College reunion service, correspondence and list, 1978.

Dear Martin:

On Sunday morning, December 24, which also happens to be Hannukah, we will hold our annual College Reunion Service. I would like for you to share this service with me. Each year several of our collegians prepare a short speech of six to eight minutes. I thought this year's theme might be "What The Future Demands Of Me."

Much has been written about the disappearance of political activism on the campus, most of it quite superficial. Each of us has some sense of what he would like the future to be and the kind of commitment he must make. Essentially, we are talking about vision and values. Would you be willing to be one of our speakers? Please drop me a note including your college telephone number. I will pick up the phone and we can talk over your presentation.

Sincerely,

Daniel Jeremy Silver

Dear Marty:

I thought Sunday went off beautifully. Better than anyone there, I know the effort that goes into preparing a speech and I want to thank you for the effort as well as to compliment you for the substance and the skill of presentation. It was a fine morning all the way round. Many thanks and may the New Year be a good year for you and yours.

Sincerely,
