To Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

By Esther E. Sahpiro

297 Trafton Rd.

Springfield, 8, Mass.

As we congratulate you, Rabbi Silver,
Events of the past and future our hearts stir.
An important milestone is the sixtieth year.
May it bring PEACE, SECURITY, Unalloyed, cheer.
The great in formal assembly honor you.
We, the humble Zionists send best wishes true.
In 1923, 'ere he was fifty, my father died.
Talmudist, ardent Zionist, this he prophesied.
"Our love for The Bible, our thirst for learning,
Create the indissoluble links of our yearning.
For the continuity of our race,
To The Rabbis and Schools, we can trace."
Rabbi, divinely blessed is thy role in the Z. O. A.
With great promise, you emblazon the future, Hillel of today.
Dear scholar, let me not your patience try.
Facts, not fancy prove age-old ideals high.

Sh'mai, dear Zionist, Sh'mai.
Bless Jochanan Ben Zakai.
He, in the first century B.E.
Founded the famous academy..
'Twas situated at Jamnia.
You and I, descendants of Judah,
Are alive and free today.
Because this sage paved the way.
Jerusalem was doomed to fall,
Vespasian, the Roman, did call
Ben Zakai, "Pray, voice your request."
Ben Zakai's reply, so modest,
Only history, its wisdom did prove.
"Emperor, please, my school don't move,
Give me Jamnia and her scholars."
He didn't seek honors and dollars.
Granted was the petition.
Thus was laid the foundation,
For the rebuilding of Jewish life
Through the study of the Torah. Strife?
Yes, we suffered two thousand years.
We were wandering Jews, my dears.
But always our education,
Preserved Jewish dedication
To establish The Homeland
In Zion, Israel 's land.
Theodore Hertzl's dream,
Yes, it did flash like a beam.
When he studied the Dreyfus affair,
Saw the whole history of the Jew there.
Then began the political zionist movement.
Jewish learning and yearning, it did cement,
Much later, the Balfour Declaration, that's the story.
Chaim Weizman's discovery paved the way for Israel's glory.
Israel became a state in 1948.
After bloodshed, hope, courage and long debate.
To the world, we sang aloud then, near,
"THE wild dove hath her nest, the fox his den, Mankind their country, Israel his land again."

Dear Rabbi Silver,

We are honored to share with you and your dear family in this twofold solemn and happy occasion of your 60th birthday and your 35th anniversary as Rabbi of the Temple.

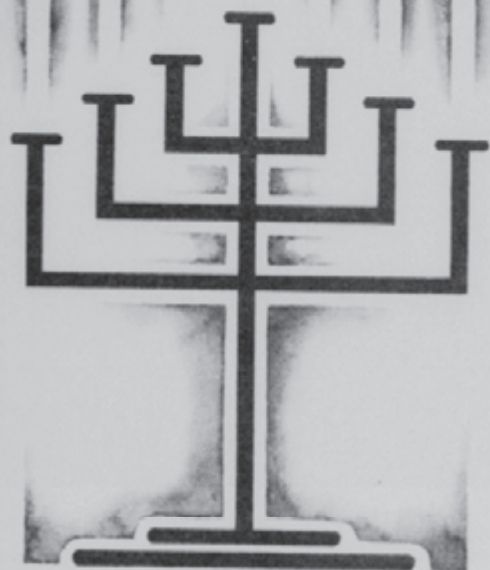

On this occasion we recall your prophetic mission when you pleaded before the United Nations, in your scholarly and statesmanlike manner, for the establishment of a Jewish national home. Your inspired presentation hastened the realization of that 2000-year-old dream.

We wish for you many more years of consecrated Temple service, in good health; of joy in the sanctuary of your home; of satisfaction in your labors for the distressed and dispersed Children of Israel.

Most sincerely yours,
Dr. Albert I. and Bertha T. Livins.

Dear Rakhi Silver,

Tomorrow is your birthday and Temple Anniversary and my family and I want to extend to you our best wishes for many more happy ones. We are sorry we can not be in Cleveland to help you celebrate this joyous occasion.

Dad Salon returned from Washington after spending the week-end with Joel and we all want to thank you for taking so much of your valuable time to visit Joel. I can't tell you how thrilled he was with your visit and he is still talking about it. We all know a busy man you are and how limited your time was while in Washington but the time you spent with Joel has meant a great deal to all of us.

I am sure the road to recovery will be lighter and easier because of your hours with Joel. We are deeply grateful.

With our most cordial and fond wish in which Mother and Dad Salton join me I remain.

Sincerely,
Marilyn Guen Salton

Texts of Prayers at the Inauguration Ceremonies

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—

Following are the texts of the invocation, prayer and benediction at the Inauguration ceremony here today:

Most Rev. Patrick O'Boyle

Roman Catholic Archbishop of Washington

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, amen.

Our Father, in Thy most holy name we pray Thee, to renew Thy gifts in the minds and hearts of those who, today, are entrusted with the august office of governing our beloved country.

Give to those who frame our laws to know clearly the path of rectitude. Urge them by Thy grace to seek to serve Thee best, by serving most unselfishly the citizens of the land.

Let Thy justice be manifest in our judiciary, and thereby enrich and comfort the world with the vision of equal and impartial justice for all men before the law.

Bless with every needful grace, and abundantly endow the mind and heart and will of our President with all the divine gifts and helps that make bearable the great burdens of his high office. May Thy holy spirit descend upon him with the gift of wisdom, to lead, and understanding to know

Thy holy will, together with knowledge to enlighten him in whatever difficulties he may encounter.

Impart to him the divine gift of piety by which he may walk humbly with Thee in the stern way of duty and honor. Fill him with courage to face his gigantic tasks with serenity and infuse into his spirit that charity whose first law is, by Thy will, the love of his fellowman.

Pour forth, we beseech, O Lord, Thy grace into the hearts of all of us, that we may be always true to Thee and to our country, so richly endowed with all Thy blessings. Amen.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

The Temple, Cleveland.

O God, who art beyond our knowledge but near to our hearts and our needs, we pray this day for Thy servant, Dwight D. Eisenhower, as he takes up the burdens of the high office of President of these United States of America.

Keep him with great kindness, O Thou ruler of nations, and give him a wise and understanding heart that he may lead Thy people in these shadowed times, in truth and steadfastness, in patience and in love.

Guide his hands to Thy purpose and his will unfaithfully to Thy service. May he be the bringer of good tidings and the architect of a new hope for our country and for mankind.

May Thy spirit rest upon the Vice President of the United States and upon all the chosen representatives of our Government.

Be gracious, O Lord, unto our land and our people. Help us to preserve our blessed heritage of freedom and to make secure our institutions of law, equality and justice. May it be given to us to walk always in the dignity of free men, secure in our rights and faithful in the obligations of our prized citizenship.

Make us all of one heart, O God, so that together as one people we may move forward unafraid to the tasks and challenges of the inscrutable years which lie ahead. Amen.

Most Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill

Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Unto God's gracious mercy and protection we commit our nation. The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon you and give you peace, now and forever.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I want to offer my sincere, though belated, congratulations to you on the occasion of your sixtieth birthday and thirty-fifth anniversary as Rabbi of the Temple. My father (Charles Aschman) sent me much of the literature that told of this event and the program from the Testimonial dinner in your honor.

Though moving away from Cleveland cut my affiliation with the Temple, my interest and pride in it and you remain. And so, when I read about you or see you on television, I feel a very warm and personal pride in having been associated with you.

may God bless you with many more years of good health, happiness,

Happy Birthday
Now that you're

6 0

Because today's your Birthday
And then, because you're You
This message you're receiving
Has two special things to do —
One to wish you happiness
As new days come and go
And then to say you're thought about
More often than you know

ANNIVERSARY!

WRHS

It's your 30th Anniversary
And a welcome chance to send Sincere Congratulations
And good wishes without end!

May each year ahead be happier
Than the year that went before,
And may you proudly celebrate
Many, many more!

For You
60th Birthday

May this birthday be for you
The happiest of all--

One that you will always find
A pleasure to recall,

And through the years that lie ahead

May every new day add
Some extra bit of gladness

To the happiness you've had.

So sorry I can't be with you on this occasion

A decorative floral garland with various flowers and leaves is draped across the top of the card. Below the garland, there are three stylized classical columns. The background is a light, textured paper.

*To wish you most sincerely,
Not only Birthday Cheer
But busy, bright, contented days
Right Through---A HAPPY YEAR!*

Wish*

WRHS

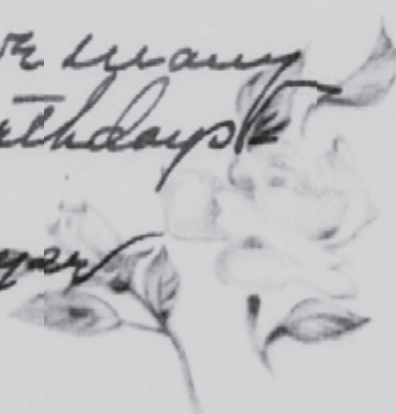

If ever a day is as happy
As a Happy Birthday can be,
If ever a heart is as full of cheer...
As full as a heart can be;

If ever a secret longing
Comes true in the nicest way...
Well, put them all together
And you'll have my wish for today!

Hoping you have many more happy birthdays!

My dear Virginia^{ko}/Rabbi

Will you please accept our heartiest congratulations to the wonderful events you are celebrating. We are very sorry we are not with you to participate and wish you a most gorgeous evening.

Our sincere congratulations to the great honour bestowed upon you in giving a prayer at the inauguration. I was deeply moved, and proud to say to the people around me watching television "He is my Rabbi and my friend."
With all good wishes for a continued blessed future Family Irene Roth
