Dear Daniel:

The mail just brought the news of the forthcoming bestowal upon you of an honorary degree by our College-Institute. Despite the feelings of some of which I am not unaware, I think that 25 years in the Rabbinate is a most fitting occasion on which to recognize a person's achievement, Rabbinical creativity and the sheer stamina to have been a servant of the people Israel and of God during difficult times.

Having been the recipient of this honor some time in the past, I still recall my own feelings of elation over it and therefore congratulate you most genuinely on its receipt now. It is a most fitting recognition of the marvelous work you have done for our Movement and for our people.

Best regards and wishes,

Dear Fred:

I had not expected to enjoy or be moved by the commencement. Frankly, I had many reservations about this particular rite of middle age. I retain some of my earlier feelings, but I want to tell you that I thought the services were organized with dignity and I was moved despite myself. Your staff could not have been more helpful. Michael Meyers was and is a delightful companion and the service was unpretentious and warm.

See you at Grossinger's. Many thanks.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Michael:

Thank you for sending your ordination address. I have always been intrigued by the fact that Moses protected Eldad and Medad without hearing a report on what they had said. I guess such is the trust we place in every rabbi at ordination.

Incidentally, Targum Neofiti cannot accept this kind of trust. Eldad says that quails are coming up from the sea and shall become a stumbling block for Israel, referring to the next part of the chapter. Medad says that Joshua already has taken authority from Moses. The substance of prophecy rarely lives up to our hopes.

I know you will have a wonderful year in Jerusalem. I hope to see you there.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver
