Dear Mrs. Gans:

I have delayed acknowledging your note of recent date as there has been a change in my calendar which will prevent my being in Cleveland for the Seventieth Birthday Dinner honoring Dr. Silver on Sunday, January 20th. When your note arrived I was not sure of this development, but I now find I must be here in the City on that day.

It is with much regret that I shall miss this important occasion. I am exceedingly fond of Dr. Silver and had the honor of having him as a guest in Government House during my term as Governor of Maryland. It was also my good fortune to be with him on this past Wednesday and to hear his magnificent address at the Advertising Club of Baltimore luncheon.

Kindly convey to him my congratulations. I pray that God will grant him continued good health, long life and active service in His Vineyard. We need his great intellect and guidance.

We know that you will be pleased to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vactor have sent a gift to the Home in honor of your forthcoming birthday. They felt that you would prefer this way of paying tribute to you, instead of the usual telegram.

It is quite far in advance as we understand your birthday is on the 28th of January, but we would like to add our good wishes to those of the Vactors for this happy day.

It is not often that we have the privilege of having a man of your stature as the head of a congregation and leader of national and inter-national importance. Your name is mentioned by all creeds with complete respect and honor, which you so richly deserve. We are blessed by having you.

Gentlemen:

I thank you for your kind invitation to attend the Testimonial Dinner in honor of Dr. Abba Hillel Silver upon the occasion of his Seventieth Birthday. It would have been a real privilege and pleasure for Mrs. Greenberg and me to be there. Unfortunately, my responsibilities will require me to be in Los Angeles on that day.

I do want, however, to join the members of the Committee and the hosts of Dr. Silver's friends and admirers throughout the Country, in expressing gratitude to the Almighty for having given to his people in our day, so brilliant and so devoted a servant. Dr. Silver's historic contribution to the cause of Zionism and the major role he played in the events leading up to the establishment of the State of Israel, will inscribe him forever among the great sons of the Jewish people. His many other contributions to many other areas of Jewish life and Jewish thought, have put all of us spiritually and intellectually in his debt.

May the Almighty bless him with many more years of good health and joy of heart, for in blessing him, all of us are blessed.

Very cordially,

Simon Greenberg

I am delighted that you will be with us Saturday evening. I have made reservations for you and Ruth Lee for both Saturday and Sunday evenings at the Wade Park Manor, a fine residential hotel just around the corner from The Temple, and it ought to be most convenient.

Thanks for the note on the two Cleveland lectures. They have been well received and I hope will have some effect.

See you next week. With all good wishes,

This honor is well deserved
you have been a credit not only to your own community, but to the world Jewish community
as well for you are part of 20th

Dear Rabbi,

A host of colleagues will acclaim
Befitting tributes to your fame
Because your leadership commands
A deep respect in many lands.

However, on this special day
I too, would add a word, to say
"Lord bless and keep you fit, Until
Like Moses you have done God's will Effecting freedom for the Jews -
Lamenting over their abuse."

So carry on your useful life
In fond devotion to your wife -
Live peacefully and as you face
Vicissitudes of Time and place,
Emerge as always, quick to bind
Religion's wounds for all mankind

On the forthcoming occasion of your seventieth birthday celebration, may I join your host of friends and admirers in warmest felicitations. You have been a tower of strength for all who believe in justice and right not only in the national, but also in the international community. Men everywhere have looked to you for leadership, knowing that despite the vagaries of the moment your views and counsel would be vindicated. You have been a rock in the ebb and flow of contemporary events.

For myself, I can only say that you have been a great inspiration. I have looked to you as to no other Rabbi as one worthy of emulation. I know that many of my colleagues share this feeling and I could do no less than acknowledge this in my own behalf on the occasion of your reaching so significant a milestone in your life.

May God spare you for many years to your loved ones and to all who hold you in affection and esteem. May you be granted strength to lead in the ensuing years when the Jewish community, our nation, and our world will need the leadership which dedicated men like yourself can provide.

For some months, now, Mrs. Glennan and I have been planning on being in attendance at the Testimonial Dinner to be held in your honor on 20 January at the Sheraton Cleveland Hotel. [It is with great regret that I must tell you that an out-of-town engagement has interfered with my plans for that evening. May I take this opportunity of saying to you how much your friendship and encouragement have meant to me over the more than fifteen years that I have been in Cleveland. You have provided spiritual, moral and civic leadership in this community and have spoken out responsibly on national problems when the occasion demanded. True leadership is a rare commodity these days. Yours has been of the best and always in the best interest of mankind.]

Dear Dr. Silver:

Let me take this means of joining with your host of friends everywhere in the country in felicitating you on your seventieth birthday. You have been of the greatest influence in the life of our people and of our country. Your fellow rabbis are as grateful to you as they are admiring of you. You have enriched us by your learning, so magnificently reflected in the significant books which you have written; and at the same time you have set for us a pattern of service to emulate, but which most of us cannot begin to equal. You are the brilliant expositor of Torah, superb leader and inspiring mentor and teacher.

May God grant that the years ahead will be rich in harvest, that we may continue to glean the fields so bountifully sown by the high gifts of your mind and spirit.

With warmest personal greetings on this most important milestone.

Very cordially,

Jacob Philip Rudin

Dear Dr. Silver:

I am sorry that Lillian and I cannot be with you and your family on Sunday evening at the banquet in honor of your seventieth birthday. It would be a great privilege to attend this affair. Lillian and I would like to join with your legion of friends in paying tribute to you and expressing the affection that we feel for you.

First in Tulsa and several times in Baltimore we have had the privilege of entertaining you as visiting lecturer and you have always been unfailingly kind and considerate. Our admiration and affection have grown with the passing of the years. We want you to know that we will be thinking of you on Sunday night and praying that God will continue to bless you and your family and grant you many, many happy birthdays.

Lillian, the children and our grandchildren join me in sending you our good wishes and our affectionate regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

It is a privilege and an honor to be able to join the Jewish Community to offer you sincere congratulations and best wishes on your 70th Birthday.

You have been a spiritual and cultural inspiration to the Jewish People for many years. However, to me, this inspiration began in the middle 1920's, at a Zionist Convention, held in Pittsburgh, Pa. I attended my first Convention with my Father, David Fish. There were many Conventions after that; there were Madassah Conventions too; and it was always your thinking and your words of wisdom that inspired me most.

During the past 15 years, whenever Succoth, Peasach or Shavuouth came on a Saturday, I drove my three children to Cleveland to attend services at The Temple. I wanted them to have the opportunity to hear you speak and to learn from you. These were experiences they will never forget.

May God Bless you and Keep you, so that you may continue to serve Israel and the Jewish People.

My husband, Mayerd, and my Mother, join me in extending to you a hearty Mazel Tov and with wished for many more Happy Birthdays.

Cordially

INTRODUCTION OF DR. JOSEPH J. SCHMARTZ

FEW MEN IN RECENT JEWISH HISTORY HAVE PLAYED AS DRAMATIC A ROLE IN THE SURVIVAL OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE AS OUR NEXT SPEAKER. DURING THE UNSPEAKABLE BLOODBATH IN EUROPE TWO DECADES AGO, HE SUPERVISED THE HEROIC RESCUE OPERATIONS THAT SAVED THE LIVES OF MANY HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN. WHEN EMIGRATION TO PALESTINE WAS THE ONLY HOPE FOR THE SURVIVORS, HIS LEADERSHIP AND HUMAN ENGINEERING PROVIDED THE MEANS FOR THEIR WHOLESALE TRANSFER TO THE JEWISH HOMELAND. HE NOT ONLY SERVED AS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF JDC OPERATIONS IN EUROPE DURING THE HIGHLY CRITICAL PERIOD OF WORLD WAR II AND AFTER. HE HAS ALSO DIRECTED AMERICAN JEWRY'S EFFORTS IN BEHALF OF ISRAEL THROUGH HIS LEADERSHIP OF THE UNITED JEWISH APPEAL AND HIS PRESENT POSITION AS VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF THE ISRAEL BOND ORGANIZATION. I AM VERY HAPPY TO PRESENT A JEWISH LEADER WHO HAS TRULY HELPED TO SHAPE THE DESTINY OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE - - -

Dear Dr. Silver:

Chronologically we accept that the years are passing for all of us, but it is difficult to believe that you, Dr. Silver, have reached "three score and ten."

We want to join with all of the many friends and the members of your congregation in marking this auspicious occasion. However, it is not just the span of years which is commemorated, but more importantly it is the great accomplishments of your life. Your spiritual guidance of a very large congregation in a major, metropolitan city. Your leadership in the Central Conference. In all the world you are among the most devoted and consecrated to the Zionist cause. All of these framed a scholarship that has been productive of some very fine books.

We are sure that your career in all of these areas will continue for many, many years to come so that we shall have the cumulative effect of all that you have already accomplished and achieved with that which you will be undertaking in the future. We have just finished BERISHET and will now begin SHEMOT and in between these volumes we say, "CHAZAK, CHAZAK V'NIT CHAZAIK."

It is my pleasure to send this greeting for myself and my family, my co-gregation, and also for all of our rabbinic colleagues in the Western Association of Reform Rabbis.

I had originally arranged to be in Cleveland this Sunday evening for the festivities in connection with your seventieth birthday. Unfortunately, a bronchial disturbance for the past weeks, will prevent me from attending.

May I congratulate you, however, through this letter, and wish you well. May you be granted continued good health and happiness in the coming years.

Your inspiration and spirit has strengthened me ever since I was your student in the Religious School at your Temple. I am grateful.
