Dear Rabbi Silver:

This community has for the last four years had lectures given by prominent men. The lectures have been attended by very large audiences and have at all times been of great spiritual value to the community. These lectures are given under the auspices of The Jewish Community Center, the only unifying factor in this Jewish community of two hundred and fifty families.

I understand that this community is very anxious to have you give a lecture here. I am writing this to you in order to ask you if you would not kindly consider giving a lecture at this community some time next fall or winter. I believe that you would render this community an exceedingly valuable spiritual service if you accept this invitation.

I hope you will be able to lecture to us next fall.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Mr. Kraft,

Permit me to thank you for your kind invitation of August 6th, to deliver an address in Cloversville, New York, on Sunday evening, October 26th. I regret that I shall have to decline the invitation. We are moving into our New Temple and the great volume of work incident to the inauguration of many new activities renders it impossible for me to take on any out-of-town obligations for many weeks. I could not, at any time, accept an invitation for a Sunday. Our principal service is on that day and many of our most important activities are scheduled for Sunday.

Some time in the future there may be an opportunity for me to serve the Cloversville community.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am in receipt of your telegram of the 19th inst.

In reply I wish to advise you that I received word from Mr. Glusker, Executive Director of the Gloversville Jewish Community, that December 22nd would not be acceptable. The following excerpt from his communication explains the situation:

"As much as we are anxious to have Rabbi Silver speak here, we are at the same time unwilling to have him draw a small audience.
We were planning to take one of the large theatres and invite as many gentiles as possible if he came on Sunday. That would be impossible on Tuesday. There are several reasons why his lecture on the 22nd would be a failure. We cannot get the Theatre on any other day except Sunday. The day being three days previous to Christmas when all the stores are open at night we could not get either the Jewish businessmen nor the Gentile shoppers to attend.

I wish you would try to persuade Rabbi Silver to come Sunday, December 20th, but, if that is absolutely impossible, would
Mr. Silver be willing to come some time in January, even if he has to come from Cleveland.
We will pay his expenses."

Your telegram states also that you had offered January 6th for Schenectady. I

Rabbi A.H. Silver

regret to inform you that we never received any communication from you to that effect.

I am writing Mr. Alofsin of Schenectady immediately and will wire you as soon as I hear from him. In the meantime will you please let me know whether you can offer Gloversville a date in January?

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver,

The Jewish Community Center of Fulton County is very anxious to have you come and deliver a sermon sometime during the season of 1931-1932. I hope that you will accept this invitation at sometime convenient for you, not only because the community is most desirous of hearing you, but also because Mrs. Lebowich and I miss your sermons and therefore have a personal reason for wishing you to come.

We should like to know how the High School is progressing. Please remember us to our friends on the faculty, and convey our kindest personal regards to your own family.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

It is some years since I have had the pleasure of meeting you. You may recall that while I was a student at the Hebrew Union College Leon Feuer and myself would meet you for luncheons during our Winter vacations at the Hotel Statler.

At the present time I am the Executive Director of the Jewish Community Center in Gloversville. Do you expect to be in the East on a lecture tour some time during the next season? If so, could you make arrangements to speak to us? I am sure it would be a great treat to have you in our midst.

Similar to many organizations of this type, we are not in as favorable financial position today as we would like to be. We would, therefore, appreciate it if you can make your honorarium as reasonable as possible.

Hoping to hear from you soon and possibly greet you here, I am

Very sincerely yours,
