Dear Rev. Silver:

The Deacons of the First Baptist Church of Cleveland are arranging for a recognition service on the occasion of the completion of ten years of ministry by our pastor, Dr. Harold C. Phillips. Arrangements have been made for a special service on Sunday, September 18th, 1938, and another service on Friday, September 23rd, as Dr. Phillips actually started his work with us on September 23rd ten years ago.

The Board of Deacons invite you to be present at the service to be held on Friday evening, September 23rd, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. We are inviting a few other leading pastors to be present on that occasion, which will be quite informal. We should like to call upon you for a few remarks. We shall be pleased to confer with you a little more in detail as to the program for the evening as soon as our plans are fully developed.

We know that Dr. Phillips will be greatly pleased to have you present and we hope that you will find it possible to accept our invitation.

Sincerely yours,

DEB:RH

My dear Rabbi:

As you are probably aware, the U. S. Government is staging a series of celebrations for Saturday, September 10th. This is the anniversary of Perry's Victory. Cleveland will have a celebration all of its own, of course co-operating with the Government.

It is with a feeling of almost reverence that I approach the thought that as important as the Battle of Lake Erie was from a military point of view, the real importance of this anniversary lies in the fact that we have been at peace with Great Britain for nearly 125 years. Surely with all other nations either at war or on the verge of war, it is something for us to be thankful for. It was therefore suggested that the feature of this day of celebration should be a thanksgiving meeting to give thanks to the Great One Above that this condition exists. At a recent meeting of our Executive Committee it was decided to have a sunrise meeting with appropriate speaking, the laying of a wreath and proper music at Perry's Monument at Gordon Park. It was planned to have this start promptly at seven A.M.

Dear Rabbi:

I am writing you in the name of the Early Settlers Association to thank you for the splendid contribution you made last Saturday morning at the United Sunrise Thanksgiving Service. I have heard you speak scores of times but never heard you speak with greater feeling or more effectiveness.

Mr. Thomas A. Knight, Secretary of the Early Settlers Association, informs me that he has received hundreds of letters and telephone messages from people who listened in to the service. All of them, in praise and approbation. At the close of the meeting last Saturday morning Mayor Burton turned to me and said, "That is one of the most masterly addresses I have ever listened to".

I sincerely hope you have enjoyed a restful and recreative vacation and that you will return to the great work you are doing at the Temple with renewed zeal and enthusiasm.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Mr. Sidlo has asked me to give you these few facts concerning The Orchestra which he would be glad to have you incorporate in your talk at the Citizen's Committee dinner tomorrow, in addition to what you would naturally say. He is endeavoring to have each speaker have something different from the other. Accordingly, I enclose this memorandum.

Cordially yours,

APH:s

In addition to the music played in Severance Hall, the actual contributions of The Cleveland Orchestra to the cultural life of Cleveland are these:

When The Orchestra was organized in 1916, there was no department of instrumental music in the public schools of Cleveland. It was at the request of the Musical Arts Association, ~~and~~ with the donation of the services ~~of~~ of its first conductor of The Cleveland Orchestra that the subject of instrumental music was taken up by ^{the Superintendent} several of the schools and a man skilled in that department of music engaged. Coming to Cleveland as the direct result of this arrangement, Dr. Russell Morgan has in these twenty years done much for public school music in Cleveland and in the United States. The practical means were these: The Musical Arts Association paid artist members of The Orchestra to give three hours of teaching on Saturday mornings in two high schools. This was the beginning of instrumental teaching in the public schools; the donation of teaching service by the Musical Arts Association was continued over a period of years until the department was completely established.

In 1920 the Musical Arts Association brought Arthur Shepherd to Cleveland from Boston to be assistant conductor of The Cleveland Orchestra and program editor. The result of Mr. Shepherd's residence in Cleveland and his association with The Orchestra was the establishment of music courses in Cleveland College and the development of that fine department of Western Reserve University, the Graduate School of Music, which Mr. Shepherd has headed for some years.

The Cleveland Institute of Music, founded in 1920, from the beginning has had members of The Cleveland Orchestra on its faculty. Likewise, the Cleveland Music School Settlement has counted on members of The Orchestra for its teaching staff.

Over a period of years valuable free training has been given to numbers of persons who have sung in the choruses supported by The Cleveland Orchestra, under the able direction first of Griffith Jones, and in recent years of Boris Goldovsky. The bringing to Cleveland of Mr. Goldovsky is another instance of the beneficent influence that spreads out from The Orchestra's initiative, for Mr. Goldovsky now serves not only the Orchestra but the Singers Club, the Fortnightly Music Club, The Cleveland Institute ^{of music}, Western Reserve University, ^{and} the numerous organizations which so eagerly avail themselves of his lectures on music.

The need for a home for The Cleveland Orchestra was the prime factor that initiated the gift of Severance Hall and the magnificent result that followed the gift. This was made possible by the cooperation of Western Reserve University which gave the land. This institution now shares with The Orchestra the use of Severance Hall. The benefit of the use of the hall has also accrued to many eligible educational and philanthropic institutions. Since the opening of Severance Hall in February, 1931, there have been 867 performances in the Hall; 1,141,386 persons in attendance.

The Cleveland Council of Federated Church Women desire to have an interfaith gathering this fall. It seems appropriate to have it near Thanksgiving so we have planned a luncheon for Monday, November 21, at 12 noon, at Hotel Cleveland. We know you would like to welcome the new Episcopal Bishop Beverly D. Tucker and we have invited him as our special guest.

We hope that Mayor Harold H. Burton, Rabbi B. R. Bickner, Bishop Joseph Schrembs, and Dr. Robert B. Whyte, president of the Cleveland Church Federation, will be able to be with us also. Will it be possible for you to be with us and present a five or ten minute talk welcoming Bishop Tucker and stressing the need of inter-faith cooperation in Cleveland?

Dear Comrades:

ARMISTICE SERVICES ON AIR. MUTUAL SYSTEM COVERS THE AMERICAS
FOR J.W.V.

PLEASE CO-OPERATE!

Your help will insure the success of the Armistice Broadcast. Mutual Broadcasting Company will send our program through its entire coast to coast chain on Friday, November 11th, 1938, at 3:30 to 4:00 P.M. Eastern Standard Time.

The program will consist of the Chief of Chaplains, United States Army; Chief of Chaplains, United States Navy; Rabbi Abbe Hillel Silver, our own National Chaplain, and Isador S. Worth, our National Commander. Music will be furnished by the United States Army Band.

You may help publicize this broadcast in the following manner:

1. Notice on the list attached hereto which local station is an outlet for the Mutual Broadcasting System.
2. Contact the program director of your station and tell him that you and your friends are anxious that these programs be scheduled for the benefit of shut-ins, institutionalized individuals and dwellers in nearby small towns. Emphasize the value of the programs in creating good will between Jew and Gentile.
3. Call the radio editors of your local papers. Explain the value of the broadcasts. Ask for write-ups on the radio pages.
4. Make sure that those for whom the program is being broadcast know about it.
5. Write a note of appreciation to your local station after the broadcast. (Letters and telegrams of appreciation have shown that these radio services satisfy a definite need).

Again we remind you that it is only through the cooperation of the members of every post that benefits to our Jewish race might ensue. Experience has taught us that these broadcasts have resulted in considerable favorable publicity to our organization. We want the complete support of every comrade to make this broadcast the success it deserves.

CORRESPONDING SEC'Y:
DR. N. E. ERMAS

TREASURER:
EZRA M. SCHWARTZ

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple, Ansel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

The members of the Masada and the Young American Hebrew Association have delegated me to extend their invitation to you to address the Fourth Forum Lecture sponsored by both organizations, during the month of December.

This is the second successful season of Forum Meetings presented by our groups. Last year we sponsored a series of six meetings on the theme: "Jewish Youth Chooses a Career." Twelve leaders in Cleveland's business and professional life addressed audiences numbering between 200 and 350 young people, at each meeting.

Last September we presented Dr. Jaroslav Gardavsky, consul of Czechoslovakia, who spoke on "The Fight for Democracy." In October, Dr. Arthur J. Culler addressed us on the subject "Youth in a Changing World." On November 16th we will present Mr. Spencer D. Irwin who will speak on "The Last of Free Europe." All of these meetings have been held in the Lakeview Hebrew School Auditorium.

We realize that your calendar is pretty well filled with speaking engagements and that your leadership in many national organizations require your going out of town. We hope, however, that you will find some Wednesday or Thursday night during the month of December and set a date for us when we may have the honor to present you in our Fourth Forum Lecture.

If you find it possible to accept our invitation we will plan this meeting so that it may be a city-wide gathering for all Jewish young people. We know that many hundreds of them will be eager to hear your message. We will obtain either the Jewish Center Ballroom or Mahler Hall.

P.S. We're keeping our fingers crossed.

Sincerely yours,

M. M. Lach

My dear Mr. Lach:

I need not tell you that I deeply appreciate your kind invitation to address the members of the Masada and the Young American Hebrew Association some time in December. I wish I were free to accept it. However, in looking through my calendar, I find that I am so heavily booked up with out of town lecture engagements, largely in connection with the United Palestine Appeal, of which I am national chairman, that I cannot in justice to myself take on any additional responsibilities at this time. Perhaps in the Spring when pressure upon me will be eased up somewhat, I may be able to come to your organization.

With all good wishes for success, I remain

Very cordially yours,

My dear Everett:

I wish I were free to accept your kind invitation to address the luncheon meeting on Thursday, December 29 in connection with the convention of the Tau Epsilon Rho Legal Fraternity. However, in looking through my schedule, I find that I am booked to be out of the city on that day. Due to the numerous campaign meetings which I must attend as national chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, I am constrained to decline many local engagements which I would like to accept. Perhaps at some future time I may be able to be of service to you.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Members of the National Association of Deans of Women have expressed the wish that you might be one of the speakers at an annual convention. It so happens that the next meeting of the Association will be held in Cleveland from February 21 to 25, 1939.

Since N.A.D.W. is a member of the American Council of Guidance and Personnel Associations which will be in session at Cleveland at the same time, the audience will include other members of the Council.

We would feel highly honored if you would find it possible to speak to us from your wealth of experience. Since our program plans for the dinner meeting on Thursday, February 23 and evening meeting on Friday, February 24 are still indefinite, would you kindly let us know whether you have an engagement for either date?

Dear Rabbi Silver:

There is to be held in Cleveland during the first week of May, 1939 the Annual Convention of the Ohio State Nurses Association. The nurses of the State who are employed in the various maternal health clinics and other nurses who are interested in the programs of such clinics are hoping to present an outstanding speaker at an open luncheon meeting.

Recently at a meeting in Columbus the nurses unanimously expressed a desire that you might be this speaker. Your great interest in and support of many fields of nursing endeavor make us feel free to ask your help and advice. We feel we shall be more than fortunate if you can find time from your many other responsibilities to give further of your support.

We would like you to discuss the broad social and ethical aspects of family planning, rather than the mechanics of conducting such a clinic or the medical responsibilities of such an organization.

I feel obligated to explain to you that we do not know how much publicity will be given this meeting, other than the posting of notices in places where nurses, social workers, doctors, etc., will see them. As you doubtless know there is still opposition to our work, even within the named professions. Also we are not in a position to offer much financial remuneration.

Knowing that you are an exceedingly busy person I am writing this letter to outline our request. I shall be most happy to come to see you at your convenience to further discuss the matter.

Very sincerely yours,

The National Association of Deans of Women is very pleased that you can speak to us at the banquet on February twenty-third, at the Hotel Statler, at seven o'clock.

A letter from Mrs. Muller suggests that you may wish to know something of the audience. The group will consist of the delegates to the Deans' Convention and also the National Association of Principals of Schools for Girls. A subject, therefore, that would be of interest to both groups would be desirable. Would you prefer to give us a list of subjects from which Miss Lake and I could choose the one we feel the best adapted to the groups, or would you like to have us suggest one? It seems that the two groups have been very much interested in this question: "How Can Schools and Colleges Foster Democracy in the Students?" That subject I offer not as a request but merely as a suggestion. I shall be very glad to hear your decision in the matter.

On behalf of the "Senior Boys" of Ridgewood Church I wish to thank you for your donation to our "Celebrity Auction". The boys were thrilled by your response and have asked me to convey their thanks to you.

These same boys have volunteered to sponsor a series of meetings, this winter, featuring outstanding speakers on topics of vital importance to religious people. They would like very much to have you speak on any phase of the subject, "The Present persecutions of world Jewry and possible Effects".

Such a meeting would be on a Sunday evening and would be a joint meeting of all Parma Protestant Churches. We would also issue an invitation to all Catholic Churches and advertise it in local picture theatres. We realize that you are an extremely busy man with many demands on your time and we know that this would represent a sacrifice on your part, but it would also be an opportunity to serve your people and ours. We would like to have you any Sunday evening in January that would be convenient for you. If that is not possible, or if a later date would suit you better, we would still consider ourselves honored to arrange the meeting whenever it suits you best. We hope you will see your way clear to accept our invitation.

May I offer my compliments on the splendid Chanukah banquet held under the auspices of the Cleveland Zionist Society Sunday evening. Secretary Ickes' splendid address WAS like "a breath of fresh air" in these days of dark skies and heavy hearts. Your presentation of the speaker was inspiring even to a Republican.

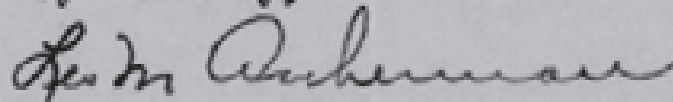

Before taking up my duties in the Ohio Senate I would like to talk with you at your convenience regarding matters which I understand may arise in that body affecting the Jewish people.

I would also like to extend an invitation to you to be the guest (and only) speaker at the 87th Annual Banquet and Dance of Cleveland Lodge No. 16, B'nai B'rith, February 5th at the Mid-Day Club. I am to be installed as President in a brief ceremony to be conducted by Philmore J. Haber, President of District No. 2, B'nai B'rith. In these trying times, with Jews everywhere looking to you for leadership, a message to members of B'nai B'rith would be accepted with wide acclaim. If a written copy of your address is made available it will be sent to the B'nai B'rith Magazine for publication. The affair will be well publicized and will without doubt attract a large audience.

I am fully aware of the great demands upon your time, but as my Rabbi, nothing would please me more than your acceptance of this invitation.

IMPORTANT-- PROOF

Enclosed is proof of material to appear in the Journal of the National Association of Deans of Women. Whether or not corrections are necessary, please return it within 24 hours from time of receipt to the National Association of Deans of Women, 1201 Sixteenth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

The general arrangement, abbreviations, punctuation, etc., are uniform throughout the Journal and should be altered only for very special reasons. Unnecessary changes should be avoided because a slight alteration may necessitate resetting one or more lines--a procedure not only expensive but conducive to error.

Author contributors will receive three complimentary copies of the Journal. Authors interested in obtaining reprints should advise us at the time proof is returned, giving the number of copies desired and any unusual specifications (such as cover for the reprint, special paper, etc.). We shall be glad to get and send you estimates and to fill your order.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

Dear Rabbi Silver:

We welcome you as a speaker on the program of the seventy-third annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators which will be held in Cleveland, February 25 - March 2.

This letter is to ask that you send us at your earliest convenience your address and a three hundred word abstract of it for use in connection with the publicity of the convention. The abstract serves the purpose of indicating to the reporter what the speaker himself considers the highlights of his address.

Your manuscripts will be duplicated in the offices of the Press Service and will be made available immediately to all who wish them for reporting purposes. This is the only official request for your manuscript which you will receive. You may refer to us, if you wish, all publishers who ask for a copy of it.

Manuscripts mailed before February 14 may be addressed to me at the National Education Association at Washington, D. C. Manuscripts mailed after that date should be sent to me at the Cleveland Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio.

I am enclosing:

- (1) A typical convention address abstract.
- (2) A photoprint of a few New York convention headlines.

Newspapers, reporters, special correspondents, and news wire associations cover our conventions quite thoroughly and accurately. That they do so is a tribute to the prompt and willing cooperation of speakers getting their manuscripts to us on time. For this I thank you.

Sincerely,

Belmont Farley

Dear Rabbi Silver;

Immediately following our conversation last week,
I got in touch with Miss Carr who was able to postpone her trip for one week. Consequently, the Fortieth Anniversary Celebration will be held on April 25th instead of on the 18th as previously planned and there will be no conflict with the Institute which The Temple is going to hold on the 18th.

Rabbi Gries was one of the founders of the Alliance and was for many years its president and guiding spirit. You, too, were a member of its Board for some years, so I hope that it will be possible for you to arrange to attend this very important and festive occasion. If you can^{can}, we would like to ask you to give the opening prayer.

My dear Mr. Mayer:

Thank you for your kind letter of February 13.
I am pleased to know that you were able to shift the date of the Fortieth Anniversary Celebration of the Council Educational Alliance to April 25. If I am free to come on that day, I shall of course be very happy to give the opening prayer. But you know, of course that I am away from the city a great deal of the time in connection with the campaigns of the United Jewish Appeal and that the month of April, particularly, is a crowded month for such campaigns. In all likelihood, I shall be out of the city. Would you rather invite some Rabbi who is sure to be in town on that day?

My dear Rabbi:

We, the members of St. John's Civic League, a forum organization dedicated to the ministry of Adult Civic Education, invite you to come down and address us on one of our regular monthly programs in the near future. We are suggesting that you come either Sunday evening March 19 at 7:30 p.m. or Sunday evening April 16 at the same hour. We realize you are exceedingly busy and yet, we feel you will just somehow, work us in your scheme of program. Perhaps, you note our meetings are usually held on the third Sunday evening in each month. It is possible however, if it is not convenient for you on either of the evenings mentioned, to place your lecture on another date if we know in time to arrange for a change from our regular date.

The League is in its third year of activity and during this short time has built a considerable following. We have been very fortunate to present musical groups of various nationalities and our speakers have included the most distinguished of our race as well as of other races. Some of whom have honored us were: Louis B. Selzer of the Cleveland Press, Mrs. Malcolm McBride, Mr. Albert Woldman, authority on Lincoln, Atty. Marvin C. Harrison, Sen. Robt Taft, Rt. Rev. McFadden, auxiliary bishop of the Catholic Church, Mr. Thomas, president of Fenn, Judge Lee Skeel, and Dr. Poteat.

Your splendid work among your own people has endeared you to thousands of my race. In the name of better race relations we ask you to come to our church and give a message of your ^{own} selection. We shall be most grateful and I assure you a hearty reception and a large and most appreciative audience.

St. John's is a very old church institution dating back more than one hundred years. You must come and pay us a visit very soon. I hope I have not overstated myself in my anxiety to make everything clear to you about the Civic League.

Let me know very soon please. If you can arrange to come, give us a definite date and a your subject.

Unfortunately my schedule this year is so crowded that I cannot in justice to myself take on any additional lecture engagements. You perhaps know that I am national co-chairman of a campaign to raise funds for refugees overseas and my work takes me from one part of the country to the other and imposes heavy burdens on me.

Perhaps at some future time I may be of service to you. With all good wishes, I remain

The 18th of October, we are having our annual Donor Luncheon, the largest money raising affair of the year with two to three hundred ladies attending. Most of the proceeds go to the welfare of our veterans.

As you know, we are the only organization of this kind in Cleveland, a Jewish patriotic organization to show the Jew as a good patriot and American citizen. You as our National Chaplain understand what this means.

We would deem it a great honor and a privilege if you could manage to give us a little of your valuable time, and be our guest speaker at this affair. Please give this your consideration, and an early reply will be greatly appreciated.

Dear Rabbi:

As chairman of the Midgal Zion Society I take this opportunity to extend to you an invitation to be the guest speaker at the first installation of officers to be held Wednesday evening, October 4th, at the Statler Hotel in Cleveland. This banquet will be a civic affair and we are under the impression that the Columbia Broadcasting System will give us at least a half hour on their network.

The Midgal Zion Society (formerly the Cleveland Chapter of the Masada) is composed of men in all stations of life, who banded themselves together to crystalize, by cultural means, Zionism in America.

Because of the terrors created by Nazism and Communism in the world today, one finds the seeds of hate, of racial and religious prejudices sown everywhere. We believe that the time has come for a cultural militant democracy. Our purposes are to create and to foster a better understanding between Jew and Gentile; for the furthering of the establishment of a Jewish National Homeland in Palestine; and from a cultural standpoint, we must support and defend democracy actively.

This affair will be similar to the one at which you spoke in June of 1938, for the Fifth Anniversary Convention of the Masada. Because of the fact that you have just returned from the Zionist Congress, you undoubtedly will be able to give us a clearer picture of the important events that have occurred and what we Jews might expect in the future. The present terror of war will undoubtedly affect the welfare of our people throughout the Diaspora. Because you, better than anyone else I can think of, can deliver a message of peace and good will toward all mankind, I would appreciate your acceptance as guest speaker within the next few days.

My dear Mr. Gara:

I greatly appreciate your kind invitation to address the Cleveland College Alumni Association in October. I wish I were free to accept it. Unfortunately, my schedule is already very crowded for the month of October. I am compelled to devote most of my spare time to refugee and war relief work. As you probably know, I am National Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, and that imposes very heavy responsibilities upon me. I am away from the city a good deal of the time. Perhaps some other season I may be able to be of service to you.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

Rabbi A. H. Silver

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver;

The Jewish Consumptive Relief Society of Cleveland, is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary, on Sunday October 29, with a banquet at the Jewish Center.

The Executive Board of this organization feels that it is entitled to celebrate twenty-five years of service to the indigent sick of the city, and that this is an occasion when the whole Jewish Community should aid in the celebration.

At such an occasion the board feels that one of Cleveland's outstanding Jewish leaders, ought to be present, and therefore the writer of this letter, and Mrs. Morris Arsham were appointed as a committee to call upon you.

Your secretary informed us that we ought to make our request to you, in a letter first, and that you would let us know, when it will be most convenient for you to see us.

May I request that you have your secretary call me, Fairmount 2847, and inform me when we can call, and that you will make it as soon as possible.

We realize that you are exceedingly busy, and that the demands upon you are great, but would very much appreciate your sparing us a little of your valuable time.

With all good wishes to you and yours for a Happier New Year, I beg to remain,

I trust that your celebration will be highly successful. With all good wishes for a very happy new year, I remain

Dear Rabbi:

May I express on behalf of the program committee and the conference itself my deep appreciation for your stirring address at the opening of the East Central States Regional Conference. It gave the audience a stimulus which permeated the whole conference and the thoughts articulated in your remarks were reiterated by others who took part in the conference during the remainder of the sessions.

I sincerely hope that it will be possible for you to be with us again at other such conferences.

Gratefully yours,
