3/ What are the solutions? End Via Good ① End Via Good
② Stay on - and wait for better times - 127 110
- Teach in advance ready to turn to terms with compromise - in order to survive the persecution of the future - Survive to come - in order to survive there is such a thing as perpetrator agreement - Stay on - Island - Go in Exile -
It will be different after this war - Consider being the same why have remains be diff?

4) Others - Had no solution for life - but were resigned to their fate. (2)

Slavery is Bad - Compensations - a measure of animal security - Moses Beasts - Providence
Bad - had Cucumbers - onions, garlic - material comfort -

Did not wish to exchange primitive security of their servitude for the high & dangerous adventure of free men

Jews - did not welcome Moses - Mission 18x6 100

Any more than welcomed Herzl *

5) Others - would perhaps have welcomed Fr - easy way - that involved no risks - pay high price

Did not mind Moses going to Pharaoh - failed - Heavier unsavory reputation with Pharaoh this country - for putting a sword into their hands to slay us"

Why the Egyptians - will put sword - lack of patriotism - Suspect that we do not deserve alliance -

6/ The solution was not with them, or with wishful thinking, or with assumptions - resigned & defeated, revealed

Solution - was prob. inst. - Exodus from slavery to freedom and from alienism to a national home, from-presentation
Miasma - Fall

And from alienism to a national home, from persecuted minority to full citizenship.

The point / P - is not that an official people's tribunal with extermination was saved - this ~~was~~ is point of P 1312 - an exile whiskey - were really needed 5/10

An exploited + endangered people - both its ^{2nd} ~~shattering~~ + ~~shock~~ free + indep. national life.

7/ The act of ^{physical} liberation was ^{only} a prelude to the act of national restoration - It was not until our people entered a half that the epic process was completed = 35 stages

8. Good
 to go to day

9) ~~The~~ Jews ^{will} ~~are~~ ^{be} ~~never~~ ^{free} until they have a national home - like every other people. Nat. homeless are the status of our people wherever they are. Without a nat. center - the Diaspora ^{must remain} $\frac{2}{1} \frac{1}{2}$. With a nat. center - the Diaspora ~~cease~~ ^{ceases} to be $\frac{2}{1} \frac{1}{2}$.

10/ It is as simple as all that - Understand as they (4)

Dedication

To the undaunted pioneers who are laying the foundation for a Jewish Homeland based upon principles of free labor and social justice—

To the heroes of the ghettos who rose against their oppressors and brought glory and honor upon themselves and upon their people—

To the armies of the United Nations who are bringing freedom to the enslaved—

To the HISTADRUT which is paving the way to national redemption in a new spirit through the creation of the Cooperative Jewish Commonwealth—

This, the twelfth annual THIRD SEDER of the National Labor Committee for Palestine is humbly dedicated.

Synopsis

Shulamit, symbol of the undying hope of Israel for liberation, lies asleep. Beside her sits the Wandering Jew, weary and yearning for an end to his wanderings. When will the "end of days" come? Is it now? Is Israel worthy in spirit and in deed? Has the leader arisen who is worthy of the task of returning the Shechina to Israel, and both to the land of Israel? The Wandering Jew watches lovingly over the sleeping Shulamit.

Bar Cochba, then David Alroy appear. Will they awaken the slumbering hope of Israel and give it reality? No! The time has not yet come. Shulamit sleeps on.

They are followed by Shabbetai Zvi. Surely, the time has come! Had not Israel been through the pangs of the Messiah? Did not the world from the Aegean to the Atlantic kneel before the new Messiah? But Israel was not worthy. Hope was turned to shame. Israel gave itself over to despair and gloomy dreams of its own future. Shulamit sleeps on.

Then came new hope. The Baal Shem Tov shattered the gloom by teaching Israel to worship the Lord through joy. He launched the Chasidic movement and championed the freedom of the spirit against those who would shackle it. Israel was but a step away from redemption. But the disciples who followed were not worthy of their leader and of the task he bequeathed them. Israel was not redeemed. Shulamit sleeps on.

And then a new bold cry is heard: "If you will it, it is no legend." Herzl puts a new weapon in the hands of Israel: its will to live. The will of a nation against a hostile world. Was this the way to redemption? Here was a new kind of Messiah! He fashioned the instruments by which Israel was to redeem itself! If it had the will. But Israel's will had been dulled by centuries of slumber. Shulamit sleeps on.

Perhaps Israel had not yet suffered enough. Perhaps its will still had to be tempered in the furnace of affliction. That affliction came with its concentration camps and extermination centers. It strengthened the convinced and convinced the deluded. The will of the few became the will of the many. A new spirit arose. This time it reached deep down into the roots of Israel's soul not to be uprooted again. The Chalutz, the embodiment of this new spirit, the true harbinger of liberation and of a new life, bursts into the chamber where Shulamit sleeps. Shulamit awakes! The time is now! Israel's redemption is at hand.

In Appreciation

IN THREE LARGE HALLS, six thousand friends of the Histadrut are gathered to celebrate the twelfth annual THIRD SEDER. This great demonstration of solidarity with our Palestine pioneers is the result of much labor and devotion on the part of countless friends belonging to hundreds of organizations affiliated with the National Labor Committee for Palestine.

Our deepest appreciation and heartfelt thanks are extended to the officers and co-workers of the Jewish National Workers' Alliance, Trade Union Division, Landsmanshaften, Histadrut Campaign of Business and Industry, Poale-Zion — Zeire-Zion, Pioneer Women's Organization, League for Labor Palestine, European friends of the Histadrut, Workmen's Circle Branches, Hebrew Educators' Committee, Youth Organizations, and all other individuals and groups who have lent us their support.

We are grateful to our guests assembled at the THIRD SEDER for their help and encouragement. And last but not least, a word of deepest appreciation to all the members of the staff and to the secretary of the New York Campaign, Benjamin Teller, who worked untiringly to assure the brilliant success of our Seder.

With Histadrut Greetings,

Isaac Hamelin

National Secretary

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed, at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh say, does that Star Spangled Banner still wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
