BLESSED, O BLESSED

Blessed, O Blessed
Moment most holy,
Leading the lowly
Youth to the Lord.

Sweet are the lessons
Of this hour's story
Na'er may its glory
Fade from our minds.

Blessed, O Blessed
Moment most holy,
Leading the lowly
Youth to the Lord.

LORD WHAT OFF'RING SHALL WE BRING?

Lord, what off'ring shall we bring
At Thine altar when we bow?
Hearts, - the pure unsullied spring
Whence the kind affections flow.

Willing hands to lead the blind,
Heal the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all mankind;
Charity, with lib'ral store.

Teach us, O Thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind,
This accepted off'ring bring;
Love to Thee and all mankind.

FATHER, SEE THY SUPPLIANT
CHILDREN

Father, see Thy suppliant children
Trembling stand before Thy throne,
To confirm the vow of Sinai,
We will serve the Lord alone.

Now that we have studied Thy Torah,
May its laws eternally Guide our thoughts and thus make our actions

Be acceptable unto Thee.

Thou shalt love the Lord, thy Father,
With thy heart and soul and might,
Let Him only be thy Guardian
To guide thy footsteps by day and by night.

As we reach this confirmation
Of our faith in Israel's past,
May the message of this service
Be the treasure we hold fast.

Father, hear the vow we offer
Of our loyalty to Thee,
May these words we speak have meaning
That our lives a blessing be.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

I consecrate my life to the religion of Israel-
With all my heart, and with all my soul, with all my might,
I will strive to further the holy purposes of Judaism.
Unto the end of my life, Israel's watchword shall be my guide.
Sh'ma Yisroel Adonoi Elohenu Adonoi Echod,
Hear, O Israel, the Lord, our God, the Lord is One.

OPENING PRAYER

O Lord our God, as we enter this sanctuary to confirm our faith we are deeply conscious of the duties and obligations we assume. This day commemorates the covenant of Sinai. There, centuries ago, our forefathers accepted the responsibilities of God and Judaism. Here we accept the same responsibilities and now happily confirm their heritage and ours.

Conscious of the duties we now assume, we turn to Thee, O Lord, for encouragement and inspiration. We ask Thy light and Thy truth to make clear our way. We pray for Thy guidance and continuing support. Strengthen us in our desire to know Thee, and to effect Thy hopes for mankind. Sustain us, O Lord, that we may establish this, our confirmation through our lives.

Praised be Thou, O Lord, our God, Who has kept us in life and sustained us, and Who enables us now to rejoice in the beauty of this service.

FLOWER OFFERING

On this day in olden times our forefathers dedicated to God the first fruits of their fields. They brought their offerings to the Temple as a token of their gratitude for God's generous bounty. We, their descendants, continue this practice. These blossoms are a symbol of our gratitude for the blessings of life, of health, of talent, and of promise.

These flowers which we bring are visible signs of the beauty that blossoms in the heart, the fair blossoms of affection, of kindness, and of truthfulness. As we place these blooms before this altar, so we place before God the promise of a dedicated life. As the loveliness of nature brings joy to man, so may our deeds bring happiness into the lives of our families and friends and joy even to the heart of God.

Accept these, our offerings, Heavenly Father. Our prayers, our love, and our deepest hopes go with them.

Reader

Every living soul shall praise Thee; the spirit of all flesh shall glorify Thy name. Thou art God from everlasting to everlasting and besides Thee there is no redeemer nor savior. Thou art the first and the last, the Lord of all generations. Thou rulest the world in kindness and all Thy creatures in mercy. Thou art our guardian who sleepeth not and slumbereth not. To Thee alone we give thanks. Yet, though our lips should overflow with song, and our tongues with joyous praise, we should still be unable to thank Thee even for a thousandth part of the bounties which Thou hast bestowed upon our fathers and upon us. Thou hast been our protector and our savior in every trial and peril. Thy mercy has watched over us, and Thy lovingkindness has never failed us.

Congregation and Reader

Praised be Thy holy name. Thou hast made Thine eternal law our portion, and hast given us a goodly heritage. Open our eyes to the beauty of Thy truth and help us so to exemplify it in our lives that we may win all men for Thy law of righteousness. Gather all Thy children around Thy banner of truth that Thy name may be hallowed through us in all the world and the entire human family may be blessed with truth and peace. Amen.

Praised be Thou, O Lord our God, Ruler of the world, who in Thy mercy makest light to shine over the earth and all its inhabitants, and renewest daily the work of creation. How manifold are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all. The heavens declare Thy glory. The earth reveals Thy creative power. Thou formest light and darkness, ordainest good out of evil, bringest harmony into nature and peace to the heart of man.

6 Great has been Thy love unto us and boundless Thy compassion. Our fathers put their trust in Thee and Thou didst teach them the law of life. Be gracious also unto us that we may understand and fulfil the teachings of Thy word. Enlighten our eyes in Thy law that we may cling unto Thy commandments. Unite our hearts to love and revere Thee. True and enduring is Thy word which Thou hast spoken through Thy prophets.

Congregation

Thou art the living God, Thy words bring life and light to the soul.

Thou art the strength of our life, the rock of our salvation; Thy kingdom and Thy truth abide forever.

Thou hast been the help of our fathers in time of trouble and art our refuge in all generations.

Thou art the first and the last, and besides Thee there is no redeemer nor helper.

As Thou hast saved Israel from Egyptian bondage, so mayest Thou send Thy help to all who are oppressed.

May Thy law rule in the hearts of all Thy children, and Thy truth unite them in bonds of fellowship.

May the righteous of all nations triumph by Thy power and rejoice in Thy grace.

O God, who art our refuge and our hope, we glorify Thy name now as did our fathers in ancient days:

224 MORNING SERVICE FOR THE FESTIVALS

Reader

A new song the redeemed sang unto Thy name. They proclaimed Thy sovereignty and said:

Choir

The Lord shall reign forever and ever.

Reader

O Rock of Israel, redeem those who are oppressed and deliver those who are persecuted. Praised be Thou, our Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

Choir: Amen

Reader

Praised be Thou, O Lord, God of our fathers, God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, great, mighty, and exalted. Thou bestowest lovingkindness upon all Thy children. Thou rememberest the devotion of the fathers, and, in love, bringest redemption to their descendants for the sake of Thy name. Thou art our King and Helper, Savior and Protector. Praised be Thou, O Lord, Shield of Abraham.

Eternal is Thy power, O Lord, Thou art mighty to save. In lovingkindness Thou sustainest the living; in the multitude of Thy mercies, Thou preservest all. Thou upholdest the falling, healest the sick; bringest freedom to the captives and keepest faith with Thy children in death as in life. Who is like unto Thee, Almighty God, Author of life and death, Source of salvation? Praised be Thou, O Lord, who hast implanted within us immortal life.

remember the day of Sinai, when Israel entered into covenant with Thee to become a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.

With Thy law in their hearts, Thy people has gone forth as Thy witness and midst deadly foes and devouring flames has proclaimed Thy name in all the earth. Through the ages Israel has been faithful to Thee. He found strength in trouble, light in darkness, hope in adversity, for he remembered Thy promise: I, the Lord, change not, and ye, O sons of Jacob, shall not be consumed. In the same faith we hold fast to Thy covenant, and bring our children unto Thine altar that they may renew the vow of their fathers. Grant, O God, that this covenant may be forever sealed upon their hearts as a covenant of life and peace. May Thy spirit which rested upon our fathers and Thy word which Thou didst put into their mouths not depart from our children and our children's children forever. Grant that the truths revealed to Israel may become the possession of all men, and that the time be not distant when all the children of earth shall recognize Thee as their God and Father. Amen.

COMMANDMENTS

1. I am the Lord Thy God, Who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
2. Thou shalt not have any other gods before Me. Thou shalt not take unto thyself any graven image nor any manner of likeness of anything that is in the heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down unto them, nor serve them: for I, the Lord Thy God, am a zealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto the thousandth generation of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

COMMANDMENTS

3. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord Thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath unto the Lord, Thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work--thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor the stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath Day and hallowed it.

COMMANDMENTS

5. Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
6. Thou shalt not murder.
7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
8. Thou shalt not steal.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house; thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

HEBREW BLESSINGS

Praised be the Lord our God, for the law of truth and righteousness revealed in Israel, for the words of the prophets filled with His spirit and for the teachings of the sages whom He raised up aforetime and in these days.

(after reading the Haftarah)

For the Torah, for the privilege of worshipping, for the prophets and for this holy day given to us, for inspiration, for honor and for glory, let us thank and bless the Lord our God.

Charles Rosen

HAFTARAH

The Haftarah for today is taken from the 42nd Chapter of the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

(42:1-4)

Behold My servant, whom I uphold;

Mine elect, in whom My soul delighteth;

I have put My spirit upon him,

He shall make the right to go forth to the nations.

He shall not cry, nor lift up,

Nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

A bruised reed shall he not break,

And the dimly burning wick shall he not quench;

He shall make the right to go forth according to the truth.

He shall not fail nor be crushed

Till he have set the right in the earth;

And the isles shall wait for his teaching.

HAFTARAH

(Isaiah, 42:5-8)

Thus saith God the Lord,
He that created the heavens, and stretched them forth,
He that spread forth the earth and that which cometh out of it,
He that giveth breath unto the people upon it,
And spirit to them that walk therein:
I the Lord have called thee in righteousness,
And have taken hold of thy hand,
And kept thee, and set thee for a covenant of the people,
For a light of the nations;
To open the blind eyes,
To bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
And them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house,
I am the Lord, that is My name;
And My glory will I not give to another,
Neither My praise to graven images.

RETURNING THE SCROLLS - I

Oh God, our Father and our Protector, we invoke Thy blessings on the House of Israel. Whatever be our portion in the countries of the earth, may we remain true to our heritage. Bestow Thy favor on this blessed land. Prosper our nation in all its industries and its commerce, on land and on sea, so that there may be no want nor scarcity anywhere. Grant that they whom the people have placed in authority may be filled with Thy spirit, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of Thee. May Thy blessing rest upon our free institutions, that this land remain forever the home of liberty. May peace abide within its borders and righteousness among its inhabitants. Be Thou with us now and ever. Help Thou us in all our ways.

Amen.

RETURNING THE SCROLLS - II

The Bible is the product of the prophetic genius of the people of Israel. It represents Israel's major contribution to mankind. It is a book, not for one age only, but for eternity; not for one people only, but for the whole of mankind.

We who are about to be confirmed will become the bearers of the great traditions of this immortal book. The stream of its inspiration and influence must continue through us. We must therefore learn it and teach it, in order to fulfill the ancient charge: "This Book of the Law shall not depart out of thy mouth, and thou shalt meditate therein day and night."

Steven Levine

RETURNING THE SCROLLS - III

Proudly we lift this Torah aloft - (pause) - symbol of our faith, our hope and our mission.

"The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the judgments of the Lord are true; they are righteous altogether. Behold, a good doctrine has been given unto you; forsake it not."

"It is a tree of life to them that lay hold of it, and the supporters thereof are happy. Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its paths are peace."

THE ETERNAL PILGRIMAGE

All: I belong to an immortal band, dear and precious to me--consecrated men women who love freedom, justice, truth and God. Their work inspires my life; their hopes are mine.

Ecl Rosenbaum
(1) With Abraham I stood in lonely night vigil, gazing at the mighty heavens.
I found myself drawn close to the one Creator, God. I read the destiny of my people in the far-scattering stars. With Abraham I built the altar of a patriarch's stern faith and ultimate sacrifice. I learned of faith's power and its sacrificial price.

*Levi
Levitt*
(2) I wandered with Moses, an alien prince among an alien people. Unshod, I knelt with him before the vision in the wilderness, and from within the inextinguishable fires of God, I heard a voice summoning to duty and freedom. With Moses I topped Mt. Sinai and stood between the lightning and the cloud while a covenant everlasting of love and law was sealed between my people and my God.

*Iris
Kahn*
(3) I stood with Joshua fighting and heard him counsel my people to be strong always, and of good courage. The land, our land, flowed with milk and honey, but it was prized by many and required to be won.

Alvin Himmich
(4) I heard Samuel encourage my people to win freedom and plead not to reject
God by enslaving themselves to a king, "God alone is King." I sympathized with their fear, yet I approved his fearlessness.

*Kathy
Gray*
(5) I listened as the harp of the shepherd king sang the praises of the Most High and found the harmony of faith even in the valley of the shadows. I saw David, great and majestic, yet humble before the righteous wrath of the prophet and before the majesty of the over-arching law of God.

(6) I prayed with Solomon in the Temple which he dedicated as a House of Prayer for all peoples, and I learned of a God whom Heaven and the Heaven of Heavens cannot contain, and Whose compassion extends to all, even to the stranger who comes out of a far country.

Jane Bush

(7) I marched with the resolute band of prophets who came to destroy old worlds and to build new ones. I shuddered at the wrath of their spirit as they lashed out against oppression and injustice, against false gods and gilded idols, against blind leaders and lying hypocrites.

Bruce Klein

(8) I heard their anger, and I knew their love. I was warmed by the prophets' infinite compassion for the weak, the denied, and the wronged. From them I learned the meaning of obligation and the nature of mission, the joy of singing a song to the Lord--a new song--and the hope of a time when none need be afraid.

Elinor Schell

(9) I wandered with my people by the slow-moving rivers of Babylon, and I heard their oath of deathless loyalty: "If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget her cunning." I entered the humble and improvised synagogues, and I discovered that prayer and devout study are as meaningful and as acceptable to God as the ritual of the Temple. Above each ark, I read the truth that "God is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth."

Cathy Gintz

(10) I returned from captivity with the rebuilders of Zion. I raised high the walls of Jerusalem. I sat with the sages and scribes who taught the word of God and molded the people's reverence by gathering their wisdom into a timeless book.

Howard Symenber

(11) I took to the mountains of Judea, pulling down the heathen altars with the lion-hearted sons of the Maccabees. I rejoiced in the miracle of the single cruse of spiritual oil as it illumined the Temple rededicated to the ever-living God.

Martha Kaufman

(12) I was companion to the gentle Hillel who knew vast law and yet saw all its wisdom capsuled in a single principle of neighborly love. I walked with Akiba, master of law and lore, who knew how to love and be humble, yet how to inspire a revolution, defy an empire, and die a martyr.

(13) I wandered with my people into the long, dark exile into many lands over which cross and crescent reigned. I walked with them the weary highways; I was with them when they drank the bitter chalice of pain; and I rejoiced as they stood staunch and steadfast for the sanctification of God's Name.

(14) The night was long, but in time I saw the night leave and the dawn break. I marched, exalting in a reborn world with a new light of freedom and justice. I heard the shackles break open. I saw the radiance of emancipated minds and hearts rising to bless the world with matchless gifts in every field of human creation.

(15) And then so soon I saw the night descent again and into the dark and the storm my people wandered forth. Pogroms, scourges, the hatred of ambitious men, terror and death overwhelmed them in the days of the world wars; and millions perished. And in my distress I was with them as they called upon the Name of the Lord.

(16) Then came a new dawn. The centuries of homeless wandering; the undefeated few rebuild an ancient state. Hundreds of thousands of the storm-tossed and the weary found refuge and a new life. I thrilled as the rededicated sang the songs of reconsecration and confidence.

ALL I belong to this immortal band, dear and precious to me. Their work inspires my mind. The urgency of their pilgrimage courses through my blood. Have faith, proclaim freedom, establish justice, love thy neighbor, be thou a blessing (softer) be thou a blessing (whisper) be thou a blessing.

PRAYER FOR THE HOUSEHOLD OF ISRAEL

O Lord, our God, we turn to Thee in hope, as did our fathers. May Thy mercy descend upon our people in all their habitations. Extend Thy protection and help unto our brothers who struggle in lands of darkness as victims of oppression and persecution. Fill the hearts of all men with a love of freedom and justice, that tyranny may vanish and the reign of righteousness be established everywhere on earth. Uphold also the hands of our brothers who toil to rebuild Zion. In their pilgrimage among the nations, Thy people have always turned in love to the land where Israel was born, where our prophets taught their imperishable message of justice and brotherhood, and where our psalmists sang their deathless songs of love for Thee and of Thy love for us and all humanity. Ever enshrined in the hearts of Israel was the hope that Zion might be restored, not for their own pride or vainglory, but as a living witness to the truth of they word which shall lead the nations to the reign of peace. Endue us who live in lands of freedom with a sense of Israel's spiritual unity that we may share joyously in the work of redemption.

Ernst Silberbock

With joy, O our God, we come before Thee in this gladsome season of the year, when nature sings Thy praise, when field and forest, hill and valley proclaim Thy goodness. Yet holier joy fills our hearts as we remember the day of Sinai, when Israel entered into covenant with Thee to become a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.

Through the ages Israel has been faithful to Thee. Israel found strength in trouble, light in darkness, hope in adversity, remembering Thy promise: I, the Lord, change not, and ye, O sons of Jacob, shall not be consumed. In the same faith we hold fast to Thy covenant and renew the vow of our fathers. Grant, O God, that this covenant may be forever sealed upon our hearts as a covenant of life and peace. May Thy spirit which rested upon our fathers and Thy word which Thou didst put into their mouths not depart from us. Grant that the truths revealed to Israel may become the possession of all men, and that the time be not distant when all the children of earth shall recognize Thee as their God and Father.

AMERICA

God built Him a continent of glory and filled it with treasures untold;
He carpeted it with soft-rolling prairies and columned it with thundering mountains;

He studded it with sweet-flowing fountains and traced it with long-winding streams;

He planted it with deep-shadowed forests, and filled them with song.

Then He called unto a thousand peoples and summoned the bravest among them.

They came from the ends of the earth, each bearing a gift and a hope.

The glow of adventure was in their eyes, and in their hearts the glory of hope.

And out of the bounty of earth and the labor of men,

Out of the longing of hearts and the prayer of souls,

Out of the memory of ages and hopes of the world,

God fashioned a nation in love, blessed it with a purpose sublime -

And called it AMERICA!

CLOSING PRAYER

O Lord, our God, as these sacred exercises draw to a close there is gratitude in our hearts for this hour's beauty and meaning. We have drawn close to Thee and we will carry that closeness throughout our lives.

We pray, O Lord, for the well-being of our parents. Grant them long life and happiness. May our lives reward them in some small measure for the unfailing love and the many sacrifices which they have bestowed upon us.

We pray, O Lord, for Thy continuing guidance. Guard us from whatever dangers may beset our way. Grant us strength, courageously to meet the challenges of life. Enlighten our understanding, that we do not stray from the right path. Grant us Thy protection and Thy blessing, that we may find happiness in our lives and through our lives bring credit to our parents, our faith, and to Thee. Amen.

(Choir sings "Amen.")

Let us, members of this class, rise together - (pause while class rises) - and in the presence of God and the Congregation of Israel, pronounce our Declaration of Faith.
