Dear Mrs. Silver-

Please accept my sincere sympathy. Ours is the loss of a great leader and teacher, but yours is the loss of a beloved husband and life companion. May you find consolation in your children and wonderful memories.

Dear Mrs. Silver, Sam & Ray,
The snows are now falling; the white blanket that covers the earth creates a stillness - which seems to attest to the end of a great man, your dear husband and father, and our Rabbi.
Ronnie and I too echo the deserving words spoken Sunday and can only say at this very sad time that we were privileged to be a witness to his greatness, a receptor of his golden words and to be blessed by his embracing hands.

His absence will indeed be felt by all, but moreover, we sympathize with the innumerable loss that has befallen you personally. May God bless you all forever. Truly, Duane & Ronnie

Dear Virginia -

Rabbi Silver's sudden passing has evoked a warm and eloquent public tribute, evidence in itself of the profound impact of his long career on both his community and his country. I can add nothing to this except my own appreciation for the many personal contacts over these many years — my own confirmation (was it his first class in Cleveland?), our wedding a few years later here in Akron, the period on Lake Shore Blvd, later visits to Akron to address the Rotary Club, the Welfare Fund, and others.

Ours was the benefit from these many meetings. From them we came away enriched by the shining example of his spiritual guidance and leadership.

Lillian joins me in expressing our warmest sympathy to you, Daniel and Raphael.

My dear dear Mrs Silver,

It is with deep sorrow that I learn about the passing away of Rabbi Silver s's.

Reminiscences of the days gone, when our husbands, both alas s's, sat together as two comrades in arms, the love for Zion burning in their hearts, become vividly painful.

It seems as if I hear the voice of my Abraham, expressing his deep gone too soon.
