Dear Rabbi Silver:

I have been informed that you are to be invited to speak on the subject "Jew and Christian - Will they ever meet?" before the students of the University of Chicago on Sunday morning.

Knowing the condition of affairs at the University of Chicago, I hasten to write to you urging you to accept this invitation for the great amount of good you can do there ^{is insatiable} and if you find it inconvenient to go on a Sunday morning, I trust you will use every effort to go on some week day.

With personal regards, I remain

My dear Rabbi Schwartz,

I wish I could give you a definite date in March, but really I am so overcrowded with lectures and with my work on the New Temple, that in justice to myself I must deny myself the pleasure of being with you. I am quite sure you will understand the circumstances. I have been going at a terrific pace and I must slow down.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I am planning to have two or three lectures at our Temple in the course of the Winter, and if my plans are successful, I would like very much to have you here for one of them. Could you give us a date, say about the second or third week in January, and also let me know your price, bearing in mind that we are not yet on the peak of "Sinai."

I am sure you will appreciate this bit of humor from the "learned Rabbi." At one of our War Relief meetings, the chairman of the committee requested all the Rabbis to impress upon their congregations the mass meeting at Sinai, so as to fill the place. Remarked the Rabbi, "But for that, we shall have to get Rabbi Silver."

Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Dear Rabbi Schwartz,

I wish I could give you a date in January. Unfortunately, I am so crowded with work here in Cleveland, as well as with out-of-town engagements for the months of January and February, that I am afraid I shall have to forego the pleasure. Perhaps some time later in the year I may be able to be of service to you.

As I stated in my previous letter, we are contemplating a series of lectures, which I am very anxious to have you open. Arrangements with other speakers have to be made well in advance, and it is for this reason that I am anxious to hear from you. Would it be possible for you to give us the fourth Wednesday in January, the 25th?

My Dear Friend;

On Sunday evening, March

26, our congregation will give its annual congregational supper which is always an important event in the social life of the congregation. This year we want to utilize the occasion for stirring the congregation with enthusiasm to go ahead with the building of the new temple upon the beautiful lot we have already secured. For this purpose we should like very much to have the valuable benefit of your kindling eloquence as well as your experience with your own congregation in a similar enterprise. I believe that you could attend your morning services and still have time to participate in our supper.

I need not assure you that I should personally appreciate very highly the

Dear Rabbi Silver:

About two years ago you were good enough to be with us on the occasion of our Annual Meeting. None of us have forgotten your beautiful address. It has inspired in us a desire of a performance of bigger things in the interest of our people along the lines of constructive and social betterment.

Mr. Jacob M. Loeb, our President is about to complete the tenth year of his activities in the interest of our Institution. We want to celebrate this occasion by presenting him with a substantial sum of money as a nucleus for the establishing of branch buildings in other parts of our city where our activities would not only be welcomed, but are most necessary.

We want to do this on the occasion of a Testimonial Dinner, which we have planned for Sunday evening, May 7th, at the Drake Hotel. We expect to have between seven hundred and a thousand people. As Chairman of the Committee, I want to appeal to you to accept our invitation to be the speaker of the evening. We know that you have a keen insight into the need of the type of activities conducted by a recreational and social agency like the Institute, and we are further confident that your presentation of this need coupled with the occasion of this testimonial to Mr. Loeb as a mark of appreciation on the part of the community for his noble efforts in behalf of his fellowmen, will without any doubt be responsible for an assured success of our undertaking.

May I hope, dear Doctor, to hear from you at your very earliest convenience, as it is important for the Committee in making the arrangements.

Looking forward with a great deal of pleasure and anticipation to your being with us, I am

Very sincerely yours,

I am going to try during the next few days to see if I can get someone to relieve me. I shall let you know within a week, if you can wait that long.

Dear Sir:

According to the Sinai Lecture Bulletin, you are to be in Chicago on November 6th. Would it be possible for you so to arrange your schedule that you could address a large meeting of the Hadassahs of Chicago? Our meeting date could be arranged to suit your convenience.

The Hadassahs in Chicago have some four hundred members--a mere handful, when the size of Chicago's Jewish community is considered. At the commencement of our membership campaign, we could offer the Jewish women of this city no more potent argument to join our ranks than the force and logic of your dynamic spoken word. May we count on you to help us in our efforts?

An early reply to the undersigned will be appreciated.

I am prompted to impose myself with my request on you, by virtue of my knowledge of your deep interest and work in Palestinian affairs. Therefore I again put a plea before you on behalf of the Chicago Jewish Committee for Palestine before in whose behalf Mr Nathan Kaplan has telegraphed and written to you.

The Committee consists of over five hundred members of the wealthy and if I may term them so the upper class. They were collected in the weeks then spent and by the feeling of racial sympathy.

The full knowledge of their duty towards Palestine lies as yet dormant within them. Know that once awakened, it will kindle a desire to be helpful and bring very good results.
It is just a personality. Take your with

My dear Rabbi Silver:

This is to confirm my conversation with you the other night in the sanctum sanctorum of Sinai Congregation at which time I brought to you the message from Ramah Lodge No. 33, I.O.B.B., whose first and only choice you are to address them on the night of January 13th at a banquet and class initiation of one thousand at the Hotel LaSalle at Chicago.

It is needless for me to say that the committee in charge again instructs me to put this request before you in writing and they hope and pray with me that you will make the decision in our favor.

I was so happy to hear your discourse on the subject of the Bible, Evolution, and Mr. Bryan, and I am quite sure that everybody among those three thousand people felt as I did and it is a pity that you are not a permanent Chicagoan and that we can only have you with us once in a great while.

I hope to receive an early reply from you in the affirmative to my request, and with best wishes and my kindest personal regards, I beg to remain

Yours very sincerely,

My dear Mr. Conheim,

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of the 8th. I wish I were in a position to avail myself of your invitation to address the meeting of the Branch Lodge. Unfortunately I cannot. I shall be married some time in January and I am keeping that entire month free. I have cancelled a date I had with the Ford Hall Forum in Boston for that same reason and I am engaging speakers to occupy my pulpit for the Sunday mornings of that month, so that I think I shall have to forego the pleasure at this time.

With kindest regards, and hoping that your meeting will be very successful, I beg to remain

Dear Rabbi Silver,

We are conducting a course of lectures similar to the one at Sinai. The course consists of ten lectures all of them taking place at our community hall or temple on ~~the first three~~ Wednesday evenings. We would like very much to have you on our program. You will find a hearty "Sholom Aleichem" on the great West Side of Chicago. Last year you promised to be with us "at some future date" and you may have free the dates in the month of March, any of the first three Wednesdays, the 7, 14, or 21.

Will you come? I do not know what your compensations are but we are ^{do} ready to what other temples are doing for you in the way of compensation.

Please be good enough to answer this letter promptly. I know quite well that you are a busy man and for this reason I am enclosing a return envelop and save you that time. With best regards I am,

Cordially yours

As we are very anxious to do a little publicity work for your visit here, please be good enough to send that list, so that we can make our plans definite, and announce to the people the subject of your address.

I have before me the original list that you sent me:
Have we an American Civilization? Is there an American Judaism?
Triumphs and Failures of Democracy The Need of God.

I mentioned these to you in our conversation, but you suggested that I wait for your additional list.

The only other subject that I can add to the list which I already sent you is "The Outlawry of Law" an address which deals with the mad craving for laws which infringe upon our fundamental liberties and which make for lawlessness. Of the four which I gave you the one perhaps which might appeal most to your audience is "Triumphs and Failures of Democracy". Let me know of your final choice.

Dear Doctor:

Our Congregation will dedicate its newly-constructed Synagogue on March the 11th and our Committee has unanimously decided to extend to you an invitation as the principal speaker for the occasion. The mere mention of your illustrious name has sent a thrill through the ranks of all our followers. I have been thus authorized to approach you, dear doctor, with the proposition of rendering us, if possible, this great spiritual service during your Chicago visit about the same date. Your eloquence and erudition might prove the means of building our community on a more solid basis. Anticipating your favorable answer with great joy I am, my dear Doctor,

But more so to ask you to come and have supper at our home that evening. Mrs. S. told me some time ago to write you but in the rush of things I neglected to do so. Should you come to Chicago with Mrs Silver we shall of course be delighted to have you both. This will save you a lot of rushing from down town.

My dear Friend and Colleagues:

On Sunday, May 6, we contemplate laying the corner stone of our new temple with simple exercises in the afternoon and a congregational supper in the evening at which we hope to sell bonds to enable us to finance the undertaking, having already received about $150,000.
in donations.

Still under the thrill of your great at New York and knowing of your own successful experience in Cleveland in raising money for your own temple, our committee last night enthusiastically requested me to invite you to speak in the evening at our dinner which will be held at the Chicago Beach Hotel, May 6.

If you leave Chicago in the morning, you can take the noon train and be here on time; and if you leave

I know that many demands are made upon your time and strength, but I do hope most sincerely that you will be able and willing to accept this invitation. Much depends upon your decision.

May I trouble you to telegraph your answer at my expense.

With friendly greetings to yourself and wife, in

My dear Rabbi Stolz,

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of April 8th and for the invitation which you extend to me to be present at the corner-stone laying ceremony of your new Temple. I wish I could see my way clear to accept it, but it is very likely that on that very same day my own Congregation will lay the corner-stone of its new Temple. I shall know definitely in a day or two. If our corner-stone laying ceremony is postponed, then I shall do my utmost to be with you on May 6th, leaving here at noon of the same day.

Chicago

My dear Dr. Silver:-

Your kindness in answering my rather forward appeal is deeply appreciated.

I note you say your next visit to Chicago is for Nov. 12th.

On Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 13th, our Club holds Reciprocity Day, when we entertain Presidents and Officers of other Clubs in our district and is a day when we try, of course, to put on something a little exceptional in the way of a program.

You know our program outline must be in our printers' hands by August 1st so may I ask you to inform me, at your early convenience, as to your fee for an engagement and one or two subjects you think appropriate that I may take it up with my committee. You know we work on a budget system and so that detail is quite essential.

Since writing before, I have secured a copy of your address for the Purchaser's banquet. It was printed in their trade journal and your tribute to America is part of our family creed at the present writing. It is a thought that grows on one —

Chicago

My dear Sir:—

In looking, from a distance, at a mountain range, it is the peaks that catch the eye and grip the imagination; our mind feels us of the valleys and low places necessarily filling in the distance between those heaven clutching heights but it is upon the peaks we dwell.

Life to most of us is something like that the first opera or symphony, first sight of the sea or the very first little one—to some it is other things. Many low depressing places between but upon those we do not linger.

One of the high spots on which I dwell in retrospect is an address I heard at a banquet in May at the Hall. Purchasing Agents Convention. The program noted the address as "Organizing for Service" by Dr. A. H. Silver but it was a splendid plea for Americanization, a solution of the Capital versus Labor situation and other economic disturbances and ended with a tribute to our Country which was an epic of beauty for the ages.

I like to be made to think, tho sometimes it is disturbing & next to that I like to make people I am interested in think or at least expose them to thoughts worth thinking so I conceived the idea of asking you if you spoke for women's organizations or work of that kind.

This may be presumption on my part but you would not be quite human if you do not appreciate that a very earnest expression of your address is the foundation of this plea for information. My "aim" may "exceed my grasp" but at least I have had the fun of trying.

Clubs of our caliber are based on the thought that Service is our return for our place in this world, our excuse for being. But so often that Service is not in the direction to do the most good.

Am enclosing a self-addressed envelope to expedite matters.

May I hope for your attention?

Very Sincerely Yours,

Permit me to thank you for your very beautiful letter. I have just returned from a convention in the east and I hasten to reply. I do speak from time to time before Women's organizations. I visit Chicago a few times a year and when I am there I shall be most happy to combine an engagement before your organization with others I may have. My next visit to Chicago will be before the Sinai Center on Monday, November 12th.

July 30 - 1923,

My dear Dr. Silver: -

On July 16th I wrote to you as follows:

"The Community House Committee of Sisterhood B'nai Sholom Temple Israel is planning to start its Third annual lecture course on Wednesday, October 3rd, and would deem it a privilege if you could arrange to honor us by giving the opening lecture. May I, therefore, ask you to advise me at your convenience, whether ^{or not} you will be able to come, what the subject of your talk would be, your fee for same, and any other information pertaining thereto that you think we ought to have."

Up to the present writing I have had no reply, and inasmuch as we are anxious to arrange our program, would ask you to kindly let me hear from you as soon as possible.

My dear Mrs. Bloom,

Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of July 30th. I am scheduled to address the Sinai Forum in Chicago on Monday, November 12th. I am this day writing to Mr. Schwartz inquiring of him whether he has any objection to my appearing in Chicago prior to that date. I feel that I owe him that courtesy. Should the Sinai Forum have no objection I shall try to give you a date in October.

Dear Sir:-

I am taking the privilege of writing to you to inquire whether you have filled your lecture course dates for the season of 1923-1924. If you have not already done so, will you kindly write to me at the earliest opportunity you may have, relative to the time you will be in Chicago and would be able to deliver a lecture for us. This lecture would be on any subject which might be agreed upon.

The organization is known as the Humboldt Boulevard Temple Center, 1906 N. Humboldt Blvd. Its object is to promote social culture and make the synagogue a real meeting place.

Will you kindly let me know what your rates are for this and thanking you for a reply in the very near future, I remain

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I just returned to the Center and find your letter of the first instant with regard to your lecture for the Sisterhood of the B'Nai Sholom Temple on October 3. We certainly appreciate your fine courtesy in this matter. Would it be at all possible, to ask the Sisterhood of Temple Israel to postpone your lecture with them to a date later than your engagement with us on Monday evening, November 12. I know that they have a number of dates open. However, should they be unwilling to postpone your engagement, it of course would be agreeable to us for you to speak on October 3. We have as far as possible in the past, preferred to have our lecturers speak for us first.

Would it be putting you to too great an inconvenience to ask that you kindly send me a number of subjects from which choice of your lecture may be made? We are anxious to get our program to the printer as soon as possible.

May I again express to you my warmest appreciation for your courtesy?

Cordially yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Chicago Hadassah is arranging for its drive for funds for the Hadassah Medical Unit. Last year Chicago obtained a substantial sum for this purpose, but it is necessary for us to raise a much larger amount this year. We are making our plans as carefully as possible and want to start out with real spirit and enthusiasm. We, therefore, desire to open our Drive with you as our speaker. We wish to begin with a luncheon and can hold it on any of the following days that you may chose: Can you give us any Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of the second, third, fourth or fifth week in January? We prefer the third week, but we can hold it any of the other weeks.

I know that you are always ready to aid in the work of Palestine, but at the same time I also realize full well that you are very busy and I would not add to your burdens by urging you to come to Chicago if I did not feel that you were absolutely essential to the success of our undertaking. Judge Pam and Mr. Nathan Kaplan will support me in urging you to accept.

We shall, of course, be ready to pay all expenses and hope for a favorable reply.

With most cordial greetings from Chicago

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Your telegram was a distinct disappointment to all of us and although I do not want to seem persistent, yet I feel that the matter should be presented to you more clearly.

The Hadassah Medical Unit has, as you know, gone through a severe financial crisis in the past year, but for this year there is the contract between the Joint Distribution Committee, the Keren Hayesod and Hadassah. At the expiration of the year it is by no means certain what will happen and I fully believe that Hadassah must be prepared to assume full responsibility for the budget of the Medical Unit. It is, therefore, a natural deduction that Chicago, as the second largest city, must obtain a substantial part of that budget.

The Chicago Chapter, is, at the present time, probably the largest in the country and if we can start off properly with our Drive, we can, I am certain, obtain real results. If Henrietta Szold had remained in this country, she would have been with us, but in her absence we feel very keenly that you are the logical person. As stated in my previous letter, I realize that your duties are heavy, but most of us have many burdens to carry and I want to urge you to accept this additional one in the interest of the cause in which we all believe.

Perhaps getting away from Cleveland will give you an opportunity to relax a bit from your regular work. We would be very happy if Mrs. Silver would join you and we would be glad to pay all expenses.

May I also remind you that last year when we invited you, you were unable to come because of other engagements, but you did promise that you would make every effort to come this year, so please reconsider your refusal and be with us the third, fourth or fifth week of January.

We shall hope for a favorable reply by wire.

Sincerely yours,

Pearl Franklin

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
E 55th St & Central,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I have scheduled you on our lecture program for Monday evening Jan. 5th. Is this convenient to you? I just telephoned Mr. Seaman again with regard to a man for your Social Center. He informs me that he is in need of two men for his own organization but cannot secure them, since they are not to be had.

The reason for the difficulty in securing a competent man is simply this, that a man may be either an excellent student or a good administrator but rarely is he a combination of both. I should like to suggest that you write to the Jewish Welfare Board at New York. Mr. Clickstein ought to be in a position to know of available men. He sometimes transfers a man who shows marked possibility in a small community and whose field in that community is limited, to a larger city, using for the smaller community, one who is more or less of a beginner.

May I again ask whether Monday evening, Jan. 5th is convenient for your lecture with us. With very cordial regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

S. D. Schwartz

My dear Rabbi Silver:

The next session of the National Federation of Religious Liberals will be held in New York City, October 28, 29; the probable places of meeting being the Community Church, the Friends' Meeting House and the Temple Beth-El.

Enclosed is a copy of the proposed program. The Executive Committee would very much like you to address the meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, on "Religion and World Peace". You may discuss any phase of this general subject that you wish; the time allotted to each speaker will be thirty minutes.

The Federation will pay your traveling and entertainment expenses.

Hoping to hear favorably from you at your earliest convenience, I am

Cordially yours,

Chairman Executive Committee.
