THE BISHOP OF OHIO
2241 PROSPECT AVENUE
CLEVELAND

April 1, 1937.

Mr. Eugene E. Wolf, The Temple. East 105th Street, Cleveland, Chio.

My dear Mr. Wolf:-

Thank you for your letter of March twenty-ninth and its invitation to be present at the eighty-seventh annual meeting of The Temple, to be held at The Statler, the occasion to be a celebration and tribute to Eabbi Silver for his splendid Ministry in The Temple for the last twenty years. I wish I could be with you. I am very fond of your Rabbi, and consider that he has done invaluable service, not only for The Temple, but for all Cleveland. I should love to be there to give my tribute to him, but unfortunately I must be in Sandusky for a Confirmation Service that evening, and would not be able to get back. In fact I have three important Confirmation Services that day and they are all out of Cleveland.

With my good wishes to you and my unreserved graise for Rabbi Silver, whom I count as one of my friends, I am Wanen Z. Rogers.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I want to send to you heartiest congratulations upon your achievement of the first twenty years of your service in Cleveland. It is a rich achievement which you have made. It represents a service in a congregation of people, having intimate relations with formative history. It gathers up and projects into humanity the presence of God in humanity. It stands also for the lifting of man into that divineness in which humanity was first created.

I deeply regret that a persistent cold, in the curing of which the doctor persists that he should have first rights, would not allow me to join in personally paying my heartiest respects to you, respects which unite a sense of gratitude for the past and a sense of rich hopefulness for the long future.

Believe me, my dear Rabbi Silver,

Ever yours,

Charles 7. Thuring

The Reverend Howard M. Wells regrets that owing to a previous engagement, it will be impossible for him to attend the meeting and dinner of the Temple to be given in honor of Dr. Silver's twentieth anniversary of ministry in Cleveland. Furthermore, permit the pastor and congregation of the First Prespyterian Church of Last Cleveland to have the honor at this time of congratulating both Dr. Silver and the Temple upon this occasion which means so much to them and also to the wider area of city and community.

Rabbi A. H. Silver The Temple Cleveland, Ohio

My dear Rabbi:

May I, in behalf of our campus and personal households, extend to you the felicitations of the twentleth anniversary of your rabbinate in Cleveland.

It is apparent and always has been apparent to our fire city, and particularly to our Jewish community, that you have contributed of your strength and inspiring influence in a manner that suggests the prophetic leaders of old. Your name has been synonymous with everything worthwhile in a civic, cultural and philanthropic sense in our city and country. Cleveland has been a better place to live in because of your life and work in its midst. It is not hard to understand why the city rises to acknowledge and pay tribute to your leadership or this, your twentieth anniversary.

May I bespeak the wish of all of us here that you be spared in good health and strength to your dear family and to the community for many, many happy returns of this anniversary date.

Sincerely, wishel Shariff

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Babbi, Board of Trustees and Members of The Temple, E. 105th Street at Ansel Road, Cleveland.

Good Friends:

Permit me to extend upon my own personal behalf as well as upon that of the Hebrew Union College and its Faculty and Board of Governors our heartiest congratulations to both Rabbi and congregation upon the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of their union. This is indeed an occasion of more than ordinary significance and happiness. It commemorates a great achievement, the growth and progress of a congregation from heights already lofty and distinguished, achieved under a great and beloved leader, to new and far greater heights, unforeseen and unsuspected twenty years ago, under the leadership of one who has proved himself a genius and a master in all phases of Rabbinical service and congregational leatership. So long as I have known it, yours has been one of the most progressive and distinguished congregations in our broad country. But under the wise, far-seeing and creative guidance of Dr. Silver your congregation has advanced rapidly and with rich and gratifying achievement until today beyond all question it is one of the three or four outstanding, influential Jewish congregations of our land. Dr. Silver's ministrations during these twenty years have been a source of unfailing enlightenment, guidance and inspiration to all your members, and in his teaching and labors the whole household of Israel, here in America and wherever it may dwell throughout the world, has found direction and strength.

It is our earnest wish and prayer that the happy and beneficent relations of these twenty years may continue between Rabbi and congregation for many years to come, that God's blessing may rest upon them and crown them with successful achievement and with constant mutual satisfaction and boundless happiness.

Faithfully and sincerely yours,

My dear Doctor Silver:

May I offer you my congratulations on the Twentieth anniversary of your ministry. One thinks of your career in terms of American Jewry, as a whole, rather than of Cleveland Jewry alone. These two decades have not produced a more illustrious chapter in the rabbinate than the one which you have inscribed by virtue of your many sided contributions to the enrichment of our American and Jewish life.

As one of your colleagues in the high enterprise of "Geulath Haaretz" and "T'chiyat Haam", I am particularly grateful for all you have done for Palestine during these two decades.

May you have many more decades

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am very grateful for the invitation to attend the Eighty-seventh Annual Meeting of your Congregation in Cleveland, and I want to congratulate you and the Congregation on its long existence. I presume that you are probably the second oldest Congregation in Ohio.

I also want to congratulate you on your twentieth anniversary and trust that you will have many years of useful work in behalf of Judism and Jewish causes.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

May I add my felicitations and congratulations on this important and interesting anniversary?

All year 'round I keep in touch with my home town by reading the weekly columns of the Jewish Review and Independent but only once in a while do I find something of such interest. I wish I could be in Cleveland Sunday for the dinner in your honor. I know what a thrilling occasion it is going to be. There are probably many Clevelanders like myself in New York city who will be with you in spirit!

I am always so glad to tell folks here that, among my acquaintances in Cleveland, I am happy to count you as one of them. Since I expect to be back in Cleveland to stay after my summer at Camp Garavan, I hope
I'll attend your "twenty fifth anniversary" and many more....
Again please accept my best wishes and hear liest congratulations!

My dear Dr. Silver:

In writing to Mr. Leon J. Obermayer, of Philadelphia, a few days ago, I enclosed a clipping from one of the Cleveland papers in regard to the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of your career in Cleveland. In a letter received from him this evening he says, "I am  interested in the Rabbi Silver clipping. I used to know him well and I knew his wife when she was a Miss Horkheimer living in Wheeling, West Virginia,"

I was not informed this of the fact that he knew you, and I am sure that you and Mrs. Silver will be glad to learn of his interest in you. Mr. Obermayer was recently chosen as Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Philadelphia Bar Association. For other distinctions see Who's Who in America. His address, if you care to know it, is 1418 Packard Building, Philadelphia. Mrs. Obermayer is related to me, and I have several times been a guest at his beautiful home in Philadelphia.

Rabbi A. H. Silver The Temple, Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I have just returned to New York from the tour with Dr. Bergmann which started so auspiciously in Cleveland early in the month.

Among the papers which awaited my attention was the invitation to the Eighty-seventh Annual Secting and Dinner of The Temple, celebrating also your twentieth anniversary with The Temple, which was held on Sunday, April 18th, and which I was regretfully obliged to decline.

I want to extend belated but nonetheless earnest congratulations to The Temple and best wishes to yourself on this occasion. May The Temple, Cleveland, and world Jewry continue to enjoy your inspired and inspiring leadership for many years.

I have your kind invitation to attend your Eighty-seventh Annual Meeting and Dinner on Sunday evening, April 18, 1937, at six-thirty o'clock at the Hotel Statler, and particularly to celebrate the Twentieth Anniversary of Dr. Abba Hillel Silver as Rabbi of the Temple. I am sorry that I shall not be able to attend. I expect to be in Cleveland this Sunday and if the occasion had coincided with my visit there I should have been only too glad to have attended. It is not tracticable for me to come back the following Sunday.

I send you my best wishes for the occasion and want to congratulate you on having been so fortunate as to have the outstanding services of Dr. Silver for so many years. I hope that you may continue your good work and may have the benefit of his services for many years to come. Please extend my greetings to Dr. Silver and my best wishes to him personally on this occasion.

Sincerely, Lar Boliman.

Gentlemen: -

Thank you very much for the invitation to the annual meeting and dinner of The Temple honoring the 20th anniversary of Dr. Silver. I am sorry I must be in New York over next Sunday and will be unable to attend. I have long been among the deep admirers of Rabbi Silver and it would indeed give me pleasure to join in that pleasant affair.

Either photography has greatly improved in the last 20 years or Rabbi Silver is a much better looking man than he was when he came here.

My dear Rabbi:

Though not a member of the Temple. I have followed your activities for the past score of years, ever since you assumed the spiritual leadership in the congregation of Tifereth Israel. My unabating interest in human relationships has convinced me from the beginning of your professional career in this city, that you are a Rabbi in the true implication of the word, an interested observer of every phase of social life, and an indefatigable worker in the manifold social problems.

During these many years I have always appreciated you as a man, as a citizen, as a friend, and as a Jew, who is proud of his ancestry, and as a thinker along progressive lines.

And now, will at restitudes are gathering to pay you publicly the honor you deserve for your untiring, faithful services rendered to our local community and to mankind in general, I am compelled with sincere regret to absent myself. But my thoughts shall be with you, mingling with the throng of admirers and well-wishers, and, praying, as thousands others will, that many more years of health and vigor be alloted to you for the furtherance of your numane work.

It is with sincere feeling that I subscribe myself as your devoted friend and staunch admirer, and ever

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, D.D. c/o The Tiffereth Israel Temple Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Habbi Silver:-

Often people affect our lives, and are indirect inspirations, that we can not always repay in deeds as we would like to. Your association with the Temple has been an influence upon me in that way, and I want to take this means of thanking you, with the marking of your twentieth anniversary with the Temple. "ot alone should I say, an inspiration, but I know that in times of joy and sorrow, your personality has been like the warm rays of the sun to our family.

From a personal standpoint, I often look back to my Friday Confirmation class with you and think how that year groomed me for Judiasm and mannood. I can truthfully say that your course developed a lot more in me, than all of my other education put together.

Rabbi Silver, I only nope that our congregation and the community at large shall be blessed with your untiring leadership for many years to come, as all concerned need a man of your courage, in these trying years, to show them light.

Although my work sometimes makes it inconvenient for me to participate in the activities that I would like to, Rabbi Silver, any time that I can be of assistance to you, please feel free to call upon me. In this small way I can humbly show my appreciation. Wo matter what the cause might be, whether for sudiasm, the Temple, or for the community at large, I will always be glad to serve you.

My very best personal regards to Mrs. Silver and yourself.

Felix Hycle

WILLIAM E. SYKES 1064 HANNA BUILDING CLEVELAND April 22nd. 1937 Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver c/o The Temple Cleveland, Ohio Dear Rabbi Silver: I read with much interest the second article of "My Twenty Years in Cleveland" in the Plain Dealer. You have much to be proud of in the good you have brought to many. At about the same time you came to this fair city. I armived to make this by home. ly interest in these art or to the fact that I have natched every ate made have you made to my intense interest in Welleincers and vital vision you alangs entry seed. While I am unknown to you, I can trut wully say I know you through being enrieled with the many messages I heard you deliver. May your next twenty years be filled with the harvest of your past twenty years of sowing and may we by that time see a world of Religious and Economic freedom. WES: VC

CONGRATULATIONS AND LOVE=

Tribute by Dr. Ferdinand Q. Blanchard
To Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver.

Ton the occasion of his Twentieth Anniversary Celebration
The hour is full to night; replete with grace;

What word of mine should make a claim for space?

And yet your favor grant, for I would fain

Present my tribute in dear friendship's name.

Who is the Preacher? One whose clever phrase Plays round small trifles voiced in various ways.

Tickling the fancy of an idle mod,

Seeking sensation, missing public good;

Losing, while snatching for a Quick applause,

All that might teach of Goddonesemal laws?

Not so speaks he who for the peace two score

Strengthens the faith that grows from less

to more;

Makes plain the public weal, the public ill; Speaks ringing challenge to the feltering will;

By wisdom sound which none will dare deny Shows what is truth and what is but a lie.

Who is the citizen? He who seeks for self
The spoils from office, politician's pelf;
Pandering the knavish fool, the foolish knave,
In every crisis his own skin to save;
Whose goal is safety and his single aim

To peddle honor for financial gain?
'Gainst such as these stands he we greet
tonight,

Seeking no conflict but of none in fright, framing his message with Demosthean grace, But adamant when duty points his place.

Your health, my friend, our heart goes with our hand. Wealth buys but baubles, fame is writ in sand, Esteem and honor live when all else dies, They fix thy name secure in Animodship's skies.

Preacher of God and servent of these days

Vpice of the prophetes set to modern ways,

Long may this city claim the funds ower

And its thanksgiving be your yearly dower.

Ford. & Blanchard.
