My creed, 1953.

MY CREED

for 2UICK magazine
10-11-53
53-22

I believe that life is good and is a gracious gift of God.

I believe that the evils which exist in society can be overcome, and in the overcoming of them lie the very meaning and adventure of human life.

I believe in the fullest measure of freedom compatible with the fullest measure of responsibility.

I believe that to be well-governed is not as important as to be self-governed; that values bestowed are not as desirable as values achieved.

I believe that the driving power of human progress is man's insatiable curiosity and that without the free exchange of ideas, it is stifled.

I believe in tolerance but not in indifference; in enthusiasm but not in fanaticism; in conviction but not in obsession; in independence but not in isolation; in competition but not in hate.

- Abba Hillel Silver

I believe that life is good and is a gracious gift of God.

I believe that the evils which exist in society can be overcome, and in the overcoming of them lie the very meaning and adventure of human life.

I believe in man and in the ^{priority} ~~preference~~ of his claims over the ^{claims} ~~claims~~ of all forms of human organization.

I believe in the fullest measure of freedom ^{compatible} ~~comparable~~ with the fullest measure of responsibility.

I believe that to be well-governed is not as important as to be self-governed; that values ^{bestowed} ~~dissipated~~ are not as desirable as values achieved.

I believe that the ^{driving} ~~motive~~ power of human progress ^{is man's insatiable curiosity and} ~~is~~ the free exchange of ideas, ^{that without} ~~it is stifled~~.

I believe in tolerance but not in indifference; in enthusiasm but not in fanaticism; in conviction but not in obsession; in independence but not in isolation; in competition but not in hate.
