In 1858 - "Judaism is not a faith, a mere belief in certain doctrines, nor is it a compendium of observances; it is a divine revelation a body of knowledge. Therefore, we say, Reform must begin with the spreading of light, more light, as much light ~~as~~ needed, as the age can bear. Instruction, more instruction, as much of it as the intellect is capable of receiving."

Our Temples are empty, instructions - scanty.

Emulation of the pious - reached, taught & exemplified highest type of brotherhood & inspiration of the great Jew - fulfillment blended his Jew & Gentile together perfectly - exemplified in his life complete harmony & concordance, that Did not find it necessary to "reconcile" his two, his Judaism and both with his outstanding services to "Israel" The frightened slanders of Jew. Incapable for "integration" - leaves him cold & unmoved - for he rightly insists
- not "integration" - assimilation
