Dear Rabbi Dan,

As we draw closer to the dates of the Central District Conference, I thought I'd send you some material to get your wheels started. The enclosed copy of NCJW's "National Resolutions" for the current biennium seemed appropriate.

The theme of the Conference is "We Have Promises to Keep" with a sub-theme of "Trends and Opportunities". The one program workshop which I have seen deals with Individual Rights and Responsibilities, Israel and Jewish Life. (see Table of Contents No.'s VII, VIII, and IX).

The local Bulletin announcing your speech is also enclosed. I'm told to remind you that your time frame is one hour, including introduction and question and answer period.

We are all looking forward to your talk and, in addition, to showing off The Temple and University Circle.

Best regards,

Lois Butler

Her book (dissertation reworked) to ~~the~~ be published this fall by Columbia Press is titled "Subjects of Desire - French Reception of Hegel". She'll be home for Passover and will again try to get in touch.

Many thanks for the introduction and the helpful words to Dan.

National Resolutions

1985-87

Preamble

The National Council of Jewish Women is a volunteer organization whose program is inspired by the tenets of Judaism and by the history of our people. From its founding in 1893, its goals and purposes have embodied Jewish values and democratic principles.

The National Council of Jewish Women, the oldest major Jewish women's organization in the United States, expresses its commitment to advancing human welfare through the activities of volunteers engaged in a multi-faceted coordinated program of education, advocacy and service.

These Resolutions, adopted by the National Council of Jewish Women at its 36th National Convention in March, 1985, affirm the organization's position on domestic and international issues. They are based on the belief that voluntary citizen action is vital to the development of responsible social policy and effective public and private programs which serve human needs.

These Resolutions authorize action and provide direction for participation in local, state, national and international affairs.

Dear Rabbi Dan;

National Council of Jewish Women, Cleveland Section will be the hostess section to our Central District Conference on April 1-3, 1986 at Stouffer Inn on the Square.

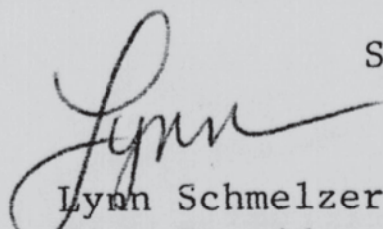

On Wednesday, April 2nd we will be having a luncheon and meeting at The Temple on 105th Street. There will be approximately 250 participants attending from several states and an additional 75-100 from our local membership.

Since one of our National Priorities is 'Jewish Life', our committee agreed unanimously that you would be the most appropriate person to be our guest speaker. It would be a privilege for our participants to hear you. Luncheon is scheduled for 1:00 PM and we would like you to join us. The time period set aside for the speaker is from 1:45 PM - 2:45 PM. Would it be possible to allow some time for audience participation?

A copy of our National Resolutions is enclosed. The 'Jewish Life' priority is on Page 11. One of our workshops will deal with the issue of infringements of human rights and the conflicts and choices in advocacy and action in the context of Jewish collective wisdom.

We would appreciate your response and topic by Wednesday, January 8, 1986 so we can move forward with our plans.

Sincerely,

Lynn Schmelzer
Vice President,
Central District
Conference

Dear Lynn and Sis:

Thank you for your kind invitation to speak to your group on April 2. I will be happy to do so. The one problem is that I do not have any idea of what I want to talk about and probably will not have a topic in mind until much later in the spring. I like to deal with what is fresh and at the top of my mind.

If it is alright, I will accept the date and I guarantee that before I get up on the 2nd of April I will have worked out a topic which should be of interest.

With all good wishes for the new year, I remain

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Invites You To The

CENTRAL DISTRICT CONFERENCE

April 1-3, at Stouffer Inn on the Square

Cleveland Section is delighted to be hostess to the Central District Conference in April at Stouffer Inn on the Square. We look forward to spending the time together with all the participants who will be here, to share experiences and learn about our many NCJW goals and projects.

For all of our members in Cleveland, you will be provided a rare opportunity to hear outstanding speakers and participate in the many fine workshops. We will come away with a better understanding of the multi-faceted work of NCJW.

An exciting agenda has been planned for the Conference with many "promises to keep" and to help build on the success of all past conventions. You will be provided an opportunity to make new NCJW friends, to renew acquaintances with leadership from our Central District and to learn from each other.

Our excellent Cleveland Section planning committee has been hard at work for several months to insure that all of the participants will feel the warmth of our hospitality.

Cleveland Section members are encouraged to attend all or part of the Conference to gain further insight into our fine national organization.

We look forward to seeing you — Cleveland Section members and out-of-town participants at Stouffer Inn on the Square, April 1-3.

Margaret "Sis" Gottlieb
President, Cleveland Section

"Cleveland — A Kaleidoscope of Cultures", is the theme selected by the Central District Conference Cabinet. We hope it will conjure up marvelous images of our diversified and exciting community. Our guests, representatives from the 11 states of the NCJW Central District, will begin arriving March 31st at Stouffer Inn on the Square for four days of intense training, special programs and district business. Even though their schedule is jam packed, we feel we could not let our visitors leave without seeing some of the highlights of which we are all so proud. We are offering a driving tour or a Cleveland Museum of Art Gallery Showing Tuesday morning and an off-site program, luncheon and bus tour Wednesday afternoon. We especially encourage you to attend the Wednesday luncheon session at The Temple, University Circle at Silver Park with Rabbi Daniel Silver as guest speaker.

We last hosted a District Conference in 1972 and in reviewing the former hostess section committee roster, we found many of the same women still as actively involved. This speaks so well for the Cleveland Section and its stature in our community. The conference cabinet, composed of some 40 highly committed women, has been working vigorously since last summer under vice-chairwomen Alice Band and Lois Butler, to create and execute an exceptional conference. Please try to take advantage of the unique programs and do not forget to invite your husband.

A highlight for us will be the gala opening night dinner and address Tuesday by National NCJW President, Barbara Mandel, a past President of the Cleveland Section. How very proud we are of her as President of a major Jewish women's organization.

There will be many NCJW celebrities who will be anxious to greet you along with Barbara Mandel, including National Vice President, Lenore Feldman, Peninsula Section; Central District President, Mona Kerstine, Cincinnati; Lynn Schmelzer, Cleveland, Central District Vice President in charge of the Conference; Vivian Mitchel, Chicago, NCJW National Field Representative, and all the Central District officers and board.

NCJW Cleveland Section volunteers will be staffing the Boutique (you may wish to view the unusual merchandise assembled for sale), office, registration, hostessing, baking, and decorating. We urge your attendance and participation. As Hostess Section Chairwoman, it will be my pleasure to welcome you to this Conference.

Barbara Sobel
Chairwoman, Hostess Section Conference

Welcome to the 1986 Central District Conference. On behalf of the entire Conference Planning Committee and the District Board, I extend greetings to each of you. We hope that the next two and one-half days will be a valuable experience and that you will discover many new ideas to translate into action when you return home. The biennial meeting of Central District always is an exciting time to meet old friends, make new ones, exchange ideas and to enhance our leadership and volunteer skills. This year we anticipate adding a new dimension to our meeting as we pilot the innovative Conference format.

It is a special treat to be holding our Conference in Cleveland. Barbara Sobel, the Hostess Committee, as well as Sis Gottlieb and the Section Board have worked enthusiastically to provide the ideal setting for our meeting. We thank them most sincerely for their wonderful hospitality.

On a personal note, I would like to acknowledge the tremendous support and assistance I have received during the two years of my presidency from Lynn Schmelzer and Judy Ravine, the vice-presidents, and from the entire District Board. A special salute and thanks to Vivian Mitchel, our terrific National Field Representative. It is indeed a privilege to have served as President of Central District.

I look forward to working productively with you during the next two and one-half days and hope that you will take advantage of the many opportunities to learn, share, communicate and enjoy.

Mona Kerstine, President
NCJW, Central District

"We have Promises to Keep" is the overall NCJW theme for 5 District Conventions. In Central District (11 states), we are keeping our promises with an innovative Conference pilot plan.

We are keeping our promises by responding to several past requests . . . offering a kaleidoscope of indepth trainings, informative programs, and thought-provoking speakers. NCJW and Central District continue to respond to the needs of today's women and to our communities.

It has been an exhilarating experience for me to work closely with National volunteer leadership and staff, Central District volunteer leadership and especially Cleveland Sections volunteer leadership, too numerous to mention every name. Each and every person has held an important role to assure our success. My personal thanks for allowing me the opportunity to experience the many facets of planning and implementing the needs of multifaceted women in a multifaceted NCJW.

Lynn Schmelzer
Vice President, Central District

Dear Rabbi Silver:

National Council of Jewish Women, Cleveland Section is extremely proud of our visit to The Temple during the Central District Conference. Many of the participants expressed deep appreciation for the opportunity of having you address them. Not only was the subject thought provoking but the history of The Temple and its environs was exceedingly enlightening.

We thank you so much for taking the time to help us make this Conference one of exceptional quality.

Sincerely,

Margaret "Sis" Gottlieb
