Dear Mr. Havens:

I am in receipt of your kind letter of November 21st and, as I indicated to you, I will be happy to speak to your group. However, the day you suggest, Wednesday, February 20th, is impossible for me or for anyone else here at The Temple. It is the date of a major program which requires our presence. Would it be possible for you to suggest an alternate date?

Hoping that we can still get together, I remain

Most cordially yours,

DANIEL JEREMY SILVER

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you in regard to our telephone conversation of November 19, 1962, in which we discussed a talk that you might give to our Methodist Men's Group of the Willoughby Methodist Church of Willoughby, Ohio.

The scheduled meeting is on Wednesday, February 20, 1963, at our church. We have a social hour from 5:30 P.M. to 6:30 P.M., a dinner until 7:15 P.M., a business and devotional meeting until 7:30 P.M. and then the program for the evening. Our meetings are usually over by 8:30 P.M. or 9:00 P.M.

We discussed a subject matter in our conversation and the following comments might aid you in deciding on the topic. I mentioned that our local Catholic Priest recently talked to us on the history of the Ecumenical Council which we all thought was interesting and timely. One of the objects of having speakers of various faiths is to obtain a clearer understanding of each others' beliefs, with the ultimate idea that we must work together toward a free world believing in Almighty God.

Sincerely,

Nelson L. Havens

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am writing to you to confirm our telephone conversation and your letter of November 30 in which we discussed your plan to speak at our Methodist Men's Group here in Willoughby, Ohio, on January 16, 1963. This, by the way, will be ladies' night in which the majority of men will bring their wives.

I would greatly appreciate some detailed background information about you to use as introducing material and as material to use in our Sunday bulletin. You might also let me know when you decide on a title or subject for your talk.

Thanks again for your very kind considerations and for taking time out from your busy schedule to come out and enlighten our group.

Sincerely,

Nelson L. Havens
