Dear Dan:

Our congregation is joining with the Jewish Community Center of Minneapolis in sponsoring a Minneapolis School of Jewish studies. We hope gradually to bring in all the existing synagogues and Jewish institutions and to make this a most meaningful project for the total community.

As faculty we have enrolled not only the rabbis but personnel from the University so that our prospects seem very good.

We would like you to be our convocation speaker as we begin this new enterprise. Our date for you is Tuesday evening, October 14. If you cannot make it that evening we might try to work out some other time that week. Our school opens on October 21 and we would want you to be available sometime prior to that.

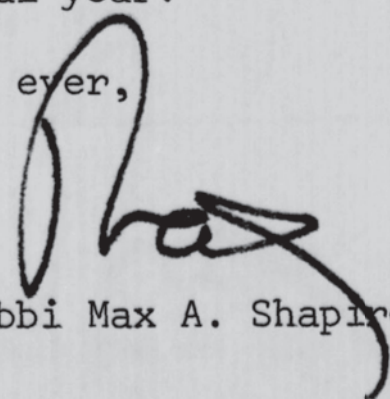

Invited to the Convocation would also be the Public Affairs Committee of the Community Center. We are suggesting the topic of Jewish Youth and its Alienation from the Jewish Community.

Would you please let me know whether you can make it and what your honorarium is for such an occasion.

My best to you for a wonderful year.

As ever,

MAS/a

Dear Max:

I just returned from a few weeks vacation to find your kind note of August 18th inviting me to address the convocation of the Minneapolis School of Jewish studies. I should be pleased to do so. However, Tuesday night, October 14th is the date of a Board Meeting at The Temple and my class meets at Case Western Reserve that afternoon. Might I suggest Monday evening, the 13th ? This date is open and I would have no worries about plane schedules. An honorarium for such a meeting would be $300.00 plus expenses. I am grateful for the invitation.

With all good wishes, I remain

Sincerely,

DANIEL JEREMY SILVER

Dear Dan:

Thank you for your letter of August 27.

I am now informed by the people at the Community Center that Monday, the 13th is an impossible day for them. Can you possibly make it for Thursday, the 16th of October? That date would work out for all concerned here.

My best for a wonderful year.

As ever,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am happy to hear that you will be able to speak at our Adult Education Convocation on Thursday, October 16th, 1969.

The general topics our committee is interested in concern the religious alienation of Jewish youth and the relevancy of Judaism to contemporary social problems. It is understood that your fee will be $300 plus expenses.

We will be issuing publicity very shortly on this program; therefore, I immediately need your biographical data and a photo. Please also let us know the details as to your plane flight, and we will make sure that you are met at the airport.

Thank you very much and looking forward to hearing from you.

Cordially,

Thank you for your response and for sending the photo and biographical material.

We eagerly await meeting you and having you as our Convocation speaker. If you could send me a title for your presentation I could use it in last minute publicity.

Do you have a preference for a hotel to stay in in Minneapolis? If not, I will make a reservation in the most comfortable and convenient one to the Center. If you send us the time of your arrival we will meet you at the airport on Thursday.

Thank you again. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Dear Mrs. Zweigbaum:

I will be arriving in Minneapolis on Northwest Flight 53 this Thursday at 5:55 P.M. I will appreciate your informing me of the hotel at which I will be staying so that I can leave the name with my family. You asked for a title. Perhaps this will do: "Let us take another look at our youth—how alienated is our Jewish youth?"

Dear Mrs. Zweigbaum:

In reviewing Rabbi Silver's lecturer's records I do not find any response to Rabbi Silver's letter of October 17th, wherein he listed expenses in the amount of $135 for his trip to Minneapolis nor has he received his honorarium. Would you kindly advise on the matter.

Incidentally, the return and finding of his fur hat was most fortunate, indeed, for snow has come to Cleveland and the protection afforded by this hat is most welcome to Rabbi Silver. Thank you for sending it on.

Sincerely,
