My dear Mrs. D'Olier:

Permit me to thank you for your kind note of March 5th and for the invitation which you extended me to address your community on the occasion of your anniversary meeting.

I wish I could see my way clear to come. Unfortunately my lecture program for the remainder of the season is so crowded that I cannot in justice to myself accept any more invitations.

I do hope that I shall have the opportunity at some future time to serve you. With kindest regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Rabbi Silver: Almost a year ago I wrote you about coming east to speak. I am wondering if you have any plans in the spring for coming to the vicinity of Philadelphia?
I shall appreciate hearing from you of your plans? Sincerely yours

My dear Mrs. D'Olier:-

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter. I do not plan to be in the vicinity of Philadelphia this season.

I have been compelled to cancel some of my engagements due to increased responsibilities here at home. Perhaps I shall find it possible to come to you some time next season.

With kindest regards, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,
