Rabbi Silver.
Cleveland, O.

Dear Sir:-

On May 24th the Men's Literary Club of this city will have their annual banquet, and in accordance with the usual custom, will secure an out-of-town speaker for the program.

As chairman of the executive committee, I write to ask whether you could serve us on that night, and if so, what would be the terms. Also advise the range of topics on which you would feel qualified to speak.

We trust we may have an early reply.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:-

I am directed by Rabbi Silver to reply to your letter of March 4th. He thanks you for the courteous invitation tendered him, to address the Men's Literary Club of Sandusky and thinks he may be able to accept for the date you mention - May 28th.

Rabbi Silver's fee would be $100.00
and traveling expenses, and he suggests one of the following topics:

The Immigrant vs. The Foreigner
Organizing for Service
The Message of the New Day
The Dangers of Democracy

Should your arrangements be perfected,

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

I am very much elated over the good news I just heard from Chaplain McLane of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Home, he tells me that he is looking forward to your coming here under the auspices of the American Legion to address a Sandusky audience. Our people regardless of creed have been looking forward for some time to such an occasion and I know that a hearty welcome is awaiting you and a splendid audience assured.

Realizing how impossible it is for you to respond to every call from the small Jewish Communities for a personal visit to them, I want to take advantage of this opportunity however and would ask if it would be convenient for you during your visit to be the guest of the Jewish people here for the short time at your disposal. We would be pleased to be honored with your presence at a six or six thirty dinner at which time we would have our people together and it would be a splendid occasion for everyone to meet you.

Trusting you may find it convenient to do so and could you let me know a week in advance of your coming so that we may make proper arrangements.

Awaiting anxiously to see you here, I am

Dear Dr. Silver:

After my last interview with you, I came home and reported that you had promised to speak for us at an early date. The American Legion members were greatly delighted to hear this, and as the report leaked out to the public, I have received many anxious inquiries as to the date of your coming.

We have made elaborate plans for this series of meetings, and as you are the chief corner-stone of the plan, we are very anxious, indeed, to have you give us an early date. Following your address we expect to have Ex-Justice, John H. Clarke, and following him the most distinguished, Catholic prelate, that we can secure. Will you not try to give us an evening in the very near future. I am sure

Dear Sir:

At our last regular meeting, Wednesday May 20th, the members of Perry Post unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed and approved your splendid address given here under the auspices of the Post. The public that were fortunate in hearing your address were pleased as was indicated in conversations with numerous ones who were there. It has given our post a boost in the standing of our community, in fact has done more good for the welfare of Perry Post and in the American Legion in this city than anything I know of. So please accept the heartfelt thanks and appreciation of my comrades and myself for your willingness to come here and present the fine address which you rendered.

I am enclosing a check for your expenses incurred in coming here and I am sure the members and myself wish it could be for more, Thanking you again for your services rendered and extending to you the best wishes of Perry Post, I am

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Some months ago you wrote me in response to an invitation to come to Sandusky as the honor guest and speaker of the Sandusky Rotary Club, that you were very busy with a heavy schedule which would not permit you to get away for a visit with our men at that time.

You suggested that I write you at a later date, consequently I am now writing you to inquire whether it would be possible for you to come to Sandusky to be the guest of our Club on either Thursday noon, February 20th or Thursday noon, February 27th, 1930.

A number of our men remind me at regular intervals of their desire to have you with us and so I am writing at this time to inquire whether or not you will be able to fill one of our openings as suggested. We should be most delighted and honored to have you come for either one of these dates.

Thanking you for the courtesy of an early reply, and with kindest wishes for a very happy New Year, believe me

My dear Rabbi Silver:

Thank you so much for your letter of January 13th. We, of course, are extremely sorry that our invitation to come to Sandusky for Lincoln's Birthday reached you too late.

However, we are not daunted in our ambition to have you come to appear as the honor guest and speaker of our organization and if you would select some Thursday in March for our organization, we should be eternally grateful to you. We are leaving the date and subject to your own choosing, and if you will kindly consult your schedule and let me know if we are to be favored with an acceptance for one of these dates, I am sure you will have won a place in the hearts of scores of our members who have been clamoring for your appearance for many months.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

The Men's Club of the Congregational Church of Sandusky, Ohio request me as Chairman of their Program Committee to invite you to be their guest and speaker of the evening for one of their Wednesday night meetings this winter or spring.

It is our custom to have a supper at 6:15, following this immediately with the talk which takes place in the dining room with everyone seated at the tables. At your meeting, (if you will accept our invitation, of course) we would invite both the ladies and the men due to the more than ordinary interest in the occasion.

Like many church organizations, our funds are limited, but we would not expect you to come, of course, without paying your expenses.

We would like to have you some Wednesday evening between February 25 and April 15. In the event you can come, could you state your first and second choice, also if possible your third choice which will greatly aid us in making up our schedule? Your early favorable reply to this will be most sincerely appreciated.

Dear Sir:

We take this opportunity to introduce ourselves as officers of B'nai B'rith Lodge #949, Sandusky, Ohio. The occasion for this letter is in connection with a 50th year celebration of the Providence Hospital of Sandusky.

We have been invited, along with the leading service, fraternal and civic groups of this city to comprise a committee to formulate the plans for the celebration of this anniversary. The committee desires the services of an outstanding man who is in complete accord with this type of program which includes service to community and value of religious groups cooperation. The Providence Hospital is a Catholic institution.

The committee has followed your work with our religion and inter-faith groups and feels that no one could present this picture more vividly to the group. The Ministerial Association and the general chairman are unanimous in their selection to have you speak before them.

The plans as outlined call for a seven day celebration highlighted by a luncheon and dinner on October 7, 1952 to held at the Sandusky Junior High School Auditorium. Your address will be made to the above mentioned groups and will be the feature of the program. The entire program is being accomplished without financial burden to any group or persons.

We personally, as deeply gratified that these non-Jewish groups have singled out our organization to be responsible for the most important part of the week-long program. The success of our efforts in their behalf will be another important step in cementing inter-group and inter-faith relationship.

We anxiously await your reply in order that we may complete any necessary details.

Dear Mr. Fingerhut;

Upon check with Rabbi Silver concerning your appointment on Thursday, he advised me that he would be unable to see you at 2 o'clock. He stated that it is impossible for him to be with you on October 7th, and unless there is some other matter you wish to discuss with him, he did not want you to make a special trip into Cleveland. His calendar for the next two months is already very overcrowded and he does not wish to make any additional commitments. I am sure you will understand.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I spoke with your secretary via telephone today and she suggested that I put my request in writing with all pertinent facts included.

Our Jewish congregation totals 42 families and this year we completed our new synagogue. Prior to the completion of this new building, we held our services in a house which was equipped to serve as a temple and before that we rented various halls. Our congregation was incorporated in 1915, but it was just this year that a real synagogue was completed which will serve as a real Jewish community center. Considering the size of our congregation we feel that the completion of this new temple is a noteworthy achievement.

Our temple will be dedicated on Sunday, December 2, at 2:15 p.m. We should like to have you attend and be our main speaker. Perhaps we are presumptuous in making such a request of you, inasmuch as our congregation is so small, but it took great courage to complete our new temple so we have decided to borrow some of that courage and approach you.

If the transportation to Sandusky and back to Cleveland presents a problem, we shall arrange to have you flown into our city. There is regular air service between Sandusky and Cleveland which would allow you to be picked up at either the Cleveland Municipal Airport or the Lakefront Airport. The flight between our cities takes from 20 to 25 minutes. The plane used is a new all-metal Cessna 172 which is quite roomy and comfortable. If you would prefer to have the time of our dedication program changed to make it more convenient for you to attend and speak, we shall make the change in the time. If you do not care to fly, we can arrange to have someone drive you into Sandusky and then back to Cleveland. As you can see, we will do almost anything to have you as our main speaker.

We trust that your schedule will allow you to come to our dedication ceremonies. Your participation in those ceremonies would make of them the most memorable in the history of the Sandusky Jewish community.

May we hear from you?

Very sincerely yours,
