Dear Mr. Wilson,
 I have been and your
 advice cannot be improved
 on leave, yet your advice
 will come in time from the wonderful strength within
 you - strength of character,
 of spirit and will, and
 with the love of your children
 and grandchildren - and,

Know that I, too, want to
be remembered among them,
that I care very much and that I am gardening with
and for you.

Sincerely and
with love,

Dear Mrs. Silver:

May I add my word of tribute to the memory of your late husband.

Dr. Silver's long and distinguished service to the American Jewish Community, to the Zionist Cause, and to the State of Israel have earned him a permanent place in history. He will be sorely missed by every Cause to which he devoted himself with such zeal and energy.

In your hour of grief, and in the years to come, let us hope you will find consolation in the knowledge that Dr. Silver has left an unforgettable legacy for future generations, and that he lived to see the realization of the Zionist
objective to which he was so dedicated.

Mrs. Boukstein and I send our deepest sympathy to you and the members of your family.

Dear Mrs. Silver:

Mrs. Gould and I were shocked on learning of the sudden passing away of your beloved husband. I remember my first meeting with him back in the early 20s. I had become President of the local Lodge of B'nai B'rith and I had invited him to be our speaker at a community meeting which was held at the high school auditorium. This goes back about 40 years and I recall what a tremendous impression he made on everyone present.

I also recall a District No. 2 B'nai B'rith Convention held in Denver where he was the main speaker at the dinner, which dinner came on the night of the Schmelling-Louis prize fight. My seat happened to be right under the speaker's table and I remember the Rabbi leaning over to me and asking if I knew how the fight came out. Naturally Louis won the fight and it seemed to please him greatly. This was in the 30s during the Hitler era.

Mrs. Gould and I want to join your many friends in extending our sympathy in this great loss to our entire nation and particularly to you and your family. We shall always deem it a privilege to have known the Rabbi.

Cordially yours,

Many years ago: when my family still lived in Berea, Ohio (where all my own 3 children were born)
my Dad used to take me to hear
the Synagogue Service, the music:
+ "the most wonderful speaker —
I have ever heard," — as he said!

✓✓ Whenever I'd go "home:" on a visit.

I've followed any news of the
"good Rabbi" — ever since!

I've always loved the musical beauty that — is — so prevalent
in the Synagogue service (stopped in at Central Synagogue —

N. Y. City : on passing - in my one & only visit there, in 1953.)

I've been ^{active} ~~an~~ Protestant since
I was 11 - (1914) : & now am a
Roman Catholic - (since July 7, 1962.)
I have found my - "heart's home"
after 59 years!!! Am so grateful!

But : I still appreciate - respect : & love - the Judeo-
position - of my Heritage.

Would this surprise you ??

At the moment (since Sept 1 - is on then the school year ahead) : I cook
Shabbat-dinner for "our parish" & 22 teaching-nuns!!! (That's just a "hobby" & a joy! Not my profession)
But : my latest "loan", from my own bookshelves : is - :

Pholem Asch's "Mary" ———
To:

I of my favorite men
& anyone else, ^{there} interested: ———
in "Mary" — from the particular viewpoint of Asch! ———

This is a small & wonderful world,
where "we" — Asch's people —
can agree to be interested in — each others' "Faith": — & in all that is good!!

My "respects" are here paid — to:
a great man — & a fine, enabling
influence, in America!

Dear Mrs. Silver,

I was quite shocked and saddened to hear of Rabbi Silver's death over the Thanksgiving weekend. He was a great inspiration to me as he was to so many other people.

Please accept my deepest sympathy on this sad occasion.

Sincerely yours,
Paul D. Rodenberg

Dear Mrs. Silver,

I can't begin to tell you how deeply grieved I was to learn of the passing of your beloved husband.

His loss will be sorely felt by all who knew him but his memory will live on forever through all his generous endeavors.

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you and your family at this sad time.

Sincerely,
Sam Rothberg

My Dear Mrs. Silver:

On behalf of the Ohio Music Teachers Association I wish to extend our deepest regrets to you in your hour of great sorrow. Our country has indeed lost a fine leader.

We recall with pleasure the fine speech which he gave us a few seasons ago, and we are grateful for having had the privilege to hear the Rabbi.

Our sincere sympathy goes to you and your family.

Cordially yours,

Virginia Obenchain Daunch
