Dear abbo.

Your check to hand, and I am very much obliged for same.

No question that this will put me on my feet again.

I have great confidence in the Monticello Ave. Store. I assure you that I have had a good business and no more several stores with a small capital. As I said in my previous letter I have tried and made a failure.

I will positively pay your notes
where due. Tell me what interest you pay and I will pay for same.
I do not want you to lose by it. I have given you enough trouble for the last few weeks. So why should you lose yet. Let me hear as often as you possible can. I trust you again.

Dear Sir: In re: R. Bernard Cohn.

In accordance with our conversation, with reference to the above mentioned matter, I have written to our client, recommending that he accept Mr. Liebow's proposition of paying $100.00 monthly.

I am in receipt of a reply in which I am advised that this arrangement is absolutely unsatisfactory, first because it is a repetition of three different arrangements heretofore made by our correspondent, Mr. Siegelstein, at your earnest solicitation and also like repetitions from Mr. Liebow.

As you are undoubtedly aware, in each instance, after check was given it was returned n.g., three or four times, with the result that four months elapsed before $100.00 was received.

Mr. Siegelstein informs me that if you will make a proposition of paying $100.00 every two weeks, on account of the obligation he will do his best towards getting our client to accept same.

Your early reply will be appreciated.

Attention of Mr. H. M. Goldwasser

My dear Mr. Goldwasser,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 19th. I am surprised that our agreement was not favored by the New York attorneys. I remember stating definitely, that should Mr. Liebow fail to meet his monthly payments of $100.00, that I should meet them myself each month. I feel that that is as much as I can do at the present time. I am not financially able to pay the New York attorneys $100.00 every two weeks.

I stand ready to make good any default of Mr. Liebow in his monthly payments.

Trusting to hear from you in this matter, I beg to remain

Dear Sir:

Since our letter to you of March 19th,
we have been informed that Mr. Liebow made the following proposition:

That he and yourself would arrange to pay $400.00, providing the balance is extended for a period of eight months and then payable in installments. This proposition was absolutely turned down by our correspondent, Mr. Siegelstein of New York City.

We are authorized to submit the following proposition to you:

If $400.00 is paid within the next few days, our client will accept the same, providing the balance is paid in monthly installments of $100.00 each.

Will you kindly take the matter up with Mr. Liebow and advise him to send us the initial payment of $400.00, as above mentioned, and monthly remittances of $100.00? We have no doubt but what this small matter can be closed up very amicably, if Mr. Liebow is in favor of this arrangement.

Your early reply will be greatly appreciated.

My dear Mr. Goldwasser,

I have but recently returned from a lecture engagement in the South and find your note of March 25th.

It was a cause of surprise to me to read that Mr. Liebow had offered to advance four hundred dollars on his loan. If he has that much money I most certainly have no objection to his paying it.

As far as I am concerned, the only arrangement that could be justified by my present financial circumstances is the one which I suggested in my last letter to you, i.e., that Mr. Liebow vis to pay $100.00 each month, in default of which I shall pay the sum myself each month as

Dear Abbo:

How are you? no doubt you are pretty busy and that's the reason you do not write.

Bess the children and myself are all right. I expect an increase in my family shortly..... Don't laugh an accident happened this time..... Well, let it go at that. Otherwise, I am managing the store and whenever I will have money he will give me back the store.

Please let me know how much you have paid to Jack. He is keeping my $750⁰⁰ and will never give me back. So please when you will have paid about $700⁰⁰ (I wish you can ~~drag him for a long time~~) you should stop paying as I am going to fight him in court about it. Let me hear from you.

My dear Doctor:

Received yours of the 13th inst. in re Cohen v. Silver, and contents noted. I have absolutely no control over Messrs. Bardwell & Miller of your City, particularly since they advised me, that they have taken judgment, and probably for that reason they are holding the notes, pending the full payment of judgment..

Personally I have no objection to their releasing to you from time to time one of the notes, but the mere fact that you have not yet received any of the notes back does not warrant the failure on your part to keep up your monthly installments, particularly since the notes have been merged in to judgment.

Unfortunately there has been so many delays and so many defaults as to the payments, that confusion has resulted therefrom. I have no objection to your going to Bardwell & Miller, and making your arrangements to pay direct to them, and they will undoubtedly, as the judgment is reduced, release to you from time to time your notes.

Dear Sir:-

Re - Cohen vs. Silver

I duly received your letter of December 2nd but in the meantime have received communication from Mr. Siegelstein that no payment has been made for december and Dr. Silver is still in arrears upon the September payment. I have endeavored by lengthy explanation to make him understand that all these notes are merged in a judgment and the return of the notes to him is meaningless, and on account of the fact above stated it is difficult to at times figure the number of notes which should be returned. All of this can be avoided by your payment to this office or into court and unless this is done promptly I propose issuing execution and do away with all this unnecessary periodical explanation to Dr. Silver's office.

Dear Abbo,

When I received the receipt last month, I wrote to Jake and asked him for my policies, and enclosed I am sending you his letter of Aug. 9th. I met him at Siegelstein's office. We did not meet Siegelstein, and Jake told me that Siegelstein forgot to sue for the full amount (10 notes) and he only sued for six notes, and four are still due. After an argument (which I nearly smashed his jaw) we agreed to wait for papa (he was at that time in the country) and we will have a conference and settle without him troubling you again. That understanding was about the 11th of Aug. Last week I receive a letter from Siegelstein which I also enclose. The same day I wrote a letter to Jake and told him about what we agreed in Siegelstein's office, and also told him not to dare bother you now and papa is back and we can have our settlement in a nice way as he has enough dirty things done.

His answer I am enclosing also dated Sept. 18.21.

You can see abbo that I am not trying to ruin you, you do not know and you will never believe me what worries
and agrevations I have had since Jake strated to trouble you. Of course I do not expect you to thank me for same but,
do not accuse me of trying to get money out of you.

There ^{were} 15 notes, I have paid 5 notes and 10
were left. Some how rather Engelstein sued for 6 notes and this four notes are from the 15 notes. I am going to care for them.
I will try my best he should not bother you,
or I will knock his teeth out.

I am writing to papa he should write
to Jake when to meet and settle this out.

Dear Abbo.

Papa tried to get Jake to come together and settle, he did not answer him, and he might sue again. So I am telling you and please do as I ask you. As soon as you hear from his Cleveland or N.Y. lawyer, tell him that the figures are not correct. He claims that there is due of more notes amounting to  $4 \times $167^{60} = $670^{40}$ . My figures are less. I am enclosing statement so you will see the exact amount due.

So much I am willing to pay him monthly, between $25 to 5000.

Let your lawyer make all the arrangements and notify me of same and I will send to you or your lawyer the amount agreed. He (Jake) does not want to listen to me unless I put up a bond for $500 and then he says he will settle with me. He has all my policies and also cash over $500,

and he does what he pleases.

I will get even with him so day,
I am also enclosing papa's letter
which he wrote to Jake!

Dear Abba,

Your letter, also cancelled checks received. There was no need for you to send me these checks as your word to me is sufficient. According to the checks there is still due you $1114.97 which I will be glad to pay you beginning next month. Will it be satisfactory if I pay you $100.-per month as I have spent quite a lot of money in the last five or six months. Please let me know by return mail and be frank with me if it will be all right as to these payments.

With love to Virginia, Daniel J., I am

Yours, as ever
