IMPORTANT

Under the provisions of the Nationality Act of 1940, American nationality may be lost through being naturalized in, taking an oath or making a declaration of allegiance to, serving in military forces of, accepting employment under the government of, or by voting in the elections of a foreign state. Naturalized nationals may be expatriated by residing in the state from which they came for 2 years if through such residence the nationality of such foreign state is acquired, or by residing in such state for 3 years, or in any other foreign state for 5 years.

American nationals abroad may consult the nearest American diplomatic or consular officer for information as to specific provisions of the Nationality Act.

CAUTION

A person to whom a passport has been issued, who uses or attempts to use it in violation of the conditions or restrictions contained therein, may have the protection of the United States withdrawn from him while he continues to reside abroad and may be liable for prosecution under the provisions of section 221 of title 22, United States Code.

This passport is a valuable document. If it is lost or destroyed, the fact and the circumstances of the loss should be immediately reported to the Passport Division, Department of State, or to the nearest American consulate, or, in an outlying possession of the United States, to the chief executive thereof, and to the local police authorities. In the Philippines the report should be made to the United States High Commissioner. New passports can be issued in such cases only after exhaustive investigation.

This passport must not be altered or mutilated in any manner. No stamps, statements, notations, or other additions should be placed or made in this passport other than by officials of the United States or of foreign countries in connection with official matters. The alteration of the passport may render it INVALID.

IMPORTANT

Under the provisions of the Nationality Act of 1940, American nationality may be lost through being naturalized in, taking an oath or making a declaration of allegiance to, serving in military forces of, accepting employment under the government of, or by voting in the elections of a foreign state. Naturalized nationals may be expatriated by residing in the state from which they came for 2 years if through such residence the nationality of such foreign state is acquired, or by residing in such state for 3 years, or in any other foreign state for 5 years.

American nationals abroad may consult the nearest American diplomatic or consular officer for information as to specific provisions of the Nationality Act.

CAUTION

A person to whom a passport has been issued, who uses or attempts to use it in violation of the conditions or restrictions contained therein, may have the protection of the United States withdrawn from him while he continues to reside abroad and may be liable for prosecution under the provisions of section 221 of title 22, United States Code.

This passport is a valuable document. If it is lost or destroyed, the fact and the circumstances of the loss should be immediately reported to the Passport Division, Department of State, or to the nearest American consulate, or, in an outlying possession of the United States, to the chief executive thereof, and to the local police authorities. New passports can be issued in such cases only after exhaustive investigation.

This passport must not be altered or mutilated in any manner. No stamps, statements, notations, or other additions should be placed or made in this passport other than by officials of the United States or of foreign countries in connection with official matters. The alteration of the passport may render it INVALID.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU

• TRAVEL IN DISTURBED AREAS

If you travel in disturbed areas, you should keep in touch with the nearest American diplomatic or consular office.

• PROLONGED RESIDENCE ABROAD

If you make your home or reside for a prolonged period abroad, you should register at the nearest American consulate.

• LOSS OF NATIONALITY

You may lose your American nationality by being naturalized in, or by voting in the elections of a foreign state; by taking an oath or making a declaration of allegiance to a foreign state; or by serving in the armed forces or accepting employment under the government of a foreign state. If you are a naturalized American citizen, you may lose citizenship by residing for 3 years in the country of your birth or former nationality, or by residing for 5 years in any other foreign state or states. For detailed information consult the nearest American diplomatic or consular office.

• VIOLATION OF CONDITIONS OR RESTRICTIONS

If you use or attempt to use this passport in violation of the conditions or restrictions contained in it, you may lose the protection of the United States while you continue to reside abroad, and you may be liable for prosecution (Section 1544, Title 18, U. S. Code).

• LOSS OR DESTRUCTION OF PASSPORT

If this passport is lost, stolen or destroyed, report full details immediately to the Passport Office, Department of State, Washington 25, D. C., or to the nearest American consulate. In an outlying possession of the United States, report to the chief executive, and to the local police authorities. In loss or destruction cases, new passports are issued only after exhaustive investigation.

• ALTERATION OR MUTILATION OF PASSPORT

This passport must not be altered or mutilated in any way. You must not alter any dates; nor make any changes in your description, on the photograph, or on any other page of this passport. Alteration may make it INVALID. Only authorized officials of the United States or of foreign countries, in connection with official matters, may place stamps or make statements, notations or other additions in this passport.

ABSTRACTS FROM PASSPORT REGULATIONS

1. Passports are issued in the United States by the Secretary of State, through the Passport Division, Department of State, Washington, D. C. Applications for passports should be made in person to clerks of Federal courts, clerks of State courts having jurisdiction in naturalization matters, or to passport agents of the Department of State. Passport agents of the Department of State are stationed at New York, Boston, New Orleans, Chicago, San Francisco, Seattle, and the Department of State, Washington, D. C. Applications should be filed from two to four weeks before the passport is required, depending upon the distance from Washington.

2. Americans resident abroad should apply to the Secretary of State for passports through the nearest American consulate.

3. Applications for passports by persons in the Virgin Islands, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Philippines, should be made to the chief executives of those islands.

4. The fee for a passport, including one dollar for the execution of the application and nine dollars for the passport, is $10.00.

5. American passports are valid for two years unless limited to a shorter period. They may not be extended beyond a period of two years from the date of issue.

6. Americans making their homes or residing for a prolonged period abroad should register at the nearest American consulate.

Applications should be filed from 2 to 4 weeks before the passport is required, depending upon the distance from Washington.

2. Persons in the Philippine Islands desiring passports should make application to the United States High Commissioner, Manila. In the Virgin Islands, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Guam, and American Samoa application should be made to the chief executives of those islands.

3. The passport fee, including $1 for the execution of the application, is $10. The fee for renewal of a passport is $5. In the United States, passport and renewal fees should be submitted in currency or in postal money orders made payable to the Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.

4. The regulations provide that when the presumption of having ceased to be an American citizen has arisen against a naturalized American citizen under section 2 of the act of March 2, 1907, because of protracted foreign residence, his passport shall not be renewed until he shall have submitted to the Department of State or to a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, evidence showing that the reason for such foreign residence comes within the rules prescribed by the Secretary of State whereunder such presumption may be overcome.

5. Americans making their homes or residing for a prolonged period abroad should register at the nearest American consulate.

ABSTRACTS FROM PASSPORT REGULATIONS

1. Passports are issued in the United States by the Secretary of State, through the Passport Division, Department of State, Washington, D. C. Applications for passports should be made in person to clerks of Federal courts, clerks of State courts having jurisdiction in naturalization matters, or to passport agents of the Department of State. Passport agents of the Department of State are stationed at New York, Boston, New Orleans, Chicago, San Francisco, Seattle, and the Department of State, Washington, D. C. Applications should be filed from two to four weeks before the passport is required, depending upon the distance from Washington.

2. Americans residing or sojourning abroad should apply for passports through the nearest American consulate.

3. Applications for passports by persons in the Virgin Islands, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, or the Philippines, should be made to the chief executives of those islands.

4. Under the provisions of the Act of May 16, 1932, American passports are valid for two years from the date of issue unless limited to a shorter period. Such passports may be renewed under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of State for a period not to exceed two years but the final date of expiration shall not be more than four years from the original date of issue.

5. The fee for a passport, including $1.00 for the execution of the application and $9.00 for the passport, is $10.00. The fee for the renewal of a passport is $5.00.

6. The regulations provide that when the presumption of having ceased to be an American citizen has arisen against a naturalized American citizen under Section 2 of the Act of March 2, 1907, because of protracted foreign residence, his passport shall not be renewed until he shall have submitted to the Department of State or to a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, evidence showing that the reason for such foreign residence comes within the rules prescribed by the Secretary of State whereunder such presumption may be overcome.

7. Americans making their homes or residing for a prolonged period abroad should register at the nearest American consulate.

Avis important aux Passagers

Les passagers qui viennent en France pour y séjourner quelque temps doivent, aussitôt rendus dans la ville où ils ont l'intention de fixer leur principal séjour, demander à la Mairie ou Commissariat de Police une "Carte d'identité" et présenter à cet effet deux exemplaires de leur photographie.

Ils ne doivent se déplacer dans l'intérieur qu'après avoir fait viser leur carte au départ par le Maire ou le Commissaire de Police. S'ils quittent la France pour aller dans un pays neutre ou allié, ou pour retourner dans leur pays d'origine, ils doivent faire viser leur passeport par le Préfet du Département de leur lieu de séjour, à Paris Préfecture de Police, et en ce qui concerne le retour aux Etats-Unis, par le Consul Américain de la Jurisdiction.

Si, sortis de France pour un pays neutre ou allié, ils reviennent en France, ils doivent faire viser leur passeport par le Consul Français de la Jurisdiction.

Les étrangers venant de ces pays et traversant la France pour se rendre aux Etats-Unis doivent, obtenir en outre du visa du Consul Français le visa du Consul Américain de la même Jurisdiction.

Les formalités du visa par les Préfets, Commissaires, et Consuls, demandant un certain temps, les intéressés doivent faire leur demande plusieurs jours à l'avance. Elles sont absolument obligatoires, et leur non exécution entraînera le refus formel de sortie ou de rentrée, ou le refus d'embarquement au port, selon le cas.

Les Français se rendant à l'étranger sont soumis aux mêmes obligations du visa à chaque voyage.

Le visa pour l'embarquement n'est donné qu'après les visas réglementaires précités. Les passagers se présentent à cet effet au Commissariat Spécial du Port le jour de l'embarquement, ou la veille au plus tôt.

This passport is valid for use only in the following countries and for objects specified, unless amended.

Important notice to passengers

Passengers who come to France to remain there some time must, immediately upon arrival in the city where they intend to make their principal sojourn, request at the Mayor's Office or at the Commissariat of Police, a "Carte d'Identité", and present two of their photographs in making this request.

They must not travel at all in the interior (from their place of sojourn) until after having had their "Carte d'identité" (French identity papers) visaed by the Mayor or the Commissaire of Police.

If they leave France for a neutral or allied country or to return to their country of origin they must have their passport visaed by the Prefet of the Department of their place of sojourn (at Paris Préfecture of Police), and in case of return to the United States by the American Consul having (original) jurisdiction.

If, having left France for an allied or neutral country, they return to France, they must have their passport visaed by the French Consul having jurisdiction.

Foreigners coming from these countries (i.e. neutral countries) and crossing France in route to the United States obtain, besides the visa of the French Consul, the visa of the American Consul of the same (original) jurisdiction. The formalities of the visa by the Préfectures, Commissariats and Consulates, requiring a certain time, the interested (persons) should make their request (for visa) several days in advance (if for the United States, two weeks in advance).

They are absolutely obligatory, and if not executed, will cause the formal refusal to leave or to re-enter or the refusal to embark at the port, according to the circumstances.

Frenchmen going to foreign countries are subject to the same visa requirements at each voyage. The visa for the embarkation is not given until after the réglementary visas above-mentioned. Passengers will call at the Commissariat Special of the port, the day of the embarkation, or the day before at the earliest.
