My Dear Dr. Silver:-

Indianapolis Lodge of Indianapolis, Ind. is going to have its B'nai B'rith Day celebration on Monday, February 24th. The meeting is to be followed by a dance. They expect to have short exercises followed by about a thirty minute speech. They have requested you as a speaker and I would very much like for you to go to Indianapolis and talk to them on the B'nai B'rith, because if ever a lodge needed an awakening, they do. It is one of the hardest things that I have to contend with in the District at the present time.

Will you please wire me at my expense immediately upon receipt of this letter whether or not you can be present on Monday, February 24th? I await with interest your reply by wire and trust that it will be favorable. Of course, you go at the expense of the District.

My dear Rabbi Silver; -

I am writing
you in behalf of my own section, as well as Louisville, Terre Haute, Fort Wayne, Anderson and Lafayette sections, which wish to cooperate with Indianapolis Sections in procuring good speakers for their meetings.

Would it be possible to come some time this coming winter after the holidays in October to speak for some or all of these Sections. We usually hold our meetings the first Monday in the month.

Also what would be the honorarium for the entire trip, ~~for~~ for as many of the cities as you feel you could take in. The smaller sections would take the afternoons or evenings. With our excellent interurban & train schedules it is possible to speak in one town in the afternoon and another in the evening without too fatiguing result.

Many of our members still speak of the wonderful message which you brought on the occasion of your last visit which I was not privileged to hear.

Will you kindly let me

My dear Miss Lurvey,

I believe that it would be possible for me to arrange a tour covering three of the cities enumerated in your letter at one time and another tour taking in the other cities at another time. I could not absent myself from Cleveland long enough to cover all the cities at one time.

I think I can come, say in December and in February. I could arrange to take in Indianapolis on Monday, December 4th, and two of the neighboring cities on the evening of the 4th, and at noon on the 5th.

My customary honorarium is $150., but because of these combined engagements, I could give you a rate of $100 per lecture.

Dear Ratti Silver:

At Mrs Nathan A. Kahin's request I am acknowledging your letter of November 14th.

We are indeed sorry that you cannot come to us within the next few weeks. We will of course learn the date of your coming to you but ask that you make it as early in the new year as possible.

We had promised our Council and the Jewish community, with your consent, that they were to hear you and of course we would like very much to keep our word.

We sincerely hope that Mrs Silver will have a speedy recovery.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

We are wondering if, by any chance, you contemplate being in this section around April 31st.

For a long time we have wished we might secure you for an address before a noon luncheon group. In conversation with Mrs. Isaac Born, President of the Temple Sisterhood of this city, she told me that they were wanting a speaker on the afternoon of April 21st to speak before their State Convention.
It occurred to us that possibly you could fill the two engagements, speaking for us at noon and for them in the afternoon, if you were to be in this section.

We shall be glad to hear from you at your earliest convenience in regard to this matter.
Also, please advise us as to what fee you would expect. Of course, the Indiana Council on International Relations, like most Peace organizations, functions on a very limited budget. At any rate, we shall be glad to hear from you.

With every good wish, I am

Cordially yours,

in the community I would of course, reduce the honorarium.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I today wired you as follows:

"We are expecting you to address Annual Dinner Meeting Community Fund

We are delighted that you can speak at our Annual Meeting, which will be attended by approximately 600 people made up of Fund contributors, campaign workers, usually wear evening clothes.

Will you send me your subject, photograph, and some general material which we can work into our publicity.

I take it that Mr. Jesse F. Solomon got in touch with you in regard to the fee. We will be glad to pay $100.00 and expenses, but do appreciate your extreme kindness in accepting this less figure than your usual fee.

Years ago I used to hear you in the Temple and at the City Club, being

We will be looking forward to seeing you. You will be introduced by Rabbi Feuerlicht.

I anticipate that you will take a night train down from Cleveland to be at the Annual Meeting of the Fund on March 5th, and I hope that you can make this engagement if it is not imposing too much on your generosity.

We are sorry that it is impossible for you to address the Chapter meeting of the American Association of Social Workers, but quite appreciate the difficulties involved.

Mrs. Jack A. Goodman has asked me to, when writing you, extend an invitation for herself and Mr. Goodman for you to be their guest while in Indianapolis. They will be very happy to have you stay over the night of March 5th, and perhaps return to Cleveland more rested than if you spent the night on a Pullman.

As soon as you can conveniently furnish us with a copy of your speech we will be very glad to get it for use in connection with advance preparation publicity. The preliminary publicity has been very good, and we expect a crowd of approximately 500 people.

You will be introduced by Rabbi Feuerlicht, with whom, I believe, you are acquainted.

If your Secretary will kindly let me know the time at which you will arrive I will be at the station with Mrs. Goodman. She wants you to come out to their house irrespective of whether you find it possible to stay over night.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

The National convention of Avukah will be held this year in Indianapolis from December 24 to December 27 inclusive. The Butler Chapter of Avukah in Indianapolis is acting as hosts to delegates from various collegiate chapters all over the country.

It is planned that on Sunday evening, December 27, a large mass meeting will be held to conclude the convention program and to which the entire Jewish community will be invited. We should like very much to have you serve as the speaker of the evening.

The administrative committee feels that more than anybody else you have a message that will bring inspiration and stimulus toward Zionist youth. Unfortunately, we cannot offer you by way of compensation any more than your expenses.

Will you not communicate with me as soon as possible telling me whether it will be possible for you to undertake this speaking engagement?

by you

I have no doubt but that an address ^{at} the closing of the convention will be an ideal climax to the entire program.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

This is a personal note to thank you again for your courtesy in accepting our invitation to address the banquet meeting of the Department of Superintendence on the evening of February 26th.

Following your address I heard from many of those who were in the audience expressions of deep appreciation of your message. It was forceful, timely, and eloquent. Since my return home I have received many letters and all of them mention your address as one of the outstanding features of the entire week.

I am deeply indebted to you for your willingness to attend this banquet and for the inspiring address which you delivered.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

We are planning to hold our annual meeting the latter part of April or early part of May. We are anxious to have as our guest speaker a leader in Israel who can inspire our people to the need for Jewish education at this time. We feel that you can deliver that message and can be of great service to this community.

We are, therefore, taking the liberty to invite you to be our guest speaker at this meeting and hope that you will find it possible to accept.

We are not setting our date definitely until we hear from you. These meetings are usually held on Sunday evening at 6:00 o'clock with a dinner either the last Sunday in April or the first Sunday in May, would be acceptable to us.

In order to acquaint you with the work of our school, we are enclosing herewith a brief memorandum.

We are asking it as a favor of you since we are in no position to pay an honorarium but we will, of course, pay your expenses.

Very Sincerely yours,

JEWISH EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Memorandum on the

JEWISH EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INDIANAPOLIS

Our school was originally organized in 1911 by Rabbi Neustadt, of blessed memory, as a Talmud Torah, in the old Jewish settlement of Indianapolis. It was known as the United Hebrew Schools of Indianapolis.

In 1924 it was reorganized as the Jewish Educational Association embracing all Jewish educational institutions. We now operate two schools, one in the old Jewish settlement and the other in the new Jewish settlement, with a total enrollment of approximately 300. These children are divided into 14 classes receiving instructions from five to seven hours a week. Our curriculum includes Jewish history, Jewish ideals, customs, and ceremonies, and a thorough study of Hebrew. Our staff consists of people who have made teaching their life's profession, who are well trained and are conscientious in their work. We have graduated nine children, all of whom are following the post graduate courses including higher studies of the Prophets, Talmud, and Hebrew literature.

Our graduates are given credit for their Hebrew at our local Butler University and are admitted to their advanced classes. One of our students who has taken this advance course has so far excelled himself that this credit has been extended to all students who have a diploma from our School.

Through the efforts of the Jewish Educational Association the State Board of Education of Indiana has recognized Hebrew as a subject for credit in High Schools and anyone taking a test in Hebrew will be given the same credit as for any other language.

Besides the work in the Hebrew Schools, the Jewish Educational Association is furnishing and supervising Hebrew instructions at the local Temple Sunday School and is also assisting in the conduct of a Sunday School operated by the Council of Jewish Women in the old Jewish Settlement.

Our Association is a constituent of the Jewish Welfare Fund. The major part of our budget is furnished by the Jewish Welfare Fund.

March 16, 1934.

The Jewish Educational Association,
Union and McCarty Streets,

My dear Mr. Frommer:

Permit me to thank you for your kind invitation to address your annual meeting. I wish I were free to accept it. Unfortunately the load of my work is so heavy and my out-of-town engagements so numerous, that I cannot in justice to myself accept any more engagements.

Hoping that I may be of service to you at some future time and with best wishes, I remain

My dear Rabbi Silver,

We were delighted to learn that you were to speak at the Indiana State Teachers' Association, Friday night, October 19. We hope this will prove an opportunity for the Indianapolis Grade Teachers' Association to secure you as speaker for a noon luncheon at the Columbia Club, Thursday, October 18. The speaker's time is limited to twenty or thirty minutes. Would it be possible for you to come at that time and talk to us at a price within our meager means?

Please let me hear as

I am very much tempted to accept the invitation from your group but in view of the general state of my health, I am afraid that I shall have to forego any additional engagements this year. I already have a very crowded schedule for the remainder of the season and I am afraid that I have been taxing myself too much. Perhaps at some future time I may be of service to you.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

from 1914 to 1930 I was the representative of the Alber Bureau in Indiana and Ky. and had the pleasure of placing you in lecture courses. Since the failure of the Alber Bureau I have been conducting an independent bureau. I have wished to have you on my list of speakers for invariably you were satisfactory to all concerned. Last February I suggested your name to Mr. Stetson, the Pres. of the National Sup'ts Association when he got into a serious difficulty on account of the failure of Gov. McNutt to arrive. I sat in your audience and saw you put the association out of a very real difficulty and hence took considerable satisfaction out of your success for it was a real success.

I should like to have you come to Indianapolis for an address before the Indianapolis City Teachers Association December 5th at 3:00 P.M. and another address at 6:00 P.M. at their banquet. For this the fee to you would be $80 flat; You could come to Indianapolis by leaving Cleveland at 6:45 A.M. arriving at 2:30 P.M. Then you could return to Cleveland leaving Indianapolis at 10:00 P.M. arriving at 7:15 A.M.

At that time we could talk over other engagements. I should like perhaps to have you go to the Ky. Educational Association Meeting at Louisville April 11th at a much better fee. I shall be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely, W. H. Stout

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I take pleasure in writing you in behalf of the officers of the Indiana State Conference of Social Work to extend a cordial invitation to you to address an open session at the next annual conference which is to be held in Indianapolis September thirtieth through October third. We should particularly like to have you speak Sunday afternoon, October third.

If it is possible for you to accept will you suggest subjects which you feel interest you. Our program theme is to be "The Cultural Background of the Child in a Period of Change." In the study courses prior to the opening of the conference we have a scheduled institute which we have called "Looking Toward Leadership in Social Progress." In this conference the points for emphasis seem to be to give opportunities to the community to gain understanding of social needs prior to the planning, and to attempt to understand social reactions and to work toward community cooperation in meeting needs. In other words, ideas that point to the way one works toward social progress.

I am obliged to say that the conference is not in a position to offer you an honorarium for this service but we shall gladly pay your traveling and hotel expense.

We have not worked out our program in detail but we plan to ask a second speaker for the session Sunday afternoon - possibly Miss Jane Hoey.

I appreciate the fact that you are quite busy, and I think you will want to know that a number of people have requested that you be invited to speak. As you may know, Indiana has plunged ahead into a program which few in the community are prepared, in their thinking, to accept, and even those who have accepted the program have a rather limited vision of possibilities.

My dear Mrs. Zink:

I have just returned from abroad and I hasten to catch up with my correspondence.

I deeply appreciate the invitation of your organization to address it at its forthcoming annual conference. I wish I were free to come but I find that my schedule for September and October is so heavily crowded with out-of-town lecture engagements that I cannot, in justice to my work here accept any more. Perhaps at some future time I may be of service to you.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

We have been advised by Mr. Henry Montor that you would be willing to come to Indianapolis to open our Jewish Welfare Fund campaign on April 12th.

We are indeed very happy to hear that you could spare the time for us. Will you please consider this a formal invitation from the Jewish Welfare Fund of Indianapolis to be the principle speaker at a dinner to be arranged by the Special Gifts Division of our 1939 campaign.

Will you be good enough to confirm this date so that we may begin making our preparations for the meeting?

Thanking you again, and with very best regards, I am

Dear Rabbi,

This is to put on paper what I have just said over long distance. We should like to have you join Dr. Gilkey in a symposium in Indianapolis on Friday evening October 27th 1939. This will be before the Indiana State Teachers Association and their friends in Cadle Tabernacle. We shall be glad to make your fee $200. You can leave Cleveland 12.25 P.M. and arrive in Indianapolis at 5:45 P.M. Leave Indianapolis at 10:50 P.M. and arrive in Cleveland at 7:00 A.M. Saturday morning.

We fervently hope that you can do this and I am certain the arrangement will greatly please Dr. Gilkey.

My dear Mr. Stout:

Let me thank you for your kind letter and for the invitation which you convey to me to share a program with Dr. Gilkey on Friday evening, October 27 before the Indiana State Teachers Association. I shall be very pleased to do so.

I assume that they will want me to discuss an educational theme. The address to which you referred in our telephone conversation, which I delivered in Cincinnati, was devoted to a discussion of "Religion in Present-Day Jewish Life". I question whether that subject would be of interest to the school teachers. I will, however, dwell upon the need of stressing the classic values of Religion in the goal of true education.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am taking it for granted that we may expect you to join Dr. Gilkey in a symposium before the Indiana State Teachers Association, Friday evening, October 27th. I wrote you to this effect the middle of last week as you suggested but have since not heard from you. I'll be glad if you will send me a telegram on Monday.

Now I am wondering if you would like to join Dr. Gilkey in the same performance at Louisville the evening of November 3rd. This would be on the same terms--$200 to you.

In your telegram I wish you would tell me if you can go to Louisville on November 3rd. This will be before the Louisville City Teachers and their friends. This would perhaps give you the best opportunity to be heard in the city of Louisville.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I am president of a Schoolwomen's Club in Indiana and we hold a breakfast meeting each year in Indianapolis during the convention of the Indiana State Teachers' Association, at which convention you are a speaker. Our speaker for that breakfast has always been one of the regular convention speakers. However, this year we have a new Executive Secretary who did not know this procedure and today I find that we have been assigned no speaker.

I selected your name from the Friday speakers on the program, as one who would be eminently satisfactory and also closer to contact than New York City, hoping you will be able to accommodate us at this late hour. Our breakfast is at 7:30 Friday Morning, ^{Oct. 27} at the Lincoln Hotel. There are usually about one hundred and fifty present and there is time for about a twenty-five minute speech. The group is composed of both classroom teachers and administrators.

Should you find it possible to speak to us at that time will you please state your charges and list the subject of your talk.

I apologize for writing at this late date and trust I am not interfering with the rights of any Speaker's Bureau by contacting you directly. I am enclosing air mail and special delivery stamps to facilitate matters.

Dear Mr. Stout:

The three speakers which we secured through you, Doctor Laing, Doctor Gilkey and Rabbi Silver - complied with all our requirements as to arrival and appearance and performance with great satisfaction to everyone.

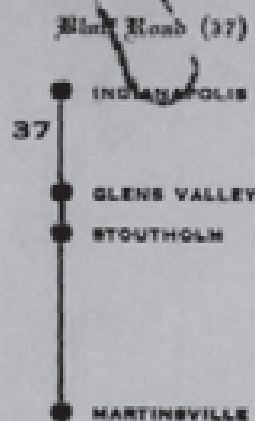

The Gilkey-Silver program on Friday night has brought us an enormous amount of complimentary comment both as to the theme and as to the content and delivery of the speakers. It was a really thrilling meeting with which to close our convention.

I did not get to hear Doctor Laing myself, but he was reported to have given complete satisfaction to the County Superintendents and the Junior High School people.

Thank you very much for your untiring labor in assisting us in arranging this program.

Most sincerely yours,

Robert H. Wyatt,
Executive Secretary.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

It has been on my mind for some time to write to you to again thank you for the service to the Indiana State Teachers Association in Indianapolis, Friday October 27th. It was all fine and satisfactory. I am inclosing the report of the Executive Sec'y Mr. Wyatt and I think it will please you.

I hope you will be available at other places as your time and engagements will permit. With this in mind would you be willing for me to include your name and topics in my next announcement just as others do as you will see from the inclosed? No engagement of course would be made without your confirmation. I shall be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Stout:

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of November 27 and for the copy of the letter of Mr. Wyatt which you enclosed. I enjoyed my meeting with the members of the Indiana State Teachers Association.

I have made it a practise not to put up my name with any Lecture Bureau for the reason that I am compelled to decline most of the invitations which come to me because of lack of time. I am devoting practically all of my spare time to the work of the United Jewish Appeal - a fund for overseas relief - of which I am national chairman. However, if you don't mind being turned down often, you may use my name. As far as the subjects are concerned, I am enclosing a few which have proved rather popular.

With all good wishes, and hoping that I may have the pleasure of seeing you again soon, I remain

Most cordially yours,

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

Dear Rabbi Silver:

A good-will committee representing the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish groups in this community, is arranging a meeting for some time during February, preferably on February 16th or 23rd, and is anxious to have a speaker who could adequately speak on Tolerance. The group unanimously selected you for that assignment if you will accept it, and it is my understanding that Mr. Dwight Ritter, the chairman of the committee, was to formally invite you to address this meeting. It is hoped that there will be a very large meeting and representative of the community.

I know, of course, how busy a man you are. I realize, also, that with the campaign being launched by the United Jewish Appeal, you must be tremendously busy, and yet, here is an opportunity for a service that is very great. We in this community, particularly now, need a note of tolerance that you could well sound. You probably have heard that William Dudley Pelley has moved his publishing business to Noblesville, Indiana, which is a stone's throw from Indianapolis, and it looks like there is quite a tie-up between Pelley and the old Klan gang. There has been much publicity on the subject and I think we will need to spread the gospel of tolerance continually here to offset the anti-semitic propaganda that will come out of the Pelley publications.

Therefore, I urge you to accept the call of this committee, even though it be at a great sacrifice, as I am sure it must be. I would appreciate it if you will wire me your reply collect.

Very best regards,

Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Hyman:

Thank you for your kind letter of January 10. On the date of December 11, Mr. Dwight S. Ritter, of your Church Federation of Indianapolis, invited me to attend the meeting to which you refer in your letter. I wrote to him on December 16 stating that I could not come on the date indicated. I suggested at that time another date in March which Mr. Ritter informed me was not convenient for your organization. As it is, I could not come, even in March, for I am to be on the Pacific Coast at that time in connection with various campaigns. Perhaps at some future time I may be of service to you.

Dear Rabbi:

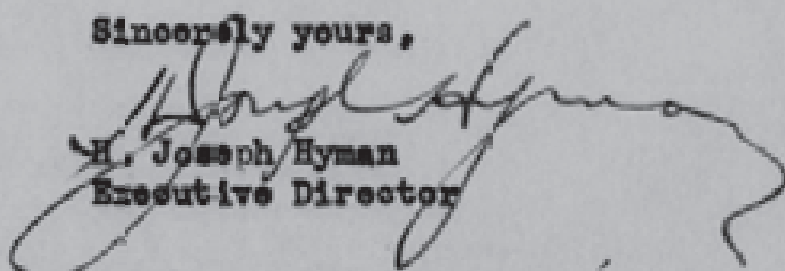

Our Campaign Executive Committee is very anxious to have you address our Big Gifts Dinner this year.

In their behalf, I am issuing this formal invitation to you. The dinner will be held on Thursday evening, April 24th, 6:00 o'clock, at the Broadmoor Country Club. We expect to have several hundred people who give in the larger brackets and who, naturally, determine the success and failure of our campaign. B. Hyman

You did such a magnificent job at our Big Gifts Dinner two years ago, and the Committee is most anxious because of the need for raising larger funds, to have you accept our invitation.

Will you please advise me whether we can count on you. With best regards, I am

Dear Rabbi Silvers:

You will recall a letter that came to you from our Interracial Committee of the Young Women's Christian Association in March, 1942, asking you to be our speaker at a Dinner Meeting. Our letter found that you were in Europe and we were very much disappointed. We were happy, however, to have a letter from you on your return which stated that you would be happy to come to us at some other time. We are wondering now if we could have you come during March of this year at whatever date would suit you.

We have been very anxious for a long time to have you come to us. Please let us know what would be your fee. We have very little money but we are exceedingly anxious to have you come for our meeting.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

We are now planning the 18th annual season for the Indianapolis Open Forum which is conducted by our organization. Our committee, which is composed of prominent representatives from the Catholic and Protestant group as well as members from our own organization, met recently. The committee unanimously voted to invite you to give one of the six lectures and would like to have you speak on some religious subject of your own choosing suitable for an audience which is 80 per cent non-Jewish and 20 per cent Jewish.

The other speakers selected so far are: Colonel Carlos P. Romulo, Walter Duranty, Max Lerner, T. R. Ybarra, and Mordecai Johnson.

I am enclosing a copy of last year's program which you may find of interest. The audience is representative of all walks of life.

We can offer you the following Sunday evening dates: February 6, 20, or 27. All of our lectures are on Sunday evening.

Would you be good enough to advise by wire, collect, if you can accept this invitation and what your fee will be.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Dear Dr. Silver:

I am sending you this reminder in accordance with our telephone conversation this morning, regarding our invitation to you to address the meeting of our Men's Club sometime in March.

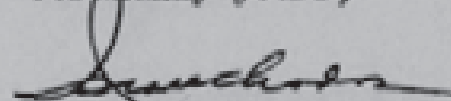

I am deeply convinced that a visit by you would help to strengthen the cause of Zionism in our community, which has been very badly affected by the activities of the American Council for Judaism and some of the over-zealous followers of the American Jewish Committee. We really have a great need for your visit in Indianapolis.

Intramurally, too, your visit would solve many problems....

Of course, we are prepared to pay your lecture fee.

I would personally appreciate it if you would find a day in your busy calendar to come and address us. You may be assured of a very large audience and a warm reception.
