PRESIDENT'S SONG

TUNE—"Oh Susanna"

"I came from Hiram College
With my sheepskin in my hand

"I came to Cincinnati
To the first job I could land
I learned that James A. Garfield
To Hiram had been true
So I decided that some day
I'd be a president too."

"O, Mr. Merry, I'd like to work for you
If what they say about the way
You treat your men is true."

He dearly loves the race track game

He just can't stay away
For he was born in ole Kaintuck
Where boys grow up that way
He has a system all his own
And sometimes it comes through
He takes his winnings right straight home
As all good husbands do.

"See now Georga, you tried to keep me here
I'll give you twenty dollars
If you'll calm yourself, my dear."

He sits in at a poker game
He'd rather play than eat
He holds three hearts and draws to them
And wonders why he's beat
He takes his fling at Kelly pool
His cue gets all the blame
But yet he keeps on trying hard
For once he won a game.

Old Cap Kizer, don't let it get you down
For when you mind your P's and Q's
You really go to town.

THE ANNUAL DINNER

Franklin Smith

Oh, the meeting and the greeting,
 As we gather here tonight;
 Oh, the faces in their places
 All aglow with friendly light.

CHORUS

At the Annual Dinner,
 Let every fellow be a winner,
 With the food on the table
 And our good friends sitting near;
 Oh, The Annual Dinner,
 It is good for either saint or sinner;
 We hail it, we love it,
 It's the best time of the year.

Here's a song then for the strong men
 Who are living lives of cheer,
 With no guerdon for the burden
 But the work they hold so dear.

CHORUS

CINCINNATI

C. Wood Walter

Circled by Ohio's waters,
 Guarded by her hills,
 Lies our dear old Cincinnati,
 Fair her vision thrills.

CHORUS

Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
 Praise her loyally;
 Hail to thee, our Cincinnati,
 Hail, all Hail, to thee!

Proudly may we tell thy story,
 Heroes lived for thee,
 Never hast thou failed thy country,
 Land of liberty.

CHORUS

Nobly rise the years before thee
 Vict'ry beckons on;
 For thine honor and thy glory,
 We thy sons, are one.

CHORUS

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG

G. F. Brighem

Once in the dear dead days beyond recall,
When on the world the mist began to fall,
Out of the dreams that rose in happy throng
Low to our hearts love sang an old sweet song;
And in the dust where fell the firelight gleam,
Softly it wove itself into a dream.

CHORUS

Just a song at twilight, when the lights are low,
And the flick'ring shadows softly come and go,
Tho' the heart be weary, sad the day and long,
Still to us at twilight comes
Love's old song, comes Love's old, sweet song.

Even today we hear Love's song of yore,
Deep in our hearts it dwells forever more;
Footsteps may falter, weary grow the way,
Still we can hear it at the close of day;
So till the end, when life's dim shadows fall,
Love will be found the sweetest song of all.

CHORUS

DRINK TO ME ONLY WITH THINE EYES

Drink to me only with thine eyes,
And I will pledge with mine;
Or leave a kiss within the cup,
And I'll not ask for wine;

The thirst that from the soul doth rise,
Doth ask a drink divine;
But might I of Jove's nectar sip
I would not change for thine.

I sent thee late a rosy wreath,
Not so much hon'ring thee
As giving it a hope that there
It could not withered be;

But thou hereon didst only breathe,
And sent'st it back to me,
Since when it grows and smells, I swear,
Not of itself, but thee.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

Stephen C. Foster

The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home;
 'Tis summer, the darkies are gay;
 The corn top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
 While the birds make music all the day.
 The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
 All merry, all happy and bright;
 By'n-bye hard times come a-knocking at the door,
 Then my old Kentucky home, good night!

CHORUS

Weep no more, my lady, O weep no more today!
 We will sing one song for the old Kentucky home,
 For the old Kentucky home, far away.

They hunt no more for the 'possum and the coon,
 On the meadow, the hill and the shore;
 They sing no more by the glimmer of the moon,
 On the bench by the old cabin door.
 The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart,
 With sorrow where all was delight;
 The time has come when the darkies have to part,
 Then my old Kentucky home, good night.

CHORUS
