Dear Mort:

Thank you for sending on the picture from the Stoke's inaugural. It is most appreciated.

Sincerely,

DANIEL JEREMY SILVER

We are met to seek God's blessing upon our city and upon the man recently elected to its highest office. We ask God's blessing upon special favor for us as met in an uncertain & difficult hour. The mass of perils which press against the cause of unity, the high claims of justice are undercut by the materialism of pursuing. There is poverty in our city and blight and the persecution of the foraker are multiplied by the frustration of the gently descent where programs for justice are blinded by the obscuring of prejudice, the the obscuring of politics, & then can trinity.

The hour requires a new vision - a clear vision which can announce a confident & humane program which can command dedication. It demands a new vision - dedication which shall show its way by example - dedication which comes in its own right its founded on principles, which shall not be opportunity, & respectful of the rights & needs of men. citizens - a determined and reasonable the shall set the right above all special privileges; which shall also alter in order to protect his own; which shall accept responsibility & independence selection to the problem of our modern united complexities but they do not fit reality in its entirety with its own and decisions. such citizens we can not hope to build a city of democracy & amenity - of opportunity for all & of benefit for all. may God strengthen us in our mission - may God strengthen the hand of him whose opportunities & responsibilities is permanently - Established that of find the work of our hand - Yes, we work of our hand in the city of St. Louis.
