Dear Rabbi Silver,-

When I read of the passing of your beloved father, there came to my mind those simple, but beautiful words of Simon baron:-

"Time takes home those that we loved,
Fair names and garments,
To the soft, long sleep,
To the broad, sweet bosom of death."

Your father had lived a full life - replete with blessings. His was an honored name, and he was truly "Eved adonay".

For all this you are, I am sure, truly grateful.

Dear Doctor Silver:

I just learned from the New York press of the loss that you have sustained in the passing from this life of your Father, Z'L, and hasten to convey to you my sincere condolence.

I realize that the bereavement suffered by the loss of a father is not assuaged by the number of years that have been afforded him for fulfillment of rich service to his people and his fellow-men.

May I express the hope that the fact that he enjoyed the "Schuth" to witness the re-establishment of Israel in his days, and to know that his famous son was blessed with the ability and opportunity to serve as a leading influence in the achievement of that glorious period in our history, will serve you as an abiding comfort.

Mrs. Kaplan joins with me in profound sympathy.

Sincerely yours,

Nathan Kaplan

Dear Dr. Silver:-

Please accept my heartfelt sympathy and condolence in your bereavement. I read this morning of the passing of your father at 88, in the land of his love. Though your father reached a good old age and was blessed with the realization of his great dream, his death must nevertheless be a great loss to you, for it was he who guided you and inspired you with a faith that became the dominating idea of your splendid service to Judaism and to Israel in this our beloved country.

It must be a great satisfaction to you that your father lived to see the eminence in Zionist leadership and in Jewish life in general, which you have deservedly attained.

May God comfort you in your sorrow, and bless you and your family.

Cordially and sincerely yours,
Samuel H. Silver

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I want to drop you this word of solicitude in connection with your father's death to let you know of my friendship for you.
Apparently your father had a life richly crowned with the fulness of the years and with the work of his hands and with God's blessing.
It would seem true that the death of such a man coming as it did could be only another grand step for him in God's purpose - God's unfolding and expanding purpose, and therefore, to those who knew him and loved him, it would be a matter of deep satisfaction, gratitude and peace. I hope it will mean something like this to you. I have always been intrigued by the fact that whenever you went to Palestine, you could visit not only the land you loved but also the one who had done so much for you for so many years.

Very cordially yours,

Howard M. Wells

Dear Dr. Silver,

How shocked we were to learn of your sad loss and not to have spoken to you about it! You must have thought we were stupid, but we did not see it in the paper until we returned home and no one mentioned it to us or in our presence in Atlantic City.

Our deepest and heartfelt sympathy. We did not even know that you had lost your mother this last year.

This sad news recalled our own most pleasant and unexpected visit and talk with both your parents when we were in Palestine. Not knowing how long we would stay in Jerusalem, we went to see the places suggested to us, ^{renting} a room, one of them the address of your parents. After we told them who we were and they learned that Baruch was a Rabbi they told us about their illustrious son the Rabbi. You can imagine what a pleasant "shomoss" we had. However,

at the time we were waiting to hear from Jessie Sampter of Rehovot where we expected to stay a few weeks and the day following we heard we could come.
and so we left Jerusalem for several weeks and so informed your parents.
When we returned, the room was taken and we went to live in Meyer Berlin's (who was then in U.S.) home - with his daughter & son-in-law. But we have never forgotten that pleasant visit and the light that shone in your mother's and father's eyes when they spoke of you.
I do not know if we ever told you of this incident.

Again our deepest sympathy.

Dear Dr. Silver:

I just learned of the sudden passing of your father and want to express to you my deep felt sympathy. I know that it is very difficult to find the proper words of consolation but it must have been a great satisfaction to you that you were able to see your father last summer in the new State of Israel, and for him to have seen you there as the leader of American Jewry.

My wife joins me in extending to you and yours our sincere condolences.

Dear Dr. Silver:

The Oheb Zedek Congregation joins me in extending condolences to you upon the loss of your father of sainted memory, Rabbi Moshe Silver. The passing away of such a sainted scholar is not only a loss to his immediate family but also to the people of Israel and the Holy Land of Israel. I trust that your continuous and dedicated efforts on behalf of the people who loved and were loved so much by your father will serve in large measure as a consolation to you in this dark and difficult hour.

Dear Dr. Selow:

It was with deep sorrow that I read of the death of your beloved father and I am hastening to extend to you and the family my deepest sympathy in the hour of your bereavement.

While I feel appreciative that words of condolence to the members of the immediate family can hardly be expected to act as a palliation upon so great a loss, it is my hope that the memory of the years of paternal love and affection will at least alleviate in some measure the pain and suffering. We all feel so great a loss and share our remorse with you and yours.

May the Almighty be kind to you and give you strength in the period of mourning and spare you any sorrow for many years.

Respectfully,
Samuel Greenberg

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I share with you the loss of your dear father,
Raab Moshe Silver.

I do not know whether you are aware of the fact that he was my first Hebrew teacher about 47 years ago. I remember the great joy that came to him when he received Hebrew letters from both you and your brother, Maxwell.

May the Almighty send you the balm of His healing comfort.

Sincerely yours,

HERBERT S. GOLDSTEIN

Dear Dr. Silver:

May I join the host of those who mourn with you in the loss of your beloved father. His was indeed a distinguished role in Jewish life during the past critical decades, and his leadership was a source of strength and encouragement to Jews the world over.

Please accept my heartfelt sympathy in your hour of grief.

I am sure it must be a great source of comfort to you that your dear father lived to see his dream of a Jewish homeland fulfilled.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Abba

I just read in the Jewish Daily Bulletin that your dear father died in Jerusalem. I am grateful that I have his commentary on Genesis; wherever I shall read it as I have already done it will be a monument to him as well as in my mind & a recollection of the fine old age which you helped provide him.

Sillia joins me in sympathy to you & yours
