Dear Colleague,

We want to thank you most sincerely for accepting our invitation to be our guest preacher on Friday evening, October 30th, at 8:00 p.m. in our Temple Sanctuary.

We would appreciate receiving the following information:

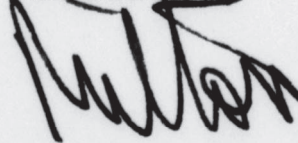

1. Sermon Title and a brief synopsis
2. A capsule biographical sketch for our Temple Bulletin

We would like your sermon to be approximately one-half hour long.

We shall look forward with pleasure to seeing you and again want to express our sincere thanks.

With best wishes for the New Year, I am,

Cordially,

Rabbi Milton B. Rube

Dear Rabbi Rube:

This is to confirm my acceptance to preach at your services on Friday evening, October 30th. Included you will find a biographical sketch and a glossy photograph. I cannot promise you a sermon title at this time. Frankly, I have had no time to think of it.

Cordially yours,

DANIEL JEREMY SILVER

Dear Friend Silver,

Please excuse my delay in thanking you for occupying the pulpit during my absence.

Both Rabbi Rube and the congregation spoke very favorably of your address. It was evident that you had struck a rich vein of interest.

It is good to be able to call upon one's colleagues.

With every appreciation for your helpfulness and inspiration, I am,

Cordially,
