SOUTHWEST BAPTIST COLLEGE
Bolivar, Missouri

Office of the President
Department of Bible and Sociology

Mr. Charles F. Horner,
Manager Redpath-Horner Bureau,
3000 Troost Avenue
Kansas City, Missouri.

Dear Mr. Horner:

I am writing as President of Southwest Baptist College to express my personal and official appreciation of the Deep River Plantation Singers which gave us, last evening, the finest Lyceum number of the kind I ever heard. We had a capacity audience of students and Bolivar appreciated more. These four men are artists of high quality. They have the unique melody of their race; their voices blend beautifully in a fine dramatic type of performance. I am sure we will want them again and they would pack our auditorium.

I felt you would like to know what a fine hit this number made here and I am glad to give this sincere expression of appreciation. I met the men personally and Dean Pike gave them quarters in his home because our hotels were not open to them. We wanted to show them all courtesy and appreciation. Before they left this morning they went to the home of Professor Buckholz who heads our music department and sang for his son who is confined to his bed recovering from an operation. This was certainly thoughtful and kind. You have a great value in these four negro men.

I really think you have done and are doing a great service because you have built a reputation in the talent you select. I hope to meet you personally sometime. You may recall that I was Dean of Oklahoma Baptist University for a period of years.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) J. W. Jent.

CONVENTION TALENT

PROF. WILBUR L. BEAUCHAMP

Prof. Beauchamp will appear on the State Convention programs at Norfolk, on October 29th, and at McCook on October 30th.

A foremost leader in the field is Professor Wilbur L. Beauchamp of the Department of Education at the University of Chicago. For ten years Professor Beauchamp was teacher of science in the University High School, and for seven more years has held his present position at the University of Chicago.

He has written several textbooks in science for secondary schools and elementary schools. Professor Beauchamp is also the author of "Instruction in Science," a bulletin issued by the federal Office of Education, as a part of the National Survey of Secondary Education.

Two years ago, Professor Beauchamp gave a series of lectures at the University of Nebraska on the teaching of science.

An effective speaker, an alert thinker, to whom both science and teaching are fascinating hobbies, Professor Beauchamp is a highlight on any teachers' convention program.

CHARLES E. MILLER

There was no end of enthusiastic comment following the addresses of Charles E. Miller, member of the Albia, Iowa, Board of Education, at the convention of the Nebraska Association of School Boards and Executives last January. The fact that Mr. Miller has delivered more than two hundred high school and college commencement addresses in Iowa and other states is ample testimony to the success and appeal of his talks. In addition, however, he has addressed many district and state educational conventions, and conventions of business and professional men.

Mr. Miller, who has been city attorney at Albia for six years and prosecuting attorney for Monroe County in Iowa for six years, has been a member of the Albia board of education for twenty years. At the present time, he is vice-president of the Iowa School Board Association.

His education was acquired in rural schools, in high school at Moravia, Iowa, and in Leander Clark College and Drake University.

MRS. MAGDALENE PICKENS

Becoming recognized as one of Nebraska's leading instructors in and lecturers on art is Mrs. Magdalene Pickens of the Mason elementary school staff in Omaha. This semester she is on a leave of absence. She has appeared as a speaker at a large number of county institutes, and last year was on the rural division program of the N. S. T. A. District 1 convention in Omaha.

MISS EMMA WATKINS

When not teaching school, Miss Emma Watkins does a little plain and fancy cooking at Fy Cartref Llawen, her Iowa City home. She is Welsh and Fy Cartref Llawen means "My Happy Home." It is a little white and green early American home built under the shady oaks. Here she lives, amid old family treasures with a tawny orange-colored kitten named Taffy—for "Taffy was a Welshman—"

Miss Watkins is a member of the University Elementary School staff at the University of Iowa, as a first-grade teacher. She is the originator of the silent reading method for children and is the author of various silent reading books.

In a recent edition of the New York Herald-Tribune, which carried a feature story of Miss Watkins, Dr. William F. Russell, dean of Teachers College, said, "Miss Watkins is one of the finest teachers I have ever known. She has energy, ability and a positive genius for discovering the individual difficulties of her pupils and the devising of some clever means of eradicating them. She is a master teacher."

DR. ABBA HILLEL SILVER

Keenly interested in education and social progress is Dr. Abba Hillel Silver of the Temple in Cleveland, Ohio. He has appeared on the program of the National Education Association on many occasions, and each time has been received with heartiest enthusiasm.

Dr. Silver has been and is constantly in the heart of activities connected with the great social movements of our day. He was a member of President Hoover's Unemployment Relief Commission. He was among the first advocates of unemployment insurance in the United States and was one of the framers of the Unemployment Insurance Bill of Ohio. He is on the National Child Labor Commission, the Commission on Militarism in Education, the American Civil Liberties Union, the National Committee for Mobilization for Human Needs and the National World Court Committee. He is one of the foremost leaders of the Zionist movement in the United States. Out of these activities, Dr. Silver brings a remarkably interesting interpretation of current problems.

Having traveled in Europe this summer, Dr. Silver will have new and first-hand facts on international affairs—topics of vital interest to alert, up-to-the-minute teachers. He has been abroad frequently in Europe, Africa, and Asia and has interviewed Mussolini, President Masaryk, and many other political leaders.

Dr. Silver is the author of "Religion in a Changing World," "Messianic Speculations in Israel," "The Democratic Impulse in Jewish History," and other works of religious and sociological interest.

VERA E. RIGDON

Many suggestions on what and how to do will be packed in the addresses of Miss Vera E. Rigdon, instructor of geography in extension at the University of Nebraska. She will bring a stimulating conception of the place of geography teaching in the education of girls and boys. Miss Rigdon has devoted much time and study to the problem of how to improve and vitalize the teaching of geography. Miss Rigdon knows, too, just the sort of help that elementary and rural school teachers want and need—and she is determined to give her listeners the full benefit of her rich and practical experience.

MRS. GRACE GREVES TRUAX

Mrs. Grace Greves Truax of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, is a woman of exceptional ability and experience, as those Nebraskans who have heard her on previous occasions can testify. Says one superintendent, "Teachers of all groups can't help getting inspiration for better work from Mrs. Truax." A county superintendent writes, "Our teachers were greatly heartened with the practical advice she gave them."

Mrs. Truax has an entirely new program each year, which is truly a record of professional achievement. A former Lincoln teacher, she was also formerly employed by the U. S. Bureau of Education, and now has been lecturing throughout the middle west, before service clubs, teachers' conventions, teachers' colleges, county institutes, and universities. She has a happy, attractive personality which enforces her valuable messages.

Her correlations of children's literature with art and music, illustrated by stories, music and children's art work are very helpful and entertaining as well. Her numerous other topics include "Indian Folk Lore," "Character Education through Children's Literature," "Creative Art as an Outgrowth of the Social Studies," "Games and Recreational Activities," "Rural and Community Leadership through Singing," and "Technique and Procedure in Rural Education," and in her characteristically, contagiously enthusiastic way, she tells us, "Have a lot of new ideas in creative arts."

H. V. KALTENBORN

An international figure, editor, author, lecturer, and dean of America's radio speakers is H. V. Kaltenborn of Brooklyn, New York, Columbia's brisk radio news commentator. N. S. T. A. Districts 3 and 6, which heard him last year, endorse him as entertaining and instructive to the nth degree.

His wonderful grasp of public affairs, his bright method of putting big ideas into simple words, his faultless diction and pronunciation, his rapid-fire delivery, and the perfect manner in which he presents all sides of every question make his talks interesting and stimulating.

Mr. Kaltenborn has traveled extensively in the United States and abroad and takes you, by proxy, on delightfully revealing visits to England, Russia, Germany, Finland, Denmark, Sweden—almost anywhere your inclination may direct. He has hobnobbed with the colorful leaders of the principal countries in Europe and the Orient.

Varied experience—as city editor of the Merrill (Wisconsin) Advocate and including that as secretary of the Berlin Professional Exchange, as organizer of tours in America, Hawaii, Brazil and Alaska, and as a visitor at the London economic conference—lends to Mr. Kaltenborn's talks a richness and understanding that few can equal. Mr. Kaltenborn is the author of "We Look at the World" and numberless contributions to such magazines as "World's Work," "The New Outlook," and "Asia."

J. A. TRUE

A popular and invigorating speaker is J. A. True, for six years superintendent of schools in Council Bluffs, and a former Nebraska schoolman. He appears frequently before both professional and lay conventions.

Contributing to education in a variety of ways, Mr. True is a member of the 1937 Yearbook Commission of the department of Superintendence of the National Education Association. In 1924, he was president of the Nebraska State Teachers Association.

Mr. True was superintendent of schools at McCook for twelve years before leaving for his Iowa position. Prior to that, he had held superintendencies at Brady, Cozad and Schuyler.

DR. WILLIAM H. BURTON

An impressive record of professional achievements has been built by Dr. William H. Burton, professor of education at the University of Southern California. His chief positions besides the one he now holds, include professor of education at the University of Chicago; director of teacher training for the city of Cincinnati; and director of training schools in the Minnesota State Teachers College. He has also taught in rural schools and high schools.

Especially interesting are the reports he brings of his extensive visitation and study of Russian and Italian schools and of his special teaching work in the University of Puerto Rico. He was president for three years of the National Department of Supervisors of the N. E. A. and is now a member of the executive committee of that department and a member of the editorial board of the "Journal of Educational Methods," the official organ of that department. He has been a member of four national commissions of the N. E. A. and co-author of the yearbooks organized by these commissions.

As the author of such books as "The Supervision of Instruction," "Nature and Direction of Learning," "Introduction to Education," and the "Eighth Yearbook of the Department of Superintendence," he is known throughout the country.

MISS GERTRUDE GOERING

Undoubtedly one of Nebraska's foremost leaders in the field of commercial arts is Miss Gertrude Goering of the University of Nebraska. Miss Goering has been on the University staff as instructor in commercial arts since 1921.

Always active in professional organizations and always energetic in promoting the commercial arts, Miss Goering is popular as a speaker at teachers' meetings. She has addressed many groups and her every listener testifies to the worth, inspiration, and practicality of her talks.

PROF. A. C. EASTON

Heartily devoted to the interests of industrial arts education is Prof. A. C. Easton, supervisor of practical arts in Teachers College, University of Nebraska. Mr. Easton became a member of the University faculty in 1924.

Under Professor Easton's leadership, the Nebraska Association of Industrial Arts Teachers was organized some three years ago. The Association later became the N. S. T. A. Department of Industrial Arts Teachers. Mr. Easton was named as the first president of the organization—an office to which he has been re-elected and which he holds today.

PROFESSOR CARL E. MUNDT

Humor, anecdotes, illustrations, together with a zestful delivery, combine to make the addresses of Professor Carl E. Mundt memorable highlights of a convention. Mr. Mundt is chairman of the department of speech and instructor in psychology and sociology at Eastern State Teachers College in Madison, South Dakota. His high national rating is evinced by his election as president of the National Forensic League.

Travel in forty-two states and into Canada has enabled Mr. Mundt to experience widely and richly. Add to that his activities as a writer, as a former superintendent of schools, and as a very popular lecturer—and you have the reasons for his delightfully dynamic pleasantries and buoyancy that captivate his every listener. Mr. Mundt is the author of "What Have You in Your Tool Kit?," "How Much are You Worth?," and of numerous poems and articles.

SONGS

HOME ON THE RANGE

Oh give me a home where the buffalo roam,
 Where the deer and antelope play,
 Where seldom is heard a discouraging word,
 And the skies are not cloudy all day.
 Home, home on the range,
 Where the deer and the antelope play;
 Where seldom is heard
 A discouraging word,
 And the skies are not cloudy all day.
 How often at night when the heavens are bright,
 With the lights from the glittering stars,
 Have I stood here amazed and ask as I gazed
 If their glory exceeds that of ours.
 Oh give me a land
 Where the bright diamond sand
 Flows leisurely down the stream,
 Where the graceful white swan
 Goes gliding along
 Like a maid in a heavenly dream.
 Then I would not exchange my home on the range,
 Where the deer and the antelope play,
 Where seldom is heard a discouraging word,
 And the skies are not cloudy all day.
 Home
 Where the deer and the antelope play;
 Where seldom is heard
 A discouraging word
 And the skies are not cloudy all day.

LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART

Key of B Flat

Let me call you sweetheart,
 I'm in love with you.
 Let me hear you whisper
 That you love me too.
 Keep the love light glowing
 In your eyes so true.
 Let me call you sweetheart,
 I'm in love with you.

WHEN IRISH EYES ARE SMILING

Key of C

When Irish eyes are smiling,
 Sure, it's like a morn of Spring.
 In the lilt of Irish laughter,
 You can hear the angels sing.
 When Irish hearts are happy,
 All the world seems bright and gay.
 And when Irish eyes are smiling
 Sure, they steal your heart away.

THE OLD GRAY MARE

The old gray mare she ain't what she used to be,
 Ain't what she used to be, ain't what she used to be.
 The old gray mare she ain't what she used to be,
 Many long years ago.
 Many long years ago, many long years ago.
 (Repeat first four lines.)

TUNE: IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

In the cold old winter time,
 In the cold old winter time,
 Mother leaves her window up
 At zero—what a crime.
 No matter if the rest do freeze,
 Just so she's comfy and fine,
 She keeps her little tootsies warm
 On good old daddy's spine.

JOHN BROWN'S BABY

John Brown's baby had a cold upon its chest.
 (Repeat three times)
 And they rubbed it with camphorated oil.
 (Appropriate gestures included)

SWEET ADELINE

Sweet Adeline, my Adeline,
 At night, dear heart,
 For you I pine.
 In all my dreams
 Your face fair beams;
 You're the flower of my heart,
 Sweet Adeline.

SCHOOL DAYS

School days, school days, dear old golden rule days
 Readin' and 'ritin' and 'rithmetic,
 Taught to the tune of a hick'ry stick,
 You were my queen in calico,
 I was your bashful, barefoot beau,
 And you wrote on my slate, "I love you Joe,"
 When we were a couple of kids.

LONG, LONG TRAIL

There's a long, long trail a-winding,
 Into the land of my dreams,
 Where the nightingales are singing,
 And the white moon beams.
 There's a long, long night of waiting
 Until my dreams all come true
 Till the day when I'll be going
 Down that long, long trail with you.

MOONLIGHT AND ROSES

Moonlight and Roses
 Bring wonderful memr'ies of you;
 My heart reposes
 In beautiful thought so true.
 June light discloses
 Love's olden dreams sparkling anew,
 Moonlight and roses,
 Bring mem'ries of you.

OLD MacDONALD HAD A FARM

Old MacDonald had a farm,
 Ee-igh, ee-igh, oh!
 And on this farm he had some chicks,
 Ee-igh ee-igh oh!
 With a chick-chick here, a chick-chick there,
 Here a chick, there a chick,
 Everywhere a chick-chick,
 Old MacDonald had a farm,
 Ee-igh, ee-igh, oh!
 Continue with ducks (quack-quack) turkeys (gobble-gobble) pigs (hoink-hoink) Ford (rattle-rattle) etc., adding and repeating all each time.

MOTHER LEARY'S COW

(Tune: "Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight")
 One dark night, when we were all in bed,
 Old Mother Leary left the lantern in the shed,
 And when the cow kicked it over
 She winked her eye and said,
 "There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight."

ROW YOUR BOAT

Row, row your boat,
 Gently down the stream.
 Merrily, merrily merrily
 Life is but a dream.

PUT ON YOUR OLD GRAY BONNET

Put on your old gray bonnet,
 With the blue ribbon on it,
 And we'll hitch Old Dobbin to the shay.
 And through the fields of clover,
 We'll ride up to Dover
 On our Golden Wedding Day.

OLD FASHIONED GARDEN

It was an old fashioned garden,
 Just an old fashioned garden,
 But it carried me back
 To that tumbled-down shack
 In the land of long ago.
 I saw an old fashioned misses,
 Getting old fashioned kisses,
 In that old fashioned garden
 From an old fashioned beau.

SHE'LL BE COMING AROUND THE MOUNTAIN

She'll be coming 'round de moountain when she comes. (Repeat)

She'll coming 'round de moountain;

She'll coming 'round de moountain;

She'll be coming 'round de moountain when she comes.

(Repeat, using:)

She'll be driving six white horses when she comes,
 etc.

We'll all go out an' meet her when she comes, etc.

We'll kill the old red rooster when she comes, etc.

We'll have chicken and dumplings when she comes,
 etc.

FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Faith of our fathers! living still
 In spite of dungeon fire and sword;
 O, how our hearts beat with joy
 Whene'er we hear that glorious word.
 Refrain:

Faith of our fathers! holy faith!

We will be true to thee till death!

Faith of our fathers! we will love

Both friend and foe in all our strife;

And preach thee, too, as love knows how,

By kindly words and virtuous life.

Tune of AMONG MY SOUVENIRS

There's nothing left to me,
 Of last month's salary;
 I live in misery among my cancelled checks.
 Some went for cream and rouge,
 And some for hose and shoes;
 Here's one for churchly dues
 Among my cancelled checks.
 A few more statments rest,
 Within my writing desk,
 And though I do my best,
 To meet my obligations,
 I count each dime apart,
 And as they all depart,
 I view with sinking heart
 My stack of cancelled checks.

OH! SUSANNA

I come from Alabama wid my banjo on my knee,
 I'm g'wan to Louisana, my true love for to see.
 It rain'd all night the day I left,
 De weather it was dry,
 De sun so hot I froze to death;
 Susanna don't you cry.

CHORUS

Oh! Susanna, O, don't you cry for me,
 For I'm going to Lou'siana
 Wid my banjo on my knee.
 I had a dream de odder night,
 When eb'ry thing was still,
 I thought I saw Susanna, A coming down de hill,
 De buckwheat war in her mouth,
 De tear was in her eyes;
 Says I, I'm coming from de South,
 Susanna don't you cry.

THE BELLS OF ST. MARYS

The bells of St. Mary's at sweet even-tide
 Shall call me, beloved, to come to your side,
 And out in the valley in sound of the sea,
 I know you'll be waiting, yes waiting for me.
 The bells of St. Mary's
 Ah! hear they are calling
 The young loves—the true loves
 Who come from the sea,
 And so my beloved,
 When red leaves are falling,
 The love bells shall ring out—
 Ring out for you and me.

Tune of SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD

While the organ peeled potatoes,
 Lard was rendered by the choir.
 While the sexton rang the dishrag,
 Someone set the church on fire.
 "Holy Smoke," the preacher shouted;
 In the rush he lost his hair.
 Now his head resembles Heaven,
 For there is no parting there.

DRINK TO ME ONLY WITH THINE EYES

Drink to me only with thine eyes
And I will pledge with mine
Or leave a kiss within the cup
And I'll not ask for wine.
The thirst that from the soul doth rise
Doth ask a drink divine
But might of Jove's nectar sip
I would not change for thine.
I sent thee late a rosy wreath,
Not so much honoring thee;
As giving it a hope that there
It could not withered be
But thou there on did only breathe,
And sent it back to me.
Since when it grows and smells, I swear
Not of itself, but thee.

LONG, LONG AGO

Tell me the tales that to me were so dear,
Long, long a-go, Long, long a-go.
Sing me the song I de-lighted-ed to hear,
Long, long a-go, Long, long ago.
Now you are come all my grief is removed,
Let me forget that so long you have rov'd,
Let me believe that you love as you loved,
Long, long ago, long, long ago.
Tho' by your kindness my fond hopes were rais'd,
Long, long ago, long, long ago,
You by more eloquent lips have been prais'd,
Long, long ago, Long, long ago.
But by long absence your truth has been tried,
Still to your accents I listen with pride,
Blest as I was when I sat by your side,
Long, long ago, Long, long ago.

SAILING

Sailing, sailing over the bounding main;
For many a stormy wind shall blow
Ere Jack come home again,
Sailing, sailing over the bounding main;
For many a stormy wind shall blow
Ere Jack comes home again.

Official Program

Nebraska State Teacher's Association

SEVENTIETH YEAR

District 1

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL SESSION

October 28, 29, 30, 1936

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Hello Fellow Teachers:

From me to you.

Accept please, with my felicitations, this program for the Seventieth Annual Session of the Nebraska State Teachers Association.

The committee has spared no effort or expense to make your convention attractive and profitable. The dynamic character of the program and its high professional calibre will appeal strongly to all teachers and administrators.

The talent on this program costs nearly two thousand dollars. It represents the finest group of speakers ever to be assembled for a Nebraska Educational program.

From you to me.

And what reciprocity does the committee ask for its work? Join us in our

CAMPAIGN FOR COURTESY

If you are a confirmed conventionite or a neophyte, please Be Courteous to our Speakers! After all, they are your guests. Politeness demands that we do not "run out on them." As teachers we should show to our guests the same courtesy and attention we would expect from children in the classroom. Please do not leave during an address or enter during a musical program.

You will gain renewed inspiration by attending every session. Be sure to jot down the "flocks of ideas" as you get them so they'll not be forgotten.

Yours for a good convention,

EARLE W. WILTSE,
President of District 1.

P. S. Take time out for some fun while you are here. Turn to the next page if you need ideas.

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Wednesday

All Convention Banquet—Cornhusker Ballroom—6:30 p. m.

Put on your best bib and tucker and join us at this first general session to hear Dr. E. K. Fretwell from Columbia University tell about "The American School Teacher—1937 Model." The All Women's Banquet was such a success last year that it was decided to give all conventinities an opportunity to attend. The Lincoln Teachers Forum, of which A. E. Folsom is president, is in charge of this affair.

Dr. Fretwell promised us his best after dinner speech—and from those who know him it's 'nuf said.'

Oh yes, the tickets are $1, and may be reserved in advance from N.S.T.A. headquarters.

Thursday and Friday

"Join us for luncheon," say these groups.

Association for Childhood Education Luncheon is Friday, Oct. 30, 12 o'clock—Hotel Cornhusker, for all elementary primary teachers. Miss Dorothy Cadwalader, principal of Washington and Hewitt schools at Trenton, New Jersey, selects a fine topic for her short talk, "Life is Wonderful." Tickets are 75c and may be obtained from Betty Elmen, Address 1427 So. 21st, Lincoln. Telephone F2952.

Commercial Teachers Luncheon is Thursday, Oct. 29, 12:30—Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, East Balcony. This group is fortunate in being able to hear Mr. Lloyd Jones, of Chicago, who will speak on "Junior Business Training."

'A Roman Dinner' at the Grand Hotel is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 29, at 12:30 by the Latin group. Tickets for this interesting affair may be obtained from Marcella Davis, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

State Association of Deans of Woman and Girls are entertaining at luncheon at the University Club at 12 Friday, Oct. 30.

The Home Economics group is sponsoring a luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. Friday, at 12:30, to be followed by a playlet.

The Lincoln Teachers will hold a reception for all visiting teachers at the Governor's Mansion, Thursday afternoon at 4:30. May we who come from out-in-the-state, take this opportunity to thank the Lincoln teachers for this gesture of friendship that they always so graciously extend. Convention always means added work for the Lincoln teachers, and we appreciate it.

Mercados Tipica Orchestra accompanied by exceptional soloists—dancers, vocalist, instrumentalists—will present a program Friday evening at 8:00 in the University Coliseum, through the courtesy of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, which plays host to the convention group every year, by bringing some outstanding attraction to the city for our entertainment. This group through the NBC facilities, under Mexican government sponsorship, has carried Mexican charm and artistry throughout the land.

Saturday

Rumor has it that this is Homecoming Week at the University and there will be many festivities among friends. Let's hope that the Weatherman gives us a break, so that we won't have to watch the Missouri-Nebraska football game under the 'conventional' drizzly skies. And an All University Hop in the Coliseum at night.

Sunday

The Fall Concert of the University Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Raymond Reed will be presented Sunday afternoon, November 1, at three o'clock. We hope you avail yourselves of the opportunity to hear this fine concert.

DR. ELBERT K. FRETWELL

A specialist in extra-curricular activities and one of the most captivating speakers obtainable is Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, professor of education in Teachers College, Columbia University.

Dr. Fretwell has taught in various parts of the country. He began as principal of the high school in Canton, Missouri, and has held positions as instructor in English and vice-principal in Colorado, New Jersey and New York. In 1918 he joined the Columbia University staff as assistant professor in education, from which position he was promoted until he attained a full professorship in 1929.

Participating in school surveys in Baltimore, Maryland, and in Philadelphia, Dr. Fretwell enriched further his already rich background of experience. He has also served as educational worker for the Y. M. C. A. in New York, as acting director of education for the Boy Scouts of America, as director of recreation for the Red Cross; and as organizer of a program of physical education and recreation for reconstruction hospitals for the U. S. Department-of-War.

DR. J. B. EDMONSON

The fact that he is a former president of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, and a former president of the Association of High School Supervisors and Inspectors, testifies to the high national rating of Dr. J. B. Edmonson, dean of the school of education at the University of Michigan. His appearances at the Norfolk and Omaha N. S. T. A. conventions last year won hearty applause.

Citizenship, administration of schools and small school systems, public relations for schools and secondary education are his special interests.

Among other positions, Dr. Edmonson has held those as principal in Benton Harbor, Michigan; and as state inspector of high schools in Michigan. At the University of Michigan he has been professor of secondary education, director of the division of university high school inspection and dean of the school of education since 1929. He has also been summer school instructor at the Universities of Chicago and Pennsylvania.

For five years, Dr. Edmonson was chairman of the Committee on Research in Secondary Education. He was also chairman of the Committee on Reorganization

DR. ALEXANDER J. STODDARD

A native Nebraskan who has won enviable national laurels in the field of educational administration is Dr. Alexander J. Stoddard, superintendent of schools in Providence, R. I., since 1929. As president of the N. E. A. Department of Superintendence last year, he conducted, the consensus of opinion indicates, one of the most stimulating and successful conventions that department has ever had.

Other recognition of his outstanding work took the form of an honorary degree of doctor of education from the Rhode Island College of Education in 1932. His experience includes teaching in a rural school, principalship of an elementary school, supervising principalship in a small town and superintendencies in small and large cities. He has instructed or lectured at the Connecticut Summer School at Yale; at Teachers College, Columbia University; and at Harvard University.

His most interesting contribution to the profession has been in the field of supervision and adaptation of methods and the curriculum to meet the needs of individual pupils. Becoming superintendent at Bronxville, New York, in 1922, he initiated, and for four years directed, experimentation in progressive educational procedures. He was then elected superintendent at Schenectady, New York, and thereafter, at Providence.

Dr. Stoddard has held and holds many national committee chairmanships including the chairmanship of the Educational Policies Commission of the N. E. A. and the Department of Superintendence (appointed in January, 1936); of the Committee on Administration of School Health Work in the White House Conference; and of the National Committee on Economic Education.

PROF. ROY W. HATCH

The teaching of a demonstration class on "How to Teach the Controversial Issues" by Prof. Roy W. Hatch was concededly one of the highlights of the N. E. A. Department of Superintendence meeting in St. Louis last February. N.S.T.A. is proud to offer its members the rare opportunity of seeing a similar demonstration by Professor Hatch at the Omaha and Lincoln conventions this fall.

After teaching in the high schools of Boston and vicinity, Professor Hatch then spent ten years as instructor in the Horace Mann school in Teachers College, Columbia University. Since 1927, he has been at the State Teachers College in Montclair, N. J., where he is head of the department of social studies.

Nearly every teacher is familiar with the "Our World Today" series by Professors Stull and Hatch. Professor Hatch is also the author of "Training in Citizenship" and co-author of "Selected Readings in English History." He contributes frequently to educational journals and is in constant demand as a lecturer at teachers' conventions and meetings of civic organizations.

Dr. Horn has done extensive work as a member of the Commission appointed by the American Historical Association, for the Investigation of the Social Studies in the Schools. Reading is another of his deep interests, and one of his favorite topics is "New Data on Reading." Dr. Silver has been and is constantly in the heart of activities connected with the great social movements of our day. He was a member of President Hoover's Unemployment Relief Commission. He was among the first advocates of unemployment insurance in the United States and was one of the framers of the Unemployment Insurance Bill of Ohio. He is on the National Child Labor Commission, the Commission on Militarism in Education, the American Civil Liberties Union, the National Committee for Mobilization for Human Needs and the National World Court Committee. He is one of the foremost leaders of the Zionist movement in the United States. Out of these activities, Dr. Silver brings a remarkably interesting interpretation of current problems.

Having traveled in Europe this summer, Dr. Silver will have new and first-hand facts on international affairs—topics of vital interest to alert, up-to-the-minute teachers. He has been abroad frequently in Europe, Africa and Asia and has interviewed Mussolini, President Masaryk and many other political leaders.

DR. PAUL B. SEARS

An author of a best-seller and a botanist of international repute—what better guarantee could be given of the stimulating message to be brought Nebraska teachers by Dr. Paul B. Sears, himself a one-time Nebraskan?

The best-seller is "Deserts on the March". His study in preparation for this publication took him over a good deal of eastern North America and took him also back thousands of years in time.

Dr. Sears taught at Ohio State University until the outbreak of the war, in which he served until after the Armistice. From 1919 to 1927, he taught in the University of Nebraska botany department, and since 1927, has been head of the department of botany at the University of Oklahoma.

Dr. Sears spent some time in England, working with the late William Bateson, and traveled on the continent. He has done field work in botany largely through the central states and has visited most of the United States. During the war he made some of the earliest studies of vegetation by means of the airplane in Florida.

From childhood he has been interested in nature and human nature, with the chief emphasis on the former. He brings to his listeners a keen appreciation of plants, which, like human beings, struggle against the handicaps of environment, compete with one another and get adjusted to the world as they find it.

H. V. KALTENBORN

An international figure, editor, author, lecturer, and dean of America's radio speakers is H. V. Kaltenborn of Brooklyn, New York, Columbia's brisk radio news commentator. N.S.T.A. Districts 3 and 6 who heard him last year, endorse him as entertaining and instructive to the nth degree.

His wonderful grasp of public affairs, his bright method of putting big ideas into simple words, his faultless diction and pronunciation, his rapid-fire delivery, and the perfect manner in which he presents all sides of every question make his talks interesting and stimulating.

Mr. Kaltenborn has traveled extensively in the United States and abroad and takes you, by proxy, on delightfully revealing visits to England, Russia, Germany, Finland, Denmark, Sweden—almost anywhere where your inclination may direct. He has hobnobbed with the colorful leaders of the principal countries in Europe and the Orient.

Varied experience—beginning with his work as city editor of the Morrill (Wisconsin) Advocate and including that as secretary of the Berlin Professional Exchange, as organizer of tours in America, Hawaii, Brazil and Alaska, and as a visitor at the London economic conference—lends to Mr. Kaltenborn's talks a richness and understanding that few can equal. This year she holds the principalship for both the Washington and the Hewitt schools.

Further evidence of the high recognition accorded to Miss Cadwallader is embodied in the fact that for two years she served as secretary-treasurer of the National Association for Childhood Education and for a similar period served as president of the Trenton Kindergarten Primary Association.

Miss Cadwallader's experience has been further enriched through her services as a teacher of teachers since she has been instructor in methods during summer sessions at the College of William and Mary and for six additional summer sessions has taught at the Massachusetts State Teachers College at Hyannis.

COURTESY PROGRAM

The Omaha Chamber of Commerce is presenting a Courtesy Program for the members of the N. S. T. A. District No. 2 on Thursday evening, October 29, at the City Auditorium:

"Senor Mercado's Tipica Mexican Orchestra with native instruments, colorful costumes, solo dances, and Mexican, Spanish, and Indian Music."

This orchestra brings to Nebraska the romance of Mexico in melody.

Senor Angell J. Mercado, distinguished director, has received high recognition from the Mexican Government for his musical and artistic accomplishments. A skilled violinist himself, trained at the Conservatory at Puebla, Mexico, Senor Mercado has achieved fame as a director and conductor. For thirteen weeks last winter, his orchestra was sponsored by the Mexican Government for a series of broadcasts over the nation-wide facilities of NBC. Great interest attends the first American tour of this exceptional attraction.

Besides this brilliant director, the orchestra includes such artists of Concert, Opera, and Radio fame as Gustavo Carrasco, tenor; Lolita Valdez, soprano; the Ojeda Dancers; and Sarita Sanchez, salterist.

The salterio has undergone few changes since the days of the poet-king David whose songs were accompanied by the music of an earlier counterpart of the salterio.

With gay abandon the Ojeda Dancers present their authentic dances in beautifully embroidered costumes. This internationally known couple has filled extensive engagements in Mexico, Porto Rico, Cuba, and the United States. Last March they were featured at a reception given by the Mexican

CONVENTION SPEAKERS

Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell

A specialist in extra-curricular activities and one of the most captivating speakers obtainable is Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, professor of education in Teachers' College, Columbia University.

Dr. Fretwell has taught in various parts of the country. He began as principal of the high school in Canton, Missouri, and has held positions as instructor in English and vice principal in Colorado, New Jersey, and New York. In 1918 he joined the Columbia University staff as assistant professor in education, from which position he was promoted until he attained a full professorship in 1929.

Participating in school surveys in Baltimore, Maryland, and in Philadelphia, Dr. Fretwell enriched further his already rich background of experience. He has also served as educational worker for the Y. M. C. A. in New York, as acting director of education for the Boy Scouts of America, as director of recreation for the Red Cross, and as organizer of a program of physical education and recreation for reconstruction hospitals for the U. S. Department of War.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver

Keenly interested in education and social progress is Dr. Abba Hillel Silver of the Temple in Cleveland Ohio. He has appeared on the programs of the National Education Association on many occasions, and each time has been received with heartiest enthusiasm.

Dr. Silver has been and is constantly in the heart of activities connected with the great social movements of our day. He was a member of President Hoover's Unemployment Relief Commission. He was among the first advocates of unemployment insurance in the United States and was one of the framers of the Unemployment Insurance Bill of Ohio. He is on the National Child Labor Commission, the Commission on Militarism in Education, the American Civil Liberties Union, the National Committee for Mobilization for Human Needs, and the National World Court Committee. He is one of the foremost leaders of the Zionist movement in the United States. Out of these activities, Dr. Silver brings a remarkably interesting interpretation of current problems.

Traveling in Europe this summer, Dr. Silver will have new and first-hand facts on international affairs — topics of vital interest to alert, up-to-the-minute teachers. He has been abroad frequently in Europe, Africa, and Asia and has interviewed Mussolini, President Masaryk, and many other political leaders.

Dr. Silver is the author of "Religion in a Changing World," "Messianic Speculations in Israel," "The Democratic Impulse in Jewish History," and other works of religious and sociological interest.

Newton W. Gaines

Professor Gaines is perhaps one of Nebraska's best known speakers. A specialist on problems of community interest, Mr. Gaines is always a hit. He has appeared in northeast Nebraska on a number of occasions, and his delightful manner of presentation and his timely topics make his return calls most welcome.

Dr. Wilbur L. Beauchamp

A foremost leader in the field of science and science teaching is Professor Wilbur L. Beauchamp of the Department of Education at the University of Chicago. For ten years, Professor Beauchamp was teacher of science in the University High School, and for seven more years has held his present position at the University of Chicago.

He has written several textbooks in science for secondary schools and elementary schools. Professor Beauchamp is also the author of "Instruction in Science," a bulletin issued by the Federal Office of Education, as a part of the National Survey of Secondary Education.

Two years ago Professor Beauchamp gave a series of lectures at the University of Nebraska on the teaching of science.

An effective speaker, and alert thinker to whom both science and teaching are fascinating hobbies, Professor Beauchamp is a highlight on any teachers' convention program.

Dean Hattie Moore Mitchell

A devoted and long-time friend of rural education is Hattie Moore Mitchell, dean of women at the Kansas State Teachers College in Pittsburg, Kansas. Her previous visits to Nebraska won her many enthusiastic followers, and a hearty welcome awaits her return to the state this year.

Dean Mitchell continues her study of rural school problems with unabated zest. Consequently, she has an unfailing store of up-to-the-minute, helpful suggestions and a most invigorating philosophy to offer all those who hear her. Her superior speaking ability, her forceful presentation of her message, and her contagious enthusiasm for educational work contribute to making her messages eminently worth while.

W. H. Browne

Coach Browne, as he is better known, is one of the main cogs in the machinery that produces good athletes at the University of Nebraska. While Coach at Lincoln High School he established a record that has few equals, in making Lincoln High an institution known from coast to coast.

Today, as associate football coach and as head coach of basketball, he is assisting in no small degree to put the name of "Cornhuskers" in scarlet letters at the top in national competition.

Browne, always a favorite speaker at athletic meetings, will appear Friday morning in Norfolk.

D. L. Gross
