Rabbi Abbah Silver,

Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

The Jewish community of Coatesville is very eager for you to come here to deliver a lecture on any subject you may desire. I am directed to get in touch with you to determine whether or not you would be willing to pay us a visit. We shall cheerfully pay any reasonable sum that you may designate.

It would be preferable for you to come on a Sunday. However, if that is impossible another day will do.

I was present at the Zionist Conference in New York many months ago and heard with great admiration your brief talk. I have been hoping ever since to have another opportunity to hear you. Needless to say you will be highly welcomed.

Very cordially,

AW:M

My dear Mr. Weiss,

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of February 10th and for your invitation to address the Jewish community of Coatesville.

I would be most eager to accept your invitation, were it not position to do so. Unfortunately, I am greatly overburdened with work and speaking engagements and cannot see my way clear to accepting any additional obligations for some time to come.

Perhaps next season I may be able to be of some service to you.

With kindest regards, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Rabbi:

I very much regreted to learn from your letter that you would not be in a position to come to Coatesville, Pennsylvania within the near future to deliver us a talk. We are most eager to have you here regardless of price.

Should you be in a position to come at any time I wish you would advise me. At any rate we want you to place us on your booking list so that you have us in mind when the opportunity does present itself.- whether it will be one or six months from now.

With the assurance of my highest esteem, I am

Very sincerely yours,
