The Reverend J. H. Cross
Sixteenth Street Baptist Church
P. O. Box 1049
Birmingham, Alabama

Dear Reverend Cross:

On Monday morning, September 16th, I announced to the Cleveland papers and in my congregation a resolve to participate in the rebuilding of your church. I believe it imperative that a statement of our national and religious integrity be made in the face of the wanton and maniacal violence which you suffered.

Over one hundred Cleveland area men and women have contributed something more than $1400 so that you may renew your work. I am enclosing their checks and their addresses. I have been warmed by this very personal and very private statement of conscience. It is my hope that with these monies and others that you will receive your church will quickly rebuild its sanctuary to the God of freedom. May the bitter chill of one act of inhumanity be cancelled by the warm fellowship of those who suffered with you and pray for you.

Very sincerely yours,

DANIEL JEREMY SILVER

Dear Myron:

Many thanks for the new batch of checks, which will quickly be sent down. You will be interested to know that I wrote to Charles Taft my concern with the two segregated Birmingham committees. We spoke the next day and he informed me that I had been the first to warn him of this problem and that the church had been contacted directly by the American Conscience Fund, and that there were no problems at all in working out their relationships. Furthermore, he had found out that one of his own Taft Radio station men was spearheading the white group, and he assured me that he would see that this group was brought into line.

Again, my thanks.

Dear Friends:

The hideous crime which was committed against us on September 15, 1963, was a shock to all sane thinking Americans. We have been strengthened in the way that persons of both racial groups have pledged their support, and have offered prayers in our behalf.

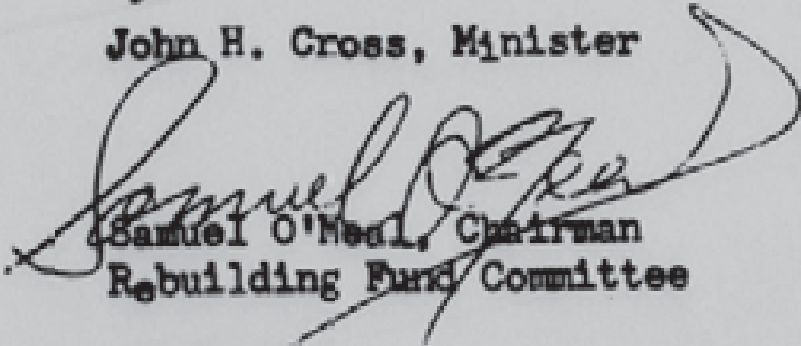

We are very grateful to you for taking time to convey your sympathy and for the contribution which accompanied your letter. Our entire congregation is grateful to you for remembering us in a prayerful and financial way at this critical period.

May God continue to bless you and yours as you labor in his name.

Yours in Christian Love,

Dear Dan:

I was greatly moved and inspired by your suggestion during the High Holidays that members of the Jewish community contribute to the re-building of the bombed Negro Church in Birmingham.

During my Yom Kippur Eve Sermon, which was entitled "The Jewish Stake in America's Racial Crisis", I referred to your suggestion, and instructed my people to engage in this effort, as one of their many steps toward achieving full human rights and dignities for our Negro fellow-citizens.

We also discussed this question with the children of our Religious School; and our Tzedakah of the week was contributed by the children to aid in the re-building of the bombed church in Birmingham. As a result, we have addressed a letter, a copy of which is enclosed, as well as a contribution from our children.

I trust this finds you and your dear wife and family in the best of health, and that you are enjoying the greatest fulfillment in all your endeavors. With fonest personal regards to your parents, in which Dorothy joins me, and with every good wish,

Sincerely,

Rabbi Paul Gorin

Dear Paul:

I was delighted to hear of the way in which Temple Israel has joined in support of the rebuilding program of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church of Birmingham. The Cleveland response has been a full and warm one, and from what I hear from Reverend Cross, they have begun the actual physical task of rebuilding.

I was over at Lakeside last week to see Mother, but there had been some complication with her stitches and I spent the time with Dad. Perhaps we'll meet there soon. If not, I hope I will see you at the Biennial.

With all good wishes,

Cordially yours,

Dear Reverend Cross:

I am in receipt of your letter of January 8th, acknowledging the checks I sent to you on December 31st. In adding the checks, I found they totalled $200.00; however, your letter mentions $100.00. Is this a typist's error, or did you receive only $100.00? I would appreciate your letting me know.

Dear Mrs. Goldstein:

This is to acknowledge your letter of January 13, informing me of an error in totaling the recent contributions forwarded by you.

You are correct, the checks amounted to $200. It was a mistake on my part in dictating the letter. The letter and contribution of $100.00 from the Mt. Zion Congregational Church was unintentionally left out of my totals. However, the receipt was written and forwarded to this church the same as the others.

Thanks very much for calling this to my attention, and I offer my apology for the error.
