Dear Daniel:

What a wonderful contribution you have made by sending our Committee a hundred dollar check towards the Mann-Sonne Publication. If we had fifty Rabbis like you we would reach our goal. However, the response to our renewed appeal has been most gratifying. May I add your name to our Committee?

With fond greetings and special regards to your dear Mother, I am

Affectionally yours,

Dear Dan:

Ezra Spicehandler tells me that you have accepted our invitation to serve on the Mann-Sonne Committee. His office next to mine in the Klau Library is so littered that so far he has not been able to find the time to excavate your letter, but I want you to know how pleased I am that you will serve and our new stationery will bear your name.

The response of the Committee has been magnificent and now if the general membership of our Conference will individually give us $25.00 subscriptions, we should be able to take the manuscript out of the Rare Book Room and get it into print. What I would love to have is some individual patron, who appreciates Jewish Scholarship, to give us a special gift, say $1,000. If you know of anyone like this, who wishes to immortalize himself, I am sure the Committee would approve of our giving him a special blessing.

With fond greetings to you and your family, and especially your dear Mother, I am

Affectionately

Dear Stanley:

In the note that you sent to Abe Nebel you made mention that you would be in Cleveland on Sunday, April 23rd. I am wondering if you would be free that morning to speak to our Temple High School?

These young people have a fine program and the day ends with an assembly and lecture. There is about 25 minutes for the speech. They would be interested in what you are doing at the Archives or in some particular project of research that you are now involved in.

The group numbers some 150, and they are a good group. They work hard and we work them hard. If you can be with us that morning perhaps you will stay over and have lunch with me. With all good wishes, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Nebel:

This is to acknowledge, with many thanks, your recent letter. I am most grateful to you and to Rabbi Silver for the information about Paul Newman and his family in Cleveland.

I expect to be in Cleveland on Sunday, April 23, to accept the State and Local History Award for the American Jewish Archives. I will not be giving a talk on that occasion, except perhaps a few words of acceptance.

I am certain that we can arrange to spend some time together during my stay in Cleveland. If Sunday, the 23rd, offers no opportunity, perhaps I could arrange to stay in Cleveland until Monday afternoon or evening.

Let me take this opportunity also to thank you very much for your kindness in sending me the Sidney Andorn article, and a copy of the letter from Rabbi Abraham Nowak of the Bronx, New York. Both items are very interesting.

I look forward, with a great deal of pleasure, to seeing you next month.

With every good wish, I am,

Cordially yours,

Stanley F. Chyet
