THE CHRISTIAN CENTURY

invites all subscribers to

A CENTURY OF PROGRESS

The Christian Century has established headquarters at A Century of Progress. The booth is situated immediately to the right of the main entrance as you enter The Hall of Religion. It is modest in size but its welcome is wide and its hospitality unbounded!

You are invited to visit us during your stay in Chicago—and to bring your friends with you. Copies of The Christian Century will be available—without charge—at all times, and an attendant will be glad to render you any service possible. May we have the privilege of seeing you this summer?

"The Christian Century Forum"

Every Friday, at noon—prompt 12 o'clock—in the Assembly hall of the Hall of Religion, an address will be given by a distinguished churchman, educator or statesman on a theme of vital public interest. For the month of June, these addresses will be as follows:

June 9—Dr. Fred Eastman, Professor of Drama at the Chicago Theological Seminary: "What the Movies are Doing to Your Children."

June 16—Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, President of De-Pauw University: "The Social Purpose of Christianity."

June 23—Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, Rabbi of The Temple, Cleveland, O.: "Jews and Christians in the New Era."

June 30—Dr. John Haynes Holmes, Minister Community Church of New York City: "Is Peace Gaining or Waning?"

Other voices will be heard on subsequent Fridays throughout the period of the Fair. Acceptances have been received from Bishop McConnell, Dr. Harold C. Phillips, Dr. Burris Jenkins, Prof. Reinhold Niebuhr, Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Judge Florence E. Allen, Prof. Rufus Jones, Bishop James E. Freeman, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Dr. Merton S. Rice, Dr. E. Stanley Jones, Dr. Frederick B. Fisher, William Allen White, Willis J. Abbott, Frank E. Gannett and others.

Ministers and educators in the Chicago metropolitan area will do their congregations a favor by announcing these addresses. Citizens and visitors will wisely set apart Friday noon—from 12 to 1 o'clock—as a "previous engagement" and be present regularly at

The New Films

These summaries and evaluations are supplied by the National Film Estimate service. Estimates are for three groups: A, intelligent adults; Y, youth (15-20 years); C, children (under 15 years).

Below the Sea

(Ralph Bellamy, Fay Wray) (Columbia) Sensational thriller about tragic hunt for sunken gold, with heavyhanded villainy, some thin romance, dull dialogue, vapid characters—but also notable undersea photography and some informational value. Certain thrills too strong for sensitive children.

For A: Perhaps. For Y: Fair. For C: Doubtful.

Black Beauty

(Esther Ralston, Alexander Kirkland) (Monogram) The fine old sentimental story clumsily "modernized" by Hollywood. Children will find some interest in animal scenes, but unskilful direction, amateurish plot and continuity, some mediocre acting, stamp it as unintelligent production.

For A: Crude. For Y: Passable. For C: Fair.

Fast Workers

(Mae Clarke, John Gilbert) (MGM) Raw, unpleasant mess of artificial thrill, crude sex, and loose characters. Heroine a blase streetwalker, hero a brazen, boorish, tough-guy steelworker. Hero's sideline is proving to his dumb pal that there are no "good" girls which furnishes the "comedy."

For A: Trash. For Y: Pernicious. For C: No.

High Gear

(James Murray, Joan Marsh) (Goldsmith) Race-driver loses nerve after smash, drives taxi to keep orphaned boy in school, and later regains confidence, of course. Simple, homely little tale, nothing in it outstanding, but with real human appeal and natural interest in racing scenes and boy's school life.

For A: Hardly. For Y: Fairly good. For C: Good.

Peg o' my Heart

(Marion Davies) (MGM) Hartley Manners' old play about Irish fisher lass who inherits fortune, goes to England, but finds money does not surely bring happiness. Close sympathy of father and daughter finely pictured. Irish atmosphere of song and dance appealing and amusing.

For A: Pleasing. For Y: Very good. For C: Fairly good.

Picture Snatcher

(James Cagney) (Warner) Cagney in typical role—rowdy, breezy, slangy, reformed gangster who decides to go straight and becomes unscrupulous photographer on unethical tabloid newspaper. Fast, exciting action involving gangsters, reporters and police. Some suggestive scenes and the usual rough tactics with women.

For A: Hardly. For Y: Better not. For C: No.

Zoo in Budapest

(Loretta Young, Gene Raymond) (Fox) Skilfully made picture about lonely boy, brought up in zoo with animals his only friends, an orphan girl thrown by chance under his protection. Notable photography, charming boy and girl love story, with great human as well as animal interest.

For A: Fine. For Y: Excellent. For C: Very good though exciting.

The Christian Science Monitor

says of Edward Shillito's

NATIONALISM

MAN'S OTHER RELIGION:

"Edward Shillito is a man of glowing faith and warm humanity, with a wide knowledge of history and current life. He sees humanity today faced with the same choice that confronted Israel in the days of Jesus—the choice between nationalism exalted to a religion, and the religion which he offered, which would have made Israel 'a light to lighten the gentiles' . . . .

"The religion of Nationalism, or of the Communist state, has eaten its way into the heart of nation upon nation. It makes a stronger appeal to men than can be made by a church which only too often sells its soul to the state, and pronounces its blessing upon battleships and policies of war. . . .

"Here then is the great challenge of the day to the Church of Christ, a challenge which it must answer, or hide once more within the catacombs!"

"A valuable and stimulating book, revealing much hard thinking," says The Friend, London.

"Shows up Nationalism as a poison that tends to vitiate the whole life of the world," says The New Outlook, Toronto.
