My dearest Rabbi, Feb 7, 1962

For as many years as I have known you, I have felt that you were appointed ^{God's} representative on earth, by Him. I was only when I was in your presence that I felt the link between God & me was in existence.

Soon, dear Rabbi, God will take my beloved son Barry - no greater gift could He ask for, but I beg of you, to present this most precious gift in my behalf. Perhaps, only a matter of days - perhaps a few weeks, but that will be all.

Barry loved you, admired & respected you as I do. He treasured your letters and the memories of every word you spoke to him & every glimmer he had of you. He would want you at his side, presenting him to God. He can no longer speak. He knows little that goes ^{on} around him. His eyes remain closed. He no longer suffers!

Tell me, Rabbi, will you come,

when I call? I will send your ticket, naturally, and whatever expenses are required.

Little can ease a heart as full as mine, dear Rabbi. Not only must I give up my most precious son, &
but my Mother has suffered a severe stroke, & is unconscious after a period of 3 months. I have been strong in my faith in God, but I must admit, it's taken all the strength I possess. My wonderful husband and daughters have helped a great deal.

No one could do so much for all of us, as you, Rabbi. I hope you'll find it possible with you full program, because within your heart,
I'm certain that you'll make room
for our wonderful little Barry.

My fondest regards to your lovely wife, Virginia and from all our family to you -

Our love
Faith

Confidential

March 5, 1962

My dear Anita:

I have just returned from a trip abroad and I learned from Rabbi Dan of the passing of Barry. I also read your letter of February 7th. I need not tell you how heart-sick I was to learn of the sorrow which has overtaken you and Mrs. Silver and I want to extend to you our profoundest sympathies. I know what you are going through and I hope that you will find strength in your hour of trial.

I recall Barry with love and affection. He was a splendid lad. These are some of the unaccountable tragedies of life which we cannot explain but which we must, nevertheless, endure and carry on.

In deepest sympathy and with all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

My dear Dave:

I read with great sadness of the passing of Abe. I was so very fond of him and I recall, with pleasure, the contacts -- all too few -- which I had with him through the years. He was a rare spirit, dedicated to his art, in love with life and appreciative of the things that are really worth-while. We have treasured through the years one of his lovely paintings which he gave us. Virginia joins me in sending you our heart-felt condolence.

In sympathy I remain

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mrs. Kraft:

It was with sadness that I read of the passing of your dear husband and Mrs. Silver and I wish to extend to you our heartfelt sympathies. I had the privilege of knowing Dr. Kraft through the years. I admired his fine personality and was deeply impressed by his extraordinary artistry. At the Temple we had many occasions to enjoy his ministry of music. He was the organist and the musical director of our branch High Holy Day service for many years and those occasions were memorable ones for us.

I pray that you will be comforted in your bereavement.

My dear Mrs. Blachman:

I have learned of the sad passing of your beloved husband, Jacob M. Blachman, and I hasten to extend to you my heart-felt sympathy in which Mrs. Silver joins me. I know that you must feel a deep sense of bereavement and I pray that our good Lord will send you comfort and strength. We have recited Kaddish in memory of Mr. Blachman at our services here at the Temple.

My dear Mrs. Mesch:

I have learned of the sad passing of your beloved husband, Rabbi Mesch, and I wish to send you this word of heartfelt sympathy in which Mrs. Silver joins me.

I had the privilege of meeting your beloved husband a few times during my visits to Birmingham and I was always greatly impressed with his warm personality and the affection in which he was held by the members of his community. I hope that our Heavenly Father will comfort you and strengthen you.

With all good wishes, I remain

I was shocked to hear of the tragic death of your beloved wife Jane and I hasten to send you my heartfelt sympathies. I know how great is your loss and how inadequate any word of comfort would be at this time, but I want you to know that we are thinking of you and feeling for you. Mrs. Silver joins me in this brief word of condolence.

With deepest sympathy, I remain

Most sincerely,

My dear Mrs. Auster:

It was with deep sorrow that I learned of the passing of your dear husband and I wish to extend to you and to your daughter my profoundest sympathies.

I have had the privilege of knowing Mr. Auster for many years and I know of his deep devotion to the cause of Israel's rebirth and what he contributed to the up-building of the city of Jerusalem and of the important institutions of the land. I had occasion to sit in conference with him from time to time and to observe his sound judgment, his integrity, and his dedication. He will be greatly missed.

I pray that you will find, in the days to come, a great measure of comfort in the host of proud memories which your beloved husband has left you.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

February 7, 1963

My dear Mrs. Gorodetzer:

I wish to express to you my deepest sympathies on the occasion of the passing of your dear husband and my friend, Mr. Nathan Gorodetzer. I knew Mr. Gorodetzer for many years. He was an active member of the Cleveland Zionist Society and through the years we cooperated on many projects in behalf of this historic movement. I was always impressed by the ideals which motivated him, his humanity and fine loyalties.

Please convey to all the members of his family my deep sympathies.

Sincerely yours,

It was with sorrow that I learned of the passing of your dear husband, Rabbi Samuel Thurman, and I should like to extend to you my profoundest sympathies. I have known your distinguished husband for many years. I have had the privilege of occupying his pulpit on occasions. I have known of his outstanding service to Judaism and the Jewish people which extended from a dedicated ministry of many years. As recently as last January I had the pleasure of meeting him at an important conference in New York City where he participated in the program.

Please accept my heartfelt sympathy in which Mrs. Silver joins me.

My dear Mrs. Schwartz:

It is with sorrow that I read in the "New York Times" of the passing of your beloved husband and my dear friend. I hasten to send you my deepest sympathies and I trust you will find comfort and consolation in your great bereavement.

Jesse and I were boyhood friends and throughout the years our friendship remained constant. I heard from him from time to time and I kept closely in touch with the fine work which he was doing as a Rabbi in the United States, in Toronto, and as leader in the Zionist Movement in Canada. I always admired him for his personal qualities of integrity and loyalty and for his deep devotion for all that was fine and constructive in Jewish life.

Mrs. Silver joins me in sending you these few inadequate words of sympathy in your hour of bereavement.

Most cordially yours,

ABBA HILLEL SILVER
