Dear Dr. Silver:

Thank you for your kind letter of December 4th. It touched me deeply and words cannot express how much I mourn the loss of my dear friend.

In your letter you mentioned the responsibilities which your dad had assumed. You are aware that in April 1965 the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the Jewish Quarterly Review will be celebrated. A special volume will be issued and it is contemplated to have an international congress of scholars and men of thought. Your dad had agreed to write an article for the anniversary issue and he also had accepted the chairmanship of the Convention.

I would very much like that you should write an article for the special issue. We could discuss the subject of the article by correspondence or maybe when we get together. I cannot think of anyone who possesses the prestige in the scholarly world who could assume the chairmanship of the Convention.

To properly organize the Convention a considerable sum of money is needed. Is there a possibility that Edgar Hahn could aid us in obtaining a subvention?

Is it too early to think about a volume to be published in memory of Dr. Abba Hillel Silver?

How about your manuscript? Is it ready for publication? Let me hear from you.

Please convey my warm wishes to your dear mother. With my best to you

Cordially,

Solomon Zeitlin

Dear Dr. Zeitlin:

I am in receipt of your note of December 16th, and I would be delighted to write an article for the anniversary issue of the Jewish Quarterly Review. You mentioned the possibility of receiving a subvention from the Beaumont Foundation. What kind of money do you require? What you are asking, I can have a conversation with Mr. Hahn and sound him out.

We are organizing an Abba Hillel Silver Archives-Library here which will undertake the publishing of four or five volumes of Dad's lectures and addresses. The money has been raised.

The manuscript is on my secretary's desk. She will have it ready by 1 January and I will mail it to them, for their reading, the first of the year. You might alert them to its arrival.

With all good wishes,

Cordially yours,

DANIEL JEREMY SILVER

Dear Dan:

The Archives is very eager to secure, for its collection, the papers of your dear father.

As you know, we have some remarkable collections here, including the papers of many distinguished American Jews. Your father's papers would be in good company -- and their papers would be in good company.

May I hear from you about this?

With all good wishes to you and your dear ones for the new year, I am,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I am preparing a P.h.D. thesis on "Jewish Nationalism and Zionism in the American Reform Movement (1897-1963)" for the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

I was granted a fellowship by the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion to carry out this study in the United States. I am now working in the American Jewish Archives in Cincinnati.

I would very much appreciate your kind help in allowing me to consult the papers of your late father, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver. I need hardly tell you the importance of his work and, therefore, the importance his papers would have for me in my study.

I am ready, of course, to come to Cleveland for this purpose and to spend some time there. Thank you for your consideration.

My dear Mr. Efron:

I have in hand your letter of 20 November and accompanying letter from Dr. Marcus. We can at present make available to you certain kinds of materials. You may wish to review Dr. Silver's lectures and public addresses. These are all catalogued and available. We can permit you to browse through the early files of the Brandeis-Mack issues, Palestine Economic Corporation, etc. The files dealing with the political work of the 1940's are not yet open. We need to go through them ourselves first.

We will be happy to welcome you to Cleveland and to do all that we can to make your stay here a profitable one.

I gather that your focus is on the public pronouncements of the Central Conference, etc., rather than on the actual political work of any Reform leader. If this be the case, I am sure that the material leading up to the Columbus platform can be made available.

On November 20, 1964, I asked you for permission to consult the papers of the late Dr. Abba Hillel Silver -- a request you graciously granted to me. Unfortunately I could not come to Cleveland until now.

I intend coming to Cleveland at the beginning of July for a couple of days, as I intend -- with your permission -- to microfilm some of the material that would be of direct interest to me, as well as to make necessary arrangements for the microfilming of many more papers for the Central Zionist Archives in Jerusalem -- a matter which could be discussed in detail while I am in Cleveland.

I earnestly hope that you will find it convenient to you to let me come at the beginning of July.

I hope to have the pleasure of hearing from you soon.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I have just received your letter of June 23. Needless to say, I am not too happy with its contents, although I do understand your difficulty.

May I therefore suggest another arrangement which could also be of some help. Would it be possible for you to make a copy of your catalogue available to the Central Zionist Archives - which would be most interested in it?

As I do not know the number of items in your catalogue or whether you have some kind of abstract of it, could you please let me know about it, together with an estimation of the cost of a microfilm or xerox copy. I would immediately contact Dr. Alexander Bein, in Jerusalem, who, I am sure, will order it directly from you. I feel that this catalogue could be of help to Israeli scholars and would also be helpful to me in choosing parts of the material.

I thank you very much for your invitation to come to Cleveland at the winter season. Unfortunately, I am leaving for Israel at the end of July.

A REPORT ON THE SILVER ARCHIVES — FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

The visit tonight (Friday, February 18) of Rabbi Herbert Weiner suggests this report on the Abba Hillel Silver Archives. Rabbi Weiner is here to speak at our Adult Institute where he will present a personal glimpse of the Jewish mystic and of his way of life. It is a field in which he is intimately familiar. For many years he has sat at the feet of pietist and kabbalist and absorbed their lore.

This will be our first chance to hear Rabbi Weiner but in fact, this past year, has spent a good bit of time at The Temple, for he has undertaken the task of editing Dr. Silver's collected addresses. A scholar and a lover of Zion, Rabbi Weiner is an ideal choice for this task.

You are no doubt familiar with the beautiful archives rooms. You may not be familiar with the work that has gone on in them. When the archives were first organized we secured the services of Miss Fay Zipkowitz who has been busy ever since classifying, cataloging, and bringing into useful shape Dr. Silver's vast intellectual legacy. This work is well advanced. When we are through historians and theologians will be able to put their hands on the material which they need.

From the beginning it was our purpose to publish a series of volumes which would include a wide selection of Dr. Silver's sermons and lectures. It is our firm conviction that these will be sought after eagerly by all who value the thoughtful word and deep wisdom. The first volume is organized and will be published next fall. It will include some four dozen speeches as well as an opening biographical note by Rabbi Solomon Frechhof. The material in this first book will deal with questions of personal faith, family relationships, Dr. Silver's understanding of fundamental Jewish points of view and his hopes for the synagogue, the Rabbinate and our religion. Subsequent collections will deal with the Biblical and the scholarly; the social and the political; the establishment of Israel and the Jew in the world. When this work is complete you will have available the clear and broad understanding of our Rabbi.

The Temple
University Circle at Silver Park
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Mr. Alexandre is away from the office and he has asked me to pass along to you the estimates on the first volume of the Collected Papers of Abba Hillel Silver, which have just come in.

The figures have been prepared for two print sizes, 3500⁸ and 5000, and two trim sizes, 6 5/8 x 9 7/8 and 6 1/8 x 9 1/4. The figures are as follows:

6 5/8 x 9 7/8

3500 copies -- $9,600
5000 copies -- $11,200

6 1/8 x 9 1/4

3500 copies -- $8,830
5000 copies -- $10,200

These figures include all plant and manufacturing costs. You will understand that they are only tentative figures, necessarily so in the absence of a manuscript on which to base them. The estimate assumes a volume of 416 pages, the material being similar to that appearing in IN TIME OF HARVEST.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Thank you for your letter of March 4. The terms of the contract for IN THE TIME OF HARVEST would apply to the present volume. You would be responsible for all manufacturing and editorial costs and in return you would receive 50% of our net receipts on the sale of the book. Net receipts is interpreted as approximately the list price less 43% on domestic sales and the list price less 55% on export sales.

Assuming that you now have the basic information on which to base your decision, we would be glad to know at your earliest convenience when we might expect the manuscript and the number of copies of the book you propose to take.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I have received word from our headquarters in Israel that a special committee has been appointed to collect the writings and mementos of the late Moshe Sharett. The immediate objective is to publish the first volume of his works in time for his first yohrzeit.

It is clear that a goodly amount of Sharett's correspondence, statements and speeches is to be found in the United States. Undoubtedly, in the files of your late father there are some valuable Sharett papers which would be most welcome to the committee, particularly those of the post war period through 1948.

Would you be good enough, therefore, to instruct your staff to find whatever you feel would be useful and send copies thereof to me.

I know that the committee in Jerusalem will greatly appreciate your cooperation.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

The policy rule of the CCAR Quarterly not to publish sermons is an elementary act of self protection which is not difficult to understand. I will keep in mind your suggestion that an article on Felix Levy's thought might be written.

Without wishing to put you to undue trouble, I would welcome even the most trivial piece of correspondence connected with Felix Levy, so scanty is the material available. The most crucial period is, of course, Dr. Levy's presidency of the CCAR and next to that the early 1940's when the controversies concerning the American Council for Judaism began.

Your helpfulness is deeply appreciated.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am writing in connection with a book that I have been commissioned to do by one of America's top publishers, Random House, on the subject, "The Day Israel Was Born". (My collaborator is Bernard Postal, Public Relations Director of the National Jewish Welfare Board.)

Naturally, one of the key figures in this story will be your father, whom it was my privilege to know during my years as public relations director of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. (We met several times while you were a student at the UHC in Cincinnati.) What we will be doing with this book is to write a popular history in the personalized anecdotal form that has become so popular in this country these days. We want to tell the story in detail of the declaration and of the people who made it possible. We will largely devote ourselves to the three or four days before and after May 14, 1948, but obviously, we will tell the story in flashbacks with particular emphasis on the period between Partition and the Declaration.

Our mutual good friend, also my boss, Dr. Neumann, has been most helpful in my research. But he and I both agree that you probably have some basic source material from your father's files. You may also have some recollections of a personal nature. I am hopeful that you will check your memory and the archives to make available to us whatever might be helpful. You can either have this material photostated, or if you prefer, we can do so in New York. We will, of course, take very good care of whatever you send us and will return it to you within a few days. I know how busy you must be, but I trust that you will give a high priority to this matter as we are very anxious to proceed with the research and writing.

One more thing: What are your recollections of May 14, 1948? I assume you were a student then. What, if anything, happened on the campus in Cincinnati? And, if you had a student pulpit, was there anything special in connection with the day of Declaration?

With many, many thanks for your cooperation, I am,

Cordially yours,

Dear Mr. Levy:

As you may know we have a fine Abba Hillel Silver Archives here in The Temple and you may find it desirable to spend a day here. I should be happy to turn over to you not only Dr. Silver's published manuscripts, but whatever diary material is involved in the days under consideration. I think this would be a far better of proceeding than for my trying to analyze out the material that you might or might not desire.

During the early months of 1948 I was employed with Land and Labor for Palestine, an outfit on which Dr. Neumann can fill you in. I was headquartered in New York and was doing my bit for the new state. I had just graduated from Harvard in December and my plans to spend a year at the Hebrew University were obviously in abeyance. I remember spending the night of May 13th walking the streets of New York with Harold Vanson waiting to see the flash on the New York Times Building indicating that Israel had actually been declared a new state. The tension of not knowing whether Israel would actually declare the state was something I remember greatly. You might also check with Manson and others on the various undercover attempts we made to prevent some of the weaker world members of the American section of the Jewish agency from returning to Israel with a plea that the state declaration be put off for the time being.

In response to your letter of March 3rd, the price of $2.99 for the remainder of "In The Time of Harvest," is really not such a bargain. We have also been purchasing, from time to time, volumes from the Macmillan Company, at $3.70, which is your unit cost per book.

You are quite right about the number of figures on publishing estimates. I have a difficult time figuring them out as well.

The unit cost of each book (including slip case and art work) is estimated at $3.70. The total cost for 3500 copies is therefore $12950. Since we require half of the cost before beginning, we must have a check in the amount of $6475.

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I hope to visit Cleveland during the week of January 26 in furtherance of the Cleveland Jewish history project. Will it be possible to work in the Abba Hillel Silver Archive during that period? I am particularly interested in seeing materials pertaining to his local Jewish communal activities and his participation in the public affairs of Cleveland. If you will be in town and have a free hour I would be happy to talk things over with you.

You may be pleased but probably not astonished to learn that a good many students and colleagues who are seriously interested in the Jewish refugee question during the 1930's and 1940's are eager to know what pertinent material the Abba Hillel Silver Archive may contain. Perhaps time will allow me to bring home some idea of what they may find.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am preparing my Master's thesis in Speech about your late beloved father, Abba Hillel Silver. But in order to do a worthy study of his Invention and lines of argument in his sermons preached at The Temple I need some help which I hope that you will be able to give me.

I have read Therefore Choose Life and I would like to know if this volume may be considered a representative sample of his pulpit works. If so, do you feel that I could justifiably limit the representative sampling of his sermons that I shall examine to a selection of those contained in Therefore Choose Life?

Would you be able to share any comments with me about your father's sermon construction methods and sermon-ic methods? I have requested a copy of your book In Time of Harvest but have not yet received or read it, but I would sincerely appreciate any additional comments you might be able to share with me.

I have been contact with Miss Leikind in the Archives but I am wondering if you would be able to give me some idea of what types of materials are available there so that I may be able to decide about the possiblility of my coming to Cleveland. I have not been able to borrow a copy of The Index to Jewish Periodicals and so I am at a loss as to what exists.

I will look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Sharyn:

There are over a thousand sermons and lectures in Dr. Silver's files. Therefore Choose Life is the first of four cullings which will be made of this material. It represents pure sermonic and pulpit lectures. There are other materials which are academic lectures and polemics which will be included in later volumes. I would suggest particularly that you complement this selection by reading from Vision and Victory, an anthology of Dr. Silver's political and Zionist presentations.

If you are ever in Cleveland, you are welcome to come to our library where we have some seventy-five to one hundred tapes and records of some of the pulpit lectures which Dr. Silver gave during his last ten years. With all good wishes, I remain

I am also enclosing a picture, which is included in my book "Israel 1948", representing a reception for your late Father by the Authors and Journalists Organization in Israel. At His right side is the late Joseph Heftman, the President of the Authors and Journalists Organization in Israel.

I am taking the liberty in sending you a copy of my book "Jews in Latin America" that just appeared. This book represents a thorough study, of many years, in archives of museums, churches, synagogues in Spain, Portugal and Latin America. It contains the history of three epochs of Jewish life in the New World: the role of the Marranos (crypto Jews) in the discovery of the New World, the second epoch after the abolition of the Inquisition and the present Jewish communities in Latin America, their fight against anti-Semitism and assimilation, and their educational problems. Also a personal visit to groups of descendants of the Marranos in remote corners of Portugal and Latin America, who practice a strange blend of Christianity and Judaism, their prayers and festivals.

Yours very truly,

CRITICAL COMMENTS

ON

JEWS IN LATIN AMERICA

Library Journal:

"As a Canadian journalist, the author visited South America many times since 1946, most recently in 1968. Previously he taught for many years in Jewish settlement schools there. For this book he interviewed important South American politicians; visited all the Jewish communities, read relevant histories, and looked at graveyards and synagogues. He writes of Jewish communities in Mexico, Central America, and South America. He describes their past as well as the present situation, including the Marranos, and contemporary problems such as ~~anti~~ anti-Semitism, assimilation, and the future; he is optimistic. The book is interesting and well-written and definitely fills a need in both South American and Jewish collections since the only other book on the subject is Cohen's Jewish Life in South America (1941), now quite outdated."

Canadian Literary Council:

"Beller's ~~egocentric~~ writing is filled with warmth and compassion. The style reminds one of the approach used by some anthropologists. His insights are good and, in places, his techniques are novel. For instance, in one area in South America, while visiting small villages and unable to differentiate Jews from non-Jews because of the similarity in last names (all of Spanish origin), Mr. Beller applies a technique that would do credit to any social anthropologist. He first seeks out the traditional occupations which Jews were allowed to have, and then seeks out the shops and attempts to differentiate Jews on the basis of first names. The ~~validity~~ validity of this technique is that it worked for the author more ~~often~~ ^{often} than not."

The book contains a ~~wealth~~ ^{rich} wealth of information on patterns of living experienced by Jews in different countries. The total amount of descriptive material and the great deal of new information that has been unearthed by the ~~author~~ author, makes it a remarkable book."

Dear Rabbi Silver:

As you probably know, THE ETERNAL LIGHT Radio Program is a weekly public affairs presentation of the NBC Network of more than 100 stations coast-to-coast.

We are desirous of preparing a half-hour dramatic program about the late Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, to be included in our current series on modern pioneers of the Mid-West. If we could enlist your help in this project, we would be most grateful, as we are very concerned that our portrayal should be faithful to the man and to his ideals. To do this properly, we would need specific anecdotal material that could be dramatized, as well as information on the kind of personality he was, in public, with his family, etc. Perhaps someone in the family has begun a biography and has a rough manuscript that might prove illuminating.

We are well aware of the late Rabbi Silver's ideals and life work. Our admiration for his work is of course what led us to conceive this program. But so far our research has turned up only speeches and vague descriptions, which are helpful, but do not help us to know the whole man.

Having used up much of our production time in fruitless research, we are hoping that you will be able and inclined to offer tangible help, as we will need to put this program into production very soon to be included in the current series.

If I may call you at the Temple on Wednesday morning, we can talk about your ideas on the matter.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

It was a pleasure to speak to you recently about the proposed ETERNAL LIGHT radio program on Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver.

We wanted to inform you that we have had to postpone the show for this season. We find we could not collect material rapidly enough to make our original date of broadcast possible. It seems that the more we learn about the late Rabbi, the more there is to know, and we cannot do the story justice until we can more thoroughly research the subject.

We will, of course, contact you again, when we resume production on this program. We do want to express our appreciation to you for your kind cooperation and efforts in our behalf.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

In accordance with our telephone conversation of today I am writing to confirm our agreement. The reading is from an address called "Religion in Present Day Jewish Life" delivered to a biennial convention of the UAHC in 1939. It appears on pages 197-98 of "Therefore Choose Life". I want to arrange it into couplets for responsive reading instead of paragraphs, delete the words "now I see the night descend again and into the dark and storm my people are wandering forth again" which refer to 1939 and add a couplet or two about Israel today. In accordance with your request I will clearly indicate the part that is added.

If this is acceptable to you, could you please let me have a note from you saying so at your very earliest convenience. Please send it to the address below.

With many thanks, and with every good wish, I am

Dear Rabbi Riemer:

The enclosed will serve as permission to print "The Eternal Pilgrimage" reading which you requested. Rather than grant you permission simply to delete the words "now I see the night descend. . ." might I suggest that you use paragraphs 15 and 16 as Dr. Silver used them in a confirmation cantata a number of years ago. Paragraph 16 particularly rounds out the historical thought. It is my understanding that there will be a separation in style of type as well as space between this text and your own.

Solomon Zeitlin as our teacher, scholar and friend.

I will be very grateful if you will be kind enough to send me the articles and statements on Orthodox Judaism made by your highly missed and lamented great father and leader, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, of blessed memory. They reflect his love of all segments of Jewry, his comprehensive and wholesome views, and he points out the constructive role of traditional Judaism.

The life and unique contribution of the Malbim has been the greatest interest in my studies. If you have any

Margurite G. Mihok
Secretary to Rabbi Silver

December 21, 1970

To: Trustees of the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library

From: Leo W. Neumark

I am requesting the secretary to confer with the president to set up an appropriate time for a meeting. In refreshing my memory as to the corporate setup, I note that the Trustees are presumed to meet at least once a year, preferably in June. No such meeting was held, according to the secretary, during 1970 and this suggested meeting could, therefore, be designated as a postponed meeting for 1970 with the regular 1971 meeting to be held in June, as called for by the regulations.

At this meeting, I have several matters which I would suggest for consideration:

- (A) A replacement as Trustee for Edgar A. Hahn, deceased.
- (B) A suggestion that Raphael Silver be not re-appointed as treasurer of the corporation as he is so seldom in Cleveland and presumably unable to perform the duties set forth in the regulations. For the same reason, consideration might be given to replacing him also as Trustee.
- (C) There remains outstanding an amount owing the corporation of $4,294 in original pledges by two contributors (all other contributions have been paid in full). It might be desirable to cancel these two outstanding pledges so that we could clear the corporation books of these items as Receivables.
- (D) Probably the most important matter which might be considered by the Trustees is the possibility of transferring a substantial part of the assets as a memorial to Rabbi Silver at the new branch. This could be payment for the new auditorium, or library, or such other facility as might be appropriate. It is my understanding that with the exception of the second and third volumes to be issued in honor of Rabbi Silver, the funds would not be otherwise required and such use of the remaining funds would be most helpful in reducing the heavy carrying charges which we are presently incurring in connection with the financing of the branch. There is presently approximately $70,000 in the surplus fund and I would imagine that $50,000 could readily be transferred for the purpose outlined.

I should like to suggest that the proposed meeting be called as early as possible after the New Year, in the event that one or more of the Trustees may be planning to be away from the city during the winter months.

Dear Leo:

The meeting of the Trustees of the Abba Hillel Silver Archives was held on October 27, 1970. In addition to election of a replacement trustee for Edgar Hahn several matters were dealt with, particularly dealing with the publication of the second volume of the Abba Hillel Silver anthology. Ray Silver was present at that meeting which was held here at The Temple.

Pursuant to the other matters which you mentioned, none of them is urgent and in view of our recent meeting I see no purpose for convening another at this time. Once the matter of publication is resolved we will be in a better position to know the sum, if any, of uncommitted assets the Foundation, in fact, possesses.

Dear Leo:

I am sure that you have forgotten that a meeting of the Trustees of the Abba Hillel Silver Archives did take place on October 27, 1970. I telephoned you about it but apparently something at BelleFaire precluded your being in attendance.

Incidentally, Raphael Silver was in attendance at that meeting at which we elected a replacement Trustee for Edgar Hahn, Frank Joseph, Jr. was named, and took up several matters pertinent to problems involved in the publication of the second volume of the anthology.

Our lawyers were instructed to enter negotiations with World Publishing and the meeting was adjourned until these have brought some results. It seems inappropriate to me now to call another meeting of the Trustees before we have something to report on that matter.

My enclosed answer to Leo Neumark is far sweeter than my original draft. He has become a busy body. When he doesn't know what to do he comes down and camps at the Temple office and looks for problems. I agree completely with you about the archive's capital and have no intention of transferring funds to The Temple. For many reasons, it needs to have a few reserves.

See you before we leave for the South. It was good talking to you before New Year's.

Dear Rabbi:

Thank you for your letter of December 30. I had not remembered the meeting of the Abba Hillel Silver Archives on October 27, 1970, which I was unable to attend.

I do not, however, feel that this could in any way be considered as the regular Annual Meeting. Mr. Bamberger, who is secretary, advises me that no formal notice was issued, that he was not at the meeting as secretary and, most of all, that he has no notes of what took place. From my recollection, it was a rather hastily called meeting by telephone to discuss a single item --- the problem with the World Publishing Co. regarding the second volume of the three, which I understand it is hoped to issue.

I would like to suggest: (a) That the minutes of the special meeting of October 27 as you remember them be transcribed and furnished to Mr. Bamberger for his records as secretary, and (b) I do believe that a meeting very properly could be called in line with the memo previously sent you. Quite frankly, I am most interested in the transfer of as much of the funds not needed for the completion of the Archives planned to the new branch building as a memorial to Rabbi Silver. You are well acquainted with the financial stress in which The Temple finds itself, both for operating and for the payment of the new branch and wherever funds are not needed and might be made available, I feel they should be so allocated. The foundation fund, which is almost completely the result of my efforts, should not be used for capital purposes as it will undoubtedly have to be tapped, probably this year to make up an operating deficit.

Dear Leo:

Thank you for your letter of January 5th.

When we do have an answer from World I will call a meeting. I am not quite as sanguine as you seem to be on the availability of free funds. It seems to me that the Archives has a responsibility to maintain a corpus which would allow it to provide alternate accommodations if the main Temple should ever close or should there be the likelihood of someone making us an offer to rent our school space in the building.

Dear Rabbi:

Frankly, I do not consider waiting for an answer from the World Publishing Company in connection with the controversy we are having, a reason for delaying a regular corporation meeting as called for by the regulations, which should have been held in 1970. Presumably, the misunderstanding with World Publishing, the details of which are not familiar to me, may be of long duration and should not delay consideration of the other items which I mentioned in my first communication.

With several of the trustees now leaving for the balance of the winter, it would seem the meeting; which I have asked for, will have to be delayed several months. Meanwhile, I do hope that you are arranging to give Mr. Bamberger comprehensive minutes of what took place at the special meeting in October.

Dear Emanuel:

Glad you are safely home. I have read only the first chapter of Orian's work. It is not particularly impressive. The style is academese and the material is unexciting. He has read everything in the archives and read it thoroughly but he shows some lack of understanding of American life and synagogue life in the 20's and 30's. His main point seems to be that Dad limited his Zionist activities to work outside the Temple. He has understood that Dad rarely talked about Zionist politics from the pulpit but he little understands the importance of his reintroducing Hebrew in 1918 as a basic academic requirement. Nor does he discover that Dad had created a Zionist society at The Temple in the early 1920's.

I don't know what else I can add. With all good wishes, I remain,

Dear Danny,

I do appreciate your letter of congratulations. Knowing how pressed you are for time, it was an act of kindness I shall remember. Thanks.

During your several visits to Richmond I am sure you were given some understanding of the attitudes toward Israel that persist in some quarters. At our last High Holy Day services we passed out subscription forms for Israel bonds, not without creating some dissent. But we did it, and that was a breakthrough. It is imperative that Richmond Jewry feels itself connected to world Jewry.

To that end I am preaching on "Peoplehood", come Yom Kippur Eve, revealing my own deepest convictions in the process. No one has inspired these convictions more than your late, beloved father. Reading his collection of sermons and lectures, I was not only inspired, but even led to a higher plane of love for our people and faith.

In the book "Therefore Choose Life" there is one sermon that particularly thrilled me. It is entitled "My People". I know it would have an impact upon the membership of Beth Ahabah if permission could be granted to publish it in its entirety in our Temple Bulletin. That I request from you, knowing that if you favor the project, chances are the publisher will approve. I am sending him a duplicate of this letter.

I trust that you will see the point of this request and use your good offices to solicit the cooperation of the World Publishing Company.

By the way, "Therefore Choose Life" is as excellent a publication as any passing my desk in recent memory. Your father was not only the master homiletician, but his sermons read as beautifully as they were preached. What an articulate and passionate spokesman he was!

Best to you and your family,

Re: THE ABBA HILLEL SILVER MEMORIAL ARCHIVES AND LIBRARY

1. The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library Fund is apparently recorded on the books of The Temple and included in its regular annual audit. However, a corporation was formed, with a similar name, as an Ohio not-for-profit corporation with Articles of Incorporation approved on September 26, 1964. (It is noted that the Articles of Incorporation do not include the name "Corp., Inc., or Co."; and in the name of the corporation "Archives" precedes "Library" whereas under The Temple financial statement, it is the other way around.)

2. The only record of activities on the part of the corporation appear to be as follows:

- (a) A contract apparently was entered into between the World Publishing Company and "The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library, an Ohio corporation not for profit", with respect to the publication of the sermons of Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver.
- (b) Apparently at the request of World Publishing "Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives And Library" filed with the IRS for an Employer Identification Number which was issued" (in 1966).
- (c) A statement of continued existence was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio for "The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives And Library" under date of April 28, 1971.

Apparently no meetings have been held, no minutes have been kept, no returns or reports have been filed with either the state or the federal government, except for the indication in two writings that there was a meeting of the Trustees on June 4, 1969 which authorized the creation of a Finance Committee, which was followed by a meeting of the Finance Committee which authorized the investment of surplus funds in certain government obligations and prime commercial paper.

3. The record would indicate that the corporation has been treated as a "shell". Under the circumstances, it would be best to treat it as such, i.e., as a pure title holding corporation for purposes of insulating The Temple and the Trustees of the Fund from liability in connection with the contract with World Publishing and the handling of monies or investments of the Fund.

4. If it is desired that the "Archives" be separated from The Temple and identified as a separate entity, then it would be best to start over again with a proper corporation which will recognize its obligations and conduct its affairs consistent with the legal and tax requirements as a corporation having substance. For this purpose a new nonprofit corporation could be formed which should file an exemption application with the Internal Revenue Service and obtain tax exempt status. An agreement should be made with The Temple as to those properties and funds which will be treated as belonging to the separate corporation. Such assets should then be removed from the financial reports of The Temple.

5. It will be necessary for the new corporation to file an Exemption Application with the Internal Revenue Service and also to establish status as a "public charity", a "private operating foundation" or a "private nonoperating foundation". The most desirable status is that of a "public charity". In order to meet the requirements of this status, the corporation would have to either -

- (a) be a publicly supported organization, or
- (b) be operated for the support or benefit of one or more public charities and be controlled, supervised or operated in connection with such one or more public charities.

The corporation clearly could establish status as a "public charity" operated in connection with The Temple, but its Articles and Regulations would have to so tie it in with the purposes of The Temple. Otherwise, it would have to be publicly supported, which would mean that it would have to receive (on the basis of figures now available) approximately $1800 a year in contributions from "the public". It is not clear whether space provided by The Temple on a rent-free basis would be treated as "support" to which a value can be ascribed in determining public support. If it is not so treated as annual support, or even if it is, the corporation would still have to find other sources of support so that its total "from the public" would equal at least one-third of total support. For this purpose, contributions from private persons (and families) could not be included to the extent any such contribution would exceed about $400 over the preceding 4-year period. Thus it would take about 18 contributions at $100 each per year to provide the necessary public support.

6. The new corporation could qualify as a public charity by a connection with The Temple and with other similar institutions (religious or educational) which are themselves public charities. Should at some later time it be determined that the Archives might be moved physically from The Temple or otherwise not have as close a relationship to The Temple, the problem could be faced at that time as to whether it would have the sufficient connection with public charities to maintain its status as a public charity.

7. The alternative is for the new Archives corporation to be a "private operating foundation". This means that it will be a private foundation, subject to the 4% tax and subject to other restrictions and costs which are imposed on a private foundation.

Dear Daniel,

I returned from Israel last week, and made inquiry from World Publishing as to the status of our long delayed book. It's unbelievable -- they have lost the blues (or never printed them), nor do they seem to have the corrected galley proofs over which I had laboured for weeks last year. They say they have found the photographs and captions. The matter is driving me quite mad, for now I must begin again with the old uncorrected galley proofs. I'm postponing my return to Israel in order to work with them.

It's really been a fantastically aggravating experience. Anyway, thought I'd let you know about what's happening.

Re: The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library

Dear Rabbi:

I am enclosing proposed Articles and Regulations for a new corporation to hold and operate the Archives.

These papers have been prepared so that the new corporation would qualify as a "public charity" under the tax laws by reason of the relationships with The Temple which have been specified in the documents.

If these papers are agreeable, then the next step will be to develop the documents with regard to the Archives' properties and other holdings that are to be transferred to and held by this corporation. This will also involve taking over whatever contractual arrangements exist with regard to printing and publication of books.

When the above referred to papers have been completed, then we will be prepared to file an exemption application with the Internal Revenue Service.

As you will note, I am also sending copies of these papers to Bud Eisner and to Frank Joseph, Jr., and requesting reactions from all three of you.

CODE OF REGULATIONS
ABBA HILLEL SILVER MEMORIAL
ARCHIVES AND LIBRARY

ARTICLE I

Trustees

(A) Power and Authority of Trustees.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Regulations of this Corporation, all of the authority of the Corporation shall be exercised by the Board of Trustees.

(B) Number of Trustees.

The number of Trustees, which shall be five (5), may be fixed or changed at a meeting of the Trustees called for the purpose of electing Trustees at which a quorum is present, on the affirmative vote of a majority of the Trustees present. In case the Trustees at any meeting for the election of Trustees shall fail to fix the number of Trustees to be elected, the number actually elected shall be deemed to be the number of Trustees so fixed.

(C) Qualifications of Trustees.

Each Trustee shall be a citizen of the United States of America. A majority of the Trustees of this Corporation shall at all times consist of persons who are elected by the Trustees from nominees designated by the governing body of The Temple.

(D) Election of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees shall be elected by the Trustees acting in their capacities as members of this Corporation, at the Annual Meeting of the Trustees. In the event of a vacancy in the Board of Trustees, the Board may elect at a Special Meeting of Trustees called for such purpose, a person to fill such vacancy whose election would satisfy the requirements set forth in Section (C) of this Article, and such person shall serve with the same rights and duties and for the same term as the person whom he was elected to succeed.

(E) Term of Office of Trustees.

Each Trustee shall hold office for a term of two (2) years or until his successor is elected and qualified, or until his earlier resignation, removal from office, or death.

(F) Removal or Resignation of Trustee.

Any Trustee, by notice in writing to the Board of Trustees may resign. Any Trustee may be removed from office for good cause upon the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Trustees present at a meeting where a quorum of Trustees exists. Upon request by the Trustee subject to the removal action, a hearing shall be held at said meeting prior to the voting of Trustees.

(G) Quorum.

A majority of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any Annual or Special Meeting.

(H) Meetings of Trustees.

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held at a date within the first four months of the fiscal year of the Corporation as may be determined by the Board of Trustees. Special Meetings of the Board of Trustees may be held upon call of the President or Vice President, and shall be called upon request of any three (3) members of the Board of Trustees.

(I) Notice of Meetings.

Written notice of all meetings shall be given not less than five (5) days nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of such meeting to each Trustee by mail at his last known address, and all such notices shall state the time and place of the meeting. Notice of any meeting may be waived in writing, either before or after the holding of such meeting, by any Trustee. The attendance of any Trustee at any such meeting shall be deemed to be a waiver by him of notice of such meeting.

(J) Committees.

The Board of Trustees of the Corporation may create an Executive Committee and any other committee of the Board of Trustees, to consist of not less than three (3) Trustees, and may delegate to any such committee any of the authority of the Board of Trustees.

Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Trustees, shall act only in the intervals between meetings of the Board of Trustees, and shall be subject to the control and direction of the Board of Trustees. Each such committee may act by a majority of its members. An act or authorization of an act by any such committee within the authority delegated to it shall be as effective for all purposes as the act or authorization of the Board of Trustees.

The Board may establish such other committees as it deems necessary consisting wholly or in part of persons who are officers, directors, trustees or members of The Temple to advise and assist the Board of Trustees in any matter.

(K) Membership.

There shall be no members of the Corporation as such. The Trustees shall, for the purposes of any statute or rule of law relating to corporations, be taken to be the members of the Corporation, and they shall have all the rights and privileges of members.

ARTICLE II

Officers

(A) Election of Officers.

The officers of this Corporation shall be a President, who shall be one of the Trustees, one or more Vice Presidents, as determined by the Trustees, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Trustees shall from time to time designate. Said officers shall be chosen by the Trustees by majority vote. One person may be chosen to hold two offices. Officers shall hold office until the date fixed in accordance with these Regulations for the Annual Meeting of the Trustees next following the election of such officers, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

(B) Duties of President.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees, sign the records thereof, and perform generally all the duties usually performed by Presidents of like corporations, and such other and further duties as shall be from time to time required of him by the Board of Trustees.

(C) Duties of Vice President.

The Vice President shall perform all the duties of the President in case of the absence, death or disability of the latter. In case both President and Vice President are absent, or unable to perform their duties, the Board of Trustees may appoint a President pro tempore.

(D) Duties of Secretary.

The Secretary shall keep minutes of all the proceedings of the Board of Trustees and make a proper record of the same, which shall be attested by him, and generally shall perform such duties as may be required of him by the Board of Trustees.

(E) Duties of Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall receive and account for all monies and property belonging to the Corporation and shall disburse, or otherwise deal with, the same as shall be ordered by the Board of Trustees. He shall keep an accurate account of all monies received and disbursed by him, and shall generally perform such duties as may be required of him by the Trustees. On the expiration of his term of office he shall turn over to his successor, or to the Board of Trustees, all monies and property of the Corporation in his hands.

ARTICLE III

The Corporation shall indemnify each Trustee and officer and each former Trustee and officer of the Corporation, and each person who is serving or has served at its request as a Trustee or officer of another corporation (whether non-profit or for profit), against expenses, judgments, decrees, fines, penalties or amounts paid in settlement in connection with the defense of any past, pending or threatened action, suit or proceeding, criminal or civil, to which he was, is, or may be a party by reason of being or having been such Trustee or officer, provided a determination is made by the Trustees of the Corporation acting at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of Trustees who neither were nor are parties to or threatened with any such action, suit or proceeding is present, that (a) such Trustee or officer was not, and has not been adjudicated to have been, negligent or guilty of misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation or such corporation of which he is or was a Trustee or officer, (b) he acted in good faith in what he reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation or such corporation, and (c) in any matter the subject of a criminal action, suit or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

The foregoing rights of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such Trustee or officer may be entitled apart from the provisions of this Article III.

The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Trustee or officer or designated agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Trustee or officer or designated agent of another corporation (whether non-profit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article or of Chapter 1702 of the Ohio Revised Code.

ARTICLE IV

Order of Business

Unless this Regulation is suspended by a majority vote of the Trustees present at any meeting of the Trustees, the order of business at all meetings shall be as follows:

- (5) New or miscellaneous business.

ARTICLE V

ARTICLE VI

Gentlemen:

The undersigned are all of the Trustees of The Abba Hillel Silver Charitable and Educational Fund, a Trust established under date of December 26, 1952 (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust"). The Trustees have determined that the purposes of the Trust will be better served by transferring all of the assets thereof to The Temple to be held and administered as a Fund of The Temple in accordance with the terms of transfer as set forth in this letter. Accordingly, there is hereby transferred and delivered to The Temple (Tifereth Israel Congregation) all of the assets of the Trust as listed in Schedule A attached hereto and made a part hereof upon acceptance by The Temple of said transfer and of the following terms and conditions:

1. A fund shall be established on the book of The Temple which shall be known as The Abba Hillel Silver Charitable and Educational Fund ("the Fund").
2. The Fund shall include the property this day received from said Trustees, such property as may from time to time be transferred to The Temple by the donors for inclusion in the Fund, such property as may from time to time be received by The Temple from any other source and accepted by it for inclusion in the Fund, and all income from the foregoing property.
3. The Fund shall be the property of The Temple held by it in its normal corporate capacity; it shall not be deemed a trust fund held by it in a trustee capacity. The Temple in its normal corporate capacity shall have the ultimate authority and control over all property in the Fund, and the income derived therefrom, for the charitable, educational and religious purposes of The Temple.
4. The Fund shall be used only for charitable, educational or religious purposes (or any combination of such purpose) within the purposes of The Temple, either directly or by contributions to other organizations for such purpose or purposes.

5. Subject to the limitations otherwise provided herein, the income or principal or both of the Fund shall be distributed at such time, in such amounts, in such ways, and for such charitable, educational or religious purposes (or any combination of such purposes) as the Rabbi of The Temple shall determine in his capacity as a spiritual leader of The Temple. It is intended that the Fund shall remain as a permanent memorial to the late Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver and shall be available for use by the Rabbi of The Temple in furthering the purposes of The Temple including the support of programs and projects which are not provided for in funds otherwise normally available to The Temple.
6. It is further intended that the Fund shall be a component part of The Temple and not a separate trust, and that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the status of The Temple as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and as an organization which is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code. This Agreement shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with the foregoing intention and so as to conform to the requirements of the foregoing provisions of the federal tax laws and any regulations issued pursuant thereto. The Temple is authorized to amend this Agreement to conform to the provisions of any applicable law or government regulation in order to carry out the foregoing intention. References herein to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be deemed references to the corresponding provisions of any future Internal Revenue Code.

Kindly indicate below your acceptance of the property described in Schedule A and of the foregoing terms and conditions.

UNANIMOUS ACTION OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TEMPLE

The undersigned, being all of the members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of The Temple, do hereby adopt by unanimous consent the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Abba Hillel Silver Charitable And Educational Fund (hereinafter "Trust") was established through contributions from various members of The Temple in 1952 to honor the late Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver and to provide a fund which could be used for charitable, educational and religious purposes as the Trustees of the Trust, including the Rabbi of The Temple, may determine; and

WHEREAS, the current Trustees of the Trust have advised the officers of The Temple that, by reason of changes in the Federal tax laws, the operation of the Trust as a separate trust has become unduly burdensome and that they, the Trustees, have determined that the purposes of the Trust will be better served by transferring all of the assets thereof to The Temple to be held and administered as a Fund of The Temple; and

WHEREAS, there has been presented to the Executive Committee a proposed letter of transfer from the Trustees of the Trust providing for the transfer of the assets of the Trust to The Temple and the establishment of The Abba Hillel Silver Charitable And Educational Fund as a fund of The Temple; and

WHEREAS, establishment of such a Fund is consistent with the purposes of The Temple and the terms and conditions for transfer of the assets of the Trust to The Temple for the establishment of such Fund are within the purposes and authority of The Temple;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

- (1) On behalf of The Temple, the assets of the Trust are hereby accepted in accordance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid letter of transfer from the Trustees of the Trust.
- (2) The President of The Temple is authorized to execute said letter of transfer to The Temple.

- (3) The President of The Temple is authorized to take, or cause to be taken, such other action as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of the transfer and the establishment of the Fund as a fund of The Temple.
- (4) The President of The Temple is authorized and directed to report this Action by the Executive Committee to the Board of Trustees of The Temple at its next meeting.

Re: Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library

Dear Rabbi:

As you know, I have been considering for some time the posture of The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library from the standpoint of its legal and tax status. The matter is confused because it appears that at one time Articles of a not-for-profit corporation were filed but there has been little or no activities giving substance to the corporation. In particular, it appears there was never any attempt to qualify the corporation as a tax exempt organization under the federal tax laws. It is my understanding that the financial reports of The Temple treat the funds contributed to The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library as part of the funds of The Temple. It is my recommendation that the record in this matter be clarified so that it is clear that such funds do not belong to a separate entity. At the same time, certain interests of your family in the properties which were contributed and which constitute the physical portions of the Archives and Library should be protected.

With this in mind I prepared two documents, one clarifying the status of the gifts which were made to the Archives and Library and the other protecting and releasing the persons who apparently constituted the Board of Trustees of the corporation for which Articles were filed.

I am sending the enclosed papers to you, Bud Eisner and Frank Joseph, Jr. with the view that we should all get together and discuss this matter and determine whether the approach indicated by the attached papers is acceptable. There may be other aspects of this matter of which I am not aware and which will require additional action; but at least I believe the enclosed papers are a proper start and I shall be glad to discuss them further with you.

Re: Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library

Dear Rabbi:

When we last met and reviewed the papers I had prepared regarding the Archives and Library, you indicated that the documents were satisfactory except that you would like to have it made clear that the funds received and to be received for The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library shall be kept and used solely for the purposes of the Archives and Library and not for other purposes. In accordance with this suggestion, I have revised section 4 of the proposed agreement between the members of your family and The Temple. I have also changed the last paragraph of the other agreement, with Bert Krohngold et al, so that the Committee for the Archives and Fund can be shrunk to a manageable size for this purpose and changes can be made as needed. You, of course, would continue on the Committee. I trust this is now satisfactory.

I have also made a few other mechanical changes in the enclosed proposed agreements. I am sending copies also to Bud Eisner and Frank Joseph, Jr. for their review so that we will be in a position to act on this matter if the papers meet with the approval of the three of you.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ray:

I am delighted that you are home. Mother tells me your trip was a great success. I look forward to hearing about it.

Due to various changes in the laws governing foundations - particularly laws governing the contributions of foundations - it has become necessary to readjust the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library to represent the library as part of the Temple for bookkeeping purposes. This will not affect the control of the Foundation or the treatment of the Archives by its own managing Board - which will be the present Board. I would like you to look over the enclosed and if you see fit to sign them. If not, please return them to me with any suggestions or commendations you might wish to have made.

We are all well. Sarah is in Colorado at camp. Michael is in Birmingham visiting his grandparents. Jonathan leaves tomorrow morning for a canoe trip in Canada and a High School camping program. We will have a week to ourselves before the clan begins to gather again.

As always,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Norm:

I checked out the material with Raphael and it is agreeable with him. In fact, I have his signature. Do you want me to proceed and get the signature of all the people on our Board individually or do we have to have a meeting?

Are the documents in my hand appropriate or do we have to type up new ones?

What additional documents are necessary and should they be written now?

With all good wishes and many thanks I remain

Re: The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library

Dear Rabbi:

I am enclosing herewith a fully executed copy of the Agreement between you and your mother and brother and The Temple relating to the above matter. This is for your personal records. I am also enclosing a xerox copy of the same document should you care to share one with the other members of your family.

By carbon copy of this letter I am sending to Leo Bamberger for the records of The Temple a fully executed copy of the same document and a xerox copy of the same. These documents are all dated September 10, 1974.

I am also enclosing for your information a xerox copy of the Agreement of the same date between the former Trustees of "The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library" corporation and The Temple. By copy of this letter I am transmitting duplicate originals of this same document to Leo Bamberger for the records of The Temple.

It is important, of course, that the financial and accounting records of The Temple properly reflect that the assets and funds involved are a part of The Temple and do not belong to a separate entity. Accordingly, I am sending copies of the documents to the accountant for The Temple so that he is fully informed for this purpose.

I believe that this winds up this matter. However, I still have some papers that were furnished to me by way of background, which I shall turn over to Leo in due course to keep in the records of The Temple.

Very truly yours,

Norman A. Sugarman

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Not long ago I had the great pleasure of visiting the Abba Hillel Silver Archives. I was impressed by the scope and apparent completeness of the collection. I obviously need not tell you as a rabbi and historian how important your father's papers are.

I am compelled, however, to comment upon the general condition of the Silver Archives. Although the arrangement of the papers is certainly adequate, the present storage leaves me concerned for their safety. In particular, the correspondence which is really the heart of the collection is located in an area where it could suffer disastrous water damage. More to the point, the papers need to be properly preserved including their arrangement in acid free folders and boxes and storage in an environmentally controlled space. Additionally, their importance calls for microfilming.

Obviously, undertaking a project like that stated above is not to be considered lightly, particularly while Marc Raphael is working on the Silver biography. I am writing this letter only to provide a professional archivist's opinion concerning a valuable collection. Clearly, I would be ecstatic if you decided to house the papers in the Cleveland Jewish Archives, where I am convinced it would receive the best of care. However, this letter is not meant to be self-serving. My concern is the preservation of the papers and I would welcome the news of their donation to a recognized and reputable archival institution whether it is the Historical Society, Harvard, the Zionist Archives or any one of the body of archives that would accept the papers.

I hope you will accept this letter in the spirit of our mutual love for Jewish history and desire for its continual preservation. I would be pleased to discuss this matter further at your convenience.

Re: The Temple

Dear Mort:

Enclosed are copies of documents which I prepared and which have been fully executed making clear that The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library is a part of The Temple. I am sending these papers to you so that in connection with your accounting and auditing work for The Temple, you can see that the accounts are properly set up and maintained so that the assets and funds involved are properly reflected as those of The Temple.

The enclosed documents were approved by the Board at its meeting on September 10, 1974. Leo Bamberger, of course, can furnish you with further information with regard to these matters.

Gentlemen:

Ohio law requires each non-profit corporation to file a Statement of Continued Existence with the Secretary of State "within each five years after the date of incorporation or of the last corporate filing." The filing fee is $1.00. If the corporation fails to file the statement, the law requires that the Secretary of State "shall cancel the articles of such corporation."

Our records indicate that the above named corporation has not filed its Statement within the required time. Notice is hereby given that unless the Statement is filed within 21 days from the date of this notice, the corporate charter will be cancelled. The appropriate form has been enclosed for your convenience.

Re: The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library

Dear Rabbi:

This is in response to your request that I review the letter of May 13, 1976 addressed to you from the Assistant Secretary of State.

The letter indicates that unless The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library files a Statement of Continued Existence with the Secretary of State, its articles of incorporation will be canceled.

You will recall that we reviewed the status of the Silver Memorial Archives and Library in 1974 and reached the conclusion that the formation of the Silver Memorial Archives and Library as a separate corporation was a mistake, which had never been implemented and that the Archives and Library should be a part of The Temple and not a separate corporation. All of this was reflected in several documents, including an Agreement with The Temple, giving your family certain privileges with regard to consultation in the event there should be any action which might lead to a removal of the Archives and Library.

Under the circumstances, I recommend you do nothing in response to the letter of May 13, 1976. Our basic position is that the corporation has never been used and, therefore, the articles may as well be canceled.

I am returning the papers that you sent to me.

Very truly yours,

Norman A. Sugarman

Dear Adele:

I've recently been in conversation with staff at the Jewish Community Federation concerning the Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver papers. They asked me to bring them up to date on this matter, which, as you may recall, I have been interested in for many years.

Enclosed is a copy of our memorandum of understanding with the Temple as well as a budget for this project that we have developed. Our next step is to raise the funds that are needed to implement this program. The development staff at federation as well as the people at our society are really quite excited about this project and think it will be a tremendous contribution to scholarship and an excellent way of assuring the permanent preservation of and accessibility to the Silver papers.

I'd be happy to answer any questions you may have and to entertain any comments or suggestions you might care to make.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
THE WESTERN RESERVE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
AND
THE TEMPLE
CONCERNING THE PREPARATION OF THE MICROFILM EDITION OF THE RABBI ABBA HILLEL SILVER PAPERS

The Western Reserve Historical Society (hereinafter the Society) and The Temple being mutually interested in the preservation of the Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver Papers (hereinafter the Silver Papers) agree that this collection should be microfilmed. Therefore, the Society and the Temple agree to the following arrangements; contingent upon the issuing of adequate funds as specified in paragraph 5 below:

1. The microfilming of the Silver Papers and all preparations for microfilming will be undertaken in the library of the Society under the supervision of the library personnel.
2. The transportation of the Silver Papers from the Temple to the Society and back to the Temple shall be the responsibility of the Society, but will be undertaken with the cooperation of the Temple librarian.
3. The microfilming of the Silver Papers will include the following specific procedures:
 - a. Reprocessing of the collection to insure a logical and systematic order of the papers before microfilming and placement of the papers in archival quality folders.
 - b. Targeting of the papers to meet currently accepted standards for archival microfilm.
 - c. Preparation of a 35mm roll microfilm master negative of the Silver Papers that will meet current national standards for resolution, density, and residual chemistry on the negative.
 - d. Preparation of two positive copies of the master negative: one for the Society's library and one for the Temple.
 - e. Preparation of a guide to the microfilm edition of the Silver Papers. This guide is to include a folder by folder description of the collection and such appendices as deemed appropriate to convey the research potential of the collection.

4. The Society will make copies of the microfilm edition of the Silver Papers available to other research libraries and interested agencies. In the event that these sales generate any income, the latter will be credited to the accounts of the Cleveland Jewish Archives.
5. The Society will be responsible for raising the funds required to accomplish microfilming the Silver Papers. No financial contribution is required from the Temple. The Society will coordinate its fund raising with the Jewish Community Federation. These funds will be administered by the Society and used as follows:
 - a. For labor costs involved in processing and microfilming the Silver Papers.
 - b. For microfilm purchase and processing.
 - c. For archival supplies to rehouse the original collection.
 - d. For printing the guide to the collection.
 - e. For the purchase of a microfilm reader-printer for the Temple library.

Best for me to give Daniel's papers - which belong to me at his death - to archives (or any other repository), because I can best use any tax deduction. I can send a letter of intent, but it's not legally binding and there is nothing to be gained by it. I should stipulate, whenever I make the gift, that I (or a member of the family) may in the future wish to withdraw certain items for the use of other institutions.

My gift can be outright, or I can give the archives custody of the papers, reserving ^{the} right to them / their use.

? how?

An appraisal of the papers will / can be made at the date of death.

TO: Virginia Krumholz
FROM: Adele Z. Silver
SUBJECT: Archives material from Daniel's office

I'm pleased to know that you will welcome Daniel's papers from the two long-range planning committees he chaired for the Museum. There are many other such files--that is, of tasks he undertook for organizations other than The Temple--in his Temple office, and I would welcome your advice and guidance on the proper repository for such materials, on the method of transfer, and any other information that would be helpful. It's likely that a professional archivist will be needed, eventually, on a short-term basis. It would also be a help if you could estimate the cost of such a task.

I'll appreciate the opportunity to talk this over with you when you return from your vacation.

DEAR KERMIT:

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR SENDING ME A COPY OF THE MEMORANDUM AND THE BUDGET FOR THE PROPOSED WORK ON THE RABBI ABBA HILLEL SILVER PAPERS. I KNOW YOU WILL APPRECIATE HOW DIFFICULT IT IS AT THIS TIME OF DANIEL'S ILLNESS FOR THE FAMILY TO FOCUS ON MATTERS SUCH AS THIS--THAT IS, MATTERS THAT ARE VERY IMPORTANT TO US AS A FAMILY BUT THAT DO NOT NOW TAKE PRECEDENCE. THEREFORE, I HOPE YOU WILL BEAR WITH US UNTIL SUCH TIME AS THE FAMILY DEEMS IT APPROPRIATE TO RESUME DISCUSSION ABOUT THE PROJECT. AT THAT FUTURE TIME, I WOULD WELCOME THE CHANCE TO TALK WITH YOU.

DEAR HOWARD:

THANK YOU FOR YOUR VISIT AND FOR HELPING SARAH AND ME TO UNDERSTAND SOME OF THE BACKGROUND OF THE ABBA HILLEL SILVER CHAIR AT CWRU. AT YOUR SUGGESTION, I CALLED HENRY AND STEVE, WHO WERE AS GENEROUS AS YOU AND CAME TO TALK WITH JONATHAN AND MICHAEL AND ME. THE RESULT OF THESE CONVERSATIONS IS THAT THE FAMILY NOW FEELS MUCH MORE COMFORTABLE AS THE SEARCH TO FILL THE CHAIR RESUMES. DANIEL'S BROTHER RAPHAEL IS GOING TO SERVE ON THE SEARCH COMMITTEE, AS THE FEDERATION IS AUTHORIZED TO APPOINT HALF THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE; OUR SON MICHAEL WILL BE HIS FAMILY BACKUP.

DURING YOUR VISIT WITH SARAH AND ME YOU MENTIONED THE ARCHIVES PROJECT THAT THE TEMPLE AND THE WESTERN RESERVE HISTORICAL SOCIETY HAD ASKED FEDERATION TO SUPPORT. THANKS TO ELAINE TICKTIN, WHO ASKED THE SOCIETY TO INFORM THE FAMILY OF THE PROJECT, KERMIT PIKE SENT ME A COPY OF THE MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING AND THE PROJECT BUDGET. I'VE NOW ALSO READ THROUGH DANIEL'S FILES ON THE ARCHIVES AND HAVE DISCUSSED THE POSSIBILITY OF THIS NEW PROJECT WITH

RAPHAEL AND WITH OUR CHILDREN. THE CONSENSUS, AS REFLECTED IN MY LETTER TO KERMIT, IS THAT WE'D VERY MUCH PREFER TO PUT THIS ON HOLD UNTIL WE ARE READY TO DISCUSS IT WITH THE SOCIETY AND THE TEMPLE. RAPHAEL, DANIEL, AND THEIR MOTHER WERE THE GRANTORS OF THE PAPERS, AND WE BELIEVE RAPHAEL OUGHT TO ASSUME SOME OF DANIEL'S RESPONSIBILITIES HERE, TOO, AS HE IS DOING WITH THE CHAIR.

I HOPE THIS LETTER SUMS UP FOR YOU THE FAMILY'S RESPONSE TO YOUR SOUND ADVICE. THANK YOU AGAIN FOR THAT ADVICE, AND FOR YOUR HELP AND KINDNESS.

WITH WARM REGARDS,

The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives is dedicated to the leadership of the man who guided the religious destiny of The Temple for almost half a century. The Archives provides a permanent home for the personal files and correspondence of Dr. Silver, for the literally hundreds of addresses and sermons in which he defined the spiritual dimensions of modern life, and for such special material as relates to his life and to his many civic and national interests, especially his central role in the establishment of the State of Israel.

The Archives has catalogued and indexed this material, and it is available for research and study. The outer room of the Archives is designed as a work area. It includes the main catalogue and a collection of the records and tapes of Dr. Silver's lectures and sermons. There are tape recorders and record players available for those who wish to listen to the speech of one of the truly supreme orators. Application should be made to The Temple Librarian.

The inner room is a replica of Dr. Silver's study at his home. It contains his desk, many of the books which were part of his life, and a fine portrait. These volumes are available as part of The Temple Library collection.

The Archives will publish a number of volumes of Dr. Silver's lectures and speeches. The living truth of his thought will reach out to the coming generations. Funds for this project were made available by a number of life long friends of the Rabbi.

MINUTES OF THE MUSEUM COMMITTEE MEETING

January 25, 1990

The meeting was called to order by the chair: Jim Herman at 7:45 P.M.
Present: Elaine Gross, Dieter Myers, Ruth Dancyger, Betsy Goodfriend, Lois Rothschild, Mimi Price, Nancy Whitman, Susan Braham-Koletsky, Ellen Bishko, Jim Herman, Claudia Fechter.

All present viewed the new exhibition "Isador Kaufmann: Ghetto Impressionist" and expressed appreciation and congratulations to Nancy Whitman and Sally Ross for their hard work and beautiful results in curating the show.

The Abba Hillel Silver Archival Project: It was announced that the agreement with the Western Reserve Historical Society, concerning the putting of the documents on microfilm has been held in abeyance for a number of reasons:

1. We are fortunate not to be locked into old technology as most archival institutions are at this time
2. We wish time to explore the new technical possibilities that will more closely serve The Temple's needs.
3. According to the terms of this contract The Temple is to receive no financial benefits from any sale of copies
4. We are only to get a second copy not the first negative
5. It was agreed that we are to have all the legal and technical aspects of this project looked at carefully keeping in mind that our primary concern is to preserve the original documents

We have already purchased the computer and printer and are now shopping for a scanner and some soft ware. This will enable us to produce a museum brochure and go into collections control. We have a budget item of $1000 to print a brochure.

Beverly Kendis is in charge of registering our Torah scrolls so they can always be identified. It involves a braille process of marking that is registered internationally. The cost of this is $190. The Temple is taking the lead in telling about this process to other local synagogues.

A special small show will be presented in the foyer of Main's auditorium area in honor of Sisterhood's hosting the Region Conference in March.
Pearl Hachen is looking for suitable display.

CAJM CONFERENCE REPORT

Claudia Fechter reported on the 4th annual Philadelphia Conference. The major theme was the role of Contemporary Jewish Art and artists in our museum programming. It was proposed that we use gallery space to provide a forum for little know artists as a means of encouraging their work. Some museums take a sizable commission from sales.

The secondary theme of the conference was education and how best to use museum resource for many different people in the community. One idea immediately applicable to our museum programming involves the new Russian families and their hosts in our community. (We have already been in touch with the Resettlement Office with ideas for joint programming). Many ideas were presented with application for shows for us. Among the ones I'd like to consider are:

Black-Jewish American History a show put together by the HUC in Cincinnati and made available to us through the American Jewish Committee (Martin Plax) The cost would be $140 in shipping charges plus security and publicity.

It was wisely suggested that we preview the show before we commit to it and that we include experts in the handling of this socially sensitive and possibly controversial subject.

All shows should have accompanying programs of many types. It is hoped that First Friday speaks will be part of museum planning and library planning.

Artist's Invitational exhibition, possibly of Purim Masks
An exhibition of Judaic artifacts owned by the families of our congregation and community at large

It was announced that the next loggia exhibition will be "Thou Shalt Teach Thy Children" a show mounted by Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Stadtler and Dr. A. Friedberg in commemoration of Yom HaShoah. It will feature stamps from the Holocaust period. Meetings of the Israel Philatelist Society and the Holocaust Group will be held at The Branch in conjunction with this show. Temple members are welcome to attend.

Ellen Bishko will be the creator of this year's Model Seder Table.

The core collection of paper holdings are in need of expert evaluation as to storage and conservation. We have requested help from the Oberlin Center. Just as soon as they have a staff member available they will work with us under a grant that we will apply for from the Ohio Arts Council.

Jim Herman, Architect, presented the problems and plans for enclosing the Branch library. There is a concern to retain the openness of the area and to keep the cost down.

Many of our committee's concerns directly involve the advice, understanding, and consent of The Board of Trustees. We ask that a Board Member serve as a liaison. (We have just been advised that Naomi Singer has been appointed to serve in this capacity).

The issue of additional open hours for the museum was discussed at length. The consensus is that we should charge for tours that involve expense. Because Sunday openings will require more than one guard we will continue to restrict our openings to appointments.

The next meeting will be scheduled just after the new show is mounted.

Respectfully submitted,

Betsy Goodfriend

The society's library is widely regarded by historians as a priceless national resource, especially for its collection of manuscripts, maps, records and letters that document the founding and early years of the United States.

In June, the financially pressed society dismissed nearly a fourth of its staff, shortened its visiting hours and closed some of its galleries. The library escaped substantial cuts, although the trustees said that if around $20 million could not be raised within a few months, further econo-

This truly tragic story told in the appended clipping is why I believe so strongly in institutions assuming responsibility for their recorded history and information. To cut the material adrift is to risk its destruction based on the monies available. An archive is integral to the institution and the information is safe so long as the institution survives.

I spoke to Paula and she will await your call when you return. Adele, I know your journey will be a refreshment and tonic for the spirit.

In a library storeroom at the New York Historical Society, a row of cardboard boxes containing the personal letters of Cass Gilbert, an eminent turn-of-the-century American architect, is dusted with bits of plaster that have fallen from the ceiling.

Nearby, thousands of other blueprints, photographs and other documents making up the collected papers of Gilbert lie in untidy piles, the frayed paper edges of many documents are crumbling onto the floor. A stack of maps and historical papers lies fully exposed on a table top, the papers so fragile that they disintegrate at the touch.

The plight of the Gilbert collection, evident on a visit yesterday, symbolizes what in recent weeks has become one of the most difficult of the many challenges facing the New York Historical Society: how to save its library from both physical and financial collapse. The society's library is widely regarded by historians as a priceless national resource, especially for its collection of manuscripts, maps, records and letters that document the founding and early years of the United States.

In June, the financially pressed society dismissed nearly a fourth of its staff, shortened its visiting hours and closed some of its galleries. The library escaped substantial cuts, although the trustees said that if around $20 million could not be raised within a few months, further economies, including possibly the closing of the library, would be carried out.

Those new funds have not been raised. But several recent changes at the society, the most notable being the appointment last month of an interim director and of a committee of influential businessmen and arts administrators to rescue the society from bankruptcy, have won the library a reprieve.

"It's become increasingly apparent to the trustees that the library is the most important resource that we have," said Albert L. Key, the president of the society. "I think to close it down would be a disaster. The recommendations of the committee are of vital importance."

John D. Macomber, a former chief executive officer of the Celanese Corporation, is the chairman of the advisory committee, which also includes Ellen Futter, the president of Barnard College; Richard Ravitch, the chairman of the New York City Charter Revision Commission; Dr. Vartan Gregorian, the president of the New York Public Library, and Eugene Keelin, an investment banker with Lazard Frères and a director of the Municipal Assistance Corporation.

A former vice chairman of Chemical Bank, Charles W. Carson Jr., has been named the society's interim deputy director of finance, and has begun to guide the institution in financial and administrative matters and to work with the advisory committee.

Last February, the trustees of the society determined that the institution would be bankrupt in 18 months if expenses were not cut and new funds were not raised. For years, its officials say, the society paid for growing yearly deficits with money from the society's endowment, a practice that drained away much of the institution's essential financial resources but that for the moment will have to continue, Mr. Key said.

"It's a calculated risk, how you bring this around," Mr. Key said. Barbara Knowles Debs, the interim director of the society and a former president of Manhattanville College, said she had "solid indications" that substantial amounts of money could be raised shortly, and also emphasized that the library would not close.

"We are open for business," she said. "You can't take an institution like this and turn it around by closing it up and making it unavailable."

Yet the problems facing the library, the largest department of the museum, remain formidable. Chief among them, its staff members and outside experts say, is the huge expense of properly storing and conserving aging books, manuscripts and papers.

It would cost more than a million dollars, for instance, to restore the

A Neglected but Priceless Library

Library contains six million books and manuscripts, maps, photographs, prints and posters, continuous runs of 18th- and 19th-century newspapers, and architectural and real-estate records that cover practically every acre of Manhattan for nearly 200 years.

The library's rich collection of early-American manuscripts and documents, especially from the Colonial period, make it an extraordinary storehouse of the nation's patrimony. In the bookshelves of its building at Central Park West and 78th Street, the society keeps collections of handwritten letters and documents of George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Ulysses S. Grant, Robert E. Lee and hundreds of other historical figures.

Besides the collected papers of Cass Gilbert, whose designs include those for the United States Supreme Court building in Washington and the Woolworth Building in Manhattan, the society owns the architectural papers of George B. Post and of the firm of McKim, Mead & White.

Scholars and others who are familiar with the library say that many improvements have been made in the last year under its new director, James Mooney, who joined the staff in 1987.

But many say the library, despite its virtually priceless holdings, still has far to go to meet the highest standards of library storage. Some materials at the library, these experts say, suffer from poor storage conditions and are largely ignored.

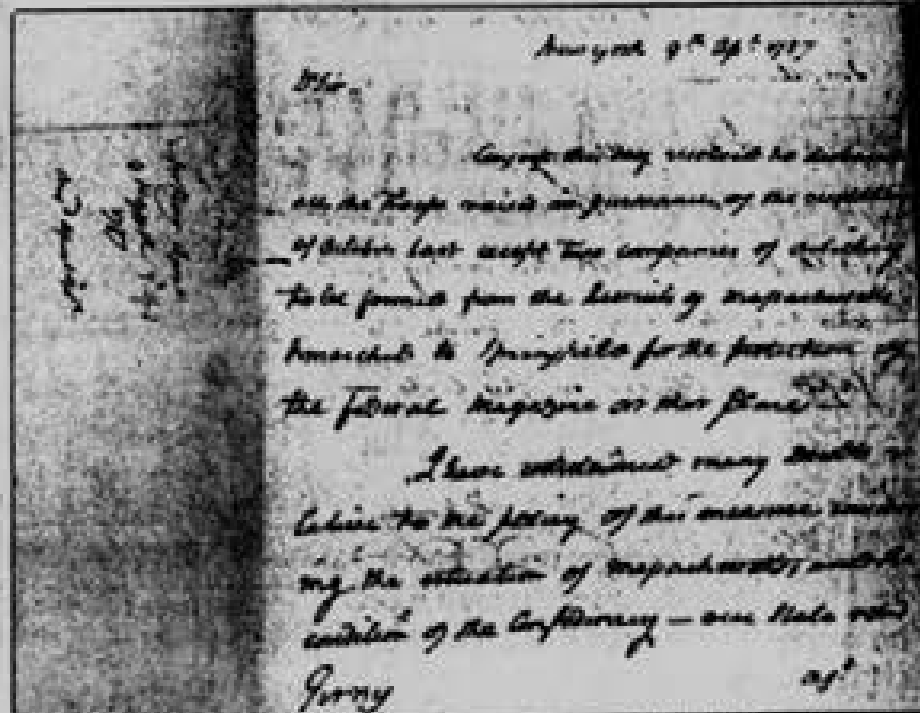

"They don't realize the seriousness of the neglect," said Mindell Dubinsky, the chief library conservator at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, who is familiar with the society's library. "It's out of sight, out of mind. And there are other areas of the collection that are unattended, lying there the way they were when they came in. It happens in every research library in the country. It's a mammoth problem."

In Poor Shape When Received

Officials of the society say the Cass Gilbert collection was received in a severe state of deterioration in 1937. The disorganized storage of the materials, they say, and the lack of upkeep of the storage area are the result of a chronic lack of funds.

James Hudson, the chief of the manuscript division at the Library of Congress, said that he had not seen the Cass Gilbert collection, but that many portions of the library's collections, especially the manuscripts, like those relating to early American history, were well-tended.

He added, however, that many libraries, in haste to accept important historical collections, underestimate the huge cost of storing, cataloging and preserving the documents. The collections may thus lie unprocessed

A letter from Rufus King to Elbridge Gerry, dated April 9, 1787, when they were delegates to the Constitutional Convention. The letter is in the collection of the library of the New-York Historical Society.

'You can't take an institution like this and turn it around by closing it up.'

for years, he said, adding to problems of deterioration the works may have had when they were donated.

Under Mr. Mooney, the library has begun an aggressive effort to raise funds and to take control of its storage and other problems. The Pew Charitable Trusts donated $200,000 toward cataloging the library's collection, and a book conservation studio has been established with funds from the Annie Laurie Aiken Trust. A Friends of the Library group has been started, and efforts have been accelerated to remove posters and prints from folders whose acidic paper hastens decay of the contents. A paper conservation studio is now under construction, and the library has also hired a specialist whose only job is to care for stored works.

Besides its problems with storage, the library is greatly hindered by not knowing exactly what it owns. Nearly two million of its six million books, manuscripts, prints, photographs and other objects are uncatalogued, said Robert Thompson, who heads the library's cataloging department. To complete the process of cataloging, however, will be very costly. Mr. Thompson's 10-member staff, 9 of whom work full time, can catalogue only 6,000 works a year, he said.

The physical condition of the society's building, especially the roof and wall of its book stacks, has also become a focus of attention in the current crisis.

On a recent tour of the building, on the top floor of the 15 stories of book stacks, a visitor could see where several large patches of plaster had fallen from the ceiling, a result, society officials said, of a rainstorm some years ago. The library's rare manuscripts, old newspapers, broadsides, letters, maps and other material are stored in the stacks.

Plastic sheets had been placed over portions of the top shelves of some of the stacks, but several books were evidently stained and warped from water damage.

A private building inspector's report, written in 1986 by Welton Becket Associates, a New York architectural firm (now Ellerbe Becket), reported an "advanced state of deterioration" in the masonry walls of the book stacks, "due to water penetration."

The society's main library stacks were erected in 1838. After one large leak during the rainstorm, Mr. Mooney said, the ceiling never leaked again.

But one weekend evening last January, a waterpipe burst in a fourth-story room of the society, drenching several dozen commemorative handkerchiefs, antique quilts, lace, costumes, according to Patry Orlowski, a textile conservator whom the society hired to repair some of the damaged works. Officials insist that it was an accident of the sort that could strike anywhere and was not due to poor storage facilities or to the building's deteriorating condition.

Dear Jim:

I am writing as a follow-up to our correspondence and conversations relating to the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives.

Following my letter to you of March 26, 1990 (copy attached) we had a further phone conversation and you indicated that you would be forwarding to me the Temple's responses with regard to the questions raised in my letter.

I have not heard anything further from you and would appreciate your advising me of where things stand.

Yours very truly,

Dear Jim:

I appreciate you sending me information on the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives.

My major area of concern in relation to the removal of materials to the Western Reserve Historical Society relates to paragraph 3 of the September 10, 1974 agreement between The Temple and members of the family as "Grantors". When one reads this paragraph it seems sufficiently broad in its application so that our providing consent to the proposed transfer to the Historical Society for the purpose of microfilming could be construed to be a "disposition or relocation of said personal property... to another location or locations so as to preserve said personal property for library and archival use...".

We certainly do not wish to have the present physical archives abandoned as the place for the housing of Dad's papers. I can see a situation arising either now, or at a later date, where the family's consent to the removal of the papers to the Western Reserve Historical Society for the purposes contemplated could be construed so that, following our consent, the papers would be microfilmed, a copy of the microfilm records would be provided to The Temple along with a machine for display (as contemplated in the Memorandum of Understanding between the Western Reserve Historical Society and The Temple) and then the papers themselves might simply be "stored away" in some other place, - not in a formal archival setting.

It may be appropriate, at this time, to have an agreement clarifying that the removal to the Historical Society will not trigger such an event as well as some language clarifying that the Abba Hillel Silver Archives will be maintained in an appropriate physical setting in the event that The Temple elects at some later date, to sell, abandon or destroy the premises at East 105th Street and Silver Park or to remove or cause to be removed therefrom the contents of the facilities known as the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library.

I don't know whether The Temple has given any thought to this matter but it would be helpful for us as a family to understand what the intentions of The Temple would be with regard to the Abba Hillel Silver Archives in the event of such a change as well as to be certain that the currently contemplated removal of the papers for microfilming will not under any circumstances cause the abandonment of the current physical archives at the Ansel Road Temple..

Finally, we would like to explore with you, the possibility of contributing Dan's sermons and papers to The Temple and to The Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library for purposes of preservation as part of the heritage of The Temple and having these papers microfilmed along with Dad's for purposes of long term preservation.

The Temple is unique among Jewish religious institutions in having had a continuity of rabbinical leadership going from father to son and covering a period of over seventy years. We feel that it would be appropriate to provide the historical evidence of such continuity through the preservation of Dan's sermons and papers along with Dad's in the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives.

I will look forward to your comments and will be pleased to talk further and/or meet with you and others on this matter at any time.

Yours very truly,

Raphael D. Silver

Memorial Archives and Library

Dear Marilyn:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 24, 1990.

On-behalf of the Silver family we consent to the proposed microfilming of the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library by the Western Reserve Historical Society.

This consent is provided solely for the purpose of carrying forward the microfilming of the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and is not intended to provide any continuing consent to any future relocation or removal of the Silver Archives. These would, of course, continue to be handled in the context of The Agreement entered into on September 10, 1974 between The Temple and members of the Silver family.

We do very much appreciate the generous comments contained in your letter of July 24, 1990 and look forward to the completion of the proposed microfilming as an effective means of preserving Dad's papers.

With best regards,

WHEREAS, there has been presented to the Executive Committee a proposed letter of transfer from the Trustees of the Trust providing for the transfer of the assets of the Trust to The Temple and the establishment of The Abba Hillel Silver Charitable And Educational Fund as a fund of The Temple; and

WHEREAS, establishment of such a Fund is consistent with the purposes of The Temple and the terms and conditions for transfer of the assets of the Trust to The Temple for the establishment of such Fund are within the purposes and authority of The Temple;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

- (1) On behalf of The Temple, the assets of the Trust are hereby accepted in accordance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid letter of transfer from the Trustees of the Trust.
- (2) The President of The Temple is authorized to execute said letter of transfer to The Temple.

- (3) The President of The Temple is authorized to take, or cause to be taken, such other action as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of the transfer and the establishment of the Fund as a fund of The Temple.
- (4) The President of The Temple is authorized and directed to report this Action by the Executive Committee to the Board of Trustees of The Temple at its next meeting.

Uncover Your Company's HIDDEN ASSETS

Your company's past may be a guide to its future. Your corporate history and noncurrent records can be invaluable assets — assets that can aid in:

- planning,
- decision-making,
- training, orientation,
- employee and public relations.

Often, however, historically valuable records are hidden away in file boxes, difficult to retrieve, not available to help manage the business. Now...or later.

We can help you take full advantage of these hidden assets, using the latest technology, in several ways:

- Design a state-of-the-art, computer-accessible corporate archives system;
- Research and write your corporate history;
- Capture key decisions and events through oral histories;
- Provide a historical perspective for decision-making and managing your business in today's environment.

Paula Cohen holds a Masters degree in Archives Administration and graduate and undergraduate degrees in history from Case Western Reserve University.

Since 1980, Ms. Cohen has been involved with all phases of corporate archival/history activity for a number of Cleveland-based corporations and institutions. Ms. Cohen has organized comprehensive archives and records management systems, conducted oral history interviews, initiated computerized retrieval systems, assisted in developing a company museum, assembled materials for exhibits and authored corporate histories.

Ms. Cohen regularly attends meetings and workshops offered by the local, regional and national archives and history professional organizations of which she is a member. These include the Society of Ohio Archivists, Midwest Archives Conference, Society of American Archivists, National Council on Public History, American Association of State and Local History. Corporate History and Archives

*A Valuable Tool for Analyzing the Past,
Managing the Present,
Planning the Future*

Access vital information CORPORATE ARCHIVES

A corporate archives system establishes a central location, with easy access to inactive records, photographs and memorabilia of enduring historical value – capturing the life and history of a company, its founders, key personnel, products and achievements.

It permanently preserves, organizes and maintains the most vital records so they are readily accessible to all departments through state-of-the-art computerization.

This saves valuable time otherwise spent searching for information – and it saves costly space, since only the most vital information – 1½ to 3 percent of your company's total records – is kept.

Included is key information on your company's:

- business, corporate culture, traditions, identity;
- products and services;
- relationship to your community, industry and employees;
- trademarks, copyrights and legal documents;
- strategies and decision-making process.

A corporate archives is an invaluable resource to the entire company.

Document the evolution of your business CORPORATE HISTORY

Your corporate history isn't just a thing of the past. It's a useful management tool for the present ... and the future.

The lessons of previous years can illuminate current issues, inspire renewed achievement and reinforce the company's image in the industry and in the community.

It allows you to trace the growth and change in your business and in your industry. A corporate history can be useful in:

- Celebrating a milestone anniversary through publications, exhibits, audio-visual presentations and publicity;
- Training and orienting employees and managers;
- Assessing responses to changing times and issues;
- Examining industry trends, technologies and markets.

It can be any length or format from an insert in an annual report to a detailed text, soft or hard bound, with photographs or not.

A corporate history is more than a chronicle of past events. It is a lasting document you will turn to again and again.

Keep living records ORAL HISTORIES

Major decisions and events come alive through oral histories – taped interviews with the decision-makers in your company.

An oral history fills gaps in information – expanding on the material included in written records ... and offering in-depth information and fresh insights into:

- why and how decisions are made;
- the background behind events and issues;
- motivations of the people involved;
- perspectives on the times and on the industry.

Transcripts are carefully edited to offer lively, personal narratives which can be excerpted for slide and video presentations, exhibits and publications.

Thank you for your warm

PRELIMINARY PROCESSING GUIDELINES

Rabbi Daniel J. Silver Archive

Part I

A cursory inventory of the A.H. Silver Archive housed at The Temple revealed that the material is arranged according to the following categories. It is my recommendation that this arrangement be retained for D.J. Silver's papers as much as possible. The material is arranged alphabetically and chronologically within each series.

Correspondence

Speaking Engagements

Sunday Sermons

Sermons-Series

Holiday Sermons

Manuscripts and Transcripts

Scrapbooks and Albums

Recordings: A. H. Silver, 1956-1961

Daniel Silver, 1960-1962

Recordings: Title and Subject

Film

Files of Organizational Activities, arranged alphabetically, and multiple copies of publications are housed in the archive storage/work room.

There are apparently many items stored in wall cabinets in the Archive Room adjacent to the library that are not in proper containers and have gotten quite dusty. I would strongly recommend that this material (newspaper articles among other things) be removed, cleaned and placed in acid-free containers.

Part II

Purchase archival supplies:

Record storage boxes

Document Cases

Folders, Acid-Free bond paper

Sleeves for Photographs

Labels for folders and boxes

Part III

Part IV

Guidelines for Preparing the Inventory Worksheet

Check for duplicate copies, duplication of information contained in other records publications, and ephemeral materials that need to be weeded.

The series title is assigned by using the title given by the creator

Dates-provide beginning and ending dates for each series, mention significant gaps, missing items.

The Descriptive Paragraph: The purpose of the descriptive paragraph is to describe the series in such a way that a potential researcher can determine whether or not the series contains pertinent information.

Ingredients of the descriptive paragraph are self-evident.

If questions arise about whether to include materials or exclude materials in the collection permanently, consider the Evidential and Informational value as appraisal criteria. The evidential value are records which evidence activities of the organization, and the informational value are those records which contribute to research and scholarship in any field of knowledge.

Part V

You may consider a simple fold-over piece (see sample) to announce the existence of the collection which also includes a brief description and basic listing of contents. This could be distributed to colleges and universities, historical societies, and Jewish institutions, collections and libraries. It is common practice for researchers to be charged for the use of the collection and any services rendered by the library/archive staff. This is a customary procedure, and may help defray the cost of maintaining the collection.

Marie,

Please see this note to the archivist and decide how to begin a file about this. I think that the DJS estate will pay for her services, but we will have to find out for sure. Also, I don't even know where we have put the Archives file --is it downstairs?

5/8/92 Flo + Phil - Shabbos lesson - Phil's advice

After Patricia Beaumont tells Ray about condition of AHS Archives, and I try to channel his response to a willingness to move them, then call Malcolm Stern (212/861-5452, 300 E 71, NYC) to tell him I've been mulling over his suggestion that the AHS Archives be moved to HUC. Ask him: 1) How could he help ascertain whether HUC wants them and, if they do, how much $ they could commit to storage and maintenance?
2) who could Jake Marcus take an active role in care of Arch. Am. Jewish Archives at HUC, and what are the chances, now, future of AJA?

Goal: to have HUC make a formal request to the Temple - not the Rabbi - for the transfer of the AHS Archives. Phil is nervous: such an invitation alerts Temple leadership to historic importance of Archives and "enlarge" their sense of importance in being asked to give/storage/share Archives with

She is available to go to Archives M/Th/Fri or P.C.)

- ② HVC / scholarly audience, with full credit (Phil received a plaque ^{at HVC} declaring Temple's generosity).

Questions:

- 1) Would such a request have effect Phil imagine or the opposite? Could it make Temple suddenly believe they possess a treasure that makes them a "prince" which, in fact, they no longer are?
- 2) How many, and who, of Temple's students have to be "prepared" for this request and to make a favorable reply? (Phil believed such preparation so essential, and goal unachievable without it)
- 3) Might Temple / family / friends be asked to come up with money for transfer to, and establishment at, HVC / SSA? If so, how much?
- 4) Would HVC / ASA make some offer to Temple that WRHS made - i.e., microfilm of entire archive, plus machines to read them with? [See errors]

I called Office Max and Paula Cohen. Record storage boxes can be purchased at Office Max at a cost of $12.59 for a package of 4. They are 8-1/2 x 12 x 25 inches deep. We can also purchase labels there. 1 x 3 labels will cost $1.69 for a package of 100; 2 x 4 labels will cost $2.21. Which size do you think we should get? The larger?

I spoke with Paula in re the sleeves for the photographs and the document cases. She tells me that she will drop off a couple of catalogs and that these will have to be purchased through the catalog, no place in Cleveland to purchase. She also had on her list "Folders, acid free bond paper." She tells me that as we start to clean out we can use the regular folders we have. The only material you would use folders made out of acid free paper would be for newspaper clippings and she didn't think this was necessary now.

Dear Alan:

I'm pleased that things seem to be moving along with plans to celebrate Dad's 100th birthday.

I want to discuss a matter that has been of deep concern to me and other members of our family for some time. It is the condition of Dad's Archives at The Temple.

The Archives were established at The Temple shortly after Dad's death as a means of appropriately preserving and caring for and making available for scholarly use the many items related to Dad's life and work. Dad's study was faithfully restored at The Temple and furnishings from his study were donated. Virtually all of his important papers, many of his books and a wealth of other items were contributed to the Archives. Miriam Leikind, the then librarian at The Temple, became the de-facto "curator" of the Archives.

When The Temple moved to its new home, budgetary constraints, the reduced use of The "old" Temple, the establishment of a new library at the new sanctuary, - all complicated the continued appropriate preservation and use of the Archives.

Dearest Ray,

I've had several long and provocative talks with the two ~~main~~ archivists in town ~~who~~ I know best: Virginia Krumholz, ^{now} archivist at the Museum ~~who~~ and ~~my~~ former ~~archivist~~ for the Catholic Diocese, and Kermit Pike, ~~chairman~~ head of the library and archives at the Western Reserve Historical Society.

~~On the basis of those talks, I want to tell you a few of my concerns.~~

I want to tell you of their concerns, which I consider sufficiently ~~important~~ important that we might ^{try} ~~want~~ to ~~take the opportunity~~ incorporate them in the conversations with Jim Reich and ~~the~~ other Temple leaders ~~and~~ ^{and any new agreement we make with them.}

1. Yes, Kermit Pike ~~responded~~ ^{He so} responded to Jim's inquiry about Daniel's papers in April (he showed me the letter), ^{says} ~~saying~~ that the Society would be very happy to include Daniel's papers in the ~~microfilming project~~

~~and to the~~ ^{after Dad's papers are copied} proposed project, and to process them and microfilm them. No question about that ^{so} ~~and~~ I've ^{included} ~~appended to this letter a paragraph~~ the paragraph you asked me to provide ^{you} ~~to~~ The Temple leadership ~~through you~~.

2. Kermit assures me that I can retain literary rights and copyrights that I own in Daniel's papers until they are microfilmed. Once microfilmed, they become, ⁱⁿ in effect, published materials available to everybody. I want to retain these rights ~~at least~~ for the time being because I ~~must~~ believe I ~~may~~ want to try to draw one book from ^{the papers} ~~them~~ myself, and ~~that I might~~ want to talk with a publisher about a book of selected sermons--much as Daniel arranged for ^{Rabbi} Herbert Wiener to edit the ~~volume~~ titled In Time of Harvest. ^{before microfilming} So the paragraph includes my ~~late~~ desire to retain literary rights and first publication rights after microfilming.

3. The ~~immediate~~ ^{immediate} concern weighing ^{on} on me--getting Daniel's papers ready for ~~the~~ the archives at The Temple--is ^{one} Kermit has reassured me about, and I feel great relief. ~~He~~ ^{I am best advised to} keep Daniel's papers at home, go through them only for my own purposes, not for archival purposes, and under no deadline. Kermit says that the archivist of the Jewish archives at the Society, Nancy Schwartz, will come out to the house whenever I want her to, will go through the papers and sermons that Marie and I ~~have~~ are trying to put in order there, and that the other professionals at the Society will ~~be~~ "process" ^{everything} ~~the papers~~ ^{until} they're ready for microfilming, ^{then all the} ~~papers will be taken to the Society for microfilming, then~~ ^{microfilm} After ~~that~~, the originals can ~~either be brought back to the house or~~ ^{be} taken to the Abba Hillel Silver Archives at The Temple.

at least a year

4. This ~~is~~ last point is ~~one~~ of considerable ^{anxiety} ~~concern~~ to Kermit. He understands that we want Dad's and Daniel's papers together, ~~and~~ that The Temple now owns Dad's papers, and that The Temple will own Daniel's papers as part of the Archive ~~once~~ once I have given them. He believes that ~~the~~ Dad's papers have been used far less widely in these last 25 years than they should have been, and that they--and now Daniel's--will have ~~more~~ wider scholarly use ~~once~~ once they are available through microfilming. That's clearly one of the reasons the Society embarked on this project. (He tells me ~~that~~ there's been ~~considerable~~ concern in the historical community in town--whatever that is--that the Silver papers would eventually leave town, to go to ^{Harvard or} Brandeis / or American Jewish Archives, or whatever.) What worries him--and ^{will} ~~will~~ worry you, too, I think, ^{when} ~~you~~ ^{see} the present condition of the Archives--is that the originals ~~will~~ may not be properly cared for in the years to come. ~~Therefore~~ I believe he would be very happy to have the entire Abba Hillel Silver Archives--^{which will constitute} ~~that~~ the original papers of both Dad and Daniel--come to rest in the Society.

Now, I ~~understand~~ understand that ~~his~~ his desire is a reasonable thing for him to want--part of his job is to build up the resources of the Society. And I equally understand that The Temple would not now be agreeable, for any number of reasons, to any suggestion that the Archives be moved to the Society. But you can readily understand my anxiety about the future welfare of the papers

In recent years the Archives have been inadequately maintained and under-utilized. People who visit the Archives are distressed by their condition. Over the years, the Archives have become primarily a storage depository - not much more.

That's not what the Archives were intended to be. When the Archives were established it was contemplated that "the primary functions of the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Archives and Library would be a collection, preservation and publication of the religious and educational writing of Dr. Silver which shall be made available to Rabbis, teachers, scholars and students". This has unfortunately not been its history at all.

Even on the basic issue of preservation there has been confusion. In March, 1990, I was contacted by Jim Reich (copy of letter attached) asking for the family's consent to the microfilming of all of Dad's papers by the Western Reserve Historical Society. This would, at least, have provided a duplicate set of microfilmed records of what is in the Archives as a protection against the possibility of damage or destruction. I was given to understand in that letter that the funding would be raised by the Historical Society and the Jewish Community Federation.

After some calls and correspondence I sent Marilyn Bedol a letter on October 9, 1990, copy attached, consenting to the proposed microfilming. To my knowledge nothing further has happened. So the Archives remains at risk with no appropriate back up anywhere. If there were a fire or other kind of serious damage, Dad's life work would be lost.

My belief is that something significant should be planned for the Archives related to the celebration of Dad's 100th anniversary. The possibilities could include one or more of the following:

[Nov 10, 1992]

-3-

1. That the previously proposed microfilming of the Archival papers be completed. If this proposal can be reactivated and funded that would be an important first step in reactivating the Archives.
2. Provision should be made for the future care of the Archives in their present home. Perhaps the funds remaining in the Abba Hillel Silver Memorial Fund could be earmarked for this purpose.
3. There may be other ideas related to reviving the Archives that would appropriately celebrate Dad's 100th birthday in a way that would honor Dad's memory.

We should put our heads together and figure out an appropriate way to cap a celebration of the 100th anniversary by bringing the Archives back to life, properly protecting them for the future and insuring that they play a significant and lasting role in preserving Dad's legacy for future Temple generations.

With best regards,

Dear Ray,

I enclose a copy of a Memorandum of Understanding between The Temple and The Western Reserve Historical Society. This was drawn up last year, and you will note that the purpose of the project is to produce a microfilm edition of the Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver Papers, which now reside in the Abba Hillel Silver Archives at The Temple.

Dan was fully involved in the planning of this project, and you will note that he approved it by signing it on September 10, 1989, along with Marilyn Bedol. Even though Dan had signed the document, The Western Reserve Historical Society is reluctant to proceed with the project following Dan's death unless they have the approval of the Silver family. I have discussed this with Adele and Jonathan. Adele has indicated to me that she is reluctant to involve herself in this matter, and she suggested that I take it up with you, which I am glad to do.

~~You will note that the estimated cost of the project is $74,702. This amount would be raised by the Historical Society and the Jewish Community Federation. There would be no obligation for any of the funding from The Temple or the Silver family.~~

I believe this represents an unparalleled opportunity to classify, preserve and microfilm the Archives in a highly professional manner, thus extending its life for the indefinite future. I hope you will agree. If you do, I would appreciate it if you would write a letter to me verifying your agreement. We can then proceed to start the fund raising and get the project underway.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss this, please call me at 216-321-9376. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,
