Dear Rabbi Silver:-

January 28, 1953

Due to a conflict in birthday, we are very sorry we cannot help you celebrate. Bob will be 21 on Wednesday and, as he is still in bed, we wouldn't leave him.

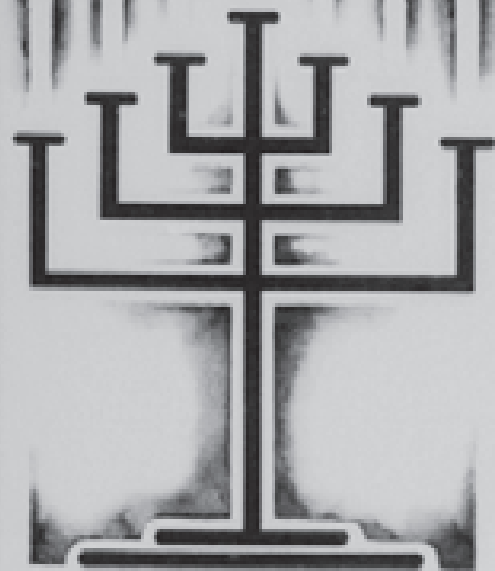

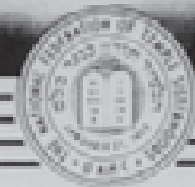

We just want you to know our thoughts are with you on this happy occasion. We wish you many more years of good health with Virginia by your side to carry on your efforts toward world peace as our beloved Rabbi.

WRHS

Jan. 28th 1953

My dear Rabbi Silver - you do not know me personally, but like many of your admirers I am one. I am 77 yrs old and have known and listened to you ever since you came to the City of Cleveland - watched the Building of your Temple ~~to~~ my dear Husband was fond of you. I listened to your Prayer in Washington last week; and listened to everything at your Dinner - and I too say

God Bless you, and I keep you well, and spare you to your People for many many years.

Now I must tell you why I'm so interested in the State of Israel. My Mother's Grandmother was a Doctor Midwife; that is she as they called it, then, served in the Hospitals 3 yrs. to become qualified. and she nursed in the Rothschilds family. and when my Mother was a little girl - she was taught to love the Jewish People. and when I was a child, was taught the same. I grew up in Cleveland in a Jewish neighborhood and in the Old Cathedral way. I loved my neighbors. Well this is what I want to say. My grandfather ^{Jews} said - The more God's Chosen People, they would be sidetracked and persecuted for a while. But no matter how they would grow and grow and By & By would come back and have their own Country. My Mother did not live to see it but I'm so glad her Prophecy has come true in my life. And I Pray Peace and Plenty will come to the new State. I've looked for it since a little child I've preached it too. and now God has caused it to happen. You were one of his Chosen Vessels, for when God wants something special done, he creates a special person or persons to do it. I've been a life long member of Trinity Cathedral - and now with love and God Speed to you & Mrs. Silver I am Sincerely your Friend.

Louise R. Bing

MOUNT DORA

Rabbi Hillel Silver
Cleveland. Ohio

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I regret to be unable to attend the ~~big~~ civic dinner to be given in your honor on Wednesday. I am in Florida where I spent my winter months.

I want however to join with your many friends

respectfully yours,

S. R. de Sauné

Lakewood Bay - M^t Lora. Florida.
until March 23.

28th Jan. 1953

in congratulating you on your 60th birthday and the 35 years of devoted services
you gave the Temple.

In my only long residence in Cleveland, I have had the opportunity to observe the rich contributions, cultural, religious and civic, you made to the life of our community.

May you continue for many years to come the magnificent work you have been doing in so many other activities.

Sidney L. Vincent

Cleveland Heights 18, Ohio

January 28, 1953

Dear Rabbi:

Returning home from your wonderful birthday party, I feel moved to share with you an observation that struck me with growing force throughout the evening. The deep joy that people took in honoring you seemed to go beyond tribute to you - to reach something profoundly satisfying to themselves. It was as if they were honoring - through you - the best in themselves; that you were acting out in your life their own potentials for nobility and dedication. This is, I suppose, the secret of greatness - to objectify for us in deed our own submerged and lost hopes for unashamed self-fulfillment. And so our happiness tonight was double - for you, and for us too.

Sincerely,
Sidney Vincent

חבר סניף נכבד:

נשפץ אנכי להגיע עוד מוקד בברכת הדלה לחג הגדול של הציונות ושל הישוב היהודי בארצות הברית, שיתקיים לכבודו ביום 5 בפברואר, ב"הלדורף אסמוריה", בקטר עם חיותו לבן-שטים.

אלה הפועלים בשורות התנועה הציונית וכיחוד נציונות הכללית בשעה זו של בלבול המוחות בעולם לבני האון בעיה שאין מוצאים פתרון להן, מבקשים את האישים המפורסמים בחבל שיכלו לשמש לנו מודי דרך והמוכשרים להציל את כח השת-רור היהודי ולהביאו עד השלבים האחרונים: קיבוץ הגלויות.

המוקדטים בחוכן ועל מי בטיחנו יודעים אנחנו שהאנשים היוצרים והסג-הלים את גורל העמים בטעות קשות מאד ומסוכנות, ובכל הכבוד למנהיגים העולמיים של הציונות, אנו מצטערים על חוסר אישים לנהל את החסונות ולתת להם חוכן ואור"נטציה. יש בר נרחב מוכן לאפשרויות של קיבוץ גלויות נכל רחבי העולם האמרי-

קאי. ישנה רזרבה מצוינת של אנשים, נשים וצעירים הנכונים ללכת בכיוון מתאים אם יבואו לעמוד בראש האישים אשר סוללו את דרך הציונות עד שנה סדירה ישראל אולם מסג-השפעת הזמן או העיפות במלחמות ממושכות אינם נראים עכשיו לכל אורך ורחב ההפ-צות. אנחנו מאמינים באופן מוחלט בתפקיד העיקרי של הציונות הכללית בתנאים העכ-הניים והבאים של המדינה ובמיוחד בביזוס המוני היהודים, ורק חוסר הוים ברורים ומנהי-גים בעלי אחריות גדולה בהתאם למצב מעכב מלפתור את הבעיות של היום ושל מחר.

לכן חושב אנכי שהגינה יום הולדתך ססביבה של אהדה והוקרה מצד חוגי-נו וחוגים אחרים של הייתה מצוינים בישובו באמריקה ושל האישים היוצרים נעלים בדמו-רסיה תבולת שבה פועל כבודו, משמש הודעה נעימה ובשורה טובה על זכר שובו לפעולה הקונסטרקטיבית של התנועה שהמנהיגיה בולנו בכל מקום שהוא.

יארין ד' את ימינו ויאמננו שיוכל במשך שנים רבות להמשיך בכשרונותיו של מנהיג ומורה דרך ובחתיכתו הציונית לטובת הענינים היקרים לנו ולשמחה אלה המחכים בתקנה לשובו לשורות הפעולה כחור מורה ומנהל.

Dear Dad:

The span of years between our lives is considerable and our interests have led us into far different careers. Yet I have always felt a certain bond between us that defies this bridge of time and over-shadows the differences in our life's interests.

It is not so easy to define this bond. It is not merely the natural bond that unites father and son, nor is it just the tie of obedience and admiration of a son who has learned to love and revere his father. It is, of course, all of these - and something more.

It is the bond of friendship of one man for another. A bond based not on reverence or obedience or admiration alone, but on a mutual respect and understanding that can exist between two men and is independent of family relationships.

To me, the realization that this bond of friendship grows stronger between us with each year, has drawn me very close to you in a way that is as fresh and bright and warm as the first rays of a summer morning sun. The love, the reverence, the obedience, the admiration are all still there, but this warm friendship is the golden crown.

It has permitted me a sincere and treasured friendship that spans the deep filial love and the pride that I have always felt in being your son. It permits me now to wish you happiness and health on your birthday, with a fullness of heart which I jealously cherish as my very own.

Your loving son

Confirmation Class

Dear Rabbi Silver,

During the past few weeks you have received many tributes and gifts. We of the confirmation class would like to do our part and present you with something we think you might enjoy.

We have been studying life in the ghetto and done some original writing on this subject, under the direction of our teacher Miss Matthews. This folder contains the best of our efforts in 9B and 9C.

We hope you will enjoy reading these as much as we enjoyed writing them for you.

DOCUMENT INDISTINCT

THE GHETTO....

The word ghetto is thought to have come from the Hebrew word get meaning separate, or perhaps from the Jewish quarter of Venice, which was near the iron foundry, or "giotto". It was in Venice that the Jews were first penned in like so many animals, with huge iron gates that were locked at night. Those returning to the ghetto after the gates had been locked were often subject to corporal punishment, fines and drastic curtailment of their business activities. In many instances the Jews were compelled to wear identifying insignia outside the ghetto. The ghetto was placed in the dirtiest and unhealthiest part of the city; the overcrowding brought filth and disease.

If you could picture the first ghettos of Rome you would be sickened by the tall dirty wallaces with their tiny rooms. You will understand how degraded the Jews felt as they passed down the narrow winding streets creaking with foot steps.

The Jew had to pay special taxes; he was degraded to make a living in any respectable trade; he was denied the bread of his family by setting up a new-brother of the ghetto.

Yet that bread always came from the ghetto. For he had recited the ancient Hebrew blessing "Blessed be the Lord our God" at the family table which became his altar. No matter how the Gentiles stoned and cursed him all through the week, he would return for the Friday night festival, and sit like a prince in the midst of his children. In the heart of the ghetto stood his synagogue, his house of prayer and study, his center for all the merry-making his hard days knew, the clubhouse where he sat with his fellow Jews.

By the time the ghetto walls were finally down, the Jew was ready to step out as a citizen of his homeland, a member of the modern world.

GHETTO, HELP OR HINDRANCE

Was the ghetto a help or hindrance to the Jewish people and their religion? If you asked most people that question, they would reply instantly "a hindrance". But was it? To answer this question, we shall have to consider the facts both pro and con. First, let us examine the negative or hindrance side of the topic.

It can easily be seen how unfortunate it was that the Jews had to be placed in ghettos by just thinking of the ghetto itself. The ghetto, always located in the worst district of a city, always shut off from the rest of the city by a high wall as if it's inhabitants were lepers or even worse and of course that is just how the Jews were thought of, ^{and} always inadequate in size. Because of those things, it can unfortunately be said that the ghetto was unavoidably overcrowded, and that there was a lack of sufficient sunlight and fresh air. And in every ghetto would be found narrow crooked lanes that just could not be called streets, and to go along with the lanes there were, of course, tall, narrow houses. It can easily be understood how ghettos were much worse than our slum areas of today.

Because of its location and the crowded conditions which prevailed there, the ghetto was an ideal breeding place for disease. Take, for example, the dreadful pestilence that attacked the Jews of the Roman ghetto in 1656-57. Modern day doctors have traced its source to the Tiber river near whose banks the ghetto was located.

The fact that during the time the Jews were in the ghetto the rest of the world was engaging in the Renaissance must be remembered. The Jews were still living in the Middle Ages while the rest of the world was enjoying a "rebirth". Although the Jews ^{have} did ~~lost~~ out by not being in on the beginning of Modern Times, stop and think a moment. Who suffered most, the Jews or the rest of the world? Wasn't it really the rest of the world? During the time when they were most needed, some of the greatest minds of the world were behind ghetto walls because of the intolerance and stupidity, yes stupidity, of those same people who were trying to bring about this "rebirth".

Somehow, those people did succeed but they would have had much better results if they would have had the assistance of the Jews.

Perhaps most important of all was the spiritual effect that the ghetto had on the Jews and here perhaps can be found the only real "help" of the ghetto. All the persecution and hardships which the Jews had to endure while in the ghetto only strengthened their ^{bond} ~~land~~ of fellowship and helped to preserve their loyalty to their religion and its culture.

Therefore, it can be seen that the Ghetto though a hindrance in many ways was a help in preserving our religion and like all bad things, there was some good in the ghetto.

The Prison Or Life

With a "clang" the great door slammed shut and was bolted behind us, shutting us up for another night. I, Joseph, and my friends, worked at various jobs during the day but at night we had to return to our homes by a certain time. You see I, and my friends were Jews!!! Living in Poland during the reign of hate against the Jews. We were forced to wear special clothes, to attend Christian services. We were heavily taxed, and physically persecuted, and to top it all off we were forced to live in stinking, rotten, ghettos. The ghetto was the epitome of persecution against the Jew.

To create a ghetto you take the worst section of the city, usually by a river or iron foundry, place a wall with one gate around it and into space meant for one thousand crowd five times that many.

In spite of all these impositions and restrictions the Jews flourished and the ghettos bloomed. Because we were shut up so much of the time the people turned to education and learning, and it was during this period that some of the great Jewish works were written. Because the ghetto had no room for expansion the buildings grew up instead of out, sometimes attaining the height of five or six stories.

About the only thing this period proved to the world was that the Jews could not be snuffed out like a candle. As the world found out the Jews are held together by some spiritual bond which welds them together as one.

"I AM a Ghetto"

"I am a ghetto, the watchful guardian destined to be the home of Jews all over Europe for many long and troubled years. Within my high, dark walls lives an unhappy people, a people consoled only by their faith, hope, and religion. My narrow streets and tall, towering houses have witnessed much suffering by a brave people who are yet to suffer more before my abolishment.

"The family of Moses ben Salomon is one which has been through its share of hardships. Before the days of the ghetto he had held a prominent position in the city in which he lived with his wife and three children. Suddenly the ghetto movement began to creep across Europe. The Jews, representing the lowest caste of human life, became a separate and distinct people, the Salomons among them. They had almost become adjusted to ghetto life, when one evening Moses returned from the synagogue to find his five year old daughter feverish and vomiting. The next morning after a spasmodic coughing spell she died. ^{Victim of a mysterious plague which had been} As if this were not enough, just a ^{sweeping} month ago his oldest son Benjamin was struck down in one of the ^{the ghetto} frequent, horrible riots and was crushed to death beneath the hooves of an angry horse.

"Hardships you say, yes, but their lives are not all sorrowful. Many find relaxation and enjoyment at the infrequent dances and entertainments or with their ever constant studies.

"I do not understand these people, so obstinate and brave. I cannot see why they persist in being so stubborn. Can a mere religion mean so much to a people?

"How many years I shall continue to be a means of degradation to them I do not know, but I am sure that it will be for many ~~years~~ to come. Even then people will talk of me, historians will write of me because I am a ghetto!"

"I Am a Ghetto"

SHMUEL, GHETTO OF LONDON

The musty odors wafted upward with a sickly wind that might be called a breeze. The narrow, dank streets seemed even more damp and cold than ever, and the tedium of his life bore upon him more heavily than usual. Poor Shmuel, a raggedy man with a coat torn and patched, a face creased and worn, a back stooped from work, work, work, at 6 in the morn till 8 in the eve.

Moving slowly, he turned down the street to his attic, thinking to himself with a sinking heart,

"Ach, what will Leah say? I have not a shekel to my name-today we will have no supper."

In his mind he pictured his wife, Leah, and his two daughters, Rebecca, aged 8, and Malka, aged 17. He could hear Becky (for that is what they called the little girl) quiriery anxiously,

"Mama, will papa be home soon? will we have any supper tonight?"

and Leah answering soothingly,

"O f course, Beky, of course, your papa will be her presently."

There was a tone of skepticism in her voice, however.

Sick at heart, he turned to enter his house-why, what is this?

"I say, old man, wait up!"

"What is it you desire, friend?"

"I hear that times are difficult with you."

"Ah, very difficult."

"Then here," said the stranger, pressing a shilling into Shmuel's gnarled hand, "here, take it; I have no need of it."

And he was gone before Shmuel could thank him.

Gratefully, he climbed the many steps.

"Ah, he thought, "with a warm feeling in his heart, "now my family shall eat!"

The Roman Ghetto.

This is Station WART signing on. Stay tuned for "The Israel Story which follows immediately.

A: Hello, folks, this is your friendly announcer, ready to bring you tonight's episode of "The Israel Story" entitled "The Ghetto of Rome". As the scene opens we see two men discussing their troubles on a street corner in the poorer part of the Ghetto.

David
Cohen: How is your family getting along, Judah?

Judah
Levine: Things aren't too good. The Pope had his soldiers collect taxes today, and they took away some of our possessions because they secretly raised the taxes, and we didn't have enough money to pay them.

D: Gee, that's too bad, making the poorer people pay such a large percentage of the taxes. I hope my belongings are all there when I get home. If you're too far in debt I can lend you some money.

J: That'll be wonderful, because we don't have a penny for food.

D: I suggest you don't leave the ghetto to shop, because my next door neighbor was seriously stoned when he went shopping. He was also fined because his yellow badge was ripped off in the fight.

J: If you think that's bad, the people two tenements up from us were chosen to run in a race next Sabbath with two mules, a goat and a bull, and you could just imagine what'll happen to them.

D: I'm glad we at least have a few things to take our minds off our troubles once in a while.

J: Oh, do you mean those dull parties with no music, no dancing, no decent food and everyone wearing second-hand clothes?

D: Well, at least it's something different. Say, it's getting rather late. I better hurry home. Be seeing you. Good luck in the meantime.

A: David hurries home, but as he turns up the sidewalk, he is met by an unfriendly sight, two of the Pope's soldiers.

D: What have I done now?

First
Soldier: You were seen outside the ghetto at 6:30 last night. We came to collect the fine you owe us. Since you are a wealthy money lender, probably illegally, we will raise it 2000 livres.

D: But I wasn't outside of the ghetto at all yesterday, since my business is right here. At 6:30 I was eating supper with my friend, anyhow.

2nd
Soldier: We personally saw you there.

D: You're both liars ! You aren't worthy of being officials !

1st S: Oh, a wise guy, eh? You better come along to the prison with us. And don't call for help. You'll just be worse off.

A: David is taken off to court. There is a trial, but of course David is pronounced guilty of contempt of court, slander, and other misdoings he knew nothing of, used only to make the case against him stronger. His sentence is five years in prison.

D: Bread and water ! Bread and water ! Bread and water ! That's all I ever get to eat around here, morning, noon and night ! I'm starving to death !

Guard: Keep quiet ! You're a lot better off than most of the other prisoners, but if you don't quit complaining, I'll throw you in the dungeon.

D: But all that luscious food you're eating makes me even hungrier.

G: That's for you to worry about.

J: Pst ! Pst ! Hey, David !

D: Hey, what's that?

J: It's me, Judah ! Over by the window. I finally got your message, and I brought a shovel. I'll start digging tonight, and have you out before morning.

A: About 3 in the morning, Judah and David are creeping stealthily past the prison gates, meeting their families at the dock, and sailing to Turkey, where they plan to start a successful business together.
