Dear Dr. Silver:

February 3-4, 1967 will be landmark days in the history of the Diocese of Ohio. The Sesquicentennial Convention will be held Friday, February 3. That evening at 7 o'clock there will be a banquet in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton-Cleveland Hotel. The Right Reverend John E. Hines, Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America will be the speaker. Our plans for the banquet are based on attendance of at least 2000 people. On Saturday, February 4 at 10 o'clock, the Diocese will see the Consecration of The Reverend John H. Burt as Bishop-Coadjutor. ND

It is my hope that you will honor us with your presence as our guest at the head table for the banquet and again on Saturday for the Consecration of the Bishop-Coadjutor.

Will you kindly advise me at your early convenience whether or not we will have the pleasure and honor of your company on these two occasions. In the event it is possible for you to be present at only one, please so indicate.

Very sincerely yours,

Nelson M. Burroughs

My dear Bishop:

I am most grateful for your kind invitation to participate in the Sesquicentennial Convention of The Diocese of Ohio. I shall be happy to attend the dinner on Friday evening, the 3rd of February, but I can not attend Dr. Burt's Consecration the next morning as I must be in my own pulpit.

I apologize for the delay in answering your note but I have been out of town these past two weeks and found the letter at my house upon my return.

I need not tell you how much I have admired your leadership and I am happy to say that I have heard only good things about Dr. Burt. I look forward to meeting him at the dinner. Adele stopped off in Birmingham to visit her folks and I will discuss with her her attendance at the dinner when she comes in at the end of this week. In either case I (or we) will have to excuse ourselves about nine p.m. in order to be present at the close of an adult seminar at The Temple. I trust you will understand.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Jeremy Silver
