My dear Mr. Green:-

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of January 1st. I am enclosing herewith a manuscript of the address which I delivered at Columbus the other night. I would appreciate very much if you would send me a few copies of your Bulletin in which you wish to publish this address.

I trust that it may be possible for me to come to the Northeastern Indiana Teachers Association next October. My customary honorarium is $250.

With kindest regards, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

CLARENCE GREEN
EDITOR AND MANAGER

Rabbi A.H. Silver,
The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver,-

Allow me to express my profound appreciation for your address at the recent meeting of the Ohio State Teachers Association at Columbus. I shall always remember your eloquent and philosophical presentation of the case for liberalism. You certainly presented new phases of this theme.

If you could let me have the manuscript for this address in whole or in part I shall be glad to publish it in the Cooperative School Bulletin. This publication circulates rather extensively in Indiana, Ohio and Illinois.

I am going to endeavor to have you as one of the leading speakers for the annual meeting of the Northeastern Indiana Teachers Association at Ft. Wayne sometime next October. About what will be your charge for this service?

Yours very respectfully,

Clarence Green

P.S.

I am the man who piloted you up to the front at the Central High School the other evening.
