Dear Rabbi Silver:

I write to you perennially regarding your availability for lectures, without much success, but with the persistence of our groups, I persist.

The specific inquiry which prompts this note is from the Passaic YMHA for Wednesday, April 10, 1946. I realize that it may be a little hard for you to plan and think a year ahead, but if you will indicate whether or not you will consider it later on, and also as to your fee, I shall very much appreciate it.

Cordially yours,

JANET G. WEISMAN

My dear Miss Weisman:

Thank you for your kind letter of May 15.
I do not want you to feel that I am cantankerous about not accepting your invitations, but unfortunately my commitments are such that I am not free to do many things which I would like to do.

I appreciate very much the invitation of the Passaic YMHA, but I cannot at the present time commit myself to an engagement so far ahead.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

AHS:BK

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Thank you for your letter of June 1. This business of mine is one of a continuous vicious circle. The organizations press me and I, in turn, press the speakers, and the more occupied a person is, the more in demand he is.

Be that as it may, I am asked by Passaic to submit an earlier date for your consideration. Can we place a tentative hold on October 17? In the event that you can give favorable consideration to this suggestion, I am enclosing a contract, and would appreciate your early advice.

Cordially yours,

JANET G. WEISMAN
