Dear Mrs Silver,

It was with a deep and profound sorrow that I learned of Mr. Silver's passing.
It was of course a great loss not only to you and your family, but to all people who are concerned with great works and ideas.

I am proud to have known him only slightly - I loved him too.

Linda and I send all consolations to you and your family. Very sincerely yours

Dear Virginia:

We are so very grieved at the loss you have just sustained, and know so well the sorrow that is yours, and wish it were possible to comfort you in some way.

God in His wisdom has called your loved one home, where he will rest peacefully in Eternity. We know Abba Hellel's spirit and love will unfold and sustain you - as well as all his other dear ones - and gradually the pain will turn to blessed memories that will live forever in your hearts.

We were always very proud of our cousin, and know that his illustrious name will live on through his sons. May they always have the ability and the courage to carry on in his footsteps, - footsteps of the most outstanding Jewish man of our time.

With our deep sympathy, we are

Dear Mrs. Silver

We were aghast when we learned about the fervid news, so sudden and so quiet.

Senator Telford was known as my Republican and your most capable and distinguished friend ever regarded as my Big among the American Jews. There is little comfort or solace to you.

that there is no one in the country to succeed him, especially in the political atmosphere - Jews are accustomed to tragedy and more.

but why? when great men are no longer needed

The afternoon, while he was writing by himself, I sat down with him, I mentioned some of my own work which my father sang and taught me. I shall never forget his saying the major part of every one of them with his clear, eloquent voice - This gave me so much pleasure - I have an idea there song might have originated in Lithuania you and your family, after the pain, we have the fortunate and pleasant memory of meeting both of you. When you were not under pressure and were hoping to meet again at some of the many functions in which H. Doctor would have had to take part -

we have just received the prints from camera shots taken in the New York, New York - I plan to take them to NY post with a eulogy (if good enough) and then forward to you

Dear Mrs. Silver:-

I too mourn the loss of your beloved and distinguished husband. I had the pleasure and ^{the} privilege of meeting him last spring when I visited Cleveland.

As the nation's outstanding Rabbi he will be missed not only by those of our faith here and abroad but by those of other religions as well, for he was a man of all the people.

May I offer you in consolation the words of Abraham Lincoln who upon learning that a Mrs. Bixby of Massachusetts had lost her five sons on the field of battle wrote:

"I feel how weak and fruitless must be any words of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming..... I pray that our heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement and leave you only the cherished memory
