Hymn, "Old Hundredth," Unannounced, the Congregation standing

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.

For why, the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Chant

The Congregation, standing, joins

O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.
For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.
In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.
The sea is his and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.
O come, let us worship and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.
For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: and with righteousness to judge the world and the people with his truth.
Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible: the only wise God,
Be honor and glory through Jesus Christ: forever and ever. AMEN.

Autograph Manuscripts of English and American Poets from the Poetry Room.

Harvard's Growth before the Revolution: Books and Papers from the Archives of the Governing Boards.

†Open to the Public

COMMENCEMENT, JUNE 18, 1936

Admission to the Yard

The Yard will be closed to the public on Commencement Day, and only members of the Governing Boards of the University, officers of instruction and administration, students and alumni will be admitted. Women and children will not be admitted. No cameras will be allowed in the Yard.

The Johnston, McKean, and Dudley gates will be used.

Commencement Tickets

The Commencement exercises will be held in the Sever Quadrangle at 10 A.M. The gates will be open from 9.30 to 10, and holders of tickets will enter the Quadrangle by the gates on Quincy Street. The street will be closed to all vehicular traffic from 10 A.M. to 12 M. No one will be admitted to the Quadrangle without a ticket except those authorized to join the Commencement procession. The public will not be admitted. The entrance to the Quadrangle from the Yard is reserved for the Commencement procession. No cameras will be allowed in the Quadrangle.

The object of conferring the degrees in the Sever Quadrangle is to provide additional seats for the families and friends of all students in the graduating classes. Those candidates who desire tickets for their families must send in their applications to the Deans of the various schools. The number of tickets for each applicant will depend on the number of tickets assigned to his particular school. These tickets must not be used personally by candidates for degrees, as they are to march in the Commencement procession.

Members of Faculties do not need tickets for themselves, as they are entitled to join the Commencement procession. Each member of a Faculty may apply for one ticket for the use of a member of his family. Officers of instruction and administration not members of Faculties may apply for admission tickets for their personal use. They are not entitled to apply for tickets for their families. Applications should be made to the University Marshal, Wadsworth House.

Alumni do not need tickets for themselves, as all alumni may join the President's procession in order of seniority.

Alumni of more than thirty years' standing will have seats on the platform; the younger alumni will be assigned seats elsewhere, but a number will probably have to stand. Alumni are not entitled to apply for seats for their families.

A limited number of admission tickets for standing room only will be available for students in the University not graduating. These may be had on application to the Deans of the various Faculties.

Commencement Procession

The Governing Boards of the University, members of Faculties, guests and alumni are requested to assemble in front of Massachusetts Hall at 9.45 A.M. Candidates for degrees, in gowns or dark clothes, will assemble under the direction of their respective marshals at 9.45 o'clock in the following order: — All speakers and the candidates for the degrees of A.B. and Adj. A., near the east end of Holworthy Hall. Candidates for S.B., near the west end of Holworthy Hall. Candidates for A.M., M.F., Ph.D.; S.B. in Engin., in Indus. Chem., and in Engin. and Bus. Admin., S.M., S.M. in Engin. and in Indus. Chem., S.D.; Ed.M., Ed.D.; M.Arch., M.L.A., M.C.P.; M.B.A., and D.C.S., in front of Stoughton Hall. Candidates for D.M.D., M.D., D.M.S., M.P.H., D.P.H.; LL.B., LL.M., S.J.D.; S.T.B., S.T.M., and Th.D., along the diagonal path from Thayer Hall to Hollis Hall.

Change of Program in Case of Rain

In case of rain, the degrees will be conferred in Sanders Theatre and different tickets will be needed as "Quadrangle" tickets do not admit to the Theatre. Owing to the small size of the Theatre, only a limited number of tickets will be available. These rain tickets will be distributed with the "Quadrangle" tickets.

Professors and Associate Professors only will be provided with one Sanders Theatre ticket each. Members of Faculties below the rank of Associate Professor cannot have any Sanders Theatre tickets. All ticket holders will enter from Kirkland Street by the north transept door. Only alumni of at least twenty-five years' standing are entitled to join the procession. Owing to lack of space, members of Faculties below the rank of Associate Professor, officers of instruction and administration not Faculty members, alumni of less than twenty-five years' standing, and students of non-graduating classes cannot be admitted to the Theatre.

In case of rain the Commencement procession will be formed in Memorial Hall.

Officers, guests, and alumni of the University of at least twenty-five years' standing will enter by the south door of the transept and assemble along the north side of Memorial Hall.

The GAZETTE is published by Harvard University weekly during term-time. Announcements should be directed to the Publication Office, Lehman Hall, and must be received not later than Wednesday of each week. Subscription price, $1.50 a year, payable in advance; check or money order, made payable to the order of the Harvard University Press, should be sent to the Harvard University Press, Randall Hall.

[Entered as second-class matter, March 3, 1906, at Boston, Mass., under the act of Congress of July 16, 1894.]

Candidates for degrees will enter by the west door of Memorial Hall and assemble in the order stated above along the south side of the Hall; the head of the column at the east end of the Hall.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES AND OF EDUCATION

The 1936 session of the Summer School will extend from Monday, July 6, to Saturday, August 15.

Instruction will be offered in nearly all the Departments of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences and of the Graduate School of Education. Most of the courses are accepted as half-courses toward the degrees of A.B., S.B., and Adj. A., but cannot be counted in addition to the corresponding courses in Harvard College. Harvard undergraduates with an average of B or better during the previous academic year and men who, for special reasons, have obtained the consent of the Dean of Harvard College, may be allowed to count toward the degree of A.B. or S.B. two summer courses, but no undergraduate may obtain credit for more than one full course. Undergraduates not in the above categories will not be permitted to obtain credit for more than one half-course.

A program consisting entirely of summer school work may be presented for the degree of A.M. in certain fields of study and for the degree of Ed.M.

Undergraduates from other colleges who wish to enroll in the Harvard Summer School should consult the Deans of their colleges regarding their choice of courses.

Graduate Study and Research

Special opportunities for graduate study and research will be available in several departments, notably Astronomy, Education, English, Geology, Government, History, Music, Philosophy, Psychology. Graduate students should consult their departmental advisers or chairmen regarding credit toward advanced degrees, which may be secured during the summer.

Tutorial Work in the Summer School

Tutorial instruction in certain departments will be offered for students in Harvard College and Radcliffe College. This instruction, which is open only to Harvard and Radcliffe undergraduates, is confined to the student's field of concentration and will be similar in all respects to that given during the regular academic year. Course credit will not be given for such work. Harvard and Radcliffe undergraduates desiring to carry on tutorial work in this way will be required to register in the Summer School and will be charged the usual tuition fee of $25. Students who wish to do tutorial work should consult the Director of the Summer School.

Study without Regard to Credits

To an unusual extent, the program of the Summer School for 1936 is also designed for men and women who wish to develop their latent capacities and improve their intellectual and aesthetic life, without special regard for credits or degrees. It provides an opportunity for those interested in devoting a part of the summer to intensive study and research, under the guidance of scholars of high standing and with the facilities provided in the laboratories, museums, field schools and libraries of the University. Courses in the aims and methods of Adult Education will also be offered.

Lectures, Concerts and Excursions

An enlarged program of extra-curricular activities will include numerous lectures by authorities in many fields of contemporary thought, several concerts and recitals, and excursions to places of historical or industrial importance. Many of these will be open to the general public without charge. The schedule of events will be published in the first issue of the Summer School News, which will be available July 3.

AMERICAN JEWISH FOGG ART MUSEUM

The Fogg Art Museum is showing:

An exhibition of Style and Technique arranged by the Museum Class.

Masters of Etching in eighteenth century Italy — Canaletto and Tiepolo.

Persian exhibition — Painting and Pottery.

English and American Eighteenth Century Portraits.

Loans of Gothic Tapestries.

SEMITIC MUSEUM

The Semitic Museum is now showing its special Harvard Tercentenary exhibits. The principal one consists of a collection of one hundred and ten chess sets (including the Hammond Collection from London) that have been loaned to the Museum until October 1st by Mr. G. A. Pfeiffer of New York. The chessmen, dating from the last three centuries, illustrate both oriental and western art, particularly Chinese, Burmese, Indian, Nepalese, Persian, French, German, English, Swiss, and so forth. Historical characters, like Henry VIII and Francis I, as well as historical events, such as the discovery of America and the defense of Constantinople against the Saracens in 718, are represented by some of the sets.
