My dear Dr. Silver:

The Sharon-Farrell Section of the Council of Jewish Women is very anxious to have the pleasure of hearing you speak, and would like to know if you have a date open in April or May when you could address an open meeting.

Please let us know if there is any possibility of your being able to come here, and also what your charges are to speak before such a meeting.

My dear Miss Mayer,

Rabbi Silver is in receipt of your kind invitation of the twenty-third. He thinks he may be able to give you a date in May. His remuneration would be one hundred dollars and traveling expenses.

Upon receipt of your reply that this arrangement is satisfactory to you, I will confer with Rabbi Silver and send you a memorandum of dates when he could come to you.

My dear Dr. Silver:

It was impossible to answer your letter sooner due to the fact that a Board Meeting had to be called to act upon it.

We would very much like to have you come here some time in May and would like you to send us a list of your open dates at once. There seems to be some talk of having you speak on a Sunday night. Is there a possibility for that? It really has not been definitely decided, but the fact that all theatres etc. are unavailable, except on Sundays, makes it almost necessary. The only place to be had on a week night is a Church, and many of the members are against that, because of the strictly Orthodox members.

The meeting we are going to hold is to be open to the general public, and tickets will be sold for the benefit of our own Council. Which place--a theatre building or a Church--do you think will draw a larger crowd? We certainly would appreciate your sentiments on the subject.

Thanking you for your kindness I remain

My dear Miss Mayer,

Permit me to acknowledge your letter of April 6th. I would be in position to give you Sunday evening, May 27th or June 3rd, should you decide on Sunday. If you can have the meeting on a week day I can come earlier in May, say May 14th or 16th. To satisfy all elements in the community it may perhaps be advisable to hold the meeting in a theatre.

Previous to receiving your letter of the 10th we had already decided to hold our meeting in a theatre, as you said, to satisfy all elements. However, it is absolutely impossible to get a theatre this season. Therefore we have decided that we will have to postpone your coming here until sometime in September or October, and would like to know what dates (tentative) you have open for that time. If you are not making up your schedule at this early date will you kindly let me know just as soon as you do?

We surely do thank you for all of the trouble we have put you to, and hope to have you here in the Fall. It is our desire to definitely set a date as early as it is possible to do so.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Would it be possible for you to accept an engagement to speak in Binghamton, N.Y., some time in May on an evening that would be convenient for you? Naturally, the early part of May would be preferable, and if you can arrange it for May 14th, for example, it would fit in admirably with the plans of the Jewish Community Center which is arranging the meeting. There is no special significance attached to the occasion, the community desiring a lecture on a subject of Jewish interest, as the forerunner for a more intensive course next fall.

The local organization is prepared to pay a fee of $150. and travel expenses. May I trouble you for an early response?

It is with a deep sense of humility that I write to you, as program to be our guest speaker for our opening Dinner Drive Dinner.

We are a small Community as size goes, our total, men and women for the dinner may not exceed 250, but as a whole we are very cognizant and thoroughly needed in the trials of our people. This community has for a long time been highly organized for local and national functions of all kinds, and as intelligent men and women, crave the best there is to receive. I personally feel, it is the hope of inspiration to the small communities of our country, by such a man as yourself, that will be the strengthening and the better understanding of our people and its problems.

We have had many rabbis speak in Sharon from our neighboring large cities, but have never had the honor of your visit.

Now to the very delicate part of my letter, concerning enumerations. I am sure we cannot meet your standard fee, and being unable to measure greatness in dollars and cents, can only ask you what your honorarium for a community our size would be. Arrangements will be made to call for and return you to Cleveland.

We have two dates to offer for

I have dinnered - either the evening of September 27th,
