Message to Jewish War Veterans, 1944.

11-1-44

TO THE JEWISH WAR VETERANS OF CLEVELAND, POST #14

I send you my warmest greetings. We are proud of the Jewish War Veterans and of the services which they rendered to our country in the past, and the high tradition of patriotism and valor of American Jews which they maintained in battle. We are also proud of the five hundred thousand Jews who are fighting today on the far-flung battlefields of our country, on land, sea and in the air. They are writing a proud and glorious chapter in our history. Our people in Europe have gone through terrible trials and sufferings unprecedented in the annals of mankind. They have been the helpless victims of the most shameless barbarism known to mankind. However, wherever Jews have had the opportunity to fight back, they have done so with superb heroism and with magnificent courage. This valiant resistance of Jews to tyranny in a common front with all freedom-loving peoples, and their bravery in battle, have been an inspiring and heartening experience in these dark days.

Victory is at hand, and a new day is dawning. Jewish fighting men are helping to bring about the hour of vindication, victory and peace.
