Radio Address
War Chest Campaign
10-18-42

Our boys are away from home - many of them are in far away lands, in distant continents, and on lonely islands of the seven seas. They are there because they loved their homes so much and us whom they left behind that they are willing to fight and die to defend them. Our government will give them the weapons to insure victory. Can we give them the care, the recreation, the solicitude, the companionship to maintain their spirit and morale during the long days of hard training and harder fighting? We can give all those things to them through the United Service Organizations for which Cleveland is raising money this week in the War Chest Drive.

At Stalingrad men who are our allies are dying today by the tens of thousands in one of the most heroic battles in history. An epic of human grandeur, which exalts all of us and renews our faith in humanity has been written by these Russians in the last fourteen months of their amazing resistance to the Nazi hordes. Their land has been ravaged and scorched. Their civilian population have suffered terribly. Are you willing to pay tribute to those gallant allies by helping their wives and children, their sick and wounded? You can do so through the War Chest of which Russian War Relief is a beneficiary.

Also in China, have men for five years opposed sometimes with nothing more than their bare breasts and clenched fists the furious might of Japan. They are still fighting. Their great and victorious offensive is still to come. Their people, too, have suffered unspeakably ^{from} bombing and invasion, from hunger and disease. We have not been able as yet to give them much military assistance. We can relieve their suffering somewhat and ease their tragic burdens through the United China Relief.

And there are others who have a just claim on our generosity and on the obligations of comrades in arms. Those who have read the Black Book of Poland know the stark, ghastly horror which the Nazis have spread over that land, and the hell through which its people are passing. Poland needs our help.

And the Greeks who thrilled us so much with their valor and magnificent courage, a year ago, and moved us so deeply now that they are defeated, with appalling hunger and destitution of its men, women and children. Greece needs us.

And the Dutch, who always gave and never asked for help in the past, but who now require it because their land and their empire have been invaded -- and many of their sons and daughters are in dire want -- the Dutch need help from us.

And the British, who in their own bombed and ravaged cities, are caring for refugees of other lands, carrying a double load in their hour of great trial -- they, too, need the help of a loyal ally.

And our own Cleveland needy -- for whom we have always cared, proud and privileged to care, our aged, our orphans, our sick, our children, our youth -- surely we will not fail them, nor the numerous agencies and institutions which we built through the years and which have made Cleveland -- a good city to live in.

All these pressing human needs, some of them desperately urgent, all of them worthy and noble, make a united appeal to us this week. I appeal to all my fellow citizens of whatever faith -- to respond to this appeal to the utmost. Our response will be the measure of our recognition of the solidarity of the human race. And the compelling obligations of human brotherhood.

Our Heavenly Father, we have now completed this labor of love which we ~~have~~^{had} set for ourselves and which we have dedicated to Thee. May the generous offerings which the men, women and children of our city have brought and now laid upon Thine altar be acceptable in Thy sight.

In these dread days of war and chastening Thou hast summoned us all, O God of nations, to acts of sacrifice so as to prove us and to know what is in our hearts, whether we are faithful to the charge ~~to~~ which Thou didst of old entrust to us and whether we are worthy of the manifold blessings which Thou hast bestowed upon us from generation to generation.

This Community War Chest into which hundreds of thousands of our people, young and old, have poured their goodness and love is earnest of our purpose to do Thy will, now and through the oncoming days, ~~to~~^{by} ~~help~~^{ing} the needy and poor, the young and the weak who are Thine especial wards, and ~~to~~^{by} ~~aid~~^{ing} the stricken and the ravaged throughout the world. This Community War Chest is a symbol of our unbroken covenant with Thee.

We pray that we may not be found wanting at any time in the future, neither our sons on the battlefields of the world, nor we who remain behind in our homes and in our cities. Our way before us is not always clear and our judgment is not always sure. But this we know, that we are earnestly striving to do what is right and pleasing in Thy sight. Be with us, O Father, as we seek to be with Thee.

Bless our country in its grave hour of peril. Prosper our arms which we have taken up not in arrogant pride to conquer ~~and~~^{as to} ~~enslave~~^{we} but because ~~were~~^{were} constrained to defend our lives and liberties and the threatened sanctuaries of mankind.

May Thy blessing rest upon our free institutions that his land may remain forever the home of liberty. May peace and righteousness, charity and good will abide among its inhabitants. Be with us now and ever. Amen.

War Chest - closing prayer

Our Heavenly Father, we have now completed this labor of love which we have set for ourselves and which we have dedicated to Thee. May the generous offerings which the men, women and children of our city have brought and now laid upon Thine altar be acceptable in Thy sight.

In these dread days of war and chastening Thou hast summoned us all, O God of nations, to acts of sacrifice so as to prove us and to know what is in our hearts, whether we are faithful to the charge to which Thou didst of old entrust to us and whether we are worthy of the manifold blessings which Thou hast bestowed upon us from generation to generation.

This Community War Chest into which hundreds of thousands of our people, young and old, have poured their goodness and love is earnest of our purpose to do Thy will, now and through the oncoming days, to help the needy and poor, the young and the weak who are Thine especial wards, and to aid the stricken and the ravaged throughout the world. This Community War Chest is a symbol of our unbroken covenant with Thee.

We pray that we may not be found wanting at any time in the future, neither our sons on the battlefields of the world nor we who remain behind in our homes and in our cities. Our way before us is not always clear and our judgment is not always sure. But this we know, that we are earnestly striving to do what is right and pleasing in Thy sight. Be with us, O Father, as we seek to be with Thee.

Bless our country in its grave hour of peril. Prosper our arms which we have taken up not in arrogant pride to conquer and enslave but because ^{we} were constrained to defend our lives and liberties and the threatened sanctuaries of mankind.

May Thy blessing rest upon our free institutions that this land may remain forever the home of liberty. May peace and righteousness, charity and good will abide among its inhabitants. Be with us now and ever. Amen.

my dear friends:
we sit to-day in the comfort and security of our homes.

Our boys are away from home - many of them are in far away lands, ^{on} ~~in~~ distant continents, and on ^{the} lonely islands of the seven seas. They are there because they loved their homes so much and us whom they left behind, that they are willing to fight and die to defend them. Our government will give them the weapons to insure victory. True charity is never sectarian nor regional. It begins at home but does not end there.
A global war, calls for a global strategy to win the war, but also for a global compassion to heal the wounds and to sustain ^{civilian} life and ^{military} morale in the duration.

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream;

'Tis the Star-Spangled Banner, oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Oh, thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their lov'd homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"

And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

America, The Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain.
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet
Whose stern impassion'd stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness.
America! America!
God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law.

America

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing.

Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrim's pride!
From ev'ry mountain side,
Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love.

I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song.

Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing.

Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!
