Dear Roger:

On December 28th, the Temple will hold its annual Collegiate Homecoming. As you know, this service and luncheon offers a fine opportunity to renew Temple ties. This will also be the first occasion in which we have been able to hold this affair in our new facilities.

I should very much like to have you act as an usher at the service. The ushers will greet incoming students and help escort them to their seats. If you will be able to do so, it would be a fine service.

I am looking forward to seeing you during the holidays. I hope that you will be able to undertake this activity for me. Hoping to hear from you in the near future, I remain

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I was both surprised and pleased to receive your request for me to hostess at the Collegiate Homecoming luncheon. Past Homecomings have been most enjoyable as I am sure this one will be. I'll be glad to help.

Best wishes to you and your family for a most happy Chanukah.

Sincerely,
Roberta Brown

Dear Rabbi Daniel,

I received your letter and will be delighted to serve as a hostess at the Homecoming luncheon on December 28. It is always such a lovely party, so it naturally pleases me that I will enjoy it once again.

Being a student at the University of Pittsburgh has been a real treat. Besides gaining from the academic work, I have taken advantage of the many stimulating social and cultural activities offered by the surrounding Oakland area. Another desirable feature of Pitt is its large representation of foreign students.

Hoping that everything is well at The Temple and with your family,

I remain

Sincerely yours,
Joyce Hurwitz

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I will be very happy to be a hostess at the College Homecoming Luncheon. I'm sure it will be a great success, and the new facilities we now have should help make it even better than these affairs have been in the past.

I am looking forward to seeing you over the holidays.

Cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver,

Please excuse me for not answering you letter sooner but as you probably know things tend to pile up at school. In regard to your request that I work at the December 25th service I should like to thank you very much for considering me and I will be most happy to undertake this privilege. I sincerely feel that this will be most rewarding. It's getting close to that time when I'll begin thinking of settling down and as far as I'm concerned that includes an interest in Temple affairs. It sometimes surprises me the amount of thought I've given to the role which I want the Temple to play in my future. I have experienced a definite desire to fit it into my future plans and I am grateful for this opportunity. Again, thank you.

Sincerely

Richard Schwartz

Dear Rabbi Silver,

I want to thank you for your invitation to me to join in the Homecoming Service on December 28.

Much as I would like to accept, my plans are too uncertain, at present, to permit me to say yes. It seems very probable that I will be out of the city on the date of the service. So, reluctantly, I must turn down your kind invitation.

Again, thank you. My best wishes to you and Mrs. Silver for a happy and rewarding new year.

Sincerely yours,
Cleanor Rand

Dear Rabbi Dan,

I would be very glad to be a hostess at the collegiate

Homecoming. There are, however, two drawbacks - I am having a guest at my house that week

(1)
and I am not a member of the Temple Alumni. If I can bring my guest and the non-membership is okay I would be very happy to hostess.

Thank you for asking me.

Sincerely

[1958]

O Lord our God, we have reentered this familiar sanctuary with a feeling of pleasure. Here, beside this altar, we first learned of Thee and we spoke our first prayers to Thee. Here we were confirmed, and to this place we have returned to speak our thanks for the guidance and the learning which were ours.

As we reenter this sanctuary there is a prayer in our hearts that we may find here renewed guidance and learning. We are living through years of decision. We must soon set goals for our talents; we must soon determine the way that we shall walk through life. In the quiet of this hour of prayer, may we find a clearer understanding; may we come to appreciate the talents that are ours and the service that we must render to others.

Be with our meditations O, Lord. Guide them and encourage them.
