Dear Rabbi Silver:

We at Temple Beth Am are elated that you will be our speaker and guest at Rabbi Kerman's dinner, celebrating his 20th year in the Rabbinate on December 16th, 1973.

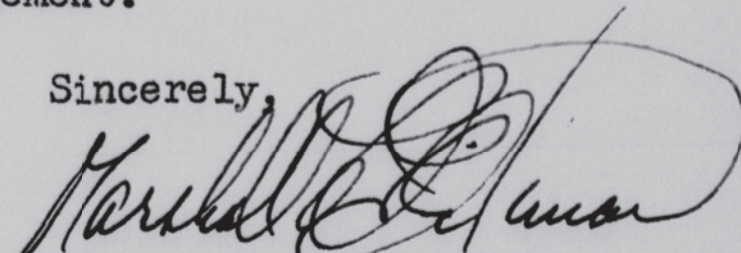

I have enclosed a copy of the invitation indicating the time, and the fact that it will be held at Temple Beth Am. I have made arrangements with a guaranteed reservation at the Holiday Inn, 1881 Niagara Falls Boulevard, Amherst, New York, which is a location not too far from the Temple.

Please advise me of the time of your arrival and I will be most happy to meet you. We, of course, will pick up your travel and room expenses. I told Rabbi Kerman that you have accepted and he was extremely happy, because, as I told you, he specifically asked that you be with us on this occasion. He indicated that he will be writing to you to discuss further any arrangements between the two of you.

As this dinner and occasion will be getting some amount of publicity in the Buffalo press, I would appreciate receiving, as soon as possible, a couple of glossy photographs along with a personal historical background. By the way, Rabbi, I am the immediate Past President of our congregation, although I still have some old stationery left over. Our new President this year is Henry Hirsch, who is listed on the letterhead as a Vice President.

Again, my sincere thanks for accepting this speaking engagement.

Sincerely,

Marshall L. Glickman

Dear Dan,

I've heard with delight
& pleasure that you'll be at Beth Am on Dec. 16th - I'm most happy & grateful, &
I hope Belle can join us too.

I've told those who are gladdening the activities (about which they haven't told me too much) that the evening has got to be dedicated to Israel at least as much as to my having weathered 20 years.

My warmest wishes,

Dan

Dear Dan:

I am looking forward to being with you.

Please tell me something about the evening in terms of the rest of the program, how long you want me to speak etc. I am looking forward to the chance of meeting with you again.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Dan:

I checked with Rabbi Kerman's office and his affair is for dinner at 6:30 P.M. on December 16th.

Will look forward to your visit and hope you can have lunch with us if time permits.

When you have your transportation schedule, please let me know and I can pick you up at the airport.

Sincerely,

Irving Levick

Dear Irving:

Adele and I are looking forward to our visit to Buffalo Sunday night. I will be in my pulpit here that morning so I am afraid our lunch will have to be postponed. I do hope we will have a chance to at least talk while we are there.

As always,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Adele and Dan:

A Temple member who's in Holiday Inn management has asked that you stay at the Airport Holiday Inn, phone 716-634-6969, rather than the motel I'd mentioned on the phone.

If you're flying to Buffalo, we'll meet you on arrival.

If you're driving:

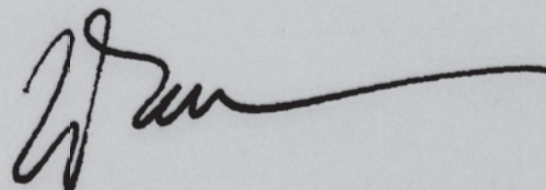

At Thruway interchange 51, exit east onto Route 33 (an expressway).

Drive  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles on 33 to the end of the expressway at the Airport exit.

At the Airport exit, drive east on Route 33B for one mile to the Holiday Inn.

I'm gratefully and happily anticipating your visit.

Sincerely,

P.S. The Inn address: 4600 Genesee St., Buffalo 14225.

Dear Dan:

Adele and I are arriving on Allegheny Flight #446 Sunday at 2:05 PM. Adele will not be going to the dinner. She is in Buffalo to do some work for the Museum and they have some big program that night. I am looking forward to being with you.

Sincerely,

Dear Dan:

It was a pleasure to participate in your simcha the other night. You were blessed with a warm and friendly congregation and I know they reflect the love you have invested in them.

My expenses to Buffalo for the airline ticket, taxis and incidentals were $81.00.

Please give my love to your charming wife and a happy and healthy New Year for all of you.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Rabbi Silver:

As a small token of our gratitude to you for being with us at Rabbi Kerman's anniversary dinner, and in appreciation for the challenge you gave us in your message, we've asked the Central Conference of American Rabbis to send you a deluxe edition of the new Union Haggadah as soon as it is published.

With thanks and kind wishes,
