Western Reserve University, prayer at commencement, 1937.

Blessing T. W. R. U. commencement June 16, 1937 37-5

Upon men and women here assembled, students, teachers, learners all, we invoke Thy blessing.

From of old through the mouths of sages and seers Thou didst admonish men to receive the discipline of wisdom, justice right and equality and that we increase our learning and attain unto the wise counsels.

This institution is dedicated to man's quest for knowledge and wisdom and these men are today marking the completion of one more stadium in their lifelong pilgrimage to the shrine of truth.

Bless Thou this hour and this occasion. May the realization grow upon us that the greater the truth which we attain the closer our steps approach Thee who art the dwelling place of all wisdom and truth. May we also realize that the fear of the Lord is both the beginning and the end of all wisdom.

Bless Thou these graduates with the power whose source is nobility of purpose and strength of conviction and with the happiness which derives from the employment of heart and mind to the service of truth and goodness. May they succeed in the days to come in all their chosen vocations and careers and more particularly in man's supreme career - cooperation in the one enterprise of building a free and happy commonwealth for all the children of men.

In these days of tread confusion when men and nations have turned aside from worshipping Thee and in hardness of heart and apostasy of spirit have turned to worship other gods - gods of darkness, fear, hatred, force and terror - we pray that there may be vouchsafed unto these young men and women a ~~strength~~ strong and unwaning faith in the ideals which have been men's guiding visions from of old - freedom, justice /tolerance and brotherhood. May ~~that strength~~ they strengthen by their alert and concerned citizenship the great democratic institutions under which our nation has thrived and which our nation has achieved so mightily through the years.

Bless this nation whose broudest achievements are its schools and educational institutions under whose spacious and generous law - freedom of thought and speech of inquiry and research has flourished and man has grown in dignity and power through the disciplines of liberty and self-government. May it be given unto these men to help to preserve this precious heritage of freedom.

Upon scholars and disciples and the disciples of their disciples and upon all who are engaged in study in this place and in every other place - unto them and unto you may there be peace, grace and mercy from our Father who is in Heaven.
