Bellevue, Ohio

My dear Mrs. Fox:-

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of January 21st and for the invitation which you extend to me to address your literary club on February 13th.

It would be quite impossible for me to come on that date in as much as I have an important Temple function scheduled. It may be possible for me to come to you on March 6th. My customary honorarium is $250. Because of your proximity to Cleveland I could give you the special rate of $150.

If the date and terms are acceptable please let me know and I will send you a number of topics from which you may select one.

With kindest regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Londenslagel:

Since both Rabbi Silver and his secretary are away, it would be impossible to inform you as to whether or not he would be able to accept your kind invitation.

Rabbi Silver is not expected until the early part of September, and his secretary will be back the first week of August. I am sure she will write to you as soon as she is able to give you the correct information.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth L. Hirsch

Dear Mrs. Londenslagel:

I have just returned from vacation and found your letter of July 6th and Miss Hirsch's reply of July 10th. It was indeed kind of you to think of Rabbi Silver in connection with your organization. However, his schedule for the coming season is already so overcrowded that it will be impossible for him to accept your kind invitation.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Elizabeth Rice
Secretary to Rabbi Silver
