My dear Rabbi Silver:-

You will recall I was in your office nearly a year ago in regard to your coming to Madison to speak before the Kiwanis Club.

I find myself on the Entertainment Committee for the month of September and will be very highly pleased if you will pick any Wednesday in the month to speak to us.

Our usual audience is not large enough to ask you to speak before, but I am very certain, and have had the promise of one other club in the county meeting with us upon the occasion of your coming, which will insure an audience of 150 to 200.

I am reasonably sure that after you have met with us and enjoyed our hospitality you will have had no regrets in complying with our request.

I am,

very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Wien:-

I have just returned from abroad and find your letter of August 5th and your invitation to address the Kiwanis Club.

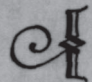

I regret more than I can say that I am unable to accept any speaking engagements during the month September. My congregational calendar is very crowded at this time in preparation for the High Holy Days and I am constrained to remain in Cleveland continuously. I need not tell you that I am very appreciative of your thoughtful invitation.

With kindest regards, I am

We wish to express to you our deep appreciation and gratitude for your message delivered to our community

upon which to base our opinions of the everchanging conditions of Europe.

Dear Sir:

I wish to express my very deep appreciation for the services you rendered to the citizens of Perry and vicinity last Tuesday evening, and to assure you that everyone present was grateful to you for coming.

We realize that coming to Perry with such weather conditions was a great sacrifice on your part.

You made clear a great many things which the people of Perry had not previously understood and your address was of interest to the high school students who were present, as well as, to the older citizens.

The Men's Club, under whose auspices the meeting was held, is in its first year of organization and therefore, not very strong financially. Your willingness to render your services without charge, was a very pleasant surprise and I wish to thank you kindly.

I have already expressed my gratitude to Mr. Schloss for his interest in securing your services.

Yours very truly

B. Graves.

Dear Sir:

We want to express to you our appreciation and thanks for the talk you gave at our Lecture Course last week.

It was a very instructive talk and many people expressed their opinion as it being the finest talk they had heard in this section in many, many years.

Again thanking you and hoping some day that we may be able to reciprocate.

Yours very sincerely,

THE PERRY MEN'S CLUB
