R. C. Norberg Family
214 Dunbar Road
Palm Beach, Florida

My dear Friends:

It is with deep sorrow that I learned of the passing of Mr. Norberg, and I hasten to extend to all of you my profoundest sympathy.

I knew Mr. Norberg for many years when he was a resident of Cleveland and an honored member of The Temple. He remained affiliated with The Temple even after he left Cleveland and moved to Philadelphia and to Palm Beach. I valued his friendship greatly. He was a man of sterling qualities of character, of high integrity, possessive of a fine civic spirit, and dedicated to all that was constructive in the life of our country.

Mrs. Silver joins me in extending to you our profoundest sympathies, and we pray that comfort and consolation may come to you.

With warmest regards, I remain

Very cordially yours,

ABBA MILLEL SILVER

Anna Lieberman Dies Suddenly at Miami Beach

A prominent, 66-year-old Cleveland Heights woman dropped dead on the beach at Miami Beach, Fla., over the weekend. She was going for a swim when she suffered a heart attack.

The victim was Mrs. Anna Lieberman, of 2235 Overlook Rd. She was the mother-in-law of Jack Garfinkle, owner of the Garfinkle Shoe Stores. Her husband, real estate broker Isadore Lieberman, died in 1953.

She had been vacationing in Florida with another son-in-law and daughter, Morton and Alice Frank, and their three children.

Her son, Rabbi George B. Lieberman, serves a reformed congregation at Rockville, N. I. She is also survived by another daughter, Mrs. Ruth Garfinkle.

Memorial services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Berwitz-Kumin Memorial Chapel, 1985 S. Taylor Rd., Cleveland Heights.

From a purr to a roar, smooch with Sonotone's latest hearing-aid hearing aid. Only eyeglass hearing aid (Volume Control) to soften temples for both men and women for those who don't wear glasses!

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

On sad occasions, I have tried to comfort others. Now others have comforted me.

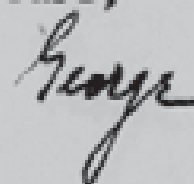

Your sentiments helped and healed. With all my heart do I thank you for your letter on the loss of my dear mother.

You are a busy man, yet you went out of the way to write to me. It meant much to me to hear from you.

I hope that our paths will soon cross.

Sylvia joins me in warmest greetings and in best wishes for you and Mrs. Silver.

Faithfully yours,

My dear friend:

It was only yesterday that I learned of the passing of your dear wife. I have been away from my desk a good bit of the time. Please accept this brief and belated note of sympathy and condolence in which Mrs. Silver joins me. I know that your loss is great, but I trust that you will find in your sound philosophy of life a measure of comfort.

With all good wishes, permit me to remain

Very cordially yours,

ABRA HILLEL SILVER

Acknowledging with grateful appreciation your very kind and thoughtful expression of sympathy

Your thoughtfulness helped to lighten the way during our first days of bereavement.

The Kleiman Family.

We wish to acknowledge with sincere thanks
the kind expression of your sympathy

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Our heartfelt thanks to you and

Rabbi Silver for your letter. It was a great comfort to us.

Sincerely,
Phyllis Shore and Family

Dear Rabbi Silver -

[1959]

My deep appreciation to you and Mrs. Silver for your note of condolence.
Please forgive my tardy
but grateful thanks. It Seemed impossible to write before.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. David) Nancy Rubin
