My dear Rabbi Silver:

As a member of the Program Committee of the Kiwanis Club of this city I have been asked to write to you for an engagement - if you can arrange it - either the last week in March or the first week in April on a Monday, Tuesday or Thursday evening. If you will find it possible to come will you also kindly let me know the subject of your address and the terms for the lecture? The audience will not be Jewish but ninety-five per cent Christian.

Thanking you and hoping to have you with us, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Rabbi Fink,

I may be able to give the Kiwanis Club the date of Tuesday, April 4th. I do not know, however, whether they would be willing to meet my fees, which would be $100.00 and traveling expenses. If these terms be satisfactory, let me know and I will send you a list of subjects from which to choose one suitable for your occasion.

In arranging for our program for our annual meeting in May, it is very much our desire to be able to avail ourselves of the privilege of having you as our guest, and later in the evening, of having you address our organization on any topic you may feel is appropriate.

Our annual meetings are always preceded by a 6:30 dinner, a short business session and then some form of either entertainment or speaker.

Are we correct in our understanding that you could come for $100 and expenses? Your early reply will be very much appreciated by
