leads to divorce, and so few are really happy, there can be no debate that the psychology of love and the facts of our mental and emotional traits in marriage-experience lie at the very foundation of the future of home and state. If love and marriage fail, what is left for society to build upon?"

Every speaker who accepts our invitation agrees to submit to a cross-examination by members of the audience on the subject matter of his address for as long a period, at least, as is taken in its presentation. Each speaker has from fifty to sixty minutes for the address and we always plan to close our meetings promptly at ten o'clock.

DOORS OPEN AT 7.00 O'CLOCK

MEETING BEGINS AT 7.30

TO HELP MEET EXPENSES A COLLECTION IS TAKEN AT THE DOOR.

Ford Hall Folks

Meet in Kingsley Hall, Ford Building,

The First Sunday of the Month at 4.00 P. M.

THE FORD HALL FOLKS' membership is the "pulse of the Forum." It helps determine policy and program. It discusses and analyzes speakers and their subjects. Its membership is a cross-section of our larger constituency and thus furnishes, by its criticisms and approval, the information necessary to enable the management to serve intelligently. Our Hospitality Committee, with Miss Rachel A. Peaslee as Chairman, helps members to get acquainted. Most members bring a box supper to the meetings and the Supper Committee, with Mrs. J. J. Sullivan as Chairman, furnishes coffee and cocoa. This enables members more conveniently to stay for the evening meeting in the upstairs hall. After the business of the meetings is disposed of, we generally listen to an inspirational talk of a more informal and intimate nature than in the regular Forum meeting. This season we shall devote these Sunday afternoon talks to an understanding of the aims and purposes of the civic organizations serving our community.

At the November 3 Meeting—"What the Ford Hall Folks Should Know About the Boston Legal Aid Society" will be presented by MR. VERNON L. MARR.

At the December 1 Meeting—"What the Ford Hall Folks Should Know About the Massachusetts Civic League" will be presented by MRS. WENONA O. PINKHAM.

At the January 5 Meeting—"What the Ford Hall Folks Should Know About the Family Welfare Society" will be presented by MR. STOCKTON RAYMOND.

Membership dues, $2.00 per year.

Discussion Group

ALFRIEDA M. MOSHER, Leader

ARRANGED IN GROUPS to suit your convenience: the evenings are determined by the group itself. In all the searchings for new and more effective educational methods that are occupying the specialists in education throughout the world, one of the most promising experiments in adult education is that called group discussion.

This method abandons the lecture and formal teachings and concentrates on group thinking. It is most effective with small groups, with twenty to twenty-five as the normal number.

The chief aim in group discussion is to lead the members of the group to pool their previous experiences, information, and viewpoints in exploring the subject or question under discussion.

A definitely trained leader guides the discussion process.

Argument is put aside and stress is placed on searching for the complete facts and all the aspects of the problem.

For the past two years, groups have spent one evening a week discussing, under trained leadership, the subject of the previous Sunday evening Forum meeting. This year these Discussion Groups will be extended to our suburban districts so that the members living in a suburb will meet in their own district.

The Forum is conducting a training course for group discussion leaders and intends to develop a large corps of such leaders.

Reading Circle

FLORENCE H. LUSCOMB, Leader

At the Town Room, 3 Joy Street, Boston

AN OPPORTUNITY IS NOW OFFERED you to join a Reading Circle on Economics, Sociology, International Relations, or allied subjects. One or more groups will be formed to meet weekly, for the reading and discussion of some book such as Beard's "Whither Mankind," Moon's "Imperialism and World Politics," Shaw's "Intelligent Woman's Guide to Socialism and Capitalism," Beard's "Rise of American Civilization," or Lippman's "A Preface to Morals." This is your opportunity to combine some serious reading with the stimulating contact of minds. We shall try to arrange evening and subject to accommodate as many as possible.

Ford Hall Forum Fellowship for Understanding

Meets in Kingsley Hall, Ford Building,

The Second Tuesday of Every Month at 8.00 P. M.

"QUESTIONING OUR PREJUDICES"

THESE MEETINGS are being organized as a "social relations laboratory or dissecting room" where members of the Ford Hall Folks will meet once a month to examine and discuss scientifically, under expert leadership, problems of mutual concern. These meetings will be in no sense like good-will or appreciation meetings but will be a frank discussion of the prejudices that divide us, how they originated and what we can do to eliminate them. The procedure of these meetings will be as follows:—syllabi will be prepared on the subject matter of the evening and distributed in advance of the meeting, specialists in the field to be covered will open the discussion, and after examining the viewpoints of the Folks will attempt to clarify them.

Our first laboratory meeting will be November 19 (the third Tuesday instead of the second) on "Questioning Our Religious Prejudices."

LEADERS

REV. MICHAEL J. AHERN, S.J., representing the Catholic group.

REV. HARRY LEVI, representing the Jewish group.

REV. RUSSELL H. STAFFORD, representing the Protestant group.

December Meeting—Tuesday, December 10—"Questioning Our Economic Prejudices."

January Meeting—Tuesday, January 14—"Questioning Our Political Prejudices."

Other Meetings Being Arranged.

Ford Hall Forum Dramatic Society

VERY ACTIVE DRAMA SOCIETY was organized last winter, because we believe that we can use the drama as still another form of Forum expression. The Constitution of the Ford Hall Forum Dramatic Society reads:

"The purpose of the organization shall be to study and produce significant plays, promote and stimulate interest in dramatic art in all its phases; to encourage plays, amateur and professional, stimulate and foster a more intelligent interest in drama through direct contact with workers in the field of drama."

Membership in the Dramatic Society is limited to members of the Ford Hall Folks who pay an additional membership fee of $3.00 per year (payable 25 cents monthly).

A course on the technique of the drama, with E. E. Clive of the Copley Theatre as the leader, is being arranged. Other courses on the drama will be announced later.

Singing Society

RUSSELL A. COOK, Director

Meets at Huntington Chambers

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED in Choral Singing or would like to sing with others just for the joy of it, this is your opportunity. Trained voices are acceptable, of course, but are not the essential qualification. We believe that singing together is one of the best means of getting to know and understand one another. As Mr. Cook so well put it, "we can't all talk at the same time, but we can all sing together."

Saturday Evening Socials

At the Twentieth Century Club, 3 Joy Street, Boston

ONCE A MONTH, commencing Saturday evening, December 14, our Entertainment Committee has arranged a dancing party at the halls of the Twentieth Century Club. Meet your Forum friends and their guests socially. Subscription to these dances, 50 cents per person. Dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock. Other socials—January 11, February 8 and March 8. Save these nights in your social calendar.

Ford Hall Forum Dramatic Society

and the University of North Carolina

Present for the First Time in Boston

The Carolina Playmakers

In a Series of Three One-act Folk Plays of the North Carolina Mountains
At the FINE ARTS THEATRE on the Evenings of NOVEMBER 25 AND 26

THIS IS a dramatic event for Boston equalled only by the first appearance (of course we do not mean this season) in our city of the Theatre Guild.

In presenting the Carolina Playmakers the Ford Hall Forum Dramatic Society demonstrates in a startling manner how effective the drama can be as an aid to understanding. North Carolina with its industrial problems is very much in the public eye. Yet how little do we know about North Carolina Folk. How little do we know about their mill-workers, their mountaineers, their colored people. Through these dramatic presentations you will see for yourself who they are and how they live.

The Carolina Playmakers will present for you three one-act Carolina Folk Plays—

"THE NO 'COUNT BOY" by Paul Green
(The Belasco Prize Play)

"GAIUS AND GAIUS, JR." by Lucy Cobb
(A Comedy of Old Southern Plantation Days)

"JOB'S KINFOLKS" by Loretto Carroll Bailey
(A Tragedy of Mill People in North Carolina Today)

The Editor of Theatre Arts Monthly, in reviewing the performances of The Carolina Playmakers in New York last fall, wrote: "There is nothing that can represent Carolina better to the people of other states, near and far, than the record of her own people in the comic and the tragic moments of their living and their history. There is nothing that does represent them better—no product of the soil or of the machine—than the contribution The Carolina Playmakers are making."

Walter Pritchard Eaton says of Professor Frederick H. Koch, Director of The Carolina Playmakers, "He is far more important to the future of the American stage than Belasco or Arthur Hopkins."

The New York Herald Tribune says of The Carolina Playmakers, "They have a quality of verity and a poignant poetic beauty that can be found only in bona fide folk-drama."

Professor Frederick H. Koch, Director of The Carolina Playmakers, writes,

"I was delighted to learn from your letter that your Forum will sponsor the performances of The Carolina Playmakers on November 25 and 26. It gives us great pleasure indeed to make our first appearance in Boston under your auspices. We carry our own electrician and our own stage crew. We carry complete lighting and scenery equipment and all the properties that are necessary for our production. Our entire company will include at least sixteen people."

We will tell you more about these plays later. In the meantime send in your order for seats to the office in the Little Building. All seats reserved at from 50 cents to $2.00. All money made above expenses goes to furthering the work of the Dramatic Society.

Ford Hall Forum, Inc.

THE FORD HALL FORUM is a popular adventure in Adult Education. It enables one to "keep on learning". Thousands of people from all walks in life—manual workers, clerks, and business executives; high school and university students; teachers and professors; laymen and clergymen; Agnostic, Atheist, Catholic, Protestant and Jew; blacks, orientals and whites; the prosperous and the struggling; the young and the mature; as many men as women—are already devoted to the forum idea and are getting from it a mental and spiritual challenge to be worked out in their citizenship.

The Forum's only support comes from voluntary subscriptions and contributions. Friends of this democratic adventure will translate their interest and approval in the form of a subscription each according to his ability and understanding.

Please remember that we no longer get any subsidy from the Boston Baptist Social Union. We no longer get the free use of the halls. Our ability to serve and extend our usefulness is dependent on the amount of financial aid we receive from the alert-minded men and women who believe, with Justice Brandeis, that "The Path of Safety Lies in the Opportunity to Discuss Freely Supposed Grievances and Proposed Remedies."

Mrs. X: "Why have you never sued any of your divorced husbands for alimony?"

Mrs. Y: "By the time I'm ready to leave a man, he's always bankrupt."

A Pair

Two old maids were planning for the holidays.

"Anna," said one, "would a long stocking hold all you'd want for Christmas?"

"No, Elvia," responded the other, "but a pair of socks would."

Ralph: Has your brother been home from college lately?

Tom: Yes, my bank won't rattle any more.—Dartmouth Jack o'Lantern.

He: "How are you getting on with your German?"

She: "Fine. We're having dinner together."

"Where are you going, Sam?"

"I's leavin' town, Mr. Jawn. Jest received a unanimous letter from dem Ku Kluxers."

"You mean an anonymous letter, don't you?"

"Naw, suh. I mean unanimous. De Klan tole me to leave. I says I's goin'. So dat makes it unanimous."—West Point Pointer.

The Restful Hour

"I look forward every Sunday to the after-dinner nap."

"I thought you never slept after dinner."

"I don't, but my wife does."—Goblin.

KIWANIS CLUB

Mr. F. E. Ross, traveler and internationalist, will be the speaker at the Kiwanis Club Wednesday, December 26th at the Neil House. His subject will be "Is it the Dawn of the Real Christmas of the World?"

Music will be furnished by Lloy Aaron Farrell.

CIVITAN CLUB

Installation of the newly elected officers will take place at the Civitan Club meeting, Wednesday, December 26th, at the Neil House.

An address will be given by Chief Justice Marshall.

Members will be entertained with a Christmas Prize Drawing.

COOPERATIVE CLUB

A special Christmas Program will be held by the Cooperative Club Thursday, December 27th at Fort Hayes Hotel. Each member is invited to bring along his lady.

Mr. Don M. Casto will relate his experiences on his recent trip to Germany as a passenger on the Graf Zeppelin.

A Musical Program will be presented by Miss Dorothy Boyles.

WEKAN CLUB

"Voting machines" have been installed and everything is in readiness for the annual election of officers which Wekans will "stage" next Wednesday at their regular weekly luncheon at Hotel Fort Hayes. Pre-election activities of the various candidates indicate a spirited (not the kind of spirit you may be thinking of) contest, and a record attendance is anticipated.

The weekly attendance still continues above par; which only goes to show that Wekan when we say Wekan.

NETH'S GRAND DAVID ROLLINS STARS IN TWO FILMS AT GRAND

"The Air Circus," which opened Friday at Neth's Grand, has in the cast Louise Dresser, David Rollins, Sue Carol, Arthur Lake, Charles DeLaney, Heinie Conklin, Cleve Moore, Jane Keckley and a group of young students in the aviation school. The first named four all talk.

The picture was filmed with Clover Field, Santa Monica, Calif., as a base for departure of the planes. More than 75 per cent of the picture was shot by Dan Clarke and Elmer Dyer, cameramen, while traveling at better than 100 miles per hour thousands of feet above Southern California.

Many of the scenes were shot in a "cloud sandwich"—between two layers of clouds between ten and fifteen thousand feet up—so that the spectators of the picture could sense the action really occurred high in the air. In some instances, the young fliers, David Rollins, Arthur Lake, and Sue Carol, were their own photographers. The cameras were placed out on the wings and electrically operated. The picture, contrary to most aviation films, has nothing to do with war.

In "Forget Me Not," Christmas fantasy also programed, David Rollins is again featured, with Nancy Drexel. Both talk. In this same three reel Movietone special the Meglin dancers, a troupe of professionals who stage the dream performance, by deft photography are scaled down to the size of the dolls which people the toy shop, and the captain on his wooden horse adds a picturesque and fanciful touch to the interlude, which is an outstanding example of that combination of the arts and sciences which has made the production possible.

Fox Movietone News completes the all-Movietone bill.

MAJESTIC "PHYLLIS OF THE FOLLIES" A SPARKLING COMEDY OF OFF- STAGE LIFE

The sophisticated screen comedy, "Phyllis of the Follies," which opened at the Majestic theatre Saturday, is a riotous round of rollicking situations. What a relief this picture is from the slapstick comedy!

This one depends on perfectly natural yet charmingly ludicrous situations for its amusement, and it gets more deep laughs than pie slinging and messing up things generally. You might call this a clean comedy, although it is almost naively sophisticated, if you get what we mean.

It concerns the adventures of a Follies girl after the curtain has been rung down. This particular Follies girl, played with an effervescent good humor by the lovely Alice Day, poses as a married woman at the behest of a married friend who wants to dodge a flirtation. That's where the excitement starts. The young man in the case is completely bewildered. Thinks his friend is faithless and many other things. The story has a fast tempo and never drags, which is a tribute to the directorial prowess of Ernst Laemmle.

Matt Moore shares the stellar honors with Miss Day and adds much to the humor of the story. To the seductive Lilyan Tashman goes a large part of the comedy honors. She is both perfectly Edmund Burns gains new laurels as the young lover whose weakness is any Follies girl, until he finds the follies girl in the person of Miss Day. Duane Thompson, while her role is small, adds much to the comedy in a brief trial sequence in which she wins her heart balm from Burns.

LYCEUM

One of Columbus' own thespian sons is coming back for a week, starting Sunday, as a Christmas attraction. He is Bob Startzman, who was brought up here and who has many hundreds of friends who have watched him build up through the popular priced "girls and music" world until he has reached the top of the burlesque business, the position of featured comedian. Mr. Startzman comes with his own show, "Mischiefs Makers," which is one of the top-notchers of the burlesque world, and which adds another to the Lyceum's season.

"Mischiefs Makers" was produced by Raymond Harold, and is said to be one of the most lively and tuneful shows of the Mutual wheel. Mr. Startzman is leading comedian and his foil is Billy Lee, another of the tramp type of comedian so well known in burlesque. Mr. Lee's work, however, is said to be distinctive and refreshing. Ruth Price, one of burlesque's beauties, and a "red head" by the way, is the featured woman.

Besides this trio there are Bobbie Eckard, an ingenue of artful training; Marjorie Morris, known as "the little blonde magnet," Arthur Mallon, juvenile lead of the company; and George R. Reynolds, the straight man. From a scenic standpoint "Mischiefs Makers" is said to be a very strong show. Three "big scenes" are featured. They are: "The Two Honeymooners," "Fun on Shipboard" and "King for a Night." The company has, of course, its quota of chorus girls who are said, in this instance, to be very pretty and well-trained.

Through the holiday season the Lyceum will continue with its policy of a daily matinee at a quarter for the ladies, and there will be a midnight show on Saturday. Seats for these special performances, as well as for all others of the week, may be laid aside upon telephone call, as all are reserved.

HARTMAN

"MY MARYLAND" MESSRS. SHUBERT LATEST OPERETTA

Theatregoers here are to again have the opportunity of seeing the "Perfect American Operetta", "My Maryland," a thrilling, colorful, musical romance which the Messrs. Shubert will present at the Hartman theatre, Columbus, commencing on Christmas Night and continuing for the balance of this week with special bargain matinees on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

The company and production is one of the largest ever sent on tour numbering over 100 singers and dancers and besides the exceptional cast of principals there is a rousing male chorus of 40 and a beautiful bevy of glorious girls.

"My Maryland" is by Sigmund Romberg who also wrote the music for "Blossom Time," "The Student Prince" and "The Desert Song," so lovers of good music can feel assured of the high class of the selections rendered in "My Maryland" for it is claimed that Mr. Romberg has surpassed any of his former melody hits in this his latest and most popular success.

The entire country has surrendered to the charm of this delightful musical hit; it has broken all records for attendance in all cities visited and last season when it played Columbus hundreds were turned away unable to purchase seats so an early reservation of tickets is urged as from all indications "My Maryland" will again play to crowded houses during its Christmas week at the Hartman theatre.

"My Maryland" is the story of "Barbara Fritchie" in musical form showing all the historical and patriotic events during those stirring days of 1863 and is conceded by critical lovers of good music to be the outstanding hit of the year; it is brimful of American music—the kind that grips you spellbound, its march numbers and songs so stirring that one feels like standing up and cheering—booming cannons, Maryland belles, military figures, haunting melodies and a continual tug at your heart strings that you will remember long after witnessing a performance, that's "My Maryland."

If you enjoy good music, good drama, good scenic effects and beautiful costumes with a bevy of pretty girls and a male chorus of 40 all with trained voices and the ability to use them, not forgetting the unusual cast of principals and the augmented orchestra then you cannot afford to miss seeing this musical sensation "My Maryland."

LOEW'S OHIO

Modernizing an old French play was the task that faced Dorothy Farnum when she adapted "Adrienne Lecouvreur" for the films under the title "Dreams of Love." The French play was one of the most famous plays in the history of the stage and it was used for many seasons as a starring vehicle for Sarah Bernhardt.

In bringing the colorful drama up to the present day, the noted scenarist laid the plot in a Balkan state and provided a new background for the gripping narrative penned by Scribe and Legouve many years ago.

The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production in which Joan Crawford and Nils Asther are featured, is now playing at the Ohio theatre, and bringing to the screen a brilliant array of military scenes and vivid picturizations of intrigue in a royal court. Court balls, carnivals, back stage of a royal opera house, coronation ceremonies, revolutions and the nomadic life of a wandering gypsy tribe are only some of the many picturesque and colorful scenes which form the background for the fascinating plot.

Aileen Pringle returns to a regal role, that of a haughty and designing Dutchess, in the production which Fred Niblo directed, and Warner Oland is again seen as an imposing ruler. Carmel Myers and many others of note are included in the elaborate supporting cast.

The stage presentation at the Ohio theatre this week is "Step On It," a Loew's-Publix production staged and devised by Frank Cambria with Paul Mall, Burnoff and Josephine, Eud and Jack Pearson, Helen Wright, and the Felicia Sorel Girls.

Bert Williams and Bill Dalton present their regular duties at the Ohio while Frank Cornwell presides over the presentation as master of ceremonies.

LOEW'S BROAD

The film version of the most successful play ever written is now being shown at the Broad theatre.

Anne Nichol's "Abie's Irish Rose" shows all evidence of scoring a tremendous success, even greater, possibly, than the original play itself.

Paramount has filmed "Abie" on the high scale, building it into a mighty comedy drama of love and tolerance, with frequent touches of clever humor, and a cast that is ideally suited to the various roles made famous on the stage for so many years.

"Abie's Irish Rose" teaches us that love can conquer all racial misunderstanding, and that bigotry and the jealousy of creeds are all wrong. Never before

Security Market Review

Furnished by Vercoe & Company, Friday, December 21, 1928. *

Expected year end tightening of credit got under way yesterday with an advance in the call money rate to 8 percent from a renewal charge of 7 percent. While the opinion now prevails that the high rates current in the last days of November will not be seen next week, we continue of the opinion that there will be a further restriction of the supply of money for stock market purposes and that this will result in more advantageous buying opportunities between now and the end of the year. We do not imply that investment holdings of the high grade stocks should be sold in anticipation of minor reactions but think it would be wise to reduce commitments on the more speculative issues.

A situation which may develop shortly after the first of the year is extensive profit taking by interests who have refused to sell this year because of the income tax. We understand that there are a number of operators who are contemplating cashing in soon after January 1st, but offsetting this there will be a powerful source of new buying power in the huge interest and dividend disbursements that will be made on January 1st. Important distribution by strong interests is usually effected on strength and not on weakness.

We look for an early decision by the interstate commerce commission on the question of leasing the Michigan Central to the New York Central on a fixed rental basis involving guaranteed dividends. We look for this decision to settle permanently the pending legal action of minority stockholders.

Providing those working on the constructive side of the market do not become too forceful in their efforts we are of the opinion that, with minor setbacks, prices should work higher.

Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King;
Peace on earth, and mercy mild
God and sinners reconciled."
Joyful, all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With angelic hosts proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."
Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King."

We know of no other words that can express the spirit of Christmas. Some of us are too busy with the Christmas shopping to fully appreciate the significance of the Birth of Christ. The exchanging of gifts and good wishes is the modern way of duplicating the gifts of the Three Wise Men.

The Legend of St. Nicholas brings to the children a splendid story and one all should know.

Christmas, to the writer, is never complete without the carols, which are so familiar to all of us. But the Carol of all Carols in our estimation is Silent Night! Holy Night!

Silent Night! Holy Night!
All is calm, all is bright;
Round yon virgin mother and Child!
Holy Infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep in heavenly peace.

seen throughout the picture. The story has been well told, and the plot runs along as smoothly as the proverbial brook.

Victor Fleming is responsible for the direction, and "Abie" will be placed as another feather in his cap, along with "The Way of All Flesh" and other big Paramount productions.

Jean Hersholt's performance is that of a master, to put it lightly. Once again has this actor scored in a role that he makes outstanding, that of Solomon Levy, the Jewish father who objects to his son's marriage to an Irish girl, Rosemary Murphy. Charles Rogers, whose splendid work in "Wings" and others is well remembered excels as Abie and Nancy Carroll shows herself to be typically Irish as Rosemary.

Others in the cast are J. Farrell MacDonald, Benard Gorcey, Ida Kramer, Nick Cogley, and many others that are well known to the silver sheet.

The Broad theatre presents on the Metro Movietone, as an added attraction, Joe Regan, and Elsa Ersi and Nat Ayer in song and dance acts.

KEITH-ALBEE PALACE

Tom and Ray Romain, twin brothers, will command the "SS. Honeymoon" the "Sturdy Barque Equipped with Good Wishes in Song and Dance" when it sails into port Sunday on the Keith-Albee Palace stage. The Romain Brothers will be assisted by Beatrice Brady, Bee Paige and Jack Ball, all musical comedy players with Broadway reputations to sustain. Milton Hockey wrote the book for "SS. Honeymoon" while Charles Maxwell Smith wrote the music. Harry Miller staged the tabloid production with all the care he has hitherto bestowed on full fledged productions.

Bebe Daniels will star in a hilarious comedy "What a Night" the screen's contribution to the gay pre-Christmas bill. Neil Hamilton will be seen opposite Miss Daniels in this romance of outdoor life. Delightful and innocent intrigues and unexpected comedy situations give Miss Daniels just the sort of opportunities in which she revels.

"The Memphis Collegians", merry entertainers from the Southland, will bring an array of new and snappy material to the stage. The settings promised for this act as well as the costumes and plot will be entirely original in vaudeville.

Sid Marion, he of musical comedy fame, is again in vaudeville and will be featured in his "Divertissements." Mr. Marion, in this vehicle, will offer musical comedy highlights in which he figured as well as in new and original songs. Possessing a high sense of humor, and a knack of getting very close to his audience, this entertainer has a large following in every large city where musical comedy is offered.

Herman Hyde and Sally Burr: 1 in "A Bit Different" offer bright spots from burlesque, a snappy song or two and several surprises. They delight in nonsense, but can step from the ridiculous to the sublime with ease and grace.

Jack Hanley, the South American Diabolo expert, will demonstrate "What the Well-Dressed Man Should Wear." He also does tricks with hats, and offers other comedy features of an original nature.

An additional act to be added to complete this bill.

Last Half

Charles Ray, the famous screen star will appear in person, Thursday where he will begin a three days' engagement, offering "His Stuff." Mr. Ray appeared in many important photoplays including: "The Coward," "The Pinch Hitter," "The Wisher," "Paris Green," "Nine o'Clock Town," "45 Minutes from Broadway," "Peaceful Valley," "The Old Swimming Hole," "Scrap Iron," "The Girl I Love," "Tailor Made Man," "Auction Block," "Paris," "Fire Brigade," "Nobody's Widow," "Getting Gertie's Garter," "Vanity," "Percy," "Bright Lights," "Garden of Eden," and "Count Ten." The Well Dressed Man

Furnished weekly by the Eddie Layton Shop for Men, 61 E. State St.

What do you notice when you first meet a man? Suit? Well, you notice it if it is not pressed or if it is too large or too small. Shoes? There is really very little difference in men's shoes. If they are well shined and fairly new looking they will not attract any attention.

The things everyone sees first are those that have some color—the tie, shirt, collar and handkerchief. Just as a woman should give special attention to the choice of her hats, shoes, gloves and handbags, so should a man use great care in his selection of those accessories which determine whether or not he is well dressed.

Conrad Nagel, the famous screen star, says: "Motion pictures have taught us the importance of detail in everything. The most beautifully furnished room will cause adverse comment if one lamp or one picture is in poor taste. No scene is realistic if certain slight details are omitted, just as no actor is a good actor if he can allow these details to be left out. We have learned that in clothes, as well as everything else, we must be most meticulous about detail. It is not enough just to be wearing a suit which has just come from London's smartest shop, or an overcoat which has been made by New York's most fashionable Fifth-Avenue tailor. The small things one has to wear should be bought with as much care as the suit was bought and should be selected with an eye on the suit with which they will be worn, and the occasion when they will be worn.

"In my latest picture for the Warner Bros., 'The Redeeming Sin,' I was supposed to be a man of small means, but I had to be extremely careful that what I wore was the thing that a man in my position would wear.

"I always believed that fancy pocket handkerchiefs add considerably to the smartness of one's attire. As I see it, the mistake that many men make, however, is that they match their handkerchiefs to their ties, which are in turn, matched with their shirt, which is in turn matched with the suit. This one-color idea, when carried too far, brings about a combination of various shades of one color, and this is usually not so harmonious as a combination of pleasing contrasting colors. For instance, if a dark blue suit is worn with a blue shirt, the handkerchief and tie should be of a different color entirely. A tie with red combines well with the blue suit and shirt, and in this case the handkerchief should be white. If a white shirt is worn, it is well to match the handkerchief to one of the colors in the tie, which in this case may be as bright as one chooses. A green tie and handkerchief to match are most attractive with a dark blue suit. Try to find contrasting colors that suit you best as well as the suit you are wearing. Avoid the monotony of too many things of the same color in different shades."

John R. Patterson, President of the Ohio State Teachers Association (photograph at left), will return from New York University, where he has been since September, to preside over the meetings of the Representative Assembly and the general sessions of the holiday program. Frank D. Boynton (picture at the right), Superintendent of Schools in Ithaca, N. Y., and President of the Department of Superintendence of the N. E. A., will address several departmental meetings. Supt. Boynton will return to Ohio again in February to have charge of the Dept. of Superintendence meetings at Cleveland.

Dr. Boynton is well known as a speaker at educational gatherings. His position in opposition to limitations upon entrance to college and university has attracted nation-wide attention and commendation. He will speak to three groups: Classroom Teachers, City Superintendents, County Superintendents.

These two men will command unusual interest and will grip their audiences with their forceful discussions. The executive committee was very fortunate to secure speaking talent of such outstanding merit. Only the fact that Will Durant wished to return from the West to spend Christmas at his home in New York made it possible to secure him.

Nomination of Officers

Election

The balloting for officers will be held in the lobby of the Deshler-Wallick hotel from 12 o'clock noon to 4 o'clock p. m. Friday, December 28, 1928. Only duly accredited delegates or duly accredited alternates in place of delegates are entitled to vote. The following officers are to be elected. The figure in parenthesis after each name indicates the number of years for which the person is elected and the name in parenthesis is that of the person whose term expires with the end of this calendar year:

President of the Association (1) (John R. Patterson)

One Member of the Executive Committee (3) (W. H. Vance)

One Member of the Board of Control of the Reading Circle (4) (U. L. Light)

One Member of the Auditing Committee (2) (J. W. Whitmer whose term expired one year ago but whose successor was not chosen at the 1927 meeting)

Members of the Educational Council—

One City Superintendent (3) (Dr. R. J. Condon)

One County Superintendent (3) (Supt. H. E. Hall)

One High School Principal (3) (C. M. Howe)

One High School Teacher (3) (Miriam Thomas)

One City or Exempted Village Elementary Principal (3) (Maude Caldwell)

One Principal under County Supervision (3) (Dale R. Rice)

One Special Supervisor (3) (Harriett L. Hinman)

One College Man or Woman (3) (Dr. J. V. McMillan)

Two City Elementary Teachers (3) (Harriet G. Reiter and Helen Porter)

Two County Elementary Teachers (3)

(Mrs. E. H. Daily and Frances F. Minter)

Six Delegates to represent the Ohio State Teachers Association at the summer meeting in 1929 of the National Education Association. These six delegates should represent the six district associations, one from each association and to be chosen from the following who represented the Ohio State Teachers Association at the meeting of the National Education Association in Minneapolis in 1928: Lucy P. Ammon, C. A. Arganbright, Bertha Bridgman, A. T. Carr, Elsie L. Cleverdon, Dr. J. G. Collicott, Dr. R. J. Condon, Clara Dautman, Pearl Emmons, Lucy Belle Evans, Wm. A. Evans, Nettie B. Fehn, Kathryn Haines, Ruth Hier, R. J. Kiefer, Dorothea B. A. Klag, Dora Krackemeyer, U. L. Light, Edith McCoy, Linda Belle McElroy, Pearl W. Mace, Margaret M. Marble, I. F. Matteson, R. E. Offenbaver, C. C. Pierce, Maude L. Shamp, B. F. Stanton, Alta M. Thrapp, Ada Welch, Rachel O. Yaw, and A. G. Yawberg.

Director for Ohio of the National Education Association, the term to begin at the close of the Atlanta meeting in July, 1929. (This is in accordance with a suggestion of J. W. Crabtree, Secretary of the N. E. A. This does not necessarily constitute an election but is merely an expression of the will of the Representative Assembly, the election being held by all the delegates, both state and local, at the first business meeting at Atlanta.)

STAGE AND SCREEN

house motion pictures, the name, the fame and the face of Charles Ray are known to old and young alike. Mr. Ray will offer "Anecdotes, Incidents, Personal Reflection and Comments" on life as he has found it. He will be accompanied by Rex McGaugh.

"Sinners' Parade" a tense society drama exposing the sensational events in the lives of men and women who pose as saints by day and revel as sinners at night, will be the photoplay. Victor Varconi, Dorothy Revier, John Patrick, Edna Marion and Marjorie Bonner will be in the cast. The current epidemic of raids, reforms and padlock proceedings are skillfully handled in this picture.

An Experienced Speaker

Mike: Did ye ever speak before a large audience, Pat?

Pat: Fairly large, I did.

Mike: And what did you say?

Pat: Not guilty.

ALL YEAR ROUND ACTIVITIES OF THE CONFERENCE.

Permanent Headquarters: 42 Bleecker Street, Newark, New Jersey.
Phone: Mulberry 0286

Executive Secretary—Maud Bryan Foote.

The New Jersey Conference of Social Work maintains headquarters open the entire year at the address given above.

The Executive Secretary is an experienced social worker and devotes full time to Conference activities.

In addition to holding an Annual Convention like the one in Trenton this year, the Conference maintains the following all year round services:

1. A state-wide information service about social conditions, welfare work, welfare legislation, and other matters of interest to members.
2. Consultation service on state and inter-community problems, and help in organizing regional conferences on special problems when needed. The Executive Secretary is frequently called as a consultant herself and acts as go-between for local organizations and national agencies, through whom speakers and advisers on special topics can be secured.

3. Special studies of state and regional problems by committees. Committees with projects under way at the present time are:

Interracial Committee, formed in response to a wide demand to study the conditions in New Jersey affecting the Negro. They are making a state-wide study.

Committee on Standards in Child Adoption and Placement, composed of members of interested organizations, both state and local, who are studying the subjects of standards and will report at the Trenton meeting.

Committee on Statistics consists of members of the State Department of Institutions and Agencies and the Family Social Agencies. The monthly statistics of the latter group are being tabulated and later, as the plan develops, the tabulations may include other welfare fields.

4. Bulletin reporting on the progress of proposed social legislation while it is before the legislature and other news of interest to members.

The object of the Conference is to offer a forum for the discussion of problems, principles and methods of social work, to obtain and disseminate information of value to social agencies, and by helpful interchange of experiences to stimulate workers, institutions and agencies for the improvement of their work for social betterment. The work is non-political, non-sectarian and supported entirely by voluntary gifts of members and friends. Annual members contribute $1.00 or more, subscribing members $5.00 or more. The privileges of both groups are exactly the same, but the larger gifts of subscribers make possible many things that could not otherwise be undertaken. All memberships are understood to include a subscription to the bulletin on social legislation.

- I. The discussion will be opened by a paper on The Development, Present Status, and Future Prospects of Teacher Training in Indiana, Dr. Oscar W. Williams, Associate Professor of School Administration, Ohio State University. (20 minutes)
- II. Teacher Training Problems in Ohio. A larger number of delegates are asked to discuss the following and related topics pertaining to Ohio. Discussion from the floor will be welcomed.

Question 1. Shall a minimum of two years of professional training beyond the high school be required by law for all beginning elementary teachers certificated after July 1, 1931? Discussion led by Dr. H. B. Alberty, Ohio State University, Professor F. H. McNutt, Wittenberg College, Dean C. L. Anspach, Ashland College. (10 minutes each)

Question 2. Shall all teachers in service before the above regulation becomes effective who are deficient in meeting this requirement be compelled to remove their deficiency by summer school attendance at the average rate of five semester hours per year?—Dr. H. W. Nutt, Ohio Wesleyan University. (10 minutes)

Note: Mr. Winters, Assistant Director of the Department of Education, will present a tentative draft of a bill designed to accomplish the above. You are asked to discuss, debate, improve, modify, or otherwise consider this bill. The purpose is to center discussion on certain desirable goals and to arrive at practical ways and means of accomplishing these goals in the most effective manner. Discussion led by President J. O. Engleman, Kent State Normal College. J. W. Whitmer, County Superintendent, Lucas County. Dean J. G. Lowery, Muskingum College. H. H. Vannorsdall, Professor of Education, Wilmington College. (10 minutes each).

Question 3. Shall the State Department be prohibited from approving a teacher training program of less than two years in length in any institution? (This would effectively eliminate all one-year teacher training programs in the state)—Dr. L. A. Pechstein of University of Cincinnati.

Question 4. Shall certification be centralized in the State Department by legislative requirement beginning July 1, 1931? Discussion led by H. R. McVay, County Superintendent, Athens County; George M. Pogue, County Superintendent, Belmont County; and Dr. A. R. Mead, Ohio Wesleyan University

Question 5. Shall all high school teachers in all fields and subjects be required to have five years of training after September 1, 1934? This does not mean an M.A. degree but does mean five years of training beyond high school with or without an M.A. degree. The required professional mark for the provisional certificate shall be spread over the last three years of the five years' course. (40 minutes)

Discussion led by Dean T. C. McCracken, Ohio University; Dean C. W. Hunt, Cleveland School of Education; Director John L. Clifton, presiding

Luncheon. 12:15. Junior Ball Room, Neil House. Mr. Will Durant, author of "The Story of Philosophy," will be the luncheon speaker.

Friday afternoon, December 28, 1928, 2:00 o'clock

Dr. W. J. Osburn, presiding

- I. The Relation of the Training to the Selection and the Placement of Teachers—Dr. Earl Anderson, Director, Bureau of Placement, Ohio State University. (20 minutes)
- II. What Should Constitute a Four-Year Curriculum in Elementary Teacher Training? Discussion led by Dr. O. C. Brim, Ohio State University, Dr. A. H. Upham, President Miami University. (35 minutes)
- III. What Shall Constitute Subject Matter Courses for Teachers? —Professor E. I. F. Williams of Heidelberg College, Tiffin. Discussion lead by Clyde Hissong, Director of Instruction, Bowling Green State Normal College. (50 minutes)

THE Representative Assembly has already gone on record in favor of certain changes in educational organization which have not yet been achieved. Notable among these are: the reorganization of the State Department of Education, looking toward a constitutional amendment to provide for a state board of education; the creation of the county school district as the unit of taxation for operating purposes; a change in the law by which small school districts shall be eliminated; adequate teacher tenure; and recodification of the school laws.

The first session of the Representative Assembly will be held Thursday afternoon, December 27th, at 1:30. Nomination of officers will be one of the early items of business at this session. The second session will be held at 4:00 p. m. on Friday.

THE definite statement of the amendments to the constitution which were proposed by Dr. Randall J. Condon, then president of the Educational Council, at the meeting last year are as follows:

In order to carry into effect the recommendations contained in the report of the Committee No. 5 of the Educational Council, I propose the following amendments to the constitution to be taken up for consideration and action at the 1928 meeting of the Representative Assembly.

- 1—Title—Strike out the words "State Teachers" and substitute in lieu thereof the word Education.
- 2—Article I-VII—Strike out the words "State Teachers" wherever they appear in Articles I to VII and substitute in lieu thereof the word Education in each case. (The effect of these two will be to change the name from the "Ohio State Teachers Association" to the "Ohio Education Association.")
- 3—Article I—Strike out the words "interests of the schools of" in line 4, Article I, and substitute in lieu thereof the words cause of education in.

AS AT PRESENT

This Association shall be called the Ohio State Teachers Association. Its object shall be to elevate the profession of teaching and to promote the interests of the schools of Ohio.

AS PROPOSED

This Association shall be called the Ohio State Teachers Association. Its object shall be to elevate the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of education in Ohio.

4—Article II—

- (a) Transfer paragraph 4 to Article IV, "Representative Assembly" to become the second paragraph of said article.
- (b) Strike out all of paragraph 5 and insert in lieu thereof the following: Paragraph 5 at present reads: Such groups of teachers as desire departmental programs at the regular meetings of the Association shall arrange for the same with the Executive Committee, which will provide a plan for the organization of such departments as may be deemed advisable.

As proposed: The State Association shall be organized under the following departments:

- 1—Department of Rural Education—
(a) Rural elementary teachers;
(b) Village superintendents and principals; (c) County superintendents.
- 2—Department of Administration—
(a) City Superintendents; (b) Senior high school principals; (c) Junior high school principals; (d) Elementary principals; (e) Supervisors; (f) Business managers; (g) Boards of Education.
- 3—Department of Classroom Teachers—(a) Secondary (1) Senior high school; (2) Junior high school; (b) Elementary and kindergarten; (c) Special education; (d) Physical education; (e) Music; (f) Art.
- 4—Department of Higher Education
—(a) Teacher training; (b) (Other sections to be set up as the demand arises.)
- 5—Department of Educational Research.
- 6—Department of Applied Arts—
(a) Home economics; (b) Industrial arts; (c) Commercial.
- 7—Department of Vocational Education—(a) Vocational agriculture; (b) Vocational home economics; (c) Trades and industries. (Note: Department 6 and 7 may profitably combine in general sessions, and in sectional conferences.)
- 8—Department of Affiliated Organizations—(a) Attendance officers; (b) Parent-Teacher associations; (c) Librarians; (d) (Other sections to be set up as the need arises.)
- 5—Article IV—(a) Add to Article IV as paragraph 2, the fourth paragraph of Article II. (Paragraph 4 of Article II reads: This Association, for the purpose of securing delegates to its Representative Assembly, recognizes as units for the election of representatives the various independent administrative school units known as city districts, county districts, exempted village districts, the College of Education of the Ohio State University, Ohio University, Miami University, Bowling Green State Normal College, Kent State Normal College, Colleges, Universities, and the State Department of Education as embraced in two divisions, namely, the Division of Public Instruction and the Division of the State Board for Vocational Education.)

- (b) Add to paragraph 2 of Article IV as amended the following words:
The members of the Educational Council shall be ex-officio members of the Representative Assembly. (If this should be adopted it would be added to the paragraph quoted immediately above.)
- (c) Strike out the words "may be granted the privilege" in lines 7 and 8, paragraph 5, and substitute in lieu thereof the words shall have the right.

AS AT PRESENT

* * * However, all members of the Association present may be granted the privilege of debate upon any question.

AS PROPOSED

* * * However, all members of the Association present shall have the right of debate upon any question.

NOTE: The paragraphs above in parenthesis are merely explanatory and have been added by the secretary-treasurer.

AT the 1927 meeting of the Assembly the following was submitted as a part of the report on "A Reorganization of the Departments of the Ohio State Teachers Association * * * ." The Committee recommends that the Cedar Point meeting be discontinued, with the suggestion that any department of the State Association, as outlined in (e), may meet at any place or at any time other than that set for the annual meeting of the State Association which shall be during the holiday season.

The minutes of the 1927 meeting of the Representative Assembly relative to this section of the report are as follows:

Moved by Mr. Bemiller and duly seconded that the section of the report relative to the Cedar Point meeting be adopted.

Moved by Mr. Dieterich and duly seconded that the motion to adopt the section relative to the Cedar Point meeting be laid upon the table indefinitely. This motion prevailed by a vote of 112 to 106.

Moved by Mr. Eyler and duly seconded that the report relative to the abandonment of the Cedar Point meeting be printed in OHIO SCHOOLS and the teachers of the state be requested to give this report a thorough study and the delegates come back next year and act upon it at that time. Motion prevailed.

Famous Orator Speaks Today!

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver Will Pack House Today Speaks On Liberalism

by K. F. Thurston

Today the Advertising Club will have as guest speaker a man of unusual talents and attainments. Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver of The Temple, Cleveland, Ohio. Many distinguished guests will be present to hear Rabbi Silver, and members are warned to be in their seats in the Biltmore Ballroom as early as possible.

Rabbi Silver has a subject of international import in, "Liberalism at the Crossroads."

A report from those who know Rabbi Silver in the East refers to him as one of the foremost orators in the entire United States. He has wit, pathos, humor and great power. His lectures are inspiring and hold his listeners spellbound. Very few men of learning in this country are better qualified to speak on philosophic and inspirational themes.

Rabbi Silver is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, where he was editor of the University literary magazine "The Scribe." He also is a graduate of the Hebrew Union College Monthly. Your program committee is reliably informed that too much cannot be said regarding Rabbi Silver's ability. It is evident that those who attend today's meeting will have a treat long to be remembered. Rabbi Silver was recently given the degree of Doctor of Letters by Western Reserve University, the first time this degree has been conferred by this university on one of the Jewish race. His work "Messianic Speculations in Israel" published in 1927, has won wide-spread recognition.

Entertainment will be furnished by our own Glee Club who will present a group of new numbers. Alvin Kingsbacher, one of the newer members of the Club, will be Chairman of the Day.

Come, and come early. If you can't be there in person, tune in on KHJ at 12:30 and hear the broadcast, courtesy Don Lee.

ORGANIZATION OF STATE GOVERNMENT DESCRIBED BY GOV.

Large Attendance Greet California Chief Executive

by Hal S. Wright
Via KHJ

"You represent the stockholders and investors in the State of California—I represent your General Manager—the nine department heads represent your Board of Directors."

Thus spoke Governor C. C. Young before a large audience of Advertising Club members augmented by groups from nearly every other service club and civic organization in the city.

As early as the beginning of this century it became apparent that the old "hit and miss" overlapping form of state government needed drastic revision. In 1917, Illinois, under Governor Lowden, took the lead with the formation of definite departments and with several other states following. California organized in 1920 our first department, that of agriculture, until today, mainly through the efforts of Governor Young there are nine effective departments. "These departments," said the Governor, "are operated by experts on a business-like basis."

Departmentalized State Government

"The nine departments," continued the speaker, "are divided into two main divisions—First, the Humanitarian and second, the Business, or Material side."

Under the first section we have five departments namely:

1. The Department of Education which is charged with the training of our future citizens. This is the most expensive department of the state. Plans for a Senate Committee of nine to study the educational situation and present recommendations are being made.

2. Department of Public Health—sanitation, contagious disease and disaster relief, such as the fine work at St. Francis Dam.

3. Department of Public Institutions operating six hospitals for mental cases; three reformatories; two homes for feeble minded children; one In-

LEW WEISS MAKES FINE TALK AT R. T.

by Eugene P. Ramsay

Lew Weiss as Harry
Halbeck Sees Him

Lewis A. Weiss, merchandising manager of the "Examiner," was the speaker of the day at the meeting of the Round Table on Friday, February 8. This meeting was one of a series of two devoted to the publication field.

Speaking on the subject of "The Merchandising Service Extended by the Newspaper to its Advertisers," Mr. Weiss gave an interesting picture of the functioning of this phase of the metropolitan newspaper's activities.

The speaker stressed the responsibility of the newspaper to its advertisers in helping them to make the best and most intelligent use of the space they buy. He told of the vast amount of information about its territory that the newspaper is in a position to secure, information which cannot be obtained readily by other agencies.

The merchandising department of a newspaper, Mr. Weiss stated, is thus qualified to render a service to its clients which enables the latter to intelligently market and distribute their products to the best advantage. Likewise, and for the same reason, the newspaper service department is in a position often to prevent the waste and loss of money, not only for advertising, but even by advising against the launching on the market of new products which have no chance of succeeding.

"Tom Nickel Batting for Messler"

John Jay Messler took "Time Out" Tuesday, and now you must suffer the consequences — provided you read this column.

Maybe you'll get a Nickel's worth, tho!

Tuesday's meeting had all the earmarks of a premiere. The head-table roll-call resembled an all-star cast. Herman Nater out-Graumans Sidney on this prologue stuff.

The audience, itself, was a composite of the most representative Angelenos, members of a multitude of clubs and organizations, with an exceedingly generous turnout of dainty and distinguished Angelenos.

California pride ran high — and justly so.

As a governor, C. C. Young is a good business man!

Harking back a quartet of paragraphs, the attendance committee should arrange to have someone wear Sid Grauman's button at meetings. Possibly Sid himself would consent to wear it. I'll ask him the next time he visits me.

And how about Wm. Wrigley's button? Bill ought to be able to get over from Avalon, or Pasadena, or even Chicago occasionally. Another fellow-member I'll look after.

Why can't all our members be like Bill West, of the Western Pacific Paper Company, and attend? It would not seem like an Ad Club meeting with West absent.

What would we do if West went East?

Which reminds me that I knew George Pepperdine's uncle George back East in Springfield, Missouri. He was a highly successful and respected attorney, and the Pepperdine school was named in his honor.

Apropos of Governor Young's splendid record, if Herbert Hoover will only legislate all automobile bumpers into being a uniform distance from the ground, I shall consider his administration a huge success.

And then I won't mind the vote I gave Al.

Touching again upon national problems, I suggest this is our national simile: "As numerous as Iowans in California."

Or: "As unnecessary as a weather forecaster in Arizona."

Lindbergh is not married today but he will be to Morrow!

Bert Butterworth may use the foregoing literary brainchildren in his broadcasting by giving due credit.

Come to think of it, that would make a good name for a bread: "Butterworth" — worth buttering, y'know. Better reserve all rights, Fred Hagelberg, before your competitors read this.

TIME OUT!

In case the Encyclopaedia Britannica should ask me to furnish something for a future issue, I have prepared the following dissertation on "Compensation." Those who receive less than their services are worth work for wages; those who receive just what their services are worth work for a salary; those who receive more than their services are worth work for a fee.

GET YOUR MAN

There's a phrase our policemen and gunmen have copped, That would not be so bad for us all to adopt—

"Get your man;" And the best place to use it in all our fair city

Is to make it the slogan of our New Member Committee— Get your man;

Every worthy Ad-Clubber can make attestation Of the fact he is under a sincere obligation

To bring in at least one signed up application— Get your man.

It is not a hard duty when calling on trade To mention the Ad Club's new member crusade—

Get your man; You will find many live ones before the day's through Who believe if you like it, they might like it, too—

Get your man; Then after you've gotten a check and a name, You will find other members have been doing the same And you'll say, "It's not hard, but a cinch of a game"— Get your man.

dustrial home for adult blind; and one institute for study and treatment of narcotic addicts.

4. Department of Industrial Relations covering labor and employment, unemployment, industrial accidents, etc.

5. Department of Social Welfare—which contacts jails and jail conditions, probation and orphan care.

The Governor of course gave us many interesting items concerning each of these departments which he has formed.

Under the Business Section the chief executive enumerated:

1. Department of Agriculture, covering all phases of agricultural activity, including the important phases of quarantine and marketing.

2. Department of Public Works, which includes 6500 miles of state highways of which 3200 miles are improved.

3. Department of Natural Resources, which covers mining, fish and game, forestry, oil and parks.

4. Department of Finance which audits all bills and prepares the budget.

Governor Praises Council

Governor Young was very enthusiastic over the monthly meetings of the Governor's Council consisting of the heads of each of these nine departments. "Each one is an expert," he said, "and each meeting of these experts helps to operate your state government in a business-like and economical manner."

Through these monthly meetings much duplication of effort and useless expense is eliminated.

"I hope soon to increase the Governor's Council to thirteen or fourteen members," he concluded, "if the Legislature will do as I ask."

GOLF TOURNAMENT THURSDAY FEB. 21

by James G. Sprecher
Chairman, Golf Committee

Through the courtesy of several of our members our next Golf Tournament of the Advertising Club of Los Angeles will be held at the El Caballero Country Club (on Ventura Boulevard) on Thursday afternoon, February 21, 1929.

Luncheon may be had from 11:30 on and dinner will be served at 6:30.

Through special arrangements with Kathryn Burns' Entertainment Mart, your Golf Committee will put on the biggest entertainment of the season.

Return postal cards have been mailed to you and all those expecting to attend this tournament dinner and entertainment must positively make reservations.

Prizes for this event will be the usual monthly cups presented by Hotel Clark, Brock & Company, George D. Davidson Company and Fleischmann Yeast Company. There will be two Blind Bogey prizes of a dozen golf balls each. Don't forget that the Ladder Tournament Contest is nearing a close so shoot your best game as your cards are being matched with others of your same handicap.

Remember you are playing for the $300.00 General Fireproofing Company's desk and the Aluminum Products Company of America's chair.

Your Golf Committee will feel very highly honored to have other non-golfing members of the Advertising Club attend the dinner and entertainment at 6:30.

The expense for this day's outing will be Green Fees $1.00, entertainment and Bogey Prize fund $1.00, and dinner $1.50.

ADVERTISING UNITES CALIFORNIA!

Members of this Club have a particular interest in the announcement in Thursday's papers of the commanding double page advertisement appearing in this week's Saturday Evening Post heralding the attractions of the entire state of California for the pleasure visitor. Not only is the club interested in seeing California united in such co-operative effort as the concert of action by the All-Year Club and the Californians, Inc., organizations represents, but we are proud that the men primarily responsible for bringing this about are members of our own and the San Francisco Club.

John B. Browne, Paul S. Armstrong, Don Francisco and Don Thomas of the All-Year Club's Advertising Committee are all members of this Club.

John Cuddy, manager of Californians, Inc. is a prominent member of the San Francisco Club. As most of our members know our All-Year Club of which Don Thomas is manager, with headquarters in Los Angeles, and Californians, Inc., with headquarters in San Francisco, are the non-profit community advertising organizations for Southern and Northern California respectively.

Each section of the state has a definite and distinctive grouping of attractions to offer the thousands of pleasure visitors throughout the world. The two separate campaigns of national advertising are essential and profitable. Occasionally, however, it would seem sensible and mutually profitable to combine the stories as has been done in this instance and in one co-ordinated advertisement depict the whole of California as the glorious all-year vacation land which thousands have found it to be.

Advertising as an institution in business should be proud of the fact that two of the world's conspicuously successful community advertising organizations should have been the means of linking the hands of Northern and Southern California in a tangible expression to the nation of the oneness of final purpose which animates all California.

We congratulate both the All-Year Club and Californians, Inc., our own and the San Francisco club members concerned and all others instrumental in imparting to this state a new sense of dignity in action which we are confident such an act represents in the eyes of the country at large.

A bright, young, clean-cut, responsible member of the Los Angeles Advertising Club is anxious to make a change. He desires to join a business organization, retail or wholesale, that is soundly established, with modern business methods—a firm that is looking ahead, into the future, climbing the ladder of success and not sitting on top. He is anxious to make a connection with a concern that recognizes the necessity of advertising in its business set-up, a firm that believes in the slogan "ADVERTISING PAYS." This club member has had six years practical experience in both advertising and publicity and understands the fundamentals of each. He has had executive experience as advertising manager of a $23,000,000 organization, has a thorough knowledge of copy-writing, layout, typography, engraving, art, research, sales promotion, merchandising, production and publicity. Phone the Club office and make an appointment to interview this gentleman.

PASADENA CLUB IS ROYAL HOST

by Mike Wade

The Advertising Club of Pasadena entertained and was entertained by the Advertising Club of Los Angeles last Monday evening, February 11.

Our real, live-wire President, Herman Nater did himself proud. His subject for discussion was "There is Nothing New Under the Sun." Harry Carroll and his charming wife both artists, as we well know, went over big in stories and songs.

The meeting was opened by Frank B. Guernsey, past-president of the Pasadena Club. Seating arrangement and entertainment features were handled by the acting secretary, Walter D. Lemmon.

The following went over: Mr. and Mrs. Phil Battelle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schulkins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Porter and Miss Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dwan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bundy, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Elsasser, Charles F. Kohler, Herman A. Nater, Charles E. Rachal, S. T. Crosby and Mike Wade.
